

ADVERTISEMENTS.

HUBBUCK'S PATENT WHITE ZINC PAINT.

The most durable and beautiful paint known, is cheaper than White Lead, and is proved to be superior for all purposes than the pernicious lead Paint and equally adapted in all climates. For the inside and outside of Houses, Ships, Lighthouses, Iron roofing and Bridges.

Its whiteness is unaffected by bilge water, boiling sugar, or noxious gases.

It is free from any poisonous ingredient, and suited in all respects to the use of the painter.

ADULTERATIONS.

Some Paint Grinders have been selling Zinc Paint adulterated with Sulphate of Barytes, in proportions varying from ten to thirty per cent. No workman can produce good work with such material. Those who have once used Patent White Zinc Paint will never willingly use any other Paint for their best work.

CHEAPNESS.

Two hundred-weight of this Paint, with six gallons of Oil, covers as much surface as three hundred-weight of White Lead and twelve gallons of Oil. It is cheaper in the first instance, as well as desirable in every respect.

Each Cask of Pure White Zinc is stamped "HUBBUCK, LONDON PATENT."

Inferior Zinc Paint, so marked, having been sold in foreign Markets, the Patentees offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS for information which will lead to the conviction, in an English or Colonial Court, of those who have pirated their Mark. Both Exporters and Retailers are liable for its sale.

THOMAS HUBBUCK & SON, WHITE LEAD, OIL, PAINT, AND VARNISH WORKS, 24, LIME STREET, LONDON.

"For public Schools, and all rooms occupied by children, there will now be no excuse for using poisonous paints. Parents have remarked that their children, on returning from the country to newly-painted houses, have suffered in health. The reason is evident; the breath extracts the poison from White Lead even after the paint is dry, and the lungs draw in the deadly vapour."

"Among other tests to which it has been subjected, has been that of painting the hold of a sugar vessel, which, after a voyage to St. Kitt's and back, was found after washing, to be as white as the first day the paint was applied."—John Bull, September 14th, 1850.

HUBBUCK'S ANTI-CORROSIVE PAINTS.

Are very durable, and the most valuable protection to Iron Roofs, Bridges, Piers, Ships and Buildings, exposed to stormy weather and scorching sun; they soon become extremely hard, and do not blister.

They are made of Stone, Slate, Copper, White, Blue, Green, or any other Color that is desired.

HUBBUCK'S ANTI-OXIDATION COMPOSITION,

For Coating Iron and Wood Ship's Bottoms; a preservative against fouling and corrosion. This Composition is ready for immediate use, and obviates the waste of carrying unmixed Paints, Oils, Driers, &c. It is also applicable to all the purposes of other Paints.

HUBBUCK'S PALE BOILED OIL.

Has less colour than Raw Linseed Oil, is a quick, hard and certain drier for White and Light Coloured Paints.

PAINTS AND OILS PROPERLY PACKED FOR EXPORTATION.

CHOLERA, DYSENTERY, DIARRHOEA, AGUE, FEVER, SPASMS, &c.

THE safest and best remedy is that marvellous remedy known as CHLORODYNE, which was discovered by Dr. J. Collis Browne, M.R.C.S.L. (Ex-Army Medical Staff), and the SECRET OF ITS RECIPE CONFIDED ONLY to J. T. DAVENPORT, pharmaceutical chemist, 33, Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury-square, who is the sole manufacturer. Medical testimony furnished by the highest authorities in Military, Naval, and Civil practice, and numerous gratifying statements from the public generally, establishes this property as invaluable. It relieves pain, soothes the system, inducing refreshing and soothing sleep without producing or leaving any unpleasant effects like opium, and may be taken at any time in a few drop doses.

Extracts from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"3rd Stage or Collapse—in all cases restoring the pulse. So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

From Dr. Andrew Smith, Director-General, Army Medical Department—"I have seen it used, and apparently with much advantage."

From W. Vesalius Pettigrew, M.D.—"I have no hesitation in stating that I have never met with any medicine so efficacious as an anti-spasmodic and sedative. I have used it in Consumption, Asthma, Diarrhoea, and other diseases, and am perfectly satisfied with the results."

From Dr. M'Millan, of New Galloway, Scotland—"I consider it the most valuable medicine known."

Dr. M'Grogan Croft, late Army Staff, says—"It is a most invaluable medicine."

Dr. Gibbon, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta—"Two doses completely cured me of Diarrhoea."

Sold only in bottles at 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d., by the sole Agent and Manufacturer, T. DAVENPORT, 33, Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury-square, London; and with Professional Testimonials enclosed. None genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" engraved on the wrapper of each bottle.

CAUTION.

CHLORODYNE.

IN CHANCERY.

Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne—That the statements of the Defendant Freeman were deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say that they had been sworn to. Eminent hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 13, 1864. The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

THE CALENDAR FOR 1865.

THE Time given in this Almanack is Bombay Civil Time, or that which a well-regulated Clock ought to show.

SUNRISE AND SUNSET.

The Time of Sunrise and Sunset shows the instant at which the upper limb of the Sun is on the visible horizon of Bombay.

MEAN TIME AT TRUE NOON.

The Mean Time of True Noon is the instant at which the centre of the Sun passes the meridian of Bombay.

MOON'S AGE.

The Time given as the Moon's Age is the interval which has elapsed at noon of each day, since the Sun and Moon were together in the same longitude.

RISING AND SETTING OF THE MOON.

During the first half of each lunation, the Time when the Moon sets at Bombay is given,—and during the second half, or after Full Moon, the Time when she rises. From this the duration of Moon-light at any time will be evident. When the risings or settings occur in the morning, it is indicated by the letter "M," as the afternoon is by "A"; and so also in the column of the Moon's Southing. The times are computed for the Moon's centre on the visible horizon of Bombay.

MOON'S SOUTHING.

The Moon's Southing is the mean time at which the Moon's centre passes the meridian of Bombay. From the "apparent time" of the Moon's meridian passage the Time of High Water is computed.

TIDES.

Attention having been called in former years to the want of accuracy in the Times of Tide published for Bombay, an attempt has been made to have them computed as correctly as is attainable in present circumstances from the information available. The Times of High Water in the Calendar are given as "approximate" only, but it is hoped they will be found practically nearly correct.

For the Times of High Water at other places along the coast, &c. the information given at pp. 32-33 may be referred to.

TWILIGHT.

The duration of Twilight and of Daybreak given this year show the Time within which the Sun's centre is not more than 9° below the horizon of Bombay. This may be termed the Civil Twilight to distinguish it from the Astronomical, which is of double the length.

RISING AND SETTING OF THE PLANETS.

The Times of Rising and Setting of the Planets show the instants at which the Planets are on the visible horizon.

ADJUSTMENT OF THE CALENDAR.

Julius Cæsar was the first to attempt to adjust the length of the year with any degree of accuracy, and fixed it at 365 days 6 hours, introducing a day every fourth year, (called Leap Year,) which accordingly consists of 366 days, while the three others have only 365 days each.

From him it was called the Julian Year, and it continued in general use till the year 1582, when Pope Gregory XIII. undertook to rectify the error, which then existed between the Julian year of 365½ days and the solar year of 365·24222013 days. At that time the difference amounted to ten days. He accordingly commanded the ten days between the 4th and 15th October in that year to be struck out, so that the 5th day was called the 15th. This alteration has been introduced throughout Europe, except in Russia and by the Greek church, and the year was afterwards called the Gregorian Year, or New Style.

In England the method of reckoning after the New Style was not admitted into the Calendar till the year 1752, when the error amounted to nearly 11 days, which were taken from the month of September, by calling the 3rd of that month the 14th, and it was settled by Act of Parliament (24 Geo. II. 1751) that the Years 1800, 1900, 2100, 2200, 2300, and every hundredth year of our Lord which shall happen in time to come, shall be computed as each consisting of 365 days only, excepting every fourth hundredth year, whereof the year 2000 should be the first.

By the same Act of Parliament the Legal beginning of the year was changed from the 25th of March to the 1st of January, so that the succeeding months of January, February, and March up to the 24th day, which by the Old Style would have been reckoned part of the year 1752, were accounted as the three first months of 1753, which is the reason we sometimes meet with such a date as—

that is, according to the Old Style it is 1774, according to the New [1775.

CHRONOLOGICAL CYCLES.

Golden Number.....	4	Dominical Letters.....	A.
Epoct.....	8	Roman Indiction.....	8
Solar Cycle.....	28	Julian Period.....	6578

The Solar Cycle, or Cycle of the Sun, is a period of 98 years, after which all the Dominical Letters return in the same order as they did during the 98 years before. The first year of the Christian Era was the 10th of this Cycle.

The Lunar Cycle, or Cycle of the Moon, commonly called the Golden Number, and sometimes the Metonic Cycle, (from Meton, an Athenian, who invented it about 432 years before the birth of Christ,) is a revolution of 19 years, in which time the conjunctions, oppositions, and other aspects of the Moon are within an hour and a half of being the same as they were on the same days of the months 19 years before. The prime, or Golden Number, is the number of years elapsed in this Cycle. Before the birth of Christ 2 years of this Cycle had elapsed.

The Roman Indiction is a period of 15 years, used by the Romans for the time of taxing their provinces. Three years of one of these Cycles had elapsed before the birth of Christ.

The Julian Period contains 7980 years and arises from multiplying together 28, 19, and 15, being the Cycles of the Sun, Moon, and Indiction. This was contrived by Joseph-Juste Scaliger in 1583, for Chronological purposes, and is assumed as a fixed era in calculations by all Astronomers and Chronologers throughout the Christian world. Its beginning is placed 710 years before the usual date of the creation of the world, or 4714 before the commencement of the Christian Era.

Explanation.—Look for the year in the first part of the table, and opposite it will be found the Domical letter. When there are two letters together, the first is for January and February, the second for the rest of the year. In a line with the month, in the second part of the table, find the domical letter of the year, and down the same column with the letter find the day of the week, then the figures on the left give the day of the month. Thus for the Sundays in September 1865. Opposite 1865 in the third column is A in the fifth. In a line with September find A and descend the column to "Sun."—On the left is 3, 10, 17, and 24, the required dates.

TIDE TABLE.

WHEN the times of High Water at one port are known those for a neighbouring place may be readily found approximately, by adding or subtracting the difference of the establishments of the two places. For the Coasts of Europe and America the establishment of almost every harbour is accurately known; but in the Indian Ocean this important element is only roughly fixed for a few of the ports on its shores and islands. For some places only a single observation exists, and that of unknown date, in others the authorities differ widely.

The following table is formed from such data as exist, and gives the constants to be added to or subtracted from the times of High Water at Bombay, according to the sign affixed to each, in order to find the time of High Water at the given place.

For example, the time of tide at Bankut on any day will be found by subtracting 40m. from the time of high water at Bombay on that day: thus,—on September 10th, the time of High Water at Bombay is 2h. 20m. P.M.; hence at Bankut it will be high water 40m. earlier,—or at 1h. 40m. P.M. So, for Damán, the table gives + 1h. 50m. and hence high water there on the 10th Sept. will occur at 2h. 20m., + 1h. 50m., that is at 4h. 10m. P. M. of that day.

CHRISTIAN FESTIVALS AND FASTS.

JANUARY.

1.—CIRCUMCISION.—This festival was originally called the Octave of Christmas, and the first mention found of it is in the year 487. It was instituted by the Church to commemorate the ceremony under the Jewish law to which Christ submitted, on the eighth day of the nativity.

6.—EPIPHANY.—The word EPIPHANY signifies appearance or apparition. This festival appears to have been first observed as a separate feast, in the year 813. From the circumstance of its being twelve days after Christmas, it is vulgarly called "Twelfth-day."

9.—PLOUGH MONDAY.—Is the first Monday after the Epiphany, and received this appellation from its having been fixed upon as the period when the early English returned to the duties of agriculture, after the festivities of Christmas.

FEBRUARY.

1.—PURIFICATION.—This day is kept in the Romish Church as a solemn festival, in memory of the purification of the Virgin Mary. The festival was originally called CANDELMAS DAY, as well as the Day of Purification. The practice of lighting the churches has been discontinued in England since the second year of Edward VI. In the Romish Church all its attendant ceremonies are still retained.

12.—SEPTUAGESIMA SUNDAY.—Is a Sunday dependent upon Lent, as that season is upon Easter. It is to be considered as the preparation for the fast of Lent. Its observation was instituted by Pope Gregory the Great. The name of the first Sunday in Lent having been distinguished by the appellation of Quadragesima, and the three weeks preceding having been appropriated to the gradual introduction of the Lent Fast, the three Sundays of these weeks were called by names significant of their situation: and reckoning by "decades" (tenths), the Sunday preceding Quadragesima received its present title of Quinquagesima, the second Sexagesima, and the third Septuagesima.

28.—SHROVE TUESDAY.—After the people had made the confession required at this season, by the discipline of the Romish Church, they were permitted to indulge in festive amusements, although not allowed to partake of any repast beyond the usual substitutes for flesh; and hence arose the custom, yet preserved, of eating pancakes and fritters at Shrove-tide.

MARCH.

1.—ST. DAVID'S DAY.—St. David, the patron saint of Welshmen, was Archbishop of Menevy. He was a man of considerable learning, and was reputed to possess the power of performing miracles. He died in 544, and was buried in the Church of St. Andrew, but his remains were afterwards removed to Glastonbury Abbey. On this day, Welshmen wear a leek in their hats, a practice supposed to have originated from their countrymen, in a great battle with the Saxons fought adjacent to a leek field, having adopted that vegetable as a military mark of distinction, by which they might distinguish each other from the enemy during the battle.

1.—ASH WEDNESDAY.—The early Christians did not commence their Lent until the Sunday now called the first in Lent. Pope Felix III., in the year 487, first added the four days preceding the old Lent Sunday to complete the number of fasting days to forty. Gregory the Great introduced the sprinkling of ashes on the first of the four additional days, which give it the names of DIES CINERUM, or Ash-Wednesday. At the Reformation, this practice was abolished.

5.—QUADRAGESIMA, OR FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT.—Ercombert, King of Kent, first appointed the fast of Lent in England, in the year 641. Succeeding generations marked the distinctions between the various foods. We find flesh to have been early prohibited during Lent, though Henry VIII. published a proclamation in 1543, allowing the use of white meats, which continued in force until by proclamations of James I. in 1619 and 1625, and by Charles I. in 1627 and 1631, flesh was again wholly forbidden.

8, 10 and 11.—EMBER-DAYS.—After the first Sunday in Lent, the Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday are Ember-days, and the week in which they occur, Ember-weeks.

primitive fashion under hot ashes; hence the name. The other Ember-days of the year are the Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays, after the Feast of Pentecost, Holyrood Day, (Sept. 14,) and St. Lucia's Day (Dec. 15).

17.—ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—A grand festival of the Church of Rome, and on which Irishmen consider it their duty to make themselves as happy as a Welshman does on the 1st of March. The Irish venerate St. Patrick as the introducer of Christianity into Ireland. He was a Scotchman by birth. The shamrock, (Trifolium repens) a species of three-leaved grass, is generally worn by the Irish on this day. The favour thus bestowed upon it is said to have arisen from the saint having used it as an instrument for explaining the doctrine of the Trinity.

26.—MID-LENT SUNDAY.—This day received its appellation because it is the middle Sunday between Quadragesima and Easter Sunday. It is by some called the "Mothering Sunday,"—a term expressive of the ancient usage of visiting the Mother or Cathedral Churches, of the several dioceses, when voluntary offerings were made, which are now called Easter offerings.

25.—THE ANNUNCIATION OF OUR LADY.—This day is more familiarly known in England as Lady-day. It is kept as a festival in the Romish Church, in commemoration of the Incarnation of Christ. In England it is one of the quarter-days on which rent and other dues become payable. The other quarter days are Midsummer-day (June 24), Michaelmas-day (September 29), and Christmas-day (Dec. 25).

APRIL.

9.—PALM SUNDAY.—Palm Sunday is the Sunday preceding Easter, or the last Sunday in Lent. The festival commemorates our Saviour's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, when branches of palms were spread before him.

14.—GOOD FRIDAY.—This day is held as a solemn fast, in remembrance of the Crucifixion. Its appellation of GOOD appears to be peculiar to the Church of England. Our Saxon forefathers termed it "Long Friday," from the length of the offices and fastings on that day.

16.—EASTER SUNDAY.—Is a moveable festival, held in commemoration of the Resurrection, and being the most important and most ancient in observance, it governs the whole of the other moveable feasts throughout the year. Nearly the whole of the moveable feasts and holidays of the Church are determined by Easter-day, which is itself moveable, according to the following canonical regulation ordained by the council of Nice (A.D. 325); viz. Easter Sunday always falls upon the first Sunday after the first full moon after the 21st day of March. If the first full moon happens on a Sunday, then the following Sunday is Easter Sunday. The moon on which Easter depends is called the Paschal moon, and the full moon is defined to be the 14th day of the moon, that is, 13 days after the preceding day of new moon. The first of the moveable feasts in the year dependent on Easter is Septuagesima Sunday, and it takes its place nine Sundays before Easter.

23.—LOW SUNDAY.—So termed from the Church service being somewhat abridged or lowered from that of the preceding Sunday.

28.—SAINT GEORGE.—Edward III., at the Battle of Calais, in the year 1349, joined to England's then supposed principal guardian St. Edward the Confessor, the name of St. George, both of whom he earnestly invoked to aid his arms. The next year the Order of the Garter was established, dedicated to St. George; and the saint himself has, from that period, been considered as patron of England.

MAY.

1.—MAY-DAY. It has been celebrated from the earliest ages, as a kind of nature's birthday: and notwithstanding the havoc which the march of knowledge has made with the customs of our forefathers, it is probable that in rural districts May-day will long continue its hold upon human affections. May-day can hardly be said to be known in great cities.

21.—ROGATION SUNDAY.—Rogation Sunday received and retains its title from the Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday immediately following it, which are called ROGATION DAYS, derived from the Latin "rogare," to beseech. The early Christians appropriated extraordinary prayers and supplications for those three days as a preparation for the devout observance of our Saviour's Ascension, on the day next succeeding to them, denominated "Holy Thursday," or Ascension Day. The whole week in which these days happen is styled Rogation-week; and in some parts it is still known by the other names of Crop-week, Grass-week, and Gang or Procession-week. The perambulations of parishes are made in this week.

25.—ASCENSION-DAY, OR HOLY-THURSDAY.—Is the day on which the Church celebrates the Ascension of our Saviour,—the fortieth day after his Resurrection from the dead.

JUNE.

4.—PENTECOST OR WHIT-SUNDAY.—The seventh Sunday after Easter-day. It was on the feast of Pentecost (a great feast of the Jews), that the Holy Ghost miraculously descended on the Apostles. This and the two following days comprise Whitsuntide; and in many parts of England it is a time for hiring servants. It is named WHIT, signifying "White" Sunday, because on this day the catechumens appeared in the ancient Church in white garments.

11.—TRINITY SUNDAY—Trinity Sunday is a festival observed by the Latin and Protestant Church on the Sunday next following Pentecost, or Whitsuntide,—of which, originally, it was merely an octave.

15.—CORPUS, CHRISTI.—A festival of the Romish Church, held on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday. It celebrates, as the name indicates, the doctrine of the transubstantiation, and is observed in Catholic countries with considerable ceremony.

24.—ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST.—The Nativity of St. John the Baptist: a holiday of the Church of England. The Eve of St. John, variously called Midsummer Eve, was formerly a time of high observance amongst the English, as it still is in Catholic countries. There was a custom of holding vigil in the church porch.

AUGUST.

1.—LAMMAS DAY, CALLED THE GULF OF AUGUST.—It is now only remarkable as a day of term for some purposes. It was probably one of the great festival days of our heathen ancestors, and occurs exactly three months after another of them—Beltane or May-day. Lammas seems to have been held as a day of thanksgiving for the new fruits of the earth.

SEPTEMBER.

29.—MICHAELMAS-DAY.—A festival of the Romish and English Churches, established 487, in honour of St. Michael and all the holy angels. St. Michael is singled out for peculiar mention as being the chief of the angels or archangels. It is an ancient and extensively prevalent custom to have a goose for dinner on Michaelmas-day, which seems to have arisen simply from the goose being at its best immediately after it has had the range of the reaped harvest fields.

NOVEMBER.

1.—ALL SAINTS.—All Saints, or All-Hallows, is a day of general commemoration of all those saints and martyrs in honour of whom, individually, no particular day has been expressly assigned.

11.—ST. MARTIN'S DAY, OR MARTINMAS.—Popularly this is one of the most remarkable days of the year, especially in Scotland, where Whitsuntide and Martinmas are the two great terms for leases and engagements of servants, the latter being that at which the occupation of farms usually commences. Martin is said to have been born in Lower Hungary, about 316, and to have originally been a soldier. When, as often happens, a few fine days occur about this time of the year, they are called St. Martin's summer. Formerly this was also a quarterly term day in England.

30.—ST. ANDREW'S DAY.—St. Andrew was one of the Apostles. His history, as related by the Catholic writers, represents him as martyred in the year 66, at Patræ in Greece, upon a cross of the form of the letter X, which accordingly is still recognised as St. Andrew's Cross.

DECEMBER.

8.—ADVENT [literally "the-coming"].—A term applied from an early period of ecclesiastical history to the four weeks preceding Christmas, which was observed with penance and devotion in reference to the approaching birth of Christ. There are four Sundays in Advent, the first of which is always the nearest Sunday to St. Andrew's Day (November 30).

25.—CHRISTMAS-DAY.—Observed as the nativity of our Lord. In England, Christmas-day is kept by the Church as a solemn festival, and is distinguished by the complete cessation of business—an honour paid to no other day besides Sunday and Good Friday. In many country places the celebration of Christmas begins the latter part of the previous day—Christmas Eve.

INTRODUCTION.

IN the following Calendar the Christian months indicated at the top of each page divide the Native months as they appear represented in the space below allotted to their names. January, for example, partakes of the Hindu months (Maru, Gujarat, Dakhan, and Konkan) Paush and Magh:—the Malabar, Dhanuh and Magaram:—the Parsi months (Rasami) Tir and Amardad; (Kadimi) Amardad and Sharivar; and the date of the Naoroz 130 to 160;—the Muhammadan months Shaban and Ramadhan:—and the Jewish months Tebet and Shebat.

In the respective columns 1st of January corresponds with the 4th of Paush vad (Maru, Gujarat, Dakhan, and Konkan), the 20th of Dhanuh (Malabar), the 11th of Tir (Rasami), the 11th of Amardad (Kadimi), or the 131st day of Naoroz, the 3rd of Shaban (Muhammadan), and the 3rd of Tebet (Jewish); and so on throughout the year.

HINDUS.

The Luni-solar year is used for the regulation of festivals and domestic arrangements; it commences at the instant of conjunction of the Sun and Moon in the Sidereal month Chaitra. The Hindu Lunar months invariably consist of 30 Tithis, or Lunar days: and the whole month is divided into two equal parts of 15 Tithis each, the one called Shukla Paksh or Shudh—the bright half or increase of the Moon, the other the Krishna Paksh, or Vadi—the dark half or decrease of the Moon. The Lunar month begins on the Western side of India and South of the Narmada river, with the first day of the Shukla Paksh (Shudh Pratipada), or bright half of the Moon. At Benares, Ujjain, and the countries North of the Narmada, the Lunar month begins with the first Lunar day of the preceding Krishna Paksh (Vadi Pratipada) or dark half of the Moon. The former is designated the Shukladi mode of reckoning; and the latter the Krishnadi. The Lunar year begins both North and South of the Narmada with the first day of the Shukla Paksh, or bright half of the Moon in Chaitra; but as the dark half of the Moon precedes the other, or Shukla Paksh at Benares, the half Lunar month of Chaitra is taken from the last Lunar month of the year preceding, and considered to belong to it; so that the difference between the Shukladi and Krishnadi reckonings affects the months only, and not the commencement of the year. The Lunar months are named after the Solar month in which the conjunction occurs, so that when two new Moons fall within one solar month, the name of the corresponding Lunar month is repeated, and the year is intercalary containing 13 months; thus Shravan was repeated in 1863, and Asarh will be intercalated in 1866. The ordinary month is called nija, and the additional one, which according to the Surya Siddhanta, falls in the middle of the 60 days, adhika. The Tamil account makes the first month of the two the adhika month. Such feasts as occur are confined to the nija or proper month. Once in about 160 years no new Moon occurs in some one of the last six months, which, from the Earth's being in perihelion, contain only 29 and 30 days each. When this occurs the name of that month is omitted, but two others always happen to be repeated in such years. Thus in 1822-3 or 4924 K. Y. Margashirsh (Dec.) was expunged, but Ashwin and Chaitra were intercalated. The ordinary year is called Samvat-sara, the common intercalary year Adhika-samvat-sara; and the double intercalary with the expunged month, Kshaya-samvat-sara.

While the Lunar month invariably consists of 30 Tithis or Lunar days,—in order to regulate the Feasts and Festivals, certain Lunar days are dropped and others are reckoned twice to make up the deficiency; the first of these are termed Kshaya Tithis (perishable days), and the days repeated twice are called Virdh Tithis (additional days). The rule of these is exceedingly simple;—those Lunar days on which the sun does not rise (Suryodaya nahin) are struck out; those in which it rises twice are Virdh, or additional; and since, according to the Hindus, the Tithi is 22m. 31⁹s. less than the mean solar day, it is obvious such circumstances will occur about once in 64 days, or six times in the course of the Lunar year.

The Tithis of each half month are named after the moon's age, as follows,—

1 Prathamī or Pratipada.	6 Shasthi.	11 Ekadasi.
2 Dwitīya.	7 Saptamī.	12 Duadasi.
3 Tritīya.	8 Ashtamī.	13 Triadasi.
4 Chaturthī.	9 Navamī.	14 Chaturdasi.
5 Panchamī.	10 Dasamī.

The 15th from Shukla Pratapadi is Purnima, or Full Moon; and the 15th from Krishna Pratipada is Amavasya or New Moon.

The Hindu Zodiac is divided into twenty-seven Lunar Mansions or Nakshatras of 13°20' each, probably originating in the revolution of the moon being performed in little more than 27 days. Their names are:—

1 Aswini	11 Purva Phalguni.	20 Purva Asharha.
2 Bharani or Antakam.	12 Uttara Phalguni.	(Abhijit, afterwards struck out)
3 Kritika or Agniya.	13 Hasta, or Arka.	21 Uttara Asharha.
4 Rohini or Brahman.	14 Chaitra.	22 Sravana.
5 Mrigashirsh.	15 Swati.	23 Sravishtha.
6 Ardra, or Raudra.	16 Valsakha.	24 Satabhishta.
7 Punarvasa, or Aditya.	17 Anuradha.	25 P. Bhadrapada.
8 Pushya, or Tishiya.	18 Jyeshtha.	26 U Bhadrapada.
9 Ashleha or Sarpan.	19 Neriti or Mula.	27 Revati or Paushtna.
10 Magha or Pitriyam.

The Hindu sidereal year, according to the Surya Siddhanta, is 365d. 6h. 12m. 36⁵s., or 1·000045286 Solar years, and is measured by the return of the sun to the same point in the Zodiac, the beginning of the sign Mesha. Each month contains as many days as the Sun continues in each sign; the civil only differing from the astronomical reckoning in rejecting fractions of a day. The civil year and month begin at sunrise instead of the instant of the sun's entrance into the respective signs. If the fractions exceed half a day, the civil year or month begins with the sunrise following. The months vary in length with the sun's angular motion. The following are the signs of the Zodiac with the months and the corresponding astronomical periods:—

The Hindus have several Eras:—The Kaliyug commences from the factitious Era 18th Feb. 3102 B.C. The Era of Vikramaditya, so named from a sovereign of Malwa who defeated Soka, King of Delhi, and got possession of the chief throne of Hindustan, is reckoned from 57 B.C.; the years of this Era are luni-solar and are called Samvat. The Era of Salivahna dates from the 14th March A.D. 78. Julian reckoning, the first year being reckoned 0, or the date indicating always the year complete; it is the most prevalent in the South of Hindustan as that of Vikramaditya is in the North and in Gujarat. The years of it are sidereal and are termed Saka.

The Vrihaspati Chakra, or Cycle of Jupiter, is employed for little else than giving the name to the year. The Cycle consists of 60 years, and according to the Surya Siddhanta, the Chakra year is to the Sidereal year as 18000 to 18211, so that to keep the Cycle in accordance with the planet's motion one year has to be expunged every 85 or 86 years. According to the Jyotistava rule the expunged year falls 18 years earlier than according to the Surya Siddhanta computation used in Bengal. The Telinga method, followed in the peninsula and in Thibet, identifies the Vrihaspati year with the Chandra-mana or luni-solar account. This last directs to divide the expired years of the Kali-yug by 60 and the remainder is the year of the Cycle, to be reckoned from Pramathi the 18th of the Chakra. Thus for the year 4966 K. Y. $4966 \div 60 = 82$ Cycles 46 years, or Khrodhana the 59th will be the year sought.

The names of the Sixty Sanvatsars or years of the Vrihaspati-chakra are as follows:—

1 Prabhava	16 Chitrabanu	31 Hémalamba	46 Paridhavi
2 Vibhava	17 Subhanu	32 Vilamba	47 Pramadi
3 Shukla	18 Tarana	33 Vikari	48 Ananda
4 Pramodha	19 Parthiva	34 Sharvari	49 Rakshasa
5 Prajapati	20 Vyayava	35 Plava	50 Anala

The Era of Parasurama is used in Malāyala, or from Mangalur to Cape Comorin. It derives its name from a prince who is said to have reigned 1176 B.C. The epoch is 7th August 3537 Jul. Per. or 1925 K. Y. It is reckoned in cycles of 1000 sidereal years, commencing when the Sun enters Kanya (Virgo) answering to the month Aswin. The Fourth Cycle of this era began 15th September 1825, but the commencement of the new era having been overlooked and the following year dated 1001, the error has been perpetuated, and the year beginning 15th September 1864 instead of being dated the 40th of the fourth cycle, is thus dated 1040.

MUHAMMADAN.

The Muhammadans reckon from the Hijra or era of the Flight, which took place on the evening of Thursday the 15th July A. D. 622 (15 Thamuz 933 A. S.) from which the Hissabi or Astronomical reckoning commences, but in the Helali, or chronological reckoning, Friday the 16th July is made the initial date. This era was introduced by the Khalif U'mar. The year is purely lunar, consisting of months of 30 and 29 days alternately, and adding a day eleven times in a cycle of 30 years, namely to the 2nd, 5th, 7th, 10th, 13th, 16th, 18th, 21st, 24th, 26th, and 29th in the cycle.*

The Lunar year is 354d. 8h. 48-57m.; and a year of the Hijra is 354d. 8h. 48m. The small error thus arising will not amount to a day in less than 2300 years. Hence a year of the Hijra = 0.970223 Gregorian year; and a Gregorian year = 1.03069 year of the Hijra; and thus 32 Gregorian years are about equal to 33 years of the Hijra, or, more nearly, 163 years of the former are within less than a day of 168 Muhammadan years.

It is obvious that in such a system every year will begin 10 or 11 days earlier in the season than the preceding, and in the course of 83 years the commencement of the Muhammadan year runs through the whole course of the seasons.

THE MUHAMMADAN MONTHS.

1 Muharram.....	30d.	7 Rajab.....	30d.
2 Safar.....	29d.	8 Shaban.....	29d.
3 Rabiul' awwal, or Rabiul' I.....	30d.	9 Ramadhan.....	30d.
4 Rabiul' akhir, or Rabiul' sani, or II. .	29d.	10 Shawwal.....	29d.
5 Jumadil' awwal, or Jumad I.....	30d.	11 Dzu'l kadah.....	30d.
6 Jumadil' akhir, or Jumad II.....	29d.	12 Dzu'l hijjah.....	29d. & in leap years 30d.

The first day of the Muharram, or the commencement of the year, is ordinarily reckoned from the first observed appearance of the new Moon, or, in cloudy weather from the time at which it would be visible; and this can scarcely happen earlier than 24 or later than 48 hours after the conjunction. In this manner each separate month is reckoned, and as a few cloudy days may thus retard its commencement, two parts of the same country may sometimes differ a day in their reckoning. But in chronology, history and documents they use months of 30 and 29 days alternately, as just described.

	Indian.	Persian.	Arabic.	Turkish.
Su.	Itwar or Etwar.	Yekshamba.	Yaumu'l Ahadl.	Bazar-guni.
Mon.	Pir or Sombar.	Do-shamba.	Isnin or Kena.	Bazar-artasi.
Tues.	Mangal.	Si-shamba.	Salasa or Tutta.	Sali.
Wed.	Budh.	Charshamba.	Arba	Charshamba.
Thur.	Jumarat.	Panjshamba.	Khamis or Hamsa.	Panj shamba.
Fri.	Juma.	Juma or Adina.	Juma.	Jum i.
Sat.	Sanichar.	Shamba or Hafta.	Sabat.	Jum i-artasi.

We may find the Christian date from that of the Hijra thus:—Divide the number of years elapsed by 30, and the quotient A will be the number of cycles elapsed, and the remainder B the number of years in the current cycle. Let E be the number of intercalary years in B and D the days elapsed of the given year. Then the number of days that have elapsed from the Christian era is,—

$$227016 + 10631A + 354B + D + E; \text{ and } E = \frac{11B + 14}{30}.$$

Divide the sum by 1461 and call the quotient Q; and divide the remainder by 365, and call the quotient R, and the last remainder S. Then the years elapsed from 1st Jan. A. D. 1 is:—

and S is the days elapsed of the current year, Old Style. To reduce to New Style add as follows:

For any date of New Style antecedent to Mar. 1, A. D. 1700...10 days.
After Feb. 28, 1700 and before March 1	1800 11 "

* Jervis gives the 8th, 16th, 19th, and 27th as intercalary, instead of the 7th, 17th, 18th and 26th, but mentions the usual list also. Ulug Beg mentions the 16th as a leap year.

This may be facilitated by the following Tables:—

A	Days.	B'	Days.	D	$\frac{a}{b}$	Q	Days.	Month.	Days.
1	10631	29	10277	Muharram.	0	1	1461	Jan. 1	0

5	53155	18	6379	Jumad I.	118	5	7305	May. 1	120
6	63786	15	5316	Jumad II.	148	6	8766	June. 1	151

9	95679	7	2481	Ramadhan	236	9	13149	Sept. 1	243
10	106310	5	1772	Shawwal.	266	R	0 or 1*	Oct. 1	273
20	212620	B-B'	709	Dzu'l Kudah	295	0	866	Nov. 1	304
30	318930	2	708	Dzu'l Hijjah	325	1	731	Dec. 1	334
40	425240	1	354			2	1096

Thus: to find the date A. D. corresponding to the 17th of Rabi'u'l-akhir A. H. 1281.

Dividing 1280, the years elapsed by 30, we have A.=42 and B.=20.

For A = 40 227,016
 For A = 42 425,240
 B' = 2 21,262
 B' = 18 6,379
 B-B' = 2 708
 To 1st Rabi' II. 89
 17th Rabi' II. 17

Sum of days,..... 680,711

Then subtract from..... 680,711
 For Q = 400 584,400

= 60 96,311

= 5 8,651

= 5 7,305

∴ Q = 465. 1,346
 For R = 3 subtract..... 1,096

To Sept. 1 250

Old style, September 243

Hence, since Q = 465 and R = 3, the date is $4 \times 465 + 3 = 1863$ complete, or 1864 current; and to 7th September O. S., adding 12, we have the 19th September 1864.

To find the day of the week answering to any day of the Muhammadan year. Divide the year by 210 and the remainder by 30, and with the last remainder on the left hand and the last quotient at the top of the following table, the day of the week on which the year begins will be found at the intersection of the line and column. The calendar following will show the day of the week answering to any day of the year and vice versa. Thus to find the day of the week corresponding to 1st Ramadhan 1281:— $1281 \div 210$ gives 61, as a remainder, and $61 \div 30 = 2$ and 1 over. Then, in a line with 1 on the left hand and in the column marked 2 at the top we find 'Monday' for the first day of A. H. 1281; and by the calendar, in the 2nd column, (which begins with Monday) and in a line with 1st Ramadhan we find "Saturday"—the day of the week required.

Derived from the Muhammadan era, there are several others more or less in use. Akbar introduced a Fasli, or "harvest" year for the regulation of financial and other civil transactions, and adjusted its epoch to the year of his accession A. H. 963, which began 26th November 1555 N. S. The Fasli year 963 of Upper Hindustan was accordingly reckoned from the beginning of the Samvat year on the first of the lunar month Aswin, or 10th September 1555. The Vilayati year, introduced into Orissa, was made to coincide with the Saka Solar year and to begin with the Solar month Aswin, or 8th September 1555. The San-i-Bengali year 963 was likewise reckoned from 1st Bysakh or 11th April 1556.

The Fasli Era of the Dakhan was introduced by Shah Jehan in 1638, A. H. 1048. It begins in July and ought to be sidereal. At Madras however the Government fixed its commencement to 12th July.

The Shahur* Era of Maharashtra is said to have been introduced on Thursday 6th June 1842 with the year 743 A. H. Jervia, however, found its epoch to agree with the commencement of the year A. H. 745. It begins in June at the Sun's entrance into the lunar mansion Mrigasiras. The years are denominated after the corresponding Arabic numerals:—

1 Ahadi,	10 Ashar,	100 Mayat, or Maya,
2 Isni,	11 Ishrin,	200 Miatin,
3 Salas,	20 Salatin,	300 Sula mayat,
4 Arba,	40 Arbain,	400 Arba mayat,
5 Khams,	50 Khamsin,	1000 Alf,
6 Sita,	60 Sitain,	1100 Mayat-o-alf,
7 Saba,	70 Saba-in,	1200 Miatin-o-alf,
8 Samanl,	80 Samanin,	1265 Sita-sitain iniatin-o-alf.
9 Tisa,	90 Tisa-in,	(A.D. 1865.)

The names are corrupted in the native pronunciation. To reduce Shahur dates to Christian 599/421 years must be added.

PARSIS.

The ancient Persians reckoned a new era from the accession of each successive monarch, and as Yazdijird had no successor, the date of his accession to the throne, 16th June A.D. 632, has been brought down to the present time, thus making their current year 1284-85. In their calculations only 365 days are allowed to the year; leap year is unknown to them, though it is alleged that in every 120 years one month was added to make it correspond with the solar year. The year is divided into twelve months of thirty days each, and five days, or "Gathas," as they are called, are added at the end to make up the deficiency. The months are,—

1 Farvardin.	4 Tir.	7 Meher.	10 Deh.
2 Ardibeisht.	5 Amardad.	8 Aban.	11 Bahman.
3 Khurdad.	6 Sharivar.	9 Adar.	12 Asfandiyar.

Gathas 5 days.

* From shahur, plural of Arab shahr, 'month'; it means literally the 'year of months.' See Jervia on Weights, Measures, &c. p. 135, &c.

The Parsis do not now divide their time into weeks, but name the 30 days of their months each after a celestial being—7 Amshaspands and 23 Izads—supposed to preside over them : these are as follows :—

GUJARATI.		PEHLVI.		GUJARATI.		PEHLVI.

The 1st, 8th, 15th and 23rd days are sacred to Hormazd, and thus afford evidence of an older division into weeks.

The Parsis of India are divided into two sects,—the “Shahanshahis” or “Rasamis,” and the “Kadimis” or “Churigarians,” the former of whom constitute the larger portion of the race. This division originated about a hundred and fifty years ago when a Persian priest, named Jamasp, arrived in India, and found that his co-religionists differed from their brethren of Iran in their calculation of time by a full month, and in other minor points relating to their “liturgy.” Serious disputes arose in consequence, which ended in the formation of the two sects,—the Rasamis adhering to their own views, and the Kadimis adopting the opinions imported by Jamasp—and thus agreeing with their Persian brethren. The difference lies in their computation of time, and in some slight variations in the forms of prayer. Those that begin their year a month earlier are styled Kadimis, and the rest Rasamis i. e. ‘customary,’ and Shaharsai, for which some one proposed to substitute Shahanshahi (‘of the king of kings’), and this absurd change has ever since been adopted.* The Kadimi Parsi Era of Yezdjird, or Dureay; Naoroz, or sea-reckoning is made use of in nautical calculations among Asiatic mariners, and the New Year always commences on the 1st of Farvardin, which falls about the 25th of August, one month earlier than the commencement of the Rasami New Year. With the Rasami Parsis the New Year begins on the 1st day of Farvardin, which at present falls about the 24th of September, a month later than the commencement of the Kadimi New Year.

About A.D. 1075 Jelealeddin Malikshah, finding that the commencement of this year in Persia had anticipated the epoch by 112 days ordered that, in future, the Persian year should receive an additional day whenever it should be necessary to postpone the commencement of the following year, in order that it might occur on the day of the sun’s passing the same point of the ecliptic. U’mar Cheyam, one of the Astronomers appointed by him to construct a calendar, is said to have discovered that 8 intercalations in 33 years very nearly adjusts the Calendar, giving the length of the year 365d. 5h. 49m. 5·65s. Scaliger and others say this was the period actually adopted, though Delambre shows that the Persian intercalation combines the two periods of 29 years with 7 intercalations and of 33 years with 8 intercalations.

JEWES.

The Jews have ever marked their time by sevenths, according to the command given by God for labouring during only six days of each week, and resting on the seventh, which was consequently set apart, or consecrated, to the service of the Creator. They not only hallowed the seventh day, or Sabbath, which formed a portion of their week of days, but they had, also, their week of years, which consisted of seven years, and their jubilees, or rejoicing periods, at the end of every seven times seven years, which were celebrated by acts of justice, forgiveness, and restitution. The Hebrews, Assyrians, Egyptians, Arabians, and most other ancient nations reckoned by weeks.

The modern Jews name the days of the week thus :—

Sunday	Yom Russian, rishan, or oohad.	Thursday	Yom Chamashl.
Monday	Yom Shani.	Friday	Yom Shlishl.
Tuesday	Yom Shalishl.	Saturday	Yom Shavil, or Sabbath.
Wednesday	Yom Rabbil, or ravil.

* Jour. Royal Asiatic Society No. viii.

Since the 15th century the Jews date their years from the creation which they reckon to have occurred 7th Oct. 3761 B.C. The year is luni-solar, and consists of twelve months, each of which has 29 or 30 days. To regulate the commencement of their years and their festival days, they first employed a cycle of 84 years, but about A. D. 860 they changed this for the Metonic cycle which was then adopted by the authority of Rabbi Hillel, prince of the Sanhedrim. The 3rd, 6th, 8th, 11th, 14th, 17th, and 19th in the cycle of 19 years is embolismic, having an additional 6th month—Ve-adar, which is introduced that Passover, the 15th of Nisan, may occur at its proper season, which is the full moon of the Vernal equinox. The ordinary years now consist of 353, 354 or 355 days, and the embolismic of 383, 384, or 385, in order that certain festivals may fall on proper days of the week for their observance.

The Calendar is constructed by assuming a mean lunation to be 29d. 12h. 44m. 8.33s., and that the year commences at the new moon following the autumnal equinox. The cycle of 19 mean solar years is also assumed to be exactly 235 lunations or 6939d. 16h. 33m. 3.3s., so that the length of the solar year is reckoned at 365d. 5h. 55m. 25.44 sec., and thus the commencement will advance from the equinox a day in 218 years.

To avoid certain festivals falling on incompatible days of the week, the new year must begin on the following day if the conjunction happen on a Sunday, Wednesday, or Friday. When the new moon happens after noon the year begins next day, unless that be one of the days just mentioned, when it must be postponed a day more. If in an ordinary year the new moon falls on a Tuesday as late as 9h. 11m. 20s. A. M., the new year is postponed till Thursday; if in a year following an embolismic year the conjunction is on Monday, as late as 3h. 30m. 52s. P. M., the new year is fixed on Tuesday.

The 27th cycle began 1st October, 1864, at 8h. 15m. 46.4s. A. M., Gr. M. T., and consequently the 1st cycle began B.C. 3761, October 7th at 5h. 11m. 33s. A. M.

Table of the Correspondence of Indian Eras with the Christian years till the end of the XIXth Century.

For the Bengali San, subtract 515 from the Saka date or 8694 from the Kallyug (Sidercal) date; it begins on the same day. For the Fasil year of Upper India, subtract 649 from the Samvat date; it begins on the 1st of the lunar month Ashwin. For the Buddhist era of India, Ceylon, Ava, &c., add 486 to the Samvat date, and for the vulgar era of Burmah and Aracan, subtract 695; these are also luni-solar, and though the Nirvana of Budha is dated on the full moon of Vaisakh, or 1st April B. C. 543, they commence on the same day as the Hindu year.

We have endeavoured to discriminate the Feasts and Festivals of each nation by different sorts of type; the Hindú, for example, we have distinguished by Roman small letters, as Pash Shud; the Malabar and Jewish by Roman capitals, as MAGARIM; the Parsi by small capitals as AMARDAT; and the Muhammadan by Italic small letters, as Muharram

NATIVE FESTIVALS, FASTS, AND OBSERVANCES.

HINDU.

THE Hindú festivals are so numerous, and the observances of them are so intricate, that it is often bewildering to endeavour to describe them. The writers of the Hindú legends have set such enormous merit on the observances of each of them, as to surpass all human comprehension, and unhesitatingly say that those observances themselves will secure heaven.

MAKAR SANKRANTI.—(On this day (15th Paush shud) the sun enters the sign of "Makar,"—a monster having the head and forelegs of an antelope, and the body and tail of a fish—corresponding to Capricorn. Great rejoicings are held among the Hindús, but particularly among the Brahmans, on the feast of Makar Sankrant. From this day when the sun reaches the most southern, till the time of his arriving at the most northern point of the Zodiac, is called Uttaráyana, and the time from his leaving the northern sign "Karkata" or Cancer, till he again returns to Makar is called Dakshinayanam. The days of Uttaráyana are reckoned lucky, and those of Dakshinayanam unlucky. During the days of Dakshinayanam, it is said, the gates of heaven are shut, and in the Uttaráyana they are open. For men to die in the Uttaráyana is considered more blessed, because they are said to get immediate entrance into heaven; but if the good die in the Dakshinayanam they have to wait outside the gates till the Uttaráyana sets in. In Uttaráyana, Múny—the ceremony of investing youths with the sacred cord—and marriages are celebrated. On the day of Makar Sankrant, just at the time of the sun's entrance into the sign, the Hindús go to the sea, accompanied by a Brahman priest, to bathe. there they rub their bodies with tila or sesamum seed, the favourite grain of the sun, and wash themselves in the manner prescribed in the Shastra. The Brahman then repeats certain incantations suited to the occasion, and closes the ceremony by receiving adoration, and a present of money for himself. On their return home they invite Brahmans, present them with a cup of bell-metal, filled with tila seed and with money, according to the ability of the Yajaman or worshipper; some present copper pots, new dhotars, umbrellas, &c., and the whole family receives benediction from them, which is done by the Brahmans repeating certain words and throwing on their heads a few grains of red coloured rice. After the performance of this ceremony they go to take their meals, which consist of sweetmeats. They invite their friends and relations to dinner; and towards evening they wear new clothes, gold, and other ornaments, and frequent the houses of their friends and relations, distributing tila seed mixed with sugar. At the time of putting the tila into the parties' hands, they repeat these words: "Receive these tila seeds mixed with sugar and be friendly with me throughout the year." All the praise and prayers offered this day are to the Sun, and to no other god. The second day of Sankrant is named Kar, and is generally celebrated by the women, making small presents among those of their own sex.—Vide 11th January.

WASANT PANCHMI seems to have been instituted in honour of the Spring, which season is personified under the name of Wasanta, who is fabled as attending on Kama the god of love.—Vide 31st January.

RATHASAPTAMI (from Ratha a car, and Saptami 7th day of the month) is the 7th of Magha, and is dedicated to the worship of the Sun. This day is the beginning of the Manwantaram or period embracing the reign of Manu, of which fourteen govern in succession, during each Kalpa or grand period of creation and destruction. The present age is the 7th Manwantaram of this Kalpa; and at the commencement of this period a new sun is supposed to have mounted his chariot.—Vide 2nd February.

SHIVARATRI.—A celebrated festival in honour of Shiva, held on the fourteenth of the Krishna paksh of Magha, during which the lingam or phallus is worshipped. Vad Chaturdasi, or the 29th of every month, is kept sacred by the votaries of Shiva; but Magh vad Chaturdasi has obtained the peculiar epithet of Maha Shiva Ratri or the great night of Shiva. The Hindu legends account for its celebrity among the rest of Shiva Ratri in the following manner:—In time immemorial an archer of wicked and licentious habits went into a forest on this day to shoot deer. He spent the day in the pursuit of the game, but, on a sudden, night came on, and he was left at the mercy of wild beasts. When he found himself in such a condition, he had recourse to a Bel or Vilva tree* to secure himself from their attack. Having got into the tree, by way of relaxation, or to get a clearer view, he broke off all the branches that hung around and above his head, and flung them down: the twigs fell on a lingam of Shiva near the foot of the tree, and Shiva was so pleased and satisfied by this accidental worship that he forthwith sent a Vaiman or heavenly chariot, and took the hunter into Kailas, his own abode, with acclamations of joy. To commemorate the entrance of this archer into Kailas, the Hindus observe a feast this day, and worship Shiva in hopes of obtaining a like reward. His votaries fast, and at night repair to the temples of Shiva accompanied by a Brahman priest, who performs pūja by repeating certain incantations; first he pours water over the Langa, and washes it, and then he decorates it with choice flowers. When this is done, the priest takes his sacred book, wherein Shiva's thousand different names are written, and reads the names: and the Yajaman,—the worshipper,—flings a leaf of the Bel over the top of the Lingam at each name. This kind of pūja is performed four different times, and thus no sleep is obtained for the whole night. This is styled the pūja of the four Praharas or watches. It commences at about eight P. M. and ends at five A. M. The pagodas of Shiva are thronged by devotees. Some persons engage twelve Brahmans, others four, &c., according to the abilities of the Yajaman to perform the pūja. The Brahmans must be liberally paid for their labours. On this day there is a fair at Elephanta.—Vide 24th February.

HOLI or HUTASHANI (SANSKRIT—HOLIKHA or PHALGOTSAVA.) This most popular festival, called also Dola or Dolavatra, or the swinging festival, is supposed by Sir W. Jones to relate to the vernal equinox, and to be similar to the Persian Naoroz. It commences fifteen days before the full moon of Phalgun on which the ceremonies are terminated, and is held in honour of Krishna's sportive swinging. It is kept as a complete saturnalia. Red powders are daubed upon the image of the god, and thrown and squirted by his worshippers on each other, while females are insulted by exclamations and jests of the most ribald and impure description, persons are sent on bootless errands, and the dance of drunken devotees in commemoration of Krishna dancing with the Gopis or female cowherds, crowns the scene. The wheaten cake, which is placed on the pile lighted in every village at the close of the festival, is called Poli, and the right of first offering it is considered as an honorary privilege. Neither the origin of this festival, nor the obscene manner in which it is observed in Western India can be described. Nor is the observation of it confined to the lower classes of the native community—the highest join in it with the same zest as the lowest. This festival nominally continues from the new to the full moon: but only a few of the last days are practically and openly devoted to it. From one of the names of the month in which it occurs it is often called Shingha.—Vide 9th–11th March.

THE HINDU NEW YEAR (the first day, called Guddi Padva, or 'the flying of paper-kites') is held on the new moon of Chaitra. On the morning of this day a Hindu first rubs oil on his body, and then bathes himself in warm water. A pole bearing a flag, and surmounted with a brass or copper vessel, is erected in front of the house. One such pole must be erected by each family to represent the banner of Indra, the king of the gods, which, on this day, is also said to be raised in honour of him by the gods. What is done on earth is therefore in imitation of what is imagined to take place in the heaven of Indra. The leaves of the bitter Nimb tree (Melia Azadirachta) are then to be eaten, which is supposed to secure health to the body, because this tree is the offspring of the ambrosia of the gods. The Almanack for the New Year is next to be worshipped, and its predictions in regard to the year just commencing are to be heard from the Jyotishis. They tell whether there is to be abundance or scarcity of rain, whether there will be unusual heat or cold, whether robberies, insurrections, &c., are to abound, whether unusual sickness is to prevail, &c. &c. Each individual on this day also learns what he is to expect during the year; whether health or sickness, prosperity or adversity, is to be his portion, &c. &c. All this important information is not, of course, to be obtained without compensation. And not only are presents to be given to the Jyotishis, but the poor people are taught on this day to extend their liberality also to the Gúris and Brahmans. The day is to be celebrated by fasting. This is considered an auspicious day for commencing a building, or engaging in any new undertaking.—Vide 28th March.

RAM NAVMI (from Ram the 7th incarnation of Vishnu, and Navmi, the 9th day of the month).—On this day it is said Ramchandra, the 7th incarnation of Vishnu, was born at "Ayodhya" or Oudh, about B.C. 1400. It is celebrated from the 1st of Chaitra Shuddh to the 9th. The object of the incarnation it is said was to effect the destruction of Ravan, the ten-headed tyrant of Lanka or Ceylon, which was at last done with the assistance of Hanúman, the chief of the monkey tribe. On the first day the temples of Rama are whitewashed and illuminated in the evening, and the image of

* The Agile Marmelos, a favourite tree of Shiva's, and which is held sacred among the Hindus.

Rama adorned with costly ornaments. In the evening the "Ramayana" or legendary history of Rama, is read in the temples, and in the night "Kirtan" is preached by the "Haridas," who describes the so-called morality and heroic actions of Rama. The red powder called gula (composed of barley meal or rice paste, or the trapa natans, dyed with bakam, sappan wood) is thrown about. Nâches are not omitted during the nights. In some temples Brahmans are fed with rich and substantial dinners for eight successive days; these days are called Rama navaratra, or nine nights of Rama. Many Hindûs, both males and females, go to the temples of Rama to hear the Kirtan and Pûranas. The last or principal day is Ramnavmî, when, it is said, Rama became incarnate at noon. In honour of this incarnation some Hindûs fast the whole day. They get up in the morning, wash themselves, and put on rich clothes and ornaments, and repair to the temples of Rama at about nine o'clock. Every temple of Rama is well furnished on this day, and the images are decorated with precious ornaments and rich brocade. A Haridas is engaged to describe the birth and circumstances that attended his incarnation. He continues his discourse till twelve o'clock, when he brings a small image of Rama, nicely ornamented and well clad, and shows it to his audience, and tells them that it is Rama who became incarnate; he then puts it into a small cradle prepared for the purpose. The assembly then throw themselves prostrate before the image and worship it. Great is the rejoicing and acclamation on this occasion; they fling gula on each other, and with great mirth at about one o'clock they go home, and again return to the temples in the evening. The feast of Ramnavmî is more particularly observed by the votaries of Vishnu.—Vide 4th April.

VATA SAVITHI (SAVITRI VRATA).—A fast observed by women who, on that day, worship the Indian fig tree, to preserve them from widowhood.—Vide 9th June.

ASHADI EKADASI is the eleventh of the light half of the month Ashad, and is dedicated to Vishnu. On this day, which refers to the summer solstice, commences the night of the god, during which the deity reposes for four months on the serpent Shesha.—Vide 4th July.

NAG PANCHAMI is sacred to certain demi-gods called Nagas, in the form of serpents, and is celebrated on the 5th of Shravan. Ceremonies are performed on this day to ensure protection against the bites of snakes. The serpent Kali, said to have been slain by Krishna, is worshipped at the festival.—Vide 27th July.

SHRAVAN OR (NARIYAL) PURNIMA.—On this day the rainy season is considered to be at an end, and coconuts are offered to the sea to gain its favour towards those who now begin to trust themselves to its mercy. It is held on the 15th Shravan Shukla.—Vide 6th August.

JANMA OR GOKUL ASHTAMI (from Janma birth, Ashtami 8th day of the month).—Instituted in commemoration of the birth of Krishna, which is said to have taken place at midnight in the city of Mathûra on the 8th of Shravan Krishna. Krishna was the eighth incarnation of Vishnu, in which, according to a large sect of Hindûs, was manifested a greater portion of divinity than in any of the preceding ones. His mother's uncle Kâns, king of Mathûra, who, it was predicted by Nârada, would be slain by one of his own family, endeavoured to ensure the destruction of the infant god, by placing guards over his pregnant niece Devaki; but the child was preserved from this and other attempts of his relations who had given directions for the slaughtering of all newly-born infants. This holiday is considered one of the greatest among the Hindûs, and is observed by almost all the community; there are two sects among the followers of Krishna, and they solemnise the feast on different days. Those belonging to the one keep the eighth day of the dark moon, and those belonging to the other, the day following—being the one on which he was removed to the house of Nanda the cowherd in Gokul or Vraja from fear of his maternal uncle, who sought his destruction; and some even keep both days. The former fast on the day of Janma Ashtami, and the latter on the day of Gokul Ashtami. Whichever day is kept, they fast the whole day, that is, abstain from their usual food, but they may eat Phalahar, consisting of fruits and certain kinds of grain—rice and other grain being prohibited on this day. At night they bathe, and worship an image of the infant Krishna, adorning it with tulsi, (Ocimum Sanctum), a favourite plant of Vishnu's, and with other flowers, in the manner enjoined in the Shastra; and at about ten or eleven p. m. they eat their food. Next day a Brahman is called in to perform the pûja, and afterwards he himself is worshipped, and sent away loaded with dakshina and other presents. The holiday is thus observed among the people of the higher castes. On the day of Gokul Ashtami, gaulis (or keepers of cattle) hold a great jubilee among themselves, as Krishna is said to have been bred up among their race. They join themselves into a company, and frequent the houses of the people who follow their profession, holding each other's hands, and dancing in the street, repeating the words, "Govinda. Govinda," when they are honoured either by throwing over them curds, or presenting them with curds. These people are called Gopals—protectors of cows. On the night of Janma Ashtami, crowds of people, generally of the lower ranks, flock to the temple of Kanhoba, which is commonly known by the name of Matth. There they hire native music and continue shouting and making a great noise. The Bhagat of Kanhoba, or the head of the temple, who is very often of the Shudra caste, and who is considered a supernatural being, at least at the time, with great solemnity and grave countenance, makes his way through the assembly accompanied by the playing of tom-toma, and acclamations of joy from his disciples, and standing before the shrine of Kanhoba, offers prayers to the idol which is richly decorated on the occasion. He is at first calm, but shortly affects to show signs of inspiration by the god. He begins to untie his shendi, or the tuft of hair on the crown of his head, and then slowly shakes his limbs. By degrees his whole frame quivers, and he throws his body into violent contortions, dancing and muttering strange ambiguous and wild sounds. He then takes his scourge, which is kept near the shrine, and scourges himself as if he were insane, and performs many other equally strange actions. No sooner does the assembly around see him thus, than believing that the spirit of the god has entered into him, they burn incense before him and fall prostrate, and pray to him to be merciful to them. When he has received divine homage, he quietly takes his seat, but does not cease quaking and trembling. His disciples, who are always near him, then commence one after another to shake themselves and dance in the same way, and the spirit of the god is believed to enter them also. This day the great Bhagat can create new disciples and give them the power of bringing the spirit of the god into their bodies. Sick persons, persons supposed to be possessed of devils, children, &c., are brought to the temple to receive the benediction of the Bhagat and his disciples; he rubs ashes on their foreheads, passes his hand over their heads, and gives them full assurance of speedy recovery from their sickness without taking any medicine. The poor patient, with full confidence, returns home, expecting the fulfilment of the Bhagat's promise. The Bhagat receives large presents on this occasion from his followers. He is held in great respect among the orthodox Hindus, and even among people of other tribes. On the following morning the Bhagat collects his disciples in front of the temple, and orders a sufficient quantity of curds to be thrown over their heads to wet their whole bodies; they then all begin to dance in company, holding each other's hands, and occasionally throwing themselves on the ground and besmearing their bodies with mud, shouting as loudly as they can. The Bhagat, in the mean time, with a scourge in his hand, and with all pretended dignity stands in the midst, and looking in all directions in feigned solemnity, he lifts up his scourge, and putting it round the neck of one of his disciples as a token of his regard, draws him towards himself, when the disciple trembles a little, and then stands still, stretching his hands towards the sky, with his eyes closed. No sooner does he do so than the Bhagat scourges him two or three times so adroitly that it gives him no pain, while to the eye of the spectators it appears a prodigy that he does not feel it. This is repeated with the whole body of his disciples, and when he ceases, sweetmeats are distributed among the disciples and to the spectators. This terminates the feast of Gokal Ashtami among the people of the Shudra caste.—Vide 14th August.

PETHURI or PRACHI AMAVASYA (Parchi eastern, and Amavasya, produced in the new moon) is a festival observed at the new moon of the month Shravan, at which the 64 Yoginis or female attendants of the goddess Durga are worshipped, particularly by women with the hope of obtaining issue. The 30th day of Shravan, or the last day of the dark half of the moon, is termed "Prachi Amas." Prachi is commonly known among the people of the Konkan and Dakhan by the name of Pethuri. Wealthy Banias and other people of Gujarat go to Valukeshwar, in Bombay, on the previous evening with their families to remain in the Dharamsala during the night, and next morning bathe in the tank called by the natives Ban-ganga, i.e. the Ganges produced by an arrow. They say when Rama visited this place and found that there was no pure water to drink, he pierced the ground with an arrow from his bow, and thus brought the Ganges into existence. On the margin of the tank they perform Shradhas or ceremonies for procuring the deliverance of their departed ancestors from the thralldom of Yama, the king of the infernal regions,—if they still remain at his court or in his dominions. They afterwards repair to the temple of Valukeshwar, and worship his image, and then take their meals. The remaining part of the day is spent in amusements but particularly in gambling. Booths are erected in the locality of the temple and furnished with all kinds of articles that please the fancy, or delight the taste. Many Hindus on this occasion squander hundreds of rupees in hiring vehicles, and buying toys and sweetmeats for their children. This holiday is not observed by the majority of the inhabitants of the Konkan and Dakhan. It is kept up chiefly by those women who lose their children in infancy. They fast on this day, and worship an image of Pethuri, adorning it with various kinds of fruits and flowers through the medium of a Brahman priest.—Vide 20th August.

GANESH CHATURTHI or CHIAUTH.—On this day was born Ganpati, or Ganesh, who is regarded as the god of wisdom who removes obstacles, and is invoked at the commencement of all undertakings. The manner of his birth is differently told; one story relates, that as the god Kartikvirya was created by Shiva without connubial assistance, in like manner Ganpati was formed by his consort Parvati from the turmeric and oil scraped from her body while bathing. The loss of his human head and the substitution of that of a female elephant with one tusk, is also variously explained. By some, his head is said to have been cut off by Shiva, when he endeavoured to prevent the god from entering the chamber of Parvati when performing her ablutions. According to others, it was reduced to ashes by a glance from the eyes of Shani, when all the gods went to look at the newly-born child, and its place supplied by that of the animal first found, which happened to be an elephant. Clay images of this deity are formed and after having been worshipped mostly for two days, or for nine or ten days, are thrown into the water. The Chinchore or Chinchwad (properly Deo) man-god who resides at the village of that name near Puna is supposed to be an incarnation of this god who granted to a holy Gosanvi or ascetic named Moroba, who lived in the time of Sivaji and had won his favour, that he would continue in human shape in his family for seven generations; and though Dharmadhar, the 7th in descent from Moroba, died without issue, the deceit is perpetuated by the Brahmans from self-interest.* It is commonly said among the Hindus, that the Shastra enjoins on its followers the worship of Mrittika (earth) in the following forms, three times a year. The first of them is Nagpanchmi, on which day a snake of clay is made and worshipped; the second is Gokul Ashtami, when a clay image of the infant Krishna is made and worshipped; and the third and last is Ganesh Chaturthi, on which day a clay image of Ganesh is worshipped. This being the last day of the worship of Mrittika, it is observed with greater pomp and more ceremonies, conviviality, and music, than the other two. The image worshipped on this occasion has four hands and an elephant's head. The mouse, being Ganpati's favourite vehicle, is sometimes placed beside his image, richly saddled and bridled. The image of Ganpati is either made in the house or purchased from an artist; it is gilt with the finest gold, and painted with superior and variegated colours; and much labour and ingenuity are bestowed on it by some to render it elegant and attractive, according to the taste and pecuniary means of the worshipper. The 4th of the month of Bhādrapad is the period appointed for the celebration of this feast in honour of his birth. On the previous day the worshipper cleans and whitewashes his house and furnishes it with all sorts of costly furniture that he can procure. The profusion of light is the first thing that would attract the eye. On the following morning, i. e. on the day of Ganesh Chaturthi, they bring the image home (if it is bought) with great display, accompanied by native music, and with all the honours of a god. A place where his godship is to be seated is prepared, either in the form of a covered shrine or open space, which is adorned with fruits and flowers strewed round it, and twigs of trees hung over it in clusters; after which commences the business of the officiating priest. He sits near the master of the house, and begins consecrating the idol by reciting incantations or mantras from his book and throwing over it red coloured rice; after performing many consecrative ceremonies, he pretends to bring the god into the image. Being installed, the devotee places before him Naivedya (food,) which consists of sweetmeats, and invokes the god to partake of the offering. Afterwards he falls before him, and prays him to be gracious to him and his family. By the generality of the people, Ganpati is kept one day and a half; but by some five or ten days according to the wealth and wish of the proprietor. A discourse is delivered in commemoration of his exploits by a Haridas in his presence, at which friends and relatives are invited to attend. A large party of Brahmans are entertained at a sumptuous dinner in honour of Ganesh and then dismissed with the usual dakshina. On the last day preparations for his departure are made. Evening is the time appointed for parting, when the master of the house performs Uttarpuja through the priest, who takes away the pretended divinity with which the image was invested, by repeating certain mantras; flowers, fruits and sweetmeats are offered to the idol; arti, that is, lighted wicks, are moved before him, accompanied with music and hymns; and he is invoked to bless the owner and his family and remove any calamity that may befall them throughout the year. Afterwards the Brahmans are presented with dakshina, and the image is seated in a palanquin, or in an ark expressly made for the purpose, adorned with fresh flowers, and carried to the sea or a tank in a procession which consists of the master of the house, his children, and relatives, attired for the occasion. When they reach the place, they take out the image and commit it to the water, with expressions of regret for its absence till next year. There is a legend, that one day, Ganpati while riding on his favourite Mouse had a fall, at which the Moon laughed. Enraged at such an insult the god of prudence cursed the moon and all who should look at her; but afterwards amended the matter by restricting any from looking at her on his birthday. Thus, on the day of Ganesh Chaturthi, the Hindús are prohibited by the Shastra from looking at the moon, and therefore they are afraid to look at it this evening, for fear of incurring any calamity during the year; and if by any accident they happen to see it, they try to provoke their neighbours to revile them and comfort themselves with the idea that the calamities incurred will be all comprehended in that abuse and removed by it.—Vide 25th August.

RISHI PANCHAMI.—The day following Ganesh Chaturthi is observed in honour of the seven Rishis or sages, who are supposed to be the seven bright stars in the Great Bear. It is especially observed by females who are strictly prohibited from eating anything but articles produced by manual labour.—Vide 26th August.

GAURI (Gauri a virgin).—One of the names of the goddess Parvati. This festival occurs two days after the last, or on the 7th Bhadrpad. Parvati the wife of Shiva is worshipped as a tender maiden. It is specially observed by females. Cakes are made in the shape of pebbles, and eaten at night. Servants keep it with songs which they rehearse at night two months before the holiday. It lasts for three days.—Vide 28th August.

WAMAN DUADASI.—(From Waman, a dwarf, Duudashi, 12th day of the Paksh)—Is a festival held on the 12th of Bhadrpad Shud in commemoration of the fifth incarnation of Vishnu, in the shape of a dwarf, to prevent Bali from obtaining dominion over the three worlds through the effects of his religious austerities. Bali promised the dwarf, at his own request, to grant him as much land as he could compass at three steps. On the ratification of this promise, the first two strides of the incarnate deity are said to have embraced the heaven and the earth: there being now no place for him to put down his foot for the third time, Bali magnanimously told him to put it on his head, which the dwarf having done, crushed him down to Patal, the dominion of which was conceded to the monarch.—Vide 2nd September.

ANANT CHATURDASHI.—Is kept on the 14th of Bhadrpad in honour of the god Anant. An Anant Dora, as it is called, made of gold lace and silk so formed as to be tied round the elbow, is bought and worshipped. It is not much observed.—Vide 4th September.

PITRA PAKSH.—(Pitra, paternal ancestors).—The Krishna Paksh of the lunar month Bhadrpad, or the last day of it, or new moon of Ashwin, is sacred to the Pitras, or progenitors of mankind, to whose heaven the souls of the deceased ascend after the celebration of funeral rites, which are considered particularly proper during this season. Offerings of fire and water are made to the manes.—Vide 17th September.

DASARA.—(Dashan, ten).—This festival is held on the 10th of Ashwin Shud. It is called Durga Puja or Durgaochhabaya, and is supposed to relate to the autumnal equinox. On this day, in commemoration of the victory of Devi the wife of Shiva, over the buffalo-headed demon Maheshasur.—her image, after having been worshipped for nine days, are thrown into the water. On this day also Rama marched against Ravana, the demon king of Ceylon, on which account the Marathas seem to have selected it as a proper period for commencing their plundering excursions. Early in the morning the Hindús having washed themselves perform the Puja of their household gods in conjunction with that of all their shastrical granths or religious books, Marathas and Kshetriyas, or those who consider themselves of the military race, worship the implements of war, and ask protection of them throughout the year, under a conception that to the propitiousness of the sword they owe every prosperity. At noon they take dinner in company with their relatives. In the afternoon they go to the temples in procession, with friends, relatives, and children. Mamadevi and Bhuleshwar are the principle scenes. Both of these places are thronged by Hindús, gearing each in his hand flowers and a branch of the Apta or Palas tree (Butea Frondosa), which is regarded as representing sona (gold), and is held highly sacred and indispensable in commemorating this day. On entering the temple they offer the sona and flowers to the image, accompanied with a prayer, they also give dakshina to the Brahmans. On returning home, they visit their friends and relatives, present them with a leaf or two of the imaginary gold, concluding with an embrace, and receive similar treatment in return. The vicinity or front of the temples are surrounded by the vendors of sona who range themselves with baskets full of branches in bundles. At night an illumination is made. This day is considered by the Hindús most auspicious for sending their children to school. The nine preceding days of the Dasara are called navratra, a compound word for nine nights. During these days, the devotees of Durga engage a Brahman to read hymns before her, in which her exploits are extolled and her rewards to her votaries described. On the ninth day, at every temple of Durga Havan or sacred fire is created, and fed with rice and clarified butter, and adored by repeating certain mantras. It is customary among the Bania women to keep up a dance during these nine nights, called Garba, which is accompanied with religious songs. The celebration of the Dasara is also said to owe its traditional origin to the Pandavas—the five sons of Pandú having selected this day, after completing their exile of twelve years, as an auspicious one for making preparations for the tremendous war with their paternal cousins the Kauravās, of which the Puranas give an account, occupying the whole volume. The Hindús decorate their horses with flowers this day, putting garlands of flowers round their necks. It is said that Parth, the most invincible of the five Pandavas, who had a peculiar fondness for horses and pre-eminent skill in the art of chariot-fighting, and from their being great auxiliaries in the matters of battle, washed his favourite milk-white horses, put garlands of flowers round their necks, and tapped them, with his own hand, in token of fondness and approbation. Owing to this legend it seems the decorating of horses with flowers on this day is observed.—Vide 30th September.

DEWALI (Dipa, a lamp, and Alí, a row) “the feast of lamps” is a festival on the new moon of Kartik, celebrated in honor of the goddess Kali, or Bhawālí, who was formerly propitiated by human sacrifices, and of Vishnu's victory over the demon Taraki. The festival, however, seems to be more peculiarly consecrated to Lakshmi, or the goddess of prosperity. The feast begins on the thirteenth day of Ashwin vād termed Dhanatrayodashi (from Dhan wealth, Tryodashi 13th,) and Sankars now count their stores and perform Puja to their wealth. It is celebrated for a period of five days, during which houses are cleaned, whitewashed, and illuminated; a quadrangular floor called Kangulí is made in front of the house, and painted with different coloured powders. Gambling is vigorously carried on and is the chief recreation of the feast. All the treasure in the house is collected and worshipped under the name of Lakshmi, the goddess of wealth; a light is made and dedicated to Yama, the god of the infernal regions, and every preparation made for the succeeding morning. Fire-works, crackers, spouters, &c., are displayed. The 14th is Narak Chatúrdashi, (Narak hell, chaturdashi, 14th.) On it Vishnu is fabled to have killed Narkasúr, a giant, and entered his city early in the morning, when the people illuminated the city and received him with great joy and acclamation; and the women having adorned themselves went before him with lighted lamps. The Hindús keep this day to commemorate this great conquest. They get up early in the morning, fill the house with lights, rub their bodies with perfumed ointment, and bathe themselves with hot water. No member of the family is left unbathed, new clothes and ornaments are put on, and the children are decorated. When this is done, the mistress of the house performs a sort of ceremony called Arti—placing wicks either in silver or brass dishes, symbolical of the removal of all their difficulties and of a happy year—when each male member makes her a present of money; sweetmeats are distributed and friends are invited to dinner. The 30th, Amávasya, or the last day of the moon, is the day of Sarasvatí, the goddess of learning, the same as Lakshmi, the goddess of wealth. It is known by the name of Vadhupujan, or the worship of the shops. This day the Vikramaditya Samvat year ends. All the merchants close their accounts this evening. New journals, ledgers and day-books are brought and worshipped through a Brahman priest; new entries are made in the account books; writers are sent to different shops with money to credit in their names on this auspicious evening: Sarasvatí is invoked to render the subsequent year prosperous, and to be with them throughout it; then the Brahmins are sufficiently paid for their labours, and the servants receive a present of money according to their rank. This day is celebrated by all classes of people—Banias, Parsis, Muhammadans, &c.—Vide 17th–19th October.

BALI PRATIPADA.—The first day of Kartik Shúdh is Baliraj, the day of king Bali. On it Bali was sent to Patal or the lower regions by Vishnu, for his great merit. The Hindús rise very early in the morning, prepare lights, clean their houses, wash their bodies, and fill a basket with all the rags and rubbish in the house, put a lighted lamp over it, and throw it outside of the house, repeating the words—“Let all misery and troubles go, and the kingdom of Bali come.” After ablution, the women make an image of Bali Raja and worship it, and presents are given to the Brahmins and other mendicants.—Vide 20th October.

BHAU BIJA.—The 2nd day of Kartik Shúdh is Yama Devitiya, which is commonly known by the name of Bhaubij. This day it is said Yama, the king of the infernal regions, went to his sister to dine, and to perpetuate the memory of this, the Hindús must go to their sisters' houses and take their meal with them, and make them a present of money or gold ornaments, and thus please the king who they imagine will save them from the punishment of their sins.—Vide 21st October.

KARTIK EKADASHI.—Is the eleventh day (in some years the twelfth) of the light half of the month Kartik, and is celebrated in honour of Vishnu. On this day the god is supposed to rise from his slumber of four months—a fable which has reference to the sun being at the winter solstice.—Vide 30th October.

KARTIK PURNIMA.—Is the full moon of the month Kartik. On the fifteenth of this month, as well as of Magh, Ashad, and Vaisakh, which days are called "Donumasya Kuru," gifts to Brahmans are considered indispensably necessary. Shiva is said to have gained his victory at this season over the monster "Tripurāśura,"—"the demon of the three cities." This demon is said to have become so powerful that he defeated almost all the gods, and drove them out of their habitations, when they went to Kylas, the abode of Shiva, and represented to him their grievances. Shiva assured them that the evil would soon be removed and sent them back to their homes. He made a car of the earth, the wheels of which were the sun and the moon; Brahma was chosen his charioteer, the mountain Himalaya formed his bow, and Wasuki, the king-serpent, his bowstring; Vishnu himself became his quiver. Thus equipped, Shiva rode out and destroyed the mighty giant after a struggle. To perpetuate the memory of this event, the Hindu women get up in the morning about two o'clock, wash themselves in cold water, repair to the temple of Shiva, and worship his image. Afterwards they return home, and present a Brahman with a lighted lamp, made either of silver, copper, or brass, according to their ability, along with some fruits and dakshina—a present in hard cash; this is called Dipdan, or present of a lamp. On the evening an illumination is made in the temples of Shiva, and a pillar of stones is built in front of all of them for this special occasion. A great fair is held in Bombay at Valukeshwar: it is kept for three days. The Hindus, both the rich and poor, Brahmans and Shudras, go there and worship the image of Shiva, and buy sweetmeats and toys for their children. Some of the wealthy Hindus remain there with their families for three or four days in the Dharmshala, or man built by them, but the poor return the same evening. During these days hundreds of rupees are uselessly spent in hiring conveyances and purchasing sweetmeats and toys—Vide 3rd November.

CHAMPA SHASTI.—Is held sacred to Khandoba on the 6th of Margashirsh-shud. Fairs are held wherever there is a shrine of that idol. At Jijuri in the Dakhan, between Sasswad (Sassoor) and Satara a great meeting from distant places annually takes place, where hook-swinging used to be practised. Bhandar, a mixture of powdered turmeric and another substance, and Champa flowers are held sacred on this day. Pretended exorcists keep shouting "Elkot" and give bhandar, as of supernatural efficacy, to their followers. The devotees of Khandoba are prevented from eating brinjals previous to this day.—Vide 24th November.

DATTA JAYANTI.—Is held as the anniversary of the birth of Datta. At night a Haridas preaches kirtan, narrating the traditional circumstances of the birth of his godship.—Vide 1st December.

BIRTH CEREMONIES.

Different ceremonies are prescribed by the Shastras to be observed at the period of conception, and in the different stages of pregnancy. "Jat-karan" is to be performed at the birth of the infant, and consists in giving it a drop of honey out of a golden spoon before dividing the navel-string. When a father first sees his son he is required to take a piece of gold in his hand, offer a sacrifice to Brahma, and smear the forehead of the child with the ghi left on his fingers on finishing the sacrifice. A string of 7 or 9 threads and 5 blades of Durba grass is to be bound by the father round the child's wrist. Other rites are to be observed on naming the child twelve days after birth, on bringing him outside the house when three months old—on feeding him with the hand at six months—and if a male, on shaving his head at the age of three years.

MARRIAGE CEREMONIES.

Among the Brahmans the male may be married at any time after the "Munj" or investiture with the sacred thread, which is done within the age of eight years, and among other castes at any age. The female should not be ten years old, and her age must be less than that of her husband, and she should be married before the appearance of the signs of puberty. The Shastras mention eight kinds of marriage, but only one is observed by the higher castes, named "Bramha," when the charges are severally incurred by the fathers of the parties. The principal marriage ceremonies among Brahmans are the Lagnapatrika, or writing by the Joshi or Astrologer of the names of the parties and the day and hour at which the wedding is to take place, the Saptapadi, or walking round a fire three times, at each time seven steps, and tying together the garments of the parties, and the "hom" or burnt offering; after which the contract is indissoluble. The girl is given away by her father in his own house, in which it is usual for her to remain till the appearance of the signs of puberty, after which she proceeds to the residence of her father-in-law, where her husband also resides, or to that of the latter, should it be otherwise. Particular months and junctions of the planets are described for the celebration of marriages in different castes; as also the same castes in different provinces have their peculiar ceremonies. Phalusambandh is the performance of certain ceremonies on the occurrence of the first menstuous symptoms.

DEATH CEREMONIES.

On the death of a man, the performance of his funeral obsequies (Kriyas) and of the monthly and annual purificatory ceremonies, devolves on his heir. The principal times for performing "Sradh" are eleven days after death; secondly, every month; and thirdly, on the anniversary of the death. Brahmans are unclean only for ten days after the death of a relation,—the military class for twelve,—the mercantile for fifteen,—but Shūdras for thirty. Among the Hindús, generally the body of the deceased is burnt, but that of an infant under two years of age is buried. The "Sradh" consists in the offering of rice, flowers, water, &c. to the deceased and to his manes, in order to enable his soul to ascend to the heaven of the Pitras, or great progenitors of the human race.

MUHAMMADAN.

MUHARRAM.—(Ar. Muharram, most sacred). A celebrated mourning held annually in remembrance of the first alleged martyrs of the Mussalmans—Hasan and Husain—from whom the whole race of Syads are descended. Hasan and Husain were the two sons of Ali, the cousin, and Fatima, the daughter of Muhammad; and after the murder of their father by the contrivances of the Kaliph Yazid, the son of Mawiah, they with their families removed from Shawn, the capital, to Medina. The elder Hasan was poisoned by an emissary of the usurping Kaliph, and after several years, the people of Shawn being tired of king Yazid's tyrannical rule, invited Husain to return to the capital and assume his lawful right as Imam (leader of the faithful). Before accepting this invitation, Husain sent Moslem, his cousin, as a messenger, to report the true state of affairs to him; but on his arrival with his two sons at Shawn, he was murdered with all his retinue at Karbalá in Turkish Arabia on the 10th day of the Arab month Muharram A.H. 46. Zaim-ul-Abidin, the eldest son of Husain, alone escaped. This forms the subject of the ten days' wailing during the Muharram. The Muhammadans are divided into two distinct sects, called the Shiáhs and the Sunnis. The former regard Ali and his descendants as the lawful leaders after Muhammad, and the latter the Kaliphas, as Abubakr, U'mar, &c.,—hence quarrels, animosities, and dislikes are hoarded up to be avenged during the Muharram. The festival begins when the new moon of the first month (Muharram) becomes visible. Including the Ziyarat, or "visiting the grave," it lasts till the 12th; but the fast is only for 10 days, and is hence called 'Ashura, from the Arabic word signifying ten. Houses are appropriated for the mourning ceremonies, and called 'Ashur khana 'ten day house,'—Taziya khana, 'house of lamentation,'—and Astana, threshold or fakur's residence. The mourning assemblies of the rich are held morning and evening in the Imambaras during the Muharram, when the head priest or preacher recites a subject for each day's service, from the various books descriptive of the life and sufferings of Hasan and Husain. The Marsiáh, a poetical composition embracing the whole of the subject they commemorate, is chaunted; the names of their lawful leaders are recounted with blessings, and that of the usurpers, the Kaliphas, with curses. Tazias (a term signifying grief, applied to a representation of the mausoleum erected over the remains of Imam Husain at Kurbalá,) made of ivory, ebony, sandal-wood, cedar, and some wrought in silver filigree,—and indeed of every variety of material, from pure silver to bamboo and paper, according to the rank and wealth of the party,—are exhibited and conveyed in procession through the streets. The moment the new moon is seen a spade is struck into the earth: this is called kodalí mara, and at this spot a pit is dug two or three days afterwards, in which a bonfire, called allawa, is kindled. At night men dance round the fires, fencing with swords, and springing through the flames, crying Yá 'Alí! Sháh Hasan! Sháh Husain! Dulha! "bridegroom," &c.

On the night of the 7th a representation of Burák, the horse or mule on which Muhammad is said to have ascended to heaven, is brought out. On the 10th a bier called tabút or taziya is carried in procession. The Tabút is a slight framework of bambú, intended to represent the Mausoleum of Husain covered and ornamented with coloured paper and tinsel. They vary in size and appearance, according to the taste and ability of those who build them. Before these incense is burned and other rites are performed. The Tabúts, it is said, are peculiar to India. They are not built by the inhabitants of Persia and Arabia. Many Muhammadans regard them with strong disapprobation, but in Bombay the larger portion of them unite in building Tabúts. These are taken out, and, accompanied with music, carried in procession through the Bhandi Bazar from midnight of the ninth until three o'clock of the morning of the tenth day, and again from two till six o'clock on the afternoon of the same day, on their way to the beach in Back Bay, where the greater part of the Tabúts, after being stripped of whatever is of value, are cast into sea. The Indian Muhammadans who do not unite in building the Tabúts are accustomed to go on this occasion to the mosks for five successive evenings, to listen to the account of the death of Husain. Their demonstrations of grief, however, are not equal to those of the Mughuls and Persians, who, while listening to the recital, weep aloud, and smite violently upon their breasts. These are accustomed to meet at the Masjid in Mirza Muhammad Ali Khan Street. Some two or three horsemen, bearing flags, enter the large yard adjoining the Imambara with loud wailings, and are followed by two horses caparisoned, to represent those which were for the use of the fallen Husain. One person on horseback, with a long sword apparently run through the head, and covered with blood joins in the wailings. A female infant in deep mourning, sitting at the door of a small mausoleum, which is carried on the shoulders of men, constantly casts ashes or cut straw upon her head, in token of grief. These pass round in a circle, accompanied or followed by a company on foot, who beat upon their breasts, crying, "Hai Hasan! Hai Husain!" Sometimes, a person represented in a dying state, his body covered with wounds and blood, and darts and daggers run into it, is carried about in procession. This festival is becoming more and more a farce. The grief is doubtless for the most part feigned. Before the martyrdom of Hasan and Husain this fast was observed as a feast, and is still reckoned one of the lesser 'Ids.—Vide 27th May and 4th-6th June.

AKHRI CHAHAR SHAMBAH.—A lesser 'Id or festival held on the last Wednesday of Safer on account of Muhammad having, it is said, recovered a little on this day during his last illness, and taken a bath for the last time. It is usual to write out seven benedictions, wash off the writing while the ink is fresh, and drink it. It is proper to bathe, put on new clothes, prepare sweetmeats, walk in gardens, and repeat prayers on this day.

BARI WAFAT.—(Urd. bari, great, Ar. wafat, death) a fast held on the 13th of Rabi'ul awwal, in memory of the death of Muhammad A. H. 11. The Kadam-i rasul, (Prophet's foot) the impression of a foot on stone, or the mi-i mubarak (the sacred hair of Muhammad) is brought forth and honoured. On the nights of the 11th and 12th processions take place.—Vide 6th August.

PIR-I-DASTGAR.—Is a festival held on the 11th of Rabi'ul sani in honour of Saiyid 'Abdul Kadir Ghilani or Pir Piran, a celebrated saint who has 96 names. He was a Sufi doctor, born in Ghilan, who taught at Baghdad, where his tomb is still revered as sacred. S'adi, who studied under him, mentions him in his Gulistan. On this day and during the ravages of cholera or any plague it is customary to carry a large green flag in his name. Vows are made to him for offspring. His sister's son Saiyid Ahmad Kabir is the patron of the remarkable religious mendicants called Gurzmars.—Vide 8rd September.

CHIRAGAN-I ZINDAH SHAH MADAR.—A festival held on the 17th of Jamada'l-awwal in honour of Badi 'u'd-din, a Syrian saint who is said to have dwelt at Makkhanpur in Oudh, and to have lived to a great age, or to be yet alive, whence he is styled Zindah, living. A fair that lasts 17 days is held at his tomb or cenotaph, which is visited annually by about a million of pilgrims. Dam Madar, "the breath of Madar" is supposed to be a charm against snakebites, the violence of fire, and all other evils. His flag is black and black cows are sacrificed in his name.

'URS-I KADIR WALI.—A festival, in honour of Khawajah Mu'nu'd-din Chishti, or Kadir Wali is held on the 11th of Jumada'l-akhir. This Sunni Suint was born in Sijistan A.H. 527, and came to Ajmir in the reign of Kutbu'd-din Ibak (A.H. 602-607), where he married the daughter of Saiyid Husain Mashhadi though a Shiah. A magnificent mosque was built near his tomb at Ajmir, where he died A. H. 628, by the Emperor Jehangir, A. H. 1027. He has also a shrine at Nagur near Nagapatnam. He is held in special reverence by the Mapillas.

MIRAJ-I MUHAMMAD in commemoration of the alleged ascension of Muhammad when the Angel Gabriel mounted him on Burak and conveyed him to heaven. The ascent is referred to in the 17th Sura of the Koran. It is held on the 27th of Rajab, though Katib al Wakidi says the Miraj happened on the 17th Ramadhan.—Vide 16th December.

SHAB-I BARAT or 'Night of record' is one of the three lesser 'Ids and is held on the 16th Sh'aban, when, they say, the actions of men for the ensuing year are recorded. It is passed in mirth with illuminations and fireworks. The whole night should be spent in reading the Kuran and a fast observed next day.—Vide 14th January.

RAMAZAN RA ROZAH.—This Muhammadan fast commences from the morning after the new moon of Ramazan is first observed, and is kept each day throughout the month of this name, from 4 A.M. or when the first streak of light borders the eastern horizon, till the stars are clearly discerned in the heavens. During the whole period not the slightest particle of food, not a single drop of water, or any other liquid, should pass the lips. Each day, during the fast, is passed in occasional prayer, besides the usual namaz, and in reading the Kuran or the lives of the prophets.—The fast is first broken by a cooling draught called Dandhi, the same which is used in fevers. It is composed of the seeds of lettuce, cucumber, and melon, with coriander, well pounded, and afterwards diluted with cold water; rose water, sugar, syrup of pomegranate, and kurat, are also added; the whole preparation is made in the zenana, and then drunk by basins-full by all true Rozedhars. Plain boiled rice, with dhi (sour curd) and sugar, forms the first morning's repast of the 'Id; and dried dates are eaten with it, in remembrance of the prophet's family, whose greatest luxury was supposed to be the dates of Arabia. On the 20th or 21st the Shíahs celebrate the night of 'Alí, the nephew and adopted son of Muhammad, who is said to have died on one of these two nights. They perambulate the streets carrying a tabut and beating their breasts. The night of the 27th is called Lailat-ul Kadir, or 'night of power' because it is said the Kuran descended from heaven on that night. It should be observed as a vigil. On this night the Ghair Mahdí, or the Pathán sect who assert that the 12th Imám, Mahdí, has come and gone, used to have encounters with the Sunnis and Shíahs, and those killed were supposed to be rewarded as martyrs.—Vide January 28th, February 17th and 23rd.

'IDU'L-FITR.—"The festival of breaking fast," called also Ramazzán k'Id, and "the feast of alms" is celebrated on the 1st Shawwal. On this day Muhammadans are required to bathe, put on new clothes, apply antimony to the eyes, and perfume themselves; then to distribute the fitr or saddakah, which is 2½ sers of wheat, dates, or any grain used for food, given to the poor or religious mendicants. All then proceed to the Idgáh repeating "God is great. There is no God but God." The mulla ascends the minbar or pulpit, and after a short thanksgiving reads the Khutbah or Friday sermon. He then descends to the lowest step (which with the Shíahs is the third, but the fourth with the Sunnis), and recounts the virtues of the king and prays for him. Then a general prayer is made and the congregation rise with a shout of Din!—"Faith!" and fire off muskets. The evening is spent in rejoicing and merriment. In every house the same dainties are provided, every amusement that can be thought of is indulged in; the rich women in the apartments of the men, and the dommú, a class of singers who exhibit before females only, in those of the women, are in great request on the last day of Ramadhan, when the matron of the mansion sits in state to receive nazars from inferiors, and to grant favours to others.—Vide 27th and 28th February.

CHARAGHAN-I BANDAH NAWAZ.—A festival on the 16th of Dzu'l Kaddh, is held in honour of a saint called Bandah Nawaz, "the slave-cherisher," and "Gizá duraz," "the long ringleted," whose shrine is at Gullbarga in the Nizam's territories.

BAKARÍ 'ID or 'ID-I KURBAN.—(Ar. Bakar a bull, Kurban, a sacrifice.) This is a feast held on the 10th Dzu'l-Hijjah in honour, it is said, of Abraham's intending to offer up Ismael, who, they aver, was chosen as the offering to the Almighty, and not Ishak, grounding their assertions on traditions which they deem conclusive evidence on the subject. The offering thus made is annually commemorated by the sacrifice of animals, such as camels, cows, sheep, goats, kids, or lambs, according to each person's means, which answer the double purpose of honouring the memory of Abraham and Ismael, and also assisting as a meal. The followers of Muhammad believe that the entrance to Paradise is guarded by a bridge Pál-sirát as narrow as a scythe, affording a precarious and unstable footing. To enable them, therefore, to pass without danger, they believe that the animals they have sacrificed at the 'Id will be present to lend their aid in helping them over with lightning celerity. This festival called by the Arabs 'Id al Zoha,' 'day of sacrifice' and the 'Idu'l fitr,' are the two great festivals of the Muslims. In A. H. 1. Muhammad kept the Ashor or Jewish fast of the Atonement on the 10th day of the 7th month, but next year his relations with the Jews being altered he substituted for it the 'Id al Zoha,' grounded on the ceremonies then current at Mecca, and on the 12th of Dzu'l-Hijjah he sacrificed two fattened sucking kids, with budding horns,—the one for his followers and the other for himself and his family (see Leviticus xvi).—Vide 6th May.

MUHAMMADAN CEREMONIES.

BIRTH.—After the 7th month of pregnancy, families that have the means celebrate the sattarasa (seventh month) with great rejoicings, dress the woman in new clothes, and deck her with flowers. In the 9th month the Rataga (from rat, night, and jagna to watch) is similarly kept. A kathar, (dagger), a lemon, and Nimb leaves are placed near her head to ward off misfortune, and her drink is boiled water in which a piece of red hot iron has been plunged. After the birth, she is allowed only achwani (caudle) for the first six days. An iron plate and a broom is placed in a corner of the room as a spell against evil spirits, and if any stranger enter on the 6th and 40th days rue is thrown on the fire to prevent evil. Dogs and cats are carefully kept away, and the latter must not even be named. After swaddling, the summons to prayer must be uttered aloud in the infant's right ear and the Muslim creed in the left. Before it is put to the breast some pious man must dip his finger in honey and put it into the infant's mouth. The mother's relatives and friends go together to the house and place blades of grass in the father's hair, for which he has to make them a present. Until the chilla (40th day) the mother is regarded as unclean, and may neither pray, touch the Kuran, nor enter the Masjid. Certain ceremonies are then performed for her purification, and a sacrifice of two he-goats for a boy, or one for a girl, is sometimes offered. The child is also shaved, the hair is placed on a raft, a prayer repeated over it in the name of Khizr or Elias, and then launched into the stream. A lock of hair is sometimes allowed to grow in honour of some saint.

MARRIAGE.—Bethrothal takes place at a very early age, and the marriage is celebrated when the bridegroom is 18 and the bride at most 13 or 14. Madawtniyan, female emissaries, are employed to report the charms or wealth of certain eligible girls. Astrology is then consulted. The ceremonies of betrothal are such as the distribution of betel-nut leaves, the bridegroom going on horseback with musicians to the house of the bride to offer presents, sending sweet cakes from the bride to the bridegroom, treading the threshold when the bride's mother gives the bridegroom a gold ring, money, and a handkerchief, and tasting salt in the bride's house—previous to which the bridegroom must only eat sweet things there. Then follow ceremonies of anointing and bathing and the preparation of the wedding garments. Among the marriage ceremonies are the conveying of the bridegroom's gifts to the house of the bride, and of the wedding fire to the bridegroom's. Then the bridegroom gaily dressed rides first to the masjid, and after repeating three prayers there, to the bride's house, where, before he is allowed to enter, he must give presents to her friends. He is carried in by a man whose advance is resisted till further presents are made. The Kazi or his substitute, after taking two veils from the bridegroom's face, makes him repeat in Arabic certain suras of the Koran,* &c. The bridegroom next repeats the marriage contract, and the hand of the bride is joined in his, the Kazi repeating a prayer that the couple thus wed may be as loving as Adam and Eve, Abraham and Sarah.

DEATH.—When a Muhammadan is dying a reader of the Koran is brought to read the sura-i-yasin and two creeds. Sweet sharbat is then poured into the throat of the dying person, with the belief that it facilitates the exit of the spirit. After death the body is placed in a coffin and with parade suited to the rank of the departed, it is carried to the burial ground, where a tent or kunaf is pitched near the tomb. Here the body is bathed and dried, and powdered camphor rubbed on the hands, feet, knees, and forehead, the parts which daily touch the ground in prayer. The body is then wrapped in a calico windingsheet, on which certain suras of the Kuran have been written. The religious Musalman generally prepares his own sheet in his lifetime, adding passages of the Kuran from time to time. The coffin is carried to the grave by the relations repeating as they go "There is no God but God, and Muhammad is the prophet of God." The Kazi reads the funeral service for the poor, and the nearest relation or other friend for the wealthy—it consists of four confessions of faith and one benediction. The body is then placed in the grave on its back with the head to the north and the face towards Makkah or the west. Each person takes up a little earth, and repeating the 112th sura or the passage—"We created you of earth, and return you to earth, and we shall raise you out of the earth on the resurrection day," then puts the earth gently into the grave. The Fatihah, "I offer this prayer for such a one," is then said first for the person just buried and then for all in the graveyard. Then the 1st and 11th suras are recited and alms distributed. On the 3rd day the whole Kuran is read through, and on the 10th, 20th, 30th and 40th days various ceremonies are gone through. Fatihah is repeated after every three months for a year.

PARSIS.

THE festivals of the Parsis are celebrated with little outward pomp. Their holidays are mostly occupied in prayers in the morning, and festivities and rejoicings during the rest of the day. The Emperor Akbar adopted then "Naoroz," and fourteen other festivals of the Parsis, for the observance of those who were attached to his favourite doctrines of the Ilahi Dun or the "Religion of God," which he fruitlessly endeavoured to introduce among his people.

GAHS.—The day is divided into five watches or Gahs (in winter four): 1, Hawan, from sun-rise till noon, which is under the protection of Mithra; 2, Raspithawn or Rapitan, (omitted in winter) from noon till about 3 o'clock, under the protection of Asha-vahista or Ardibehisht, &c.; 3, Uzayern or Oziran, from about 3 o'clock till sunset, or till the stars appear; 4, Avakruthrem, from sunset till midnight, under the especial care of the Fravashis or faruhars, and, 5, Ushakin, from midnight till the disappearance of the stars, or till sunrise, which is under the care of Sraosh or Serosh, the Heavenly Watcher as its hankar. For each gah there are special prayers appointed.

PARTI, NAOROZ, or NEW YEAR'S DAY.—The 1st of Farvardin.—This day is celebrated in honour of the accession of Yezdijird, the last king of the Sassanid dynasty, who was dethroned by the Khalifa 'Umar about A.D. 640. After prayers the Parsis visit their friends and relations, when the "Hama-i-jur" or "joining of hands" is performed. This ceremony is a sort of greeting corresponding to the wishing each other a happy new year. Their friends and relations are invited to breakfast. They spend the rest of the day in feasting and rejoicing, and nâch-parties are kept up till a late hour. Alms are also given to the poor in the course of the day, and new suits of clothes are presented to servants and dependents.

RAPITHWIN or RAPITWAN.—The 3rd day of Farvardin is sacred to Ardibehisht, the Amshaspand presiding over light and heat. On this day is performed the Afrigan Rapithwin, devoted to the genius presiding over the southern quarters, and who is guardian of the paths to Garotman (Garō-demana) or paradise.

KHURDAD-SAL.—Is the supposed anniversary of the birth of Zoroaster, who they say was born in the city of Reh, in the North of Persia, in the reign of Darius Hystaspes, about 520 years before Christ. The Parsis themselves differ as to the exact time of the birth of their prophet; a part of them fix the period at B.C. 589; others at B.C. 638. Religious ceremonies are performed in the morning by the women of the family and the priests, the men, as usual on such occasions, limiting themselves to private prayers. On this day a great victory is said to have been gained over Zahhak. Khurdad is an Amshaspand presiding over water, vegetation and all kinds of fruits and produce; in Zend he is called Haurvatat.

AMARDAT-SAL or VALAVA.—This holiday, which falls on the 7th, the day immediately after the preceding festival, appears to have no origin in the books of the Parsis. It is merely kept up as the continuation of the "Khurdad-Sal;" no religious ceremonies are required, and the day is spent in the enjoyment of epicurean pleasures. Amardat or Ameretat is the Amshaspand presiding over trees, and is usually coupled with Khurdad.

FARVARDIN.—Is the 19th day of the month Farvardin, and whenever the name of the day and of the month coincide it is sacred to the angel said to preside over the month. Farvardin (from Farvar, or faruhar, meaning 'soul' or 'spirit') is the Izad who presides over the souls of men. This day is specially set apart for the performance of ceremonies for the dead. The people attend on the hills at Chaopati, where their "dokimas" or "towers of silence" are situated, and there perform prayers for the dead. The Parsis are enjoined by their religion to preserve the memory of their dead by annual religious ceremonies performed in the house; but such of their friends as die on long voyages or in unknown places, and the date of whose death cannot be positively ascertained, are honoured by sacred rites on this day. The ceremony consists in preparing small round pieces of baked bread called "daruns," which are put on a tray or other copper vessel, along with fruits and flowers, over which the priest performs the prayers of the Baj.

ARDIBEHISHT.—Falls on the 3rd of the 2nd month, and is sacred to the Amshaspand Ardibehisht. This festival, as its name implies, is maintained in honour of Ardebehist Amshaspand the angel controlling the sacred fire,—that element being one of the objects of worship.

MEDIOZEREM, (Maidhyo-zaremya, mid-summer),—is the first of the six 'heads' or seasons of the year. These are believed to have been instituted in commemoration of the six periods of creation, in the first of which heaven was created. They are now called Gahanbars and the first is celebrated from the 11th till the 15th day of Ardebehist the 2nd month.

KHURDAD JASAN.—Is a feast held on the 6th day of the 3rd month in honour of the Amshaspand Khurdad.

MEDIOSHAM.—(Maidhyo-shema, mid-winter) is the second of the Gahanbars, and is held in commemoration of the creation of the waters. It is celebrated from the 11th to the 15th of Tir, the 4th month.

TIR JASAN.—In the middle of Mediosham, on the 13th of Tir, this festival occurs. It is kept in honour of the star Tistrya, (Tashtar in Parsi) or the planet Mercury, the Watcher of the East, as Satavases is of the West, Vanant of the South, and Hapto-iranga of the North. Tistrya is called the giver of wealth, and is said to bring down the waters from celestial ocean Vouru-kasha to the earth to fertilize it. He defeats and expels the Pairikas (fairies) who fall like "worm-stars" between heaven and earth into the sea Vouru-kasha (to prevent the waters coming out); but Tistrya enters it in the shape of a horse and causes the waters to overflow on the earth. He is opposed by the Deva Apascha in the shape of a black horse, and is powerless to defeat him unless he is addressed by the prayers of men.* Hence his worship was compulsory in times of drought.

AMARDAT JASAN.—This feast is held on the 7th day of Amardat, the 5th month in honour of the Amshaspand Amardat.

SHAHRIVAR JASAN.—Is held on the 4th day of the 6th month, in honour of Shah-rivar (Kshathrya-vairya) the Amshaspand presiding over hills and mountains, and over mines, gold, and silver.

PETASHAM.—(Paitis-hahya, spring) is the 3rd of the Gahanbars, held from the 26th to the 30th of the 6th month, in commemoration of the season of the creation of the earth.

THE NAOROZ.—The Naoroz-i-Jamshid, or the Naoroz-i-Sultan,—the king's day. This festival falls about the 21st day of March, and corresponds with the Vernal Equinox. This day is observed by the modern Persians, the Arabs, the Turks, and several other Asiatic nations for the computation of the solar year, and for State purposes, such as the collection of revenue, and the arrangements for the agricultural operations of the year. In Persia this festival is kept for several days with unusual pomp by all the inhabitants, whether Muhammadans or Parsis. In India it is simply a day of rejoicing.

MEHER JASAN.—The angel or Izad presiding over, and directing the course of the sun is called Muthra, (Pers. mihir, i.e., friend). He also presides over truth and friendship, and woods. His chief efficacy is at dawn, and he is the ruler of the watch Havanim. This feast is held on the 16th day of the 7th month.

ELATHREM (Ayathrema, the rainy season)—Is the fourth Gahanbar commemorating the season of the creation of trees. It is celebrated from the 26th to the 30th of Meher.

ABAN JASAN OR AVA ARDUI-SUR JASAN.—On the 10th day of the 8th month. In the Zend text, the name of the angel who presides over the sea, is Ardui Sura Anahita, the mighty goddess Anahita of the ancient Persians, corresponding to the Mylitta of the Babylonians. The epithets which form her name refer to the celestial waters represented by her,* and over which she presides as well as over births. This festival is held in her honour and the Parsis are required on this day to approach the sea shore, or any stream of water, and chant the Zend prayers, and offerings of sugar, cocoanuts, flowers, &c., to the sea are common. In Bombay a fair is held on the Esplanade on the occasion of this festival.

ADAR JASAN.—Adar, another synonym for fire, is the name by which the 9th day of the month and the ninth month of the Parsi year is called. This is the most sacred of the twelve months, and the ninth day of it is held in great respect. On this day the fire temples are very much crowded, and offerings of sandal-wood are made to the sacred flame, and money distributed among the priests.

FARVARDIN JASAN.—Is held on the 19th of Adar, and celebrated as the festival of the same name in the first month.

DEH JASAN.—Is held on the first day of the month Deh.

ZARTHOSH DISO.—On the 11th of Deh is held as the anniversary of the death of Zoroaster.

MEDIAREH—(Maidhyairya, the middle of the year) is the 5th of the Gahanbars, during which season they say the animals were created. It is held from the 16th to the 20th of Deh.

BAHMAN JASAN—On the 2nd of the 11th month is sacred to the Amshaspand presiding over the increase of mankind and useful animals. He is called in Zend Vohu-mano.

ASFANDYAR OR SIPANDARMAD JASAN.—Spenta Armaiti is one of the seven Amshaspands, who presides over the earth as its genius and is represented as the protector of animated beings. This festival in her honour is held on the 5th day of the month Asfandiyar or Isfandarmat.

THE MUKTAR is the name of a ceremony performed at the end of the Parsi year in honour of the Faruhars. It consists in keeping a place in the house neat and clean for ten days, where is placed a pile of brass or silver vessels filled with water, and raised from the ground on iron stools. Flowers and fruits are also placed there for the satisfaction of the faruhars, and religious ceremonies in honour of the dead are performed before the Mukhtars. The Parsi scriptures appear only to require that the last ten days of the year should be spent in deeds of charity, prayers, &c.; the ceremony of the brass and silver vessels, &c. is borrowed from the Hindus. It begins on the 25th day of Asfandiyar.

MAHARASPAND JASAN.—Maharaspand is the Izad said to preside over paradise, and this festival, held on the 29th day of the last month, is kept in honour of him.

HAMASHPATMADIM or Humaspathmaedaya is the last of the Gahanbars, and is held on the five days added at the end of the 12th month, and usually called the Gatha Gahanbars from the five Gathas of the Yasna, which, with the Afrigan Gatha are specially employed on these days, and give separate names to each of them. The first Gatha is styled Ahunavaiti, whence the day is usually called Ahnuvad or Ahunavat; the second is called Ustavaiti from the opening words usta ahmai (hail him!) and thence the second day Ostvad; the third Gatha is Spenta mainyus (from the first words of it) and the corresponding day is Sapantomad; the fourth Gatha is Vohukshathra (good possession), and the day Vohukshathar; and the fifth Gatha and day are styled Vahistoisti. This 6th Ghanbar commemorates the creation of man.

On the Gatha days the Parsis rise early, and dress themselves in new suits of clothes, and those piously disposed say the prayers in their private residences, or attend the fire-temples. The performance of the Afrigan Gahanbar is required, at each of the six gahanbar seasons, as the Afrigan Rapithwin, is on the Rapithwin Jasan. Unless they duly perform these, they believe their souls will not be allowed to pass the bridge Chinvat which leads to heaven.

JEWES.

THE weekly festival was the Sabbath, a day consecrated to rest and cheerful devotion. It was instituted when God rested on the 7th day from the work of Creation, and the precept was renewed to the Hebrews at Marah, and when the Decalogue was given from Sinai. It was kept from sunset on Friday to sunset on Saturday.

The monthly festival was held on the day of the new moon, or the first day of every month, which was proclaimed by sound of trumpet; the law, however, did not oblige the people to rest on these days though it appointed particular sacrifices.

THE PASSOVER was instituted to commemorate the departure out of Egypt, because on the night preceding that departure, the destroying angel who slew the first-born of the Egyptians passed over the houses of the Hebrews, they being marked with the blood of the lamb, which for this reason was called the Paschal Lamb. It was celebrated on the 14th day of the first month (Nisan) of the ecclesiastical year, and lasted seven days. A lamb, or, if that could not be found, a kid without blemish, was killed, roasted and eaten with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. The first Passover was eaten with their loins girded, their shoes on their feet, and their staves in their hands, that they might be in readiness for their journey. It is now kept on the 15th and 16th of Nisan.

THE FEAST OF PENTECOST or SHILOH was celebrated on the fiftieth day after the Passover, or the 6th and 7th of Sivan, and was a feast of thanksgiving to the Lord, wherein they acknowledged his dominion over their country and their labours, by offering to him two loaves, as the first fruits of all their harvests. It also commemorated the giving of the law from Mount Sinai two years and fifty days after their departure from Egypt. The Hebrews counted seven weeks from the Passover, beginning on the second day of that solemnity, and hence called it the Feast of Weeks; but by the Christians it was called Pentecost, a name which signifies the Fiftieth Day.

THE FEAST OF TRUMPETS was celebrated on the first day of their civil year (September), its commencement being proclaimed by sound of trumpet, and the day was kept solemn, all business being foridden and certain sacrifices appointed to be offered.

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES was instituted as a memorial of their fathers having dwelt in tents for forty years during the passage through the wilderness. It was kept from the 15th of the first month (Tisri) of the civil year, and lasted eight days, the first and seventh being the most solemn. During its continuance they lived in booths, tents, or arbours, constructed of the branches and leaves of trees. On the first day they cut down branches of trees, with their fruit, which they carried in ceremony to the synagogue. Holding in their right hand a branch of a palm-tree, three branches of myrtle, and two of willow, tied together, and having in their left hand a citron and its fruit, they waved them singing songs and crying "Hosanna!"

THE FEAST OF DEDICATION or HANUCA was appointed to celebrate the re-establishment of Divine worship in Jerusalem, after Antiochus Epiphanes had been vanquished and the temple purified. It is observed for eight days from the 25th of Kislev, the third month (December), and is also called the Feast of Lights, from the illuminations which the Jews make during these days in their houses.

THE FEAST OF PURIM falls on the 14th and 15th of the 6th month (Adar), and commemorates the defeat of Haman. On these days they give alms to the poor and presents to their friends.

KIPUR.—The 10th of the first month of the civil year is the DAY OF ATONEMENT, on which they observe a fast from evening to evening and bewail their sins.

Other fasts were also instituted in later times, connected with the siege of Jerusalem (10th of Tebet); the capture of the city (17th of Tamuz), the burning of the temple (9th of the Ab, or the 10th if the Civil year begin on a Thursday); and the death of Gedaliah on the 3rd of Tisri, or the 4th if the 3rd be a Sunday.

Every seventh year was to the Jews a Sabbatical year; and Alexander the Great granted them an exemption from tribute on that year.

After seven weeks or Sabbaths of years, that is, after seven times seven years, the great Festival of the JUBILEE was celebrated. On this fiftieth year every one resumed possession of his inheritance, whether it were sold, mortgaged, or alienated in any way. Houses and edifices in walled towns were the only kind of property that did not return to the original owner in the year of the Jubilee.

MONEY.

SILVER is the legally constituted medium of exchange in all money transactions throughout the British-Indian Possessions. Gold coin was intended to be a legal tender, at a fixed value of 16 rupees for the Gold-mohar of Calcutta, and 15 rupees for the Gold rupee of Madras and Bombay; but it is not demandable in payment, and is left to find its current value in the market.

An order in council was promulgated January 1841 authorizing officers in charge of public treasuries freely to receive gold coins struck in conformity with the provisions of Act. XVII. of 1835 establishing the 15 rupee pieces. This continued till December 1852, when the swelling tides of California and Australia began to pour their rich treasures over the globe, and, in apprehension that India would be inundated with gold, the proclamation of 1841 was hastily rescinded, and gold henceforth debarred from entrance into any of the public treasuries.

In a line with the annas in the left hand column, and in the same column with the pies at the top, the decimal is found. Thus the decimal corresponding to 7 a. 5 p. is .4635; and conversely, for .64, the value is found to be nearly 10 a. 3 p.

The value of a Rupee is generally assumed as equal to 2s. sterling. At the Calcutta Mint price of silver it is worth 2s. 0.035d.; at the Commercial par of Exchange 1s. 11.51d.; and at the London Mint price of silver it is worth 1s. 11.04d.

The Rupee weighs 180 grains troy, or one tola, and consists of 11 parts of silver and 1 of alloy. The Gold Rupee is of the same weight and standard. The Copper coins are the half anna weighing 200 grains; the quarter anna or paisa 100 grains; the half paisa, 50 grains; and the pie 33½ grains.

In Bombay, accounts are still often kept in Rupees, quarters, and raes, 25 raes making one anna.

In Madras, accounts were formerly kept in Star Pagodas, fanams, and cash

80 Cash = 1 Fanam or panam.

= 1 Star Pagoda, Hun, or Varaha.

The pagoda was of gold $19\frac{1}{2}$ carats fine, and intrinsically worth 7s. $5\frac{1}{2}$ d.

INDIAN WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

The British-Indian weights established by Regulation VII. of 1833, and now for upwards of a quarter of a century in use in Bengal, are founded on the tola of 180 grains as a unit.

1.—BAZAR WEIGHT.

4 Siki, or quarters.	= 1 Tola.....	$6\frac{1}{4}$ drs.	Av.	180	grs.	Troy.
5 Tola	= 1 Chhatank	$2\frac{1}{2}$ oz.	"	1	oz.	"
4 Chhatanks	= 1 Pauwa	$8\frac{3}{4}$ oz.	"	7	oz.	"
4 Pauwa	= 1 Ser or Seer.....	$2\frac{1}{2}$ lb.	"	2	lb.	"
5 Sers	= 1 Passeri	$10\frac{1}{2}$ lb.	"	12	lb.	"
8 Passeri, or 4 Sers	= 1 Mán or maund ..	$82\frac{1}{2}$ lb.	"	100	lb.	"

The standard ser weighs 80 tola or rupees, or 36 annas in copper coins.

Also 35 sers are equal to 72 lbs. avoirdupois, and 49 mans are equal to 36 cwt.

The pound avoirdupois weighs $38\frac{3}{4}$ tolas, and the pound troy 32 tolas.

The tola weighs 11 6688 French grammes, the man, 37 3242 kilogrammes; the gramme weighs 0·08573526 tola; and the kilogramme 1·0716908 ser.

The Factory weight, adopted by the Bengal Government in 1787, was subdivided as in Bazar weight, only lighter, 49 of any denomination of Bazar weight, being equal to 54 of the same denomination of Factory weight; and $1\frac{1}{2}$ Factory máns being equal to 1 cwt., or 1 Factory mán equal to $74\frac{1}{2}$ lbs. or $\frac{1}{2}$ cwt. Hence 1 Factory man = 0·9074074 Bazar mán. It is now disused.

In Bombay the following are the Local Weights in use:

4 Dhan or yav	= 1 Raktica or Gunj	2 1267 gr. tr.	·01182 tola.
8 Raktica	= 1 Masha	8·5069 " "	·09452 "

72 Tank, or 30 pa'is.	= 1 Ser	11 $\frac{1}{2}$ oz.	27 $\frac{3}{4}$ "
40 Sers	= 1 Mán	28 lb.	108 $\frac{3}{4}$ "
20 Mán	= 1 Khandi	560 lb.	6·8056 Imp. man.

The Khandi for Cotton is 28 mans or 784 lbs. avoird. or 7 cwt.

The "pakka ser" is $1\frac{1}{2}$ lbs. avoird. or 72·59 tolas. At Panwel the sers weighs 72·83 tolas.

The British Indian or Imperial ser and mán are 2·9387755 Bombay sers and máns respectively; and the Bombay mán is 0·3402778 Imp. máns.

The Bombay ser weighs 317·51485 grammes, and the man 12·700594 kilogrammes.

AT POONA.

The ser is 80 Ankushi rupees or 76·66 standard tolas, or 1·9714 lbs. avoird, or 2·33604 lbs. troy = 9583 B. I. sers.

SURAT.

The Surat ser of 35 Surat tolas is variously stated from 36·4583 to 37 tolas, and the mán from 37½ to 38 lbs. avoirdupois, the former being probably the more accurate determination, from which—

The Madras man is sometimes stated at 30 lbs. troy or 0·3 Brit. Ind. mans equal to 24 6857143 lbs. avoirdupois, which makes the palam exactly 3 tolas and the khandi 6 Brit. Ind. máns.

3.—MEASURES OF LENGTH.

The gaz or unit of lineal measure not only differs in different provinces of India, but also, like the ser, in the same province for different purposes. The English yard, however, is rapidly becoming the only standard unit, especially where English education has obtained a firm footing.

3 Jau	= 1 Angli ¾ in.	or 19·05 mm.
4 Angli	= 1 Muthi 3 " "	76 2 " "
12 Angli	= 1 Big'hath or Bilisht 9 " "	228 6 " "

2000 Danda	= 1 Kos or Kros 4000 yds.	3657 5 " "
4 Kros	= 1 Yojan 9½ m.	14630 " "

In Bombay the half háth is called Vént; and the measuring rod or Kathi for land, according to Jervis, is 9·3644 feet. In Gujarat 5 hath make 1 Vasó or Kathi. In Western India almost every village has its own Kathi.

The Kos of the Ayin-akbari was about 2 58 miles, or 4540 yards, or 4150 metres.

The Bengal gaz contains only 1,000 danda or dhanú. In surveying, 80 háth = 1 Rassi.

In the N. W. P.,—Delhi, Lúdhianah, Ferozporé, and part of Berar :—33 inches = 1 Náhi gaz, 3 li. gaz = 1 Bans or ganteh, and 20 bans = 1 Jarib. In Benares and Ghazeepore the gaz used by Mr. Duncan in the settlement of 1795 was 33·6 inches. The true Iláhi gaz probably measured 32·6 to 32·8 inches; in Bareilly, Bulanshahr, Agra, &c., it is reckoned at 32·5 inches.

In Orissa the padika or rod is 10·4355 feet; in Tírhút the lagí is 9½ feet: and in Jynteah the dasidari háth is 18·87 inches, and 16 háths make 1 null.

IN BOMBAY—FOR CLOTH.

2 Angali	= 1 Tasú	1½ inch.
24 Tasú	= 1 Gaz	27 "

In Púna, the gaz is 34½ in., but English Cloth is sold by the yard.

IN BENGAL.

3 Ungal or Anglí	= 1 Girih.....	2½ inch.
8 Girih	= 1 Háth	18 "
2 Háth	= 1 Gaz	36 "

4.—MEASURES OF SURFACE.

In Bengal the following are used:—

2 Square Háths	= 1 Gandeh.....	2½ sq. ft.
20 Gandeh	= 1 Chhatank.....	5 sq. yds.
16 Chhatáuk	= 1 Katthá	80 "
20 Katthá	= 1 Bighá	1600 "

The Bengal bighá is ⅔, or 0·3305785 of an acre.

34½ Square Háths	= 1 Kathi.
20 Kathiyo	= 1 Pand, or Vasó.
20 Pand	= 1 Bighá
6 Bighá	= 1 Rukéh.
120 Bigha	= 1 Chahúr.

If the Bombay Kathi of 5½ háths be exactly 9·3644 feet as stated by Jervis, this Bigh will contain 3897·422 sq. yds. = 0·805253 acre, but in other places it varies with the Kathi, which is the only real measure ever used in the central and southern part of the Bombay Presidency. In some places the survey chain of 33 feet has taken its place, and—

16 Anas or links	= 1 Guntá or chain.
40 Guntas	= 1 Acre.

IN GUJARAT.

20 Khunt.....	= 1 Padtal.
20 Padtal.....	= 1 Padat.
20 Padat.....	= 1 Vishwáshí.
20 Vishwáshí	= 1 Vasó.
20 Vasa	= 1 Vingho, Bighá or Dórf.

In the N. W. Provinces,—Delhi, Patna, Shahabad, Sarun, Bhagalpore, and Monghyr, the bighá of 3600 square Iláhi gaz = 3025 sq. yards or 0·625 acre prevails, and is divided as follows —

20 Uswansi or Nanwansi	= 1 Saswansi.....	24·5025 sq. in.
20 Saswansi or Tanwansi	= 1 Kachwansi	3·40312 sq. ft.
20 Kachwansi	= 1 Biswansi.....	7·56125 sq. yds.
20 Biswansi	= 1 Biswá	151½ "
20 Biswá	= 1 Bigha	3025 "

1 Acre = 1·6 Delhi bighá. The Orissa bighá is 1 acre or 4840 square yards.

The Tírhut bigha, is 400 sq. lagí = 4225 sq. yds. = ¼72934 acre.

IN MADRAS.

24 Grounds	=	1 Máni or Ground	2400 sq. ft.
The Káni	= 1·822314 acres.	1 Káni	6400 sq. yd.
		1 Acre	= 0·75625 Káni.

5.—LIQUID AND DRY MEASURES.

India, properly speaking, does not possess dry or liquid measures. Where these are employed they represent the ser or the mán weight. The value of any vessel of capacity rests solely on the weight contained in it. In S. and W. India an equal mixture of the principal grains is taken, and a vessel formed to hold a given weight of it.

In Bengal, the following are used for grain;—the conversion into English measure being derived from the capacity of a vessel holding a mán of water or $1\frac{1}{2}$ bushels.

5 Chhatáns	= 1 Kunkí	11·407 c. in.	0·5143 pts.
16 Chhatáns	= 1 Sér	57·037 "	1·6457 "
4 Káns	= 1 Rák	71·3 "	2·0571 "
4 Rák or 5 Sér	= 1 Páyalí, or drón	285 186 "	8·2286 "
8 Páli	= 1 Mán	2281·49 "	8·2286 gal.
20 Páyalí	= 1 Soali	5703 72 "	20·5714 "

It may be remarked that the mán of $8\frac{1}{2}$ gallons very nearly would form a very convenient dry measure; it would be a little larger than the English bushel, and ought to be a cylinder 8 in. deep and 19·055 in. diameter, or $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. deep and 18·487 in. diameter.

The Faro for salt contains 1607 61 cub. inches; and there is a sér for liquids of 60 tolas, or about 42·78 cub. inches, that is, 1·2343 pint.

The measures are all heaped; and equal quantities of five sorts of grain give the equivalent weight in tolas.

In Haweli Taluka	the Adholi is	212 tolas.

The values of these measures vary at different places; the Toya at Nuggur is 528 tolas, at Mitthi 518, and at Islamkot 464, on the frontier about 344, and at Shikarpore 295 tolas weight of water.

In Kurrachee, everything is sold by weight.

11. ANGULAR MEASURE.

Most nations divide the circle into 360 degrees, the Chinese however divide it into 365½, and the French, since 1792, into 400. The common method is termed the sexagesimal, and the French method the centesimal system.

60 Seconds (")	=	1 Minute (')
60 Minutes	=	1 Degree (°)
90 Degrees	=	1 Sign (s)
90 Degrees	=	1 Quadrant.

60 Geographical Miles or 69·045 } = 1° of the Terrestrial Meridian.
Statute miles nearly }

The circumference of a circle is 8·1416 times (very nearly) the diameter; and the diameter is $\frac{1}{3\frac{1}{2}}$ or 0·31831 of the circumference.

12. TIME TABLE.

60 Seconds	=	1 Minute	2½ pal.
60 Minutes	=	1 Hour	2½ gharí.
24 Hours	=	1 Day	1 dín.
7 Days	=	1 Week.
4 Weeks	=	1 Lunar month.
365 Days, or 52 Weeks 1 day, or 12 calendar months	} =	1 Common year.
366 Days	=	1 Leap year.
365½ Days	=	Julian year.
365d. 5 hr. 48 m. 47½ sec.	=	1 Solar, or Tropical year.

Every year of the Christian era of which the date is divisible by 4, without a remainder is a Leap year, or has 366 days, except those centuries which are not divisible by 4. Thus 1752 and 1864 were Leap years, because the numbers 1752 and 1864 are divisible by 4 without remainder, but the years 1800, 1900, are not Leap years, because the centuries 18 and 19 are not so divisible, without remainder. In 400 years there are 97 Leap years. The Calendar is called the Gregorian, from Pope Gregory XIII. who introduced it in 1582. It is used by all the nations of Europe except Russia. The Gregorian year is 365d. 5 hrs. 49 m. 12 sec.

With the exception of July and August both of which have 31 days, the months are alternately long and short. In Bissextile or Leap years February has 29 days, in common years only 28 days.

The months are—

1 January	31 days.	7 July.....	31 days.
2 February	28 or 29 "	8 August	31 "
3 March	31 "	9 September	30 "
4 April	30 "	10 October	31 "

USES OF THE PRECEDING TABLE.

1.—When Government 4 per cent Securities sell at 76, what are the equivalent values of the 5 and 5½ per cent. loans?

In the table opposite 76 in the first column are 95 the value of the 5 per cent. loan, and 104½ the value of the 5½ per cent. loan,—the interest in all the three cases being 5·263 or 5 5/19 per Cent.

2.—At what price should I purchase 4 per Cents. to obtain $5\frac{1}{2}$ per Cent. for my money P
In the fourth column opposite $5\frac{1}{2}$ or 5.5 in the column for 4 per Cent. stands 72.727 or 72 $\frac{8}{11}$ the price required.

3.—What would I gain, by selling out Rs. 10,000, 5 per Cent. Government loans at 104 and purchasing $5\frac{1}{2}$ per Cent. at 112?

In the third column opposite 104 in the 2nd is 114.4.

Gain on Rs. 100 of Capital 2.4
And in the fourth column, opposite 112 in the 3rd, is ... 4.911 per Cent.
" " " 104 " 2nd, ... 4.808 " "

Difference, or gain per cent per annum on capital... 0.103 " or fully 1/10 per cent. being Rs. 10 5a. on every Rs. 1000 invested.

4.—To find the equivalent values of 4 and $5\frac{1}{2}$ per Cent. Securities when 5 per Cents. are selling at 103 $\frac{1}{2}$ or Rs. 103 6a.

Opposite 103 in the second column, are 82.4 and 113.3 in the 1st and 3rd, and among the "proportional parts" corresponding to .375 or 6a. in the 5 per Cent. col. are 0.3R.
in the 4 per Cent, and .413 in the $5\frac{1}{2}$ per Cent column.

Hence $82.4 + .8 = 82.7$, the equivalent price of 4 per Cent., and $113.3 + .413 =$
Rs. 113.713 or Rs. 113.11a. 5p. (by the table p. 73) the equivalent price of $5\frac{1}{2}$ per Cents.

Other uses of this Table will readily occur to brokers and others.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Any person removing a Stamp from a letter, or knowingly using such Stamp, or erasing from a Stamp any mark or writing thereon, is liable to a fine of Rs. 200.

Any Government Stamp Vendor refusing, or unnecessarily delaying, to sell Stamps or Postage Labels, incurs a penalty of Rs. 100; and when convicted of cheating, or of extortion, is liable to the same amount of fine besides imprisonment.

Commanders of Vessels must deliver their Mails as soon as possible after arrival, under a penalty of Rs. 1,000, and any person on board retaining letters which ought to be delivered to the Post Office, renders himself liable to the same penalty.

Any person who for the purpose of defrauding the Post Office revenue, certifies on an Official or other Letter or Packet what is not true in respect to the contents thereof, incurs a penalty of Rs. 500. A party sending private Letters under an Official cover duly franked, comes under this Rule.

Any person detaining, except for a criminal offence, a Post Office Messenger with Mails, or any carriage or horse by which Mails are being conveyed, is liable to a penalty of Rs. 500.

Any person refusing to deliver up a Letter or other article delivered to him by mistake by the Post Office, is liable to fine and imprisonment, with hard labour, for two years.

The Poster of a Letter or Parcel containing any explosive or dangerous material or substance, is liable to a penalty of Rs. 200.

Letters or Parcels suspected to contain contraband articles, can be opened by the Postal Authorities, and Parcels for foreign countries can be refused by them, unless accompanied by a Custom House certificate.

Delivering Peons are required to obtain the endorsement of addresses on covers refused by them, especially registered letters, such being necessary for the satisfaction of the senders when the letters are returned to them through the Dead Letter Department.

When the numbers of covers received at any Post Office shall cause the weight of the Mail to exceed the regulated weight, the Post Master is authorized to keep back a portion of the heavier public Despatches and imported Newspapers till not the following day, but private letters and public letters marked "Despatch" are to be kept back.

Postage stamps should be affixed to the right hand upper corner of all letters, &c.

The Postal Department is not responsible for any loss or damage that may occur in respect of anything entrusted to it for conveyance.

A separate instruction is required for every change of address, and no instruction is attended to for more than three months after its receipt.

The practice of giving instructions to the Officers of the Post Office to intercept and redirect letters not only imposes much labour upon them, but in large offices seriously retards the delivery and despatch of the Mails. A Register of instructions regarding changes of address is kept in every Post Office, but it is to be understood that it is impossible to guarantee that they shall be attended to, except in the case of letters received for delivery.

Verbal instructions or such as may be of a complicated or conditional nature will not be attended to.

No Post Master is allowed to affix a Postage Stamp to any articles brought unstamped to his Office.

Money or other valuable article will not knowingly be received for transmission by Post, but the halves of Bank Notes do not come within the prohibition.

The delivery Peons are prohibited from taking charge of Letters for the purpose of posting them, or from going out of their course to deliver letters, &c. and from delivering them without immediate payment of Postage. They must not give change, and if subjected to detention, they can refuse to deliver the Letters, &c, which will be sent out for delivery on the following day.

Post Masters can refuse to receive Letters, Papers, or Parcels, bearing the appearance of having been opened and re-closed or tampered with unless their damaged state is certified in writing by the senders, and are prohibited from knowingly receiving coin, bullion, precious stones, or jewels for dispatch.

The Post Office is not bound to give Receipts for Letters or Parcels. But if written Receipts for Parcels are presented, the Post Office Stamp will be affixed.

Postage must be paid immediately on demand; if the party refuses to pay, his property is liable to be seized and sold, and his Letters, &c. detained in the Post Office.

Letters containing remittances or valuable documents ought to be registered, and well secured with sealing-wax. Letters fastened with gum or wafer can be opened with impunity, without the slightest difficulty.

Letters, Newspapers, and Books can be registered by the payment of 4 annas in addition to the postage, both of which must be prepaid by Stamps.

Letters, Packets, and Parcels once posted cannot be restored to the senders except by an express order from Government, but Newspapers, Pamphlets, or Printed Papers can be returned on payment of the postage which would have been charged had they been forwarded.

The postage charged on any Letter or other article maliciously sent for the purpose of annoying the addressee may be remitted.

Letters, Papers, or Packets which follow a party, or are re-addressed from one Station to another, or stopped in transit, are liable to forward Postage.

Letters addressed to Public Officers, superscribed "On the public Service," but not franked, and consequently sent Bearing, must be received by the addressee, and the Postage charged in a contingent Bill to be sent to Government.

In addressing Letters, the community should add the number of the house, or street, or locality, where their correspondents reside, and should sign their surnames. This will materially assist the delivery of Letters, and help the Dead Letter Office, where Letters remain undisposed of because neither the addressees nor the senders (who omit to add their surnames) can be found.

English Postage Stamps are not recognised in India, nor are Indian Postage Stamps acknowledged in Great Britain.

All communications respecting change of address should be made to the Deputy Post Master General, and not to the Post Master General.

All complaints requiring redress, such as surcharge of Postage, mis-sending, or delay in the delivery of Letters, &c., must be made to the Post Master General, accompanied by the Envelopes of the Letters referred to; and the number of the Delivery Peon should always be stated.

BOMBAY.

Till further orders the following arrangements regarding Bombay will remain in force. Any alterations that may subsequently be made will be published in the daily press.

PATTERN POST TO GREAT BRITAIN.

An arrangement has been made with the London Post Office for sending Patterns of Merchandize by Post between India and the United Kingdom, under the rules and at the rates of Postage indicated below. The arrangement will commence as regards despatches from India from the 1st May next. Intimation has been received from the London Post Office that the arrangement will commence as regards despatches thence from the 1st April.

The Patterns must not be of intrinsic value. The rule excludes all articles of a saleable nature, and whatever may have a value of its own part from its mere use as a Pattern. The quantity of any material sent, ostensibly as a Pattern, must not be so great that it could fairly be considered as having on this ground an intrinsic value.

The Patterns must not bear any writing other than the address of the persons for whom they are intended, a manufacturer's or trade mark, numbers, and the prices of the articles; nor must they contain any letter closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection.

The Patterns must be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination; samples, however, of Seeds, Drugs, and so forth, which cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen or other material; but closed bags, although transparent, must not be used for this purpose.

The rule which forbids the transmission through the Post of any explosive or dangerous substance will of course be applicable to Patterns, and no article likely to injure the contents of the Mail Bags is to be sent.

No Pattern Packet can be received if it exceeds two feet in length, width, or depth, or 3 lbs. in weight.

The Inland Transit of Pattern Packets will be by Banghy Post.

The following Postage rates (prepaid by a Stamp or Stamps) will be charged on Pattern Packets sent under these regulations by Post to the United Kingdom. The rates being consolidated rates, no Inland Postage is leviable in addition:—

TO THE UNITED KINGDOM	PATTERN PACKETS NOT EXCEEDING
	4 ozs.		8 ozs.		1 lb.		1½ lb.		2 lbs.		2½ lbs.		3 lbs.
	R.	A.	P.	R.	A.	P.	R.	A.	P.	R.	A.	P.	R.	A.	P.
„ Marcellis	0	4	0	0	8	0	1	0	0	1	8	0	2	0	0	2	8	0	3	0	0

If the Packets to or from India be prepaid with a single rate of Postage (as given in Column 1 of the above Table), the full rate chargeable being more, they will be forwarded charged with the deficient Postage, together with an additional single rate.

If the Packets be prepaid with less than a single rate of Postage, they will be forwarded charged with double postage, less the amount actually paid.

If the Packets be wholly unpaid, they will be forwarded charged with double postage.

In respect to Inland Transit the general conditions for Patterns are similar to those for Book Packets, and they will be treated like Book Packets.

Or it is optional with the Passengers to pay the Company for the sea passage only, and to pay their own transit through Egypt upon arrival at Suez.

Servants soliciting gratuities will be dismissed from the Company's service.

Passengers not embarking after engaging passage, to forfeit the deposit of half the amount of passage-money.

In case, however, of a passenger being unavoidably prevented from availing himself of a passage at the period for which it is taken, a transfer of the passage can be effected to a subsequent Steamer, on sufficient notice being given, without forfeiture of any portion of the deposit paid, and accommodation will be allotted as similar as circumstances will permit.

Passengers must comply with the regulations established on board the Steamer for general comfort and safety.

No berth or Cabin is to be occupied by a Passenger without applications to the Agent on shore, or to the Purser on board. It is to be understood that a passenger occupying a cabin of two or more berths, on the departure of the vessel (unless he shall have paid an additional sum for its exclusive occupation) is not to object to the vacant berth or berths being filled up at the intermediate ports if required.

Passengers for Madras, Calcutta, and Australia, are transferred to the Calcutta and Sydney Steamers at Point de Galle. Passengers will require to defray their own Hotel expenses in event of detention at Point de Galle.

The intermediate rates of passage-money for reserved accommodation between Bombay and ports in India, China, and Australia will be regulated according to the accommodation required.

The rates for Native Servants, between ports in India and China, include a passage back to the port of embarkation should the First Class Passenger be desirous of sending the Servants back at once. A reduction of one half is made in favour of Native Servants returning from England within three months after arrival from India.

Passengers are at liberty to remain at one or more intermediate ports, and proceed by the succeeding Steamer upon application to the Agent, who will give written permission on the passage ticket.

Passengers from Australia, China, and the Straits for Europe can book their passage via Bombay, staying a fortnight (at their own expense) without extra passage-money.

The passage tickets are granted by the Company, subject to certain conditions and regulations which are endorsed thereon; and before the tickets can be made available, the passengers must subscribe to the conditions by affixing their signatures thereto.

The Company do not hold themselves liable for detention or delay of Passengers arising from accident or from extraordinary or unavoidable circumstances, or from circumstances arising out of or connected with the employment of the Company's vessels in Her Majesty's Mail Service, and that the Company do not hold themselves liable for damage to or loss or detention of Passengers' Baggage, or for any consequences arising from the restriction of quarantine, whosoever imposed. In all cases in which the Company's Steamers may be placed in quarantine, First-class Passengers will be charged Ten Shillings, and Second-class Passengers Five Shillings per diem for their maintenance on board during the detention of the Ship.

For the regulated allowance of 3 cwt., 10s. per cwt. } Exclusive of the charge for transport made
For any excess over 3 cwt., 20s. per cwt. } by the Transit Administration of Egypt.

All heavy baggage not required for the overland route may be delivered to the Austrian Lloyd's Agents in London, Alexandria or Suez for shipment via Southampton. The direct passage between Trieste and Alexandria and vice versa, occupies only 4½ to 5 days. The distance between these two ports is 200 miles shorter than that between Marseilles and Alexandria.

An experienced Surgeon is on board of each vessel.

Great facilities have been granted of late by the Austrian Authorities with regard to the Passport system of travellers passing through the Austrian dominions. The Passport will have only to be exhibited and viséd in future by the Police Authority at the Austrian frontier (Bodenbach and Trieste or vice versa).

Passports for British subjects returning from India are obtainable at the Government Secretariats at Calcutta, Bombay and Madras and at the Office of the British Consulate at Alexandria for the voyage to England via Trieste. Such Passports must be viséd at Trieste at the Police Office and may at once be countersigned by the Consuls of those States through which the traveller passes. Visa may also be obtained at the Austrian and Prussian Consulates at the Presidency towns in India.

At Trieste the traveller to England has a great choice of picturesque and interesting routes occupying from 3 days 6 hours to 5 days to London, at an expense varying from £7 to £13. A splendid scenery is offered to the traveller in performing the journey between Vienna and Trieste, especially from Gratz in either direction.

The far famed pass of the Semmering Mountain lays between Gloggnitz and Mürzzuschlag, on the way between Vienna and Gratz, a distance which is performed in about 1½ hours by express train, and 2 hours by ordinary train. On this short distance the railway train passes through 14 tunnels stopping at 4 stations, viz :—Payerbach, Clamm, Breitenstein, and Semmering, and by performing this journey in day time, and opportunity is afforded to the traveller of seeing the stupendous and wonderful engineering operations of this railway and of considering the difficulties which had to be surmounted in carrying the railway over this mountain.

The railway works between Lalbach and Trieste also deserve particular attention. Arriving at Adelsberg, a railway station between Lalbach and Trieste, travellers should not lose the opportunity of inspecting the wonderful natural grotto, which is close to that station.

Throughout Germany few travel first class. The second class railway carriage in Germany and Belgium is fully equal to first class in England.

If a stay is made at any of the towns en route, the traveller, if unacquainted with German, had better employ a Commissioner, who will see his passport viséd and apprise him of the precise hours of departure of the trains, which, according to season, may be subject to alteration. On an average, he may put his hotel expenses down at 10s. a day.

Travellers desirous of performing an expeditious journey throughout and wishing to proceed at once from the various stations on the Continent without stopping, may have through tickets issued for long distances. This facility is offered at all the principal places on the Continent.

To travellers who proceed through the Continent without unnecessary stoppages, the following is the expense of the journey from Bombay to London :—

	First Class.
Bombay to Suez	£75
Expenses of Transit through Egypt by Rail	2 10s.
Alexandria to Trieste	15
Trieste to London (if 11. class Rail on Continent, only £9) ..	12

The Agents of the Austrian Lloyd, named below, are prepared to grant passage tickets for the Steamers plying between Alexandria and Trieste. Parties who engage their passage in India thereby secure priority in the choice of accommodation and the services of the Company's Agent at Suez.

A written declaration of the contents and value of goods is required by the Company, and must be delivered by the shipper to the Company's Agent with the Bill of Lading. A wrong description of contents or false declaration of value shall release the Company from all responsibility in case of loss, seizure or detention, and the goods shall be charged double freight on the real value, which freight shall be paid previous to delivery.

For greater facility the Company reserves to itself power to land cargo at port of delivery, charging consignees according to a scale of rates which may be seen at the Agents' Offices.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

FOR THE MEASUREMENT BY CALLIPERS UPON SHIPMENTS TO GREAT BRITAIN, OF COTTON, WOOL, HEMP AND OTHER SCREWED AND PRESSED BALES, AT THE PORT OF BOMBAY.

1. That Callipers shall from time to time be submitted to the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and, if found correct, shall be branded with a Stamp bearing the name of the Chamber, to indicate the same.

II. That if from use or otherwise, any Callipers should get out of order and be objected to, the party objecting shall send the Callipers to the Chamber for examination; and should the objection be valid, the Chamber Stamp shall be defaced by the Secretary; if, however, the objection is found to be groundless, the Secretary shall give a note to that effect, and the party objecting shall be bound by his decision.

III. That any Callipers found incorrect, and on which the Stamp has been defaced, may be re-stamped after adjustment.

IV. That no measurements shall be held good, except such as are taken by Callipers bearing the Chamber's Stamp.

V. That Cotton, Hemp, Wool, and other screwed Bales shall be measured as follows, namely,—the greatest length to be first ascertained, and then the Bale to be set on either end, as the shipmaster may wish, and cross measurements to be taken at top over the lashings, excepting the knots, and as near the centre of the Bale as possible. Than at average of 100 Bales be struck by ascertaining the actual measurement of any 10 Bales, and proportionately, the Shipper selecting and measuring one half, and the Shipmaster the other half; should, however, any dispute or difficulty arise in the selection of Bales either party to have the option of measuring the whole quantity.

VI. That all produce subject to measurement be measured within the day on which it has been ordered to be screwed, provided the other has been given by the Shipmaster or Agents of the Vessel; and that from 1st June to 15th October the same be measured at the Screws: during the remainder of the year, if required, on the Bunder, weather permitting. No Cotton, Wool, or other goods, to be measured until a Custom House Pass has been obtained for the same.

VII. That in the event of the Shipmaster not attending to measure at such hour as may have been appointed by him, the Agent or Agents of the Ship do empower a person to attend on his behalf, whose sanction to the measurement shall be binding upon the Shipmaster.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT, 1864-65.

BY THE HON'BLE SIR C. TREVELYAN, K.C.B., APRIL 7, 1864.

I REMARKED in my last Financial Statement that, after a long series of Indian deficits, the year 1862-63 opened a new era. The account of that year has now been completed, and the surplus of Income over Expenditure amounts to £1,827,845, which sum was added to the Cash Balances.

Compared with the Budget Estimate of the year, the improvement is £1,647,581, or, according to the Secretary of State's corrected Statement £1,183,681. The increase in the single item of Opium was £1,755,476. Mr. Laing's Estimate was £6,300,000. The actual receipts were £8,055,476.

PROGRESS OF THE REVENUE.

The increase in the Revenue of India during the last five years, corrected according to the actual accounts, is as follows :—

1859-60	£39,705,822
1860-61	£42,908,284
1861-62	£43,829,472

REVENUE OF 1863-64.

The most important event of the current year, 1863-64, in its bearing upon the finances has been the depressed state of the money market. The first symptoms of this appeared at Bombay in October, and, throughout the last six months of the year, the revenue has suffered from its injurious influence. Upon the Opium revenue the effect has been particularly marked. The average price of the Calcutta sales during 1862-63 was Rs. 1,429 a chest. The average price during the first six months of 1863-64 was Rs. 1,371. The average price of the five sales which have since taken place is Rs. 1,100. At Bombay, owing to the scarcity and dearness of money, which afterwards extended to China and caused a serious fall in the prices there, the taking out of Opium Passes at the fixed rate of Rs. 600 a chest was almost suspended. Last year, in order to get the benefit of the high prices, every available chest was sent down to Bombay. This year, a large number of chests are held back, awaiting a better state of the money market, and the greater part of the receipts from the Pass duty will be thrown forward to 1864-65. The Budget Estimate for Bengal will be rather more than realised; but there is an estimated deficiency of £1,150,000 on the entire produce of this branch of revenue in the two Presidencies of Bengal and Bombay.

Two other sources of revenue show a small decrease owing to exceptional causes. "Customs" are £15,500 less than the Budget Estimate, and £140,166 less than the actual receipts of 1862-63. The import trade, from which the greater part of the Customs Revenue is derived, has continued in a depressed state, owing to the high price of Manchester goods and the abnormal condition of the money market. The other item is "Salt," in which there is a decrease, compared with the Budget, of £124,100; but an increase, compared with the actual receipts of 1862-63, of £84,150. Owing to the unusually large quantity of duty-paid salt which came into the market in Bengal in 1862-63, the decrease there is £200,000, but there is an increase of £27,500 in the Punjab and of £61,000 at Madras.

• The other sources of revenue show satisfactory improvement.

In Land Revenue the increase is general throughout India, amounting to £572,100 compared with the Budget Estimate, and £710,853 compared with the actual receipts of 1862-63.

In "Forest," which is now separated from "Sayer," there is an increase of £41,900.

In "Abkaree" there is an increase of £154,700 compared with the Budget Estimate, and £42,920 compared with the actual receipts of 1862-63. This increase would have been larger but for a falling off in the North-West Provinces owing to the introduction of the Sudder Distillery System in May last. The object of this system is to raise a maximum Revenue from a minimum consumption. The loss of Revenue is not to be regretted so far as it is caused by the cessation of the inducements to the intemperate use of spirits held out by the former contract system; but it is not desirable that there should be a virtual prohibition of the ordinary wine of the country,* which can only benefit the smuggler. The experiment is in safe hands, and the whole of India will gain by its being satisfactorily worked out.

The "Income Tax" shows an increase of £88,800 compared with the Budget Estimate, of which £51,700 occurs in Bombay. Compared with the actuals of 1862-63, when the tax was one per cent higher upon incomes above Rs. 500, and the Tax of two per cent. on incomes below Rs. 500 had still to be collected for three months, there is a decrease of £487,212.

"Stamps" show an increase of £208,600 compared with the Budget Estimate, and of £242,562 compared with the actual receipts of 1862-63.

The other items are under heads the receipts of which accrue under no fixed rules, but vary with the circumstances of the time. They show an increase of £5,700 compared with the Budget Estimate, and of £640,797 compared with the actuals of 1862-63. The falling off of £125,400 in "Military Receipts" compared with the Budget Estimate, is chiefly caused by the cessation of the nominal receipts from cash payments between Departments; and the diminution of £250,700 under Public Works arises, partly from the withdrawal from this head of receipt of funds which, although received by Public Works Officers, were expended for, and had been finally appropriated to local objects; and partly from Public Works Receipts having been over-estimated.

The whole of the Revenue of the year, including Opium, is less than the Budget Estimate by £217,700, and than the Actual Receipts of 1862-63 by £390,252. Excluding Opium, there is an increase of £982,800 compared with the former, and of £815,224 compared with the latter. The temporary falling off in a branch of Revenue which is peculiarly dependent upon the state of the money and produce markets has, therefore, been almost compensated by the continued improvement of those branches which are the true index of the condition of the people. The increase of £710,853 in the Land Revenue, compared with last year, furnishes decisive proof of the prosperous state of the agricultural community.

It must arise from extended and improved cultivation, for there has been no enhancement of rates. The increase of £242,562 in the produce of the Stamp Revenue, in like manner, shows the activity which has prevailed among the commercial classes and the increasing extent of their transactions.

EXPENDITURE OF 1863-64.

Before noticing the expenditure, it is necessary to mention that the practice of dividing the charge for the same service among several Departments has been discontinued, and the grants are now shown, according to the English method, under the Departments which undertake the respective services. Therefore, although the aggregate sum of the Estimate published with the Financial Statement of the 30th of April last, is the same as that of the Budget Estimate now given, the details vary under most of the heads of expenditure from those which appeared in that Estimate.

The increase under "Allowances, Refunds, and Drawbacks," £47,700, is nominal, the entire amount being on both sides, and the payments being claimable of right. Compared with the Actuals of 1862-63, there is a decrease of £26,766.

The increase under "Salt," £56,475, arises in Bengal and Bombay. In the former Presidency reductions in Establishments were not effected so early as was anticipated, and in the latter, the purchase of Salt, which had previously been shown under a suspense head in the "Debt" Account, is now shown as a charge against Revenue. Compared with the Actuals of 1862-63, there is a decrease of £164,511.

The increase under "Opium," £108,700, is caused by larger advances made to cultivators at the increased rates, and by the sums expended in buildings. Compared with 1862-63, there is an increase of £253,122.

The increase of £36,504 under "Mint," arises from the more full employment of the Mints at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay.

The increase under "Army," £150,309, is caused by the expenditure, estimated at £200,000, arising out of the Sitana Expedition, and the movements of Troops connected with that Expedition are with the Camp of Exercise which was at one time contemplated. Compared with 1862-63, there is an increase in the Military expenditure of £956.

* This is made from the Mowa, a flower. It is weak and perishable, and stands in the same relation to the people of the country as Beer does to the labouring classes in England.

The increase under Marine charges, £244,844, is caused by the Marine Establishments at Bombay not having been reduced to the extent intended. Compared with 1862-63, the decrease is only £193,390.

The sum appropriated for "Public Works" by the Budget of 1863-64, irrespective of the construction of Railways, was £4,995,100, after which additional grants were made which brought the total amount up to £5,408,575; but, according to the best information that can be obtained, at least £250,000 of this will not be expended previously to the termination of the Financial year, because the available supply of labour is limited in many parts of India, and professional establishments cannot be suddenly expanded to meet additional demands upon them. The sum at which the expenditure for "Public Works" has been taken in the Regular Estimate is, therefore, £5,158,575. This is £168,475 more than the Budget Estimate, and £757,943 more than was expended in 1862-63.

The Budget Estimate for "Education, Science, and Art" was £461,600, which was increased by additional grants to £552,300. Owing, however, to the late period at which most of these additional grants were made, and to the time occupied in the administrative arrangements to give effect to them, it is improbable that the sum expended within the Financial year will exceed £502,800. This is an increase over the Budget Estimate of £40,700, and of £101,939 over the expenditure of 1862-63.

The decrease under "Interest," £98,208, is caused, partly by the reduction effected in the Public Debt by the purchase of Government Securities, and partly by the exclusion of Unclaimed Interest after a careful calculation of the average charge. Compared with 1862-63 there is a decrease of £106,680.

Under "Net expenditure in England" there is a decrease of £312,118, which arises from an increase of £132,662 in the Home Receipts, and a diminution of £179,447 in the Home Charges.

"Guaranteed Interest on Railway Capital, less Net Traffic Receipts," is also less than the Budget Estimate by £71,492, the Net Traffic Receipts having been larger than was expected by £88,667.

According to the Regular Estimate, the net increase in the expenditure compared with the Budget Estimate is £231,546.

RESULT OF THE OPERATIONS OF 1863-64 ACCORDING TO THE REGULAR ESTIMATE.

The Budget Estimate assumed a surplus of Income over Expenditure of £480,775. According to the Regular Estimate, the surplus will be only £31,529, being a difference against the Budget Estimate of £449,246. My own expectation, however, is that, when the accounts of the year are finally made up, the customary result of increased receipts and diminished expenditure will appear, and the surplus will be found to be as large as was originally estimated by me. Compared with the actual accounts of 1862-63, the Regular Estimate for 1863-64 is worse by £1,795,816. This is mainly due to the difference, amounting to £1,205,476 between the receipts from Opium in the former and in the latter year.

PUBLIC WORKS AND PAYMENT OF DEBT.

In my last Financial Statement I announced, on behalf of the Government, that any funds that could be expended with advantage on Roads, on works of Irrigation and Navigation, or on any other useful works, would be granted, during this financial year, in addition to the large appropriation for Public Works, amounting to nearly £5,000,000 made by the Budget, and to £4,000,000 more estimated to be required for the construction of Guaranteed Railway. I also said that if, in the course of this year, any well-considered plans for promoting Education were brought forward which could not be provided for from the grant of the year, a further appropriation would be made. These pledges have been redeemed. No objection has been made to any proposal for Public Works or Education on the score of want of funds. The additional grants for Public Works have amounted to £418,475, and for Education to £90,700. They will not all be spent within the year, as has been already stated; but the Government did all that was in its power.

I also showed how much a healthy state of the Finances would be promoted if, instead of paying for Public Works out of the Cash Balances, the whole expenditure of the year, including the great Public Works grants, were provided for out of Ways and Means raised within the year, and the surplus of the Cash Balances were employed in extinguishing Debt. This policy has been acted upon. Including the Public Securities purchased from the Currency Deposits, which are held to meet a possible, but extremely improbable demand for the payment of an equivalent amount of Government notes, the net annual charge for Interest here and at home has, within the last two years, been reduced by half a million. The operations alluded to are as follows :—

At Home.

East India Bonds paid off.....	£ 256,200
Loans on Security of East India Bonds repaid.....	1,500,000
Debentures paid off.....	5,557,900

In India.

Government Securities purchased out of the Balances at Calcutta...	1,000,000
Ditto ditto out of the proceeds of the sale of Waste Lands and Confiscated Estates	100,000
Ditto ditto out of the Currency Deposits under Act XIX. of 1861.....	3,000,000
Tanjore Debt and Treasury Notes and Bills paid off.....	431,303
Loan repaid to the Rajah of Cashmere.....	60,000
Cancelled Government Securities of the Rebel Narain Sing after deducting £75,000 to make a provision for his brother by adoption	200,500

Total.....£12,105,008

On the other hand, Non-transferable Notes have been granted for £669,067 for the investment of sums belonging to the Pension Funds of different branches of the public service, but as the Government has bound itself to receive the available balances of these Funds, whether the money is wanted or not, and to allow rates of interest higher than the usual rate, they should be distinguished from the ordinary debt. These transactions have in them more of the nature of grants than of loans.

It must be remembered that, as mentioned in my last Financial Statement, we borrowed, towards the close of the Mutiny, five millions sterling more than we wanted.

CASH BALANCES.

According to the Budget Estimate, the Cash Balance on the 30th April 1864 would have been £15,427,400. According to the Regular Estimate it will be £14,533,834, or £893,566 less. This is the Balance which remains in hand in India, after providing for the payment of the Drafts of the Secretary of State to the extent of £9,000,000, and for payments of the several Railway Companies and the Irrigation and Canal Company amounting to £3,873,567. The sale of the Secretary of State's Bills upon the Indian Treasuries has given great relief to trade, by obviating the necessity for the remittance of an equal amount of Bullion from England; and further aid has been afforded by gathering up our Indian balances, and sending to Bombay every available Rupee to be exchanged for a portion of the Bullion which the Mint was unable to coin with the requisite speed. The working power of the Mint has been lately much increased by additional machinery.

At home, there are only two Treasuries—the Bank of England and the Bank of Ireland—and an annual expenditure of upwards of £70,000,000 is worked by a Cash Balance which seldom amounts to more than £6,000,000; and even this is exhausted by the payments of the dividends after the close of the quarter. In India, there are 211 separate Treasuries, which have to be kept in funds to provide for the payment of the Troops and other current demands, and, with a total annual expenditure of only £44,000,000, including the payment of the Secretary of State's Drafts, the average Cash Balances in India have been in 1860-61 £14,144,240; in 1861-62 £16,451,621; in 1862-63 £18,322,423; in ten months of 1863-64 £15,376,033; and in the whole forty-six months £16,103,907. This is in addition to the Cash Balance at the credit of the Secretary of State in London. Therefore, although the difficulties are great, there is still much room for improvement in India in this important branch of finance; and arrangements have been made, by a careful classification of the Treasuries, and a strict limitation of the amount to be retained in each, for keeping the Balances in the Provincial Treasuries as low as possible, and for promptly remitting all surplus funds to the General Treasuries at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, in order to their being utilised for the public service. These large accumulations of silver, under the name of Cash Balances, are one of the causes of the scarcity of that metal.

I now proceed to the expenditure for 1864-65.

In "Allowances, Refunds, and Drawbacks" there is an increase, compared with the last Budget Estimate, of £20,040, but as this item is incapable of strict regulation, it calls for no remark.

In "Land Revenue, Forest and Abkaree," there is an increase of expenditure amounting to £245,868 compared with the Budget estimate, and to £270,450 compared with the Regular Estimate of 1863-64. The progress of improvement has given value to the Forests, and exertions are making to save them from further dilapidation by a well-considered system of conservation. This is one reason for the increased expenditure; another is the employment of additional Establishments in every Province to revise the existing Land Revenue Settlements, with a view to give to India, at the earliest practicable period, the advantage of a permanent limitation of the Land Tax, or, where the cultivation is in too backward a state to allow of this, of a thirty years' lease. The outlay upon this and upon the conservation of the Forests, is of the nature of a reproductive investment. The financial results, direct and indirect, of the new Permanent Settlement, will be of the most important kind. One effect will be that the charge for the settlement and collection of the Land Revenue, which has become a very serious item, will be much diminished.

There is a reduction of £5,377 in "Assessed Taxes," and of £76,017 in "Customs" compared with the expenditure provided for in the Budget Estimate of 1863-64.

In "Salt," there is an increase of £50,372 compared with the Budget Estimate of 1863-64, which chiefly arises from the provision made at Madras for an increased quantity of salt for consumption in 1864-65; but there is a reduction of £170,614, compared with the actual expenditure of 1862-63, caused by the cessation of the Government manufacture in Bengal.

In "Opium" there is an increased expenditure of £253,461 compared with the Budget Estimate, and of £144,761 compared with the Regular Estimate, for 1863-64. This also is of the nature of an investment to be reproduced in increased receipts. The increase in the rates of payment to cultivators has produced that extension of the cultivation which was pronounced by Mr. Wilson and Mr. Laing to be indispensable for the preservation of the Opium Revenue.

The expenditure on "Stamps" is substantially the same as in the Budget and Regular Estimates for 1863-64.

The expenditure on the three Mints of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay shows an increase of £89,869 compared with the Budget Estimate and of £53,365 compared with the Regular Estimate of 1863-64. This arises from the necessary preparations for an increased coinage of Silver and Copper money during the ensuing year, the expected fruit of which is seen in the estimated increased receipts from this source, amounting to £78,500 compared with the Budget Estimate of 1863-64.

Both "Post Office" and "Electric Telegraph" show a small decrease of expenditure, which, in the case of the Post Office, chiefly arises from the development of the Railway system.

There is a reduction of £50,458 on "Allowances and Assignments under Treaties and Engagements," and an increase of £40,481 on "Allowances to District and Village Officers" compared with the Budget Estimate of 1863-64. These payments are made under positive engagement or fixed rules.

On "Miscellaneous," and "Contingencies, special and temporary," taken together, there is a decrease of £10,569 compared with the Budget Estimate of 1863-64.

The actual expenditure on the Army in 1862-63 was £12,764,325. The Budget Estimate for 1863-64 was £12,614,972. The Budget Estimate for 1864-65 is £12,653,189.

Under this aggregate important increases and decreases are included.

The new scales of Staff Salaries and Regimental Pay cause an additional annual charge of £90,000.

Increased pay to Native Officers and improved rates of Good Conduct Pay to Privates of the Native Army, £90,400.

The transfer of the two remaining Military Police Corps from the Police to the Military Establishment, £27,400.

Two years' arrears of compensation for Extra Clothing recently granted to the European Troops, £60,000.

Additional compensation for dearness of provisions to the Native Troops in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies, £45,000.

Increased expenditure in the Bengal Ordnance and in the Madras and Bombay Commissariat caused partly by the necessity of bringing up reduced stocks, and partly by the present enhanced prices, £110,000.

On the other hand, £50,000 has been saved by reduced stock, and diminished price of bee, and £60,000 by the decrease and better regulation of the Pension List. After deducting the cost of gratuities and extra pensions to the Madras Native Artillery, to four legiments of Madras Native Infantry, and to the East Indian Regiment, which are to be disbanded, there will be a reduced expenditure of £35,000 in 1864-65, and a prospective reduction of upwards of £60,000. A transfer has been made to the Civil Departments of the charge for the pay of Officers employed by them, amounting to £63,700.

It will be seen from what I have said that, while, on the one hand, reductions of permanent charge have been made; on the other, a considerable additional outlay has been authorized for improvements which will promote the fidelity and efficiency of the Native, and the comfort of the European Army. But for the heavy additional charge arising from this, and from the increase of prices, especially in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies, there would have been a reduction in the Military expenditure. Order has been re-established in the administration of the Army after the great convulsion through which it passed, and all that relates to the accounting for, and auditing of the expenditure, is worked up closer than before. At the same time, the tendency to increased expenditure, arising from enhanced prices and the demand for improvements of various kinds continues, and will be productive of embarrassing results if it is not met by corresponding measures of economy. The entire estimated cost of the Indian Army for the year, including the payments to be made at home, is £14,856,201.

The incidental receipts of each Department are credited in the Balance Sheet on the opposite side from the expenditure. It will be seen that the sum expected to be received in connection with the Army in 1864-65, is £661,300; so that the net charge for the Army in India is £11,991,889.

"Marine Charges" are £231,924 more than the Budget Estimate for 1863-64, which was taken on the supposition that the marine expenditure would be much diminished by the abolition of the Indian Navy. Subsidies to Steam-boat Companies amounting to £46,200 per annum, which had previously been divided among several Departments, will, for the future, be entirely charged to this head. "Marine Charges" are still in course of reduction as the arrangements for the Royal Navy performing the same duties in the Eastern Seas as in other parts of the world are carried into effect.

The grant for Works of Public Improvement for the current year was £2,880,000 with a Reserve Fund of 10 per cent., or £238,000 for any works which it might afterwards be determined to commence, and which could not be provided for out of the proportion of the £2,880,000 allotted to the several Local Governments and Administrations. The additional sum actually granted exceeded the Reserve Fund, but the expenditure will fall a good deal short of the grants.

It has been determined to appropriate a consolidated sum for Works of Public Improvement next year, equal to the grant of this year, with the addition of the Reserve Fund, or £2,618,000 in all; and to allot it among the different Governments and Administrations in about the same proportions as the original grant of this year. The sum for Civil Buildings and ordinary Military Works will be the same as last year, i. e., £570,000 for the former and £650,000 for the latter.

The proportion of the three preceding grants assigned to the Bombay Presidency is £620,000. This is reported by the Governor in Council to be insufficient. The development of that part of India and the harbor and fortification works in progress undoubtedly require a large expenditure; but the works carried on at the same time ought to be kept within such limits as will not violently disturb the labour market. "The price of all materials and labour has so greatly increased, that 60 lakhs of Rupees will not now do more than that which 30 or 40 lakhs would have effected three years ago."* From this it may be inferred what would be the consequence of a largely increased expenditure. All things considered, the Governor General in Council has determined to increase the assignment for Public Works at Bombay by a special grant of £200,000. This will be irrespective of £204,330 estimated to be required in 1864-65 for Public Buildings at Bombay, balanced by a sum of £250,000 expected to be realized by the sale of lands on the Esplanade.

The sum appropriated this year for building new Barracks for the European Troops and for other special Military works is the same as last year, or £300,000. This will be divided among the Local Governments, including Bombay, according to their respective requirements.

The sum taken in the Budget Estimate for 1863-64 for Railway supervision and cost of land was £182,500. This year it will amount to £309,500.

The loss by Railway exchange in 1863-64 was estimated at £294,600. In 1864-65 it will be £256,900.

The one per cent. appropriated from the Income Tax in aid of Local Works was at first roughly estimated at £380,000 a year. The continuance of this rate of advance would exceed the proportion applicable by law to the object; and, as the Act will expire soon after the termination of 1864-65, the appropriation for that year has been limited to £250,000, subject to a settlement of account after the Tax shall have been fully realized.

While, therefore, the aggregate grant for 1863-64 was £4,995,100, the grant for 1864-65 is £5,358,780, besides about £35,000 appropriated in the Educational Estimate for grants in aid of building schools, and £4,185,420, which will be advanced for the works of Railway and Irrigation Companies, or £9,579,150 in all. All this is in addition to a further large sum which will be expended upon Works of Public Improvement from Local Funds. The details of the grant will be seen in one view in the Statement in the Appendix.

Under "Salaries and Expenses of Public Departments," the Budget and Regular Estimates of 1863-64, and the Budget Estimate for 1864-65, are much the same. This arises from the care which is taken to reduce unnecessary Offices, while others, suited to the wants of the time, are established.

Under "Law and Justice" there is an increase of £106,225 compared with the Budget, and of £175,611 compared with the Regular Estimate of 1863-64. This is caused by the appointment of additional Judges, and by the grant of increased salaries to the inferior Judges with a view to secure a more complete administration of justice.

Under "Police" there is a reduction of £62,754 compared with the Budget, and of £51,760 compared with the regular Estimate of 1863-64. The beneficial effect of the revision of the Police expenditure, which has been for some time in progress, and of collecting under this head the charges for Treasury, Jail, and personal guards, which used to be scattered through the different Departmental Estimates, is very apparent. The Bombay Government has ordered the disbandment of the Guzerat Horse, the cost of which, amounting to £165,606 per annum, was included in the Police Estimate of that Presidency.

The grant for "Education, Science, and Art" has been increased in reference to each of the Local Governments and Administrations, the aggregate grant for 1863-64 having been £461,600, and that for 1864-65 being £561,175. This is in addition to large appropriations from Local Funds, and to School Fees, which last have been placed on an equal footing with local subscriptions as a basis for grants-in-aid. There is no subject to which the administrative freedom of the Local Governments is more applicable than that of Education. Instead of the Supreme Government jealously insisting on adherence to a particular code, the Local Governments are left to adapt the regulations to their respective wants. It is evident, from the general movement in this direction, that the time has arrived for extending education, from the upper and middle classes, to the body of the people;* and the impression is gaining ground that the last English improvement of the grant-in-aid system—the plan of paying by results—is even more applicable to India than to England. It furnishes a simple, elastic, intelligible rule which is capable of easy adaptation to every circumstance, whether the difference be between the scholars in normal, and those in ordinary schools, between boys or girls; or between children in advanced or backward parts of the country. Care should be taken that the funds applicable to education are not bestowed upon institutions which are already self-supporting.

There is an increase, compared with the Budget Estimate of 1863-64, of £13,409 for "Political Agencies and other foreign services," and a larger one, amounting to £71,597, under "Superannuation and Retired Allowances, and gratuities for charitable and other purposes." This last arises from the transfer of the Marine pensions to this head.

"Miscellaneous" and "Civil Contingencies," taken together, are less than the Budget Estimate of 1863-64 by £7,937.

Under "Interest" there is a reduction of £137,951 compared with the Actuals of 1862-63, and of £129,479 compared with the Budget Estimate of 1863-64. This is caused by the repayment of the sum; lent by the Rajah of Cashmere during the mutiny; the cancelment of the Government Securities belonging to the Rebel Madhu Rao; and the purchase of Government Securities from the proceeds of the sale of Waste Lands and of lands belonging to Rebels. The average sum annually disbursed for the payment of interest has also been more accurately ascertained.

The net expenditure in England, amounting to £4,929,924, is £13,504 less than the actual expenditure of 1862-63: £417,376 less than the Budget Estimate of 1863-64;

* In the North-Western Provinces and Madras a foundation has been laid of a really national system of education; but the general position for the whole of India is that we have succeeded in establishing a system of public instruction for the upper and middle classes, but have as yet made no impression upon the body of the people. Numerous examples, even in Christian countries, show that a high state of cultivation in the upper classes does not necessarily lead to the enlightenment of the lower.

and £105,258 less than the Regular Estimate of 1863-64. This favorable result is chiefly due to an extensive payment of debt.

"Guaranteed Interest on Railway Capital less Net Traffic Receipts" is £1,622,916 in 1864-65 against £1,617,825 in 1863-64, or £5,091 more. While the guaranteed interest payable in England has increased from £2,445,825 to £2,700,000, a set off has been obtained by the increase in the Net Traffic Receipts in India from £828,000 to £1,077,084.

The total estimated expenditure for 1864-65 is £45,840,582, which shows the following increase :—

Compared with the actual expenditure of 1862-63.....	£ 2,024,175
" with the Budget Estimate of 1863-64.....	£ 850,157
" with the Regular Estimate of 1863-64.	£ 618,611

I will now make such remarks as appear to be called for upon the Estimate of the Revenue for 1864-65.

I observed that in "Land Revenue" the increase in the current year had been general throughout India, amounting to £572,100 compared with the Budget Estimate, and £710,853 compared with the actual receipts of 1862-63. I estimate the Land Revenue for 1864-65 at £20,265,000. This is £16,000 less than is expected to be realized according to the Regular Estimate in the current year. Considering the steady increase of the Land Revenue for several years, and the stimulus which the prevailing high prices given to the extension of cultivation, that is a very moderate Estimate. The Land Revenue is justifying its old reputation as the staple of our financial system. Only one-third of the culturable area of India is cultivated; and, as it is evident that the prices of agricultural produce cannot recede to their former level, the increase of cultivation, and, with it if proper steps are taken, the accretion of the Government share of the rental must go on for an indefinite time to come.

"Abkaree," in like manner, has shown a steady annual increase in spite of the falling off in some parts of India arising from the introduction of the Sudder Distillery System. The increase of the Budget over the Regular Estimate is £93,680. Effectual steps have been taken to remedy the defects of the Sudder Distillery System, which led to a falling off in certain districts.

Under "Assessed Taxes" the Estimate for 1864-65 is £207,340 less than the Regular Estimate for the current year, which is chiefly owing to one-quarter of the full rate of four per cent, having been realized in the current year, whereas 1864-65 will be entirely at three per cent.

"Customs" are estimated at £13,140 less than the sum expected to be realized in the current year according to the Regular Estimate. There is a falling off to the extent of £61,000 by the abolition of the Transit duties under the Treaty with Bumah; and although a revival of the general trade may be expected in the course of next year, it is safer to take the Estimate on the supposition that trade will continue in the depressed state in which it has been for the last two years.

The Revenue from "Salt" is estimated at £5,442,510, against a Budget Estimate this year of £5,402,400, and a Regular Estimate of £5,278,300. This Revenue shows a general growth in all parts of India, and the local causes which led to its falling off in Bengal in the current year are passing away.

Last year the Pass duty was realized upon 51,228 chests of Malwa and Guzerat Opium, which was nearly the entire crop of the year. This year, at least 20,000 chests will be held over the expiration of the year, and must be added to 25,000 chests, which is the lowest estimate that can be made of the Malwa crop and to 5,000 chests expected from Guzerat, making 50,000 chests in all. The produce of the Pass duty upon this number of chests is £3,000,000. As only 21,730 chests of Malwa and Guzerat Opium were sent forward to Bombay in eleven months of this year, against 48,454 chests the same period of last year, or 26,724 chests less, the stocks in China must be low.

The number of chests brought to sale in Bengal in 1864-65 is 50,516. The lowest average rate per chest which was obtained at the period of the greatest scarcity of money in December last was Rs. 963. The average price at the five sales which have taken place since the depression in the money market commenced is Rs. 1,100. It is extremely improbable that, under any state of things that is likely to arise during the ensuing year, the average price will fall below Rs. 1,000 a chest, and I have therefore taken it at that amount. On 50,516 chests this gives £5,051,600.

The remaining £200,000 is the sum which will be credited to the Opium Revenue for 3,000 chests of Opium to be supplied to the Abkaree and Medical Departments during the ensuing year, and for the miscellaneous receipts of the Opium Department.

In a branch of Revenue which depends so much upon the state of the produce and money markets, there must, of course, be great uncertainty, and I have therefore framed my estimate at the lowest rates admissible according to the facts before us.

"Stamps" have been taken at £12,070 more than is expected to be realized in the current year according to the Regular Estimate, which, considering the general activity in business throughout the country, and the consequently growing nature of this branch of Revenue, is less than may be expected to be realized.

Mint, Post Office and Electric Telegraph show a moderate but satisfactory increase. A large profit will be derived from an extensive coinage of Copper money. The convenience of the body of the people is more concerned in an abundant supply of Copper money for carrying on their countless small transactions, than in a gold or paper currency.

The increase in the Public Works Receipts arises from £250,000 expected to be received from the sale of building allotments on the Esplanade at Bombay, against an estimated expenditure of £204,330 for new Public Buildings at that place.

The increase of £88,400 over the Budget Estimate of 1863-64 under receipts from "Interest" is caused by additional investments of Currency Deposits, and the dividends upon additional shares held by the Government in the Banks of Madras and Bombay.

The total estimated Revenue is £46,163,870, which exceeds the actual Receipts of 1862-63 by £1,020,118, and the Regular Estimate of 1863-64 by £1,410,370.

THE ESTIMATED SURPLUS OF INCOME OVER EXPENDITURE IN 1864-65.

As the estimated expenditure for 1864-65 is £45,340,582, there is an estimated surplus for that year amounting to £823,288.

So far as it is possible to form a judgment of the future, I consider this an assured surplus.

The ordinary sources of Revenue have steadily increased for several years, and have not been materially checked even by the late extraordinary embarrassments of the money-market; and if this growth continues for another year, the Receipts will be carried much beyond the figures at which I have taken them. The receipts from Opium are at the lowest rate at which it was possible to estimate them. On a view of all the probabilities, the Estimate of the Government of Bengal, which was at the rate of Rs. 1,122 a chest, will be nearest the truth, but I have taken it only at Rs. 1,000 a chest.

On the other hand, the Estimates of expenditure are at a maximum, and in some important respects beyond a maximum. If the appropriation for Public Works amounting to £4,995,100, which included a large sum for Local Funds, could not be spent in 1863-64, it is still less likely that £5,358,730 irrespective of Local Funds, can be spent in 1864-65. At any rate, the ample provision which has been made for the ensuing year will prevent any extra demands. The Estimate for the rest of the expenditure has been taken on the basis of the full sanctioned scale for all fixed charges payable within the year, with an ample margin for contingencies.

At this point it becomes necessary to review our position.

CONSIDERATIONS TO BE KEPT IN VIEW.

The Income Tax will expire on the 31st July 1865. Its annual produce, at the present rate of three per cent., is estimated at £1,187,660. Of this £287,532 is applicable by law to Local Funds; and a further deduction of £46,513 has to be made for the cost of collecting the tax. The remaining £903,615 forms part of our ordinary Ways and Means; and, in order to meet the annual charge, an equal sum must be forthcoming from some other source.

On the other hand, we have to provide for a large additional expenditure arising from two distinct causes.

The first of these is the great and general rise in prices and wages. This swells the expenditure through the Commissariat contracts, through the rates of compensation to the Native Troops for the dearth of provisions; through the enhanced cost of labour and material for every kind of work; through the demands made upon the Government for an increase of the pay of entire bodies of Native Civil and Military servants to save them and their families from severe distress. Earnest endeavours are made to combine increased pay with diminished numbers and improved efficiency, but the augmented charge will, notwithstanding, be very heavy. We are in midst of the one of those social changes which mark the progress of nations. A general increase of prices and wages must be followed by a general elevation of the standard of the public expenditure.

The other cause is the strong and growing demand for improved administration. This could not be fully described without going the round of the Public Departments; but I may particularly allude to the many different ways in which it is proposed to improve the condition of the European Troops, most of which are attended with great cost; to the admitted necessity for strengthening the Judicial system; to the urgent demand for a large expenditure for the improvement of the Jails; and to the heavy liabilities before us connected with the sanitary reform which has been commenced. The annual expense of the Commissions which have been established for the three Presidencies is £20,000, which, of course, bears a small proportion to the cost of the work which has to be done. Some of these demands are of such a nature, that although they are certain to arise in the course of the years the amount that will be required cannot be correctly estimated.

On both grounds, therefore—to be prepared for the expiration of the Income Tax in the early part of the following financial year, and to have the means of meeting demands for improved administration which cannot be postponed, it is more than usually necessary to have a large available surplus of Income over Expenditure.

Our proceedings must also have reference to a state of things which has begun to show itself in an unmistakable manner.

India was already rich in Indigo, Opium, Saltpetre, and other staples of her export trade, when the demand arising from the Russian war gave a great stimulus to Fibres and Oil Seeds, and the American war has since raised the inducement to cultivate Cotton to an unprecedented height. But India has a great population to feed; and, as the breaking up of new land is a gradual process, the increased demand for exportable produce could only be met by diverting to its production a large proportion of the land which had been previously employed in raising grain.

Simultaneously with this, Railways and Public Works have been prosecuted at the rate of ten millions sterling a year; whereby the industry of the people has been largely diverted from immediate production to increasing future production.

Consumption has also been greatly stimulated by the abundant means placed at the disposal of the cultivators by high prices, and of the labourers on Railways and other Public Works by high wages.

The result of these combined causes is that there is a serious strain upon the springs of society in some parts of India, like that which took place in Ireland in 1846 and in England in 1847, when such a large number of labourers were employed upon Public Works and Railways. The price of every description of produce, whether for exportation or home consumption, has gone up. Exporters complain that prices are often as high here as in England. Consumers complain of the greatly enhanced cost of every necessary of life, and, as they have so much more to pay for the means of subsistence, they are obliged to stint themselves in everything else. This is the true explanation of the continued stagnation in the demand for Manchester goods notwithstanding that the native manufacture is still falling off. A man must feed himself and his family before he can buy clothes, and, at the present high prices of food, the body of the people, in several parts of India, are barely able to subsist. A fall in the price of Manchester goods would not have much influence in promoting their sale under such circumstances.

The effects upon the labour market are very striking. Although population is congested in some parts of India, there is, in others, a scarcity of labour. For a long time complaints have been received from several extensive provinces that the progress of public works and industrial undertakings is seriously impeded for want of labour. New Roads and Tea and Coffee Plantations are chiefly in thinly inhabited and unimproved parts of the country. Even if the population of India could be equally spread over the whole surface of the Continent, it may be doubted whether the supply of labour would, under present circumstances, meet all the calls that would be made upon it: but, as it is, the obstruction in several important districts is positive and decisive.

Owing to the suitableness of the greater part of the Bombay Presidency for growing Cotton, this state of things is at its height there. An artificial famine has been created. The price of labour and materials has doubled, and Public Works are constructed at a greatly enhanced cost. The most serious symptom of all, however, is that the Government of India has been called upon to sanction a general increase in the pay of the public Establishments of the Bombay Presidency, with the certainty that, if the same causes continue, a similar necessity must soon arise for a further augmentation. On the one hand, we are urged to supply funds, without limit, for the prosecution of Public Works; and, on the other, we are told that the dearth of every necessary of life, which arises, in great degree, from this large expenditure, must be compensated by a corresponding increase of pay to the Public Establishments. The economical system is almost as much deranged in the Bombay Presidency as it was in Ireland in 1846-47. The rural population in that country was employed upon Public Works to an extent which threatened a disastrous neglect of the ordinary tillage, and 734,000 able-bodied men, representing, at a moderate estimate of the average extent of each family, upwards of 3,000,000 of persons, were struck off the labour lists by successive instalments. We are moving at Bombay in the same circle; and we should take warning in time to avoid the necessity for having recourse to like strong remedies.

The most essential point of all is to observe some moderation in Public Works ; to finish what we have begun ; and not to crowd the work of several years into one. Works, which, when spread over a reasonable period, would be attended with general benefit, may, if they are all put forward at once, convulse society, and fail, after all, owing to their excessive cost to attain the end intended.

Next to this, our object should be to remove, as far as possible, every obstruction to the freedom of trade, as was done in the analogous case at home. The great embarrassment of the trade of India has always been the want of Imports to meet the vast quantity of exportable produce which the country is capable of sending forth. If we desire to relieve the trade of India and to give free scope to its further extension, we should give all possible encouragement to her Imports.

There will be found in the Appendix, in illustration of these statements—

First—A comparison of the exports of merchandise from India in 1840-41, 1841-42, and 1842-43, with those of the three subsequent decennial periods ;

Secondly.—The Raw Cotton exported for the first eleven months of 1862-63 and 1863-64 ;

Thirdly.—The prices of Grain in the Bombay Presidency from 1823 to 1863 ;

Fourthly.—Extract from a Report from the Collector of Khandeish, dated 18th September 1863, and Fifthly.—Extract from a Report from the Commissioner of Police at Bombay, quoted in a letter from the Government of Bombay to the Government of India, dated the 30th January 1864.

RE-ADJUSTMENT OF IMPORT DUTIES AND OF THE TABLE OF VALUATIONS.

Previously to 1859, the import duty was, as a general rule, five per cent. ad valorem. With the exception of certain specified articles, it is now ten per cent. The Governor General in Council has determined that this import duty of ten per cent. shall, after to-day, be reduced to seven and a half.

Tobacco is at present chargeable with a special import duty of twenty per cent. As foreign tobacco has to compete with the untaxed produce of this country, it has been determined to reduce the duty to ten per cent.

The loss of revenue arising from these reductions of duty will be balanced by increased receipts from another source. Of the Piece Goods and Yarns imported into India, about five-eighths were included in the Table of Valuations published in November 1860, while the ad valorem rate continued to be assessed on the current market price of the remaining three-eighths. Since that, the price of all these goods has greatly increased, and the consequence is, that the owners of one portion of them pay the full duty and the others less than one-half. In order to remove this inequality, the valuation will be re-adjusted to the prevailing prices, with a liberal allowance for a possible fall.

DISPOSAL OF THE SURPLUS.

The estimated surplus, amounting to £823,288, will not be diminished by these arrangements, and the whole of it will be held to meet the exigencies of 1864-65 and 1865-66, including the expiration of the Income Tax on the 31st of July of the last mentioned year.

LOCAL FUNDS.

But, after all, it is impossible that all the wants of this great Continent, according to the continually rising standard of the public requirements, can be provided for out of the Imperial Revenue. Local agency and local resources which are as multifarious as they are inexhaustible, must be increasingly drawn upon, and the Imperial expenditure must be gradually confined to such objects as are of common interest to the whole of India. The growth of habits of self-government is to be sought for in the same direction. It is time that the people of this country should cease to be helplessly dependent upon the Government, and should learn, by the example and aid of their English fellow-subjects, to raise and spend their own money in maintaining the Roads, improving the sanitary state of the Towns, assisting education, and promoting every other object of local interest.

A commencement was made by Lord Canning's Government towards reducing this part of the public Income and Expenditure to order, which was followed up last year by directing that an annual Local Fund Estimate should be prepared by each Government and Administration, according to the same rules as the Budget Estimate of public Income and Expenditure, except that the balance at the end of each year was to be carried on to the next ; and that an annual Account of the expenditure should be rendered under the same heads ; and it was again explained that the object in requiring this Estimate and Account was, not to exercise any interference with the expenditure of funds which were entirely at the disposal of the Local Governments, but merely that the Government of India should be kept informed of the progress of the income and expenditure for financial and other general purposes. Some receipts and payments, which had been improperly included in Local Funds, have been re-credited to Revenue and Charge; while others, to a much larger amount, have been finally transferred to Local Funds. Of this last description are the Tolls upon the Nuddea Rivers and Calcutta Canals, the Tolls taken at Ferries upon Imperial Roads, the Receipts connected with Travellers' Bungalows, and the Jalkar or Revenue derived from the Fisheries in Bengal. A balance of Local Fund receipts due to the Government of Bombay, amounting to £94,508, has been paid, as a similar balance amounting to £58,700 was paid last year to the Government of Bengal. They have both been made specially applicable to the construction of Railway Feeders.

The large unexpended balances arise from the same cause which checks the expenditure of the Budget grant for Public Works; that is, the difficulty of extemporising professional agency.

One item of receipt, arising from the appropriation of 20 per cent. of the Income Tax to local objects, will of course cease with the Tax itself.

A large sum is derived from the cesses, in the shape of a percentage upon the Land Revenue, which are levied in the North-Western Provinces, the Punjab, and some other parts of India, for the maintenance of the Roads and for Education.

Municipal Receipts form another increasing item. The mode of raising the Municipal Funds depends, of course, upon the Municipalities. In the Punjab and North-West the favorite mode is by an Octroi or Town duty. Such duties were formerly levied on behalf of the Government: and were abolished thirty years ago, in the wake of the Transit duties, because they interfered with the free course of the general trade through the principal marts. Since their re-introduction in the shape of a municipal tax, the same symptoms have re-appeared. The principle that Town duties are a tax on the consumption of the Towns for whose benefit they are levied, and that they should, on no account, be extended to any article belonging to the transit or general trade, ought to be jealously guarded.

The other items of Receipt are Educational and Charitable endowments; Tolls on Roads, Ferries, and Canals; Cantonment and Bazaar Funds; Port Funds; Proceeds of houses and lands which have been transferred to Municipal Bodies; and others too numerous to be described.

As it is impossible that a complete view of the Finances of India can be given without including that portion of the public funds which is locally administered, it is desirable that the local Fund Estimate and Account should, in future, be appended to the Budget Statement. This year, all that it has been possible to do, has been to call attention to the existence of this Supplementary Budget, and to furnish a rough general Estimate, DISPOSAL OF THE GOVERNMENT STOCK OF SALT.

Last year I announced that the Government had finally withdrawn from the manufacture of Salt in Bengal. The great increase in the export trade of India has caused extremely low rates of freight from England, and this has resulted in cargoes of Cheshire Salt being delivered at Calcutta at unprecedentedly low prices. In pursuance of the plan which has been so successful at Madras, a siding is to be made from the Calcutta Terminus of the East Indian Railway into the Salt Depot at Sulkea, so that the Salt may be laden at once upon the trucks for transmission into the interior.

Owing to the low prevailing market price, the sales from the Government stock of Salt, in the current year, actual and estimated, are only 12,84,678 maunds compared with 19,13,978 in 1862-63. The remaining stock belonging to the Government is estimated to amount, at the close of present financial year, to 67,88,622 maunds or 249,378 tons. The necessity of disposing of this large stock of Salt, both in the interests of the trade and of the Government, has been generally admitted; and, in order that merchants knowing, beforehand, when the Government sales are to take place, and to what extent on each occasion, may make their arrangements accordingly, it has been publicly notified that fifteen lakhs of maunds, or 55,102 tons are, after a full year's notice, to be sold to the highest bidder in 1865, in such proportions and at such times as may be most convenient to the trade, and the remainder in the following years at the rate of 20 lakhs of maunds, or 73,469 tons, in each year.

REVISION OF THE PUBLIC ESTABLISHMENTS AND OF THE SYSTEM OF ACCOUNT AND AUDIT.

I also said that the foundation of a sound financial system, on the English model, had been laid broad and deep by my predecessors, and that what remained was to extend the application of these principles through the whole field of Income and Expenditure, so as to remould the entire system into one consistent whole. This work has since been in progress in different quarters.

The Military Finance Department has been consolidated with the Military Secretary's Office as its Account Branch. The Public Works System of Account and Audit has been fully enquired into, and every practicable improvement will be made. The English plan of Office organisation, which combines annual increase of pay within each class, with promotion by merit from class to class, and proper securities for the admission only of qualified candidates, has been introduced into the Financial, Military, and Public Works Departments. The Police Establishment of the N. W. Provinces and the N. W. Frontier Preventive Force have been investigated by Colonel Bruce, who is now engaged on an inquiry into the Bengal Police, and the subordinate Civil Establishments of the Bombay Presidency have been ordered to be revised, by the ablest Officers who can be selected for the purpose, with immediate reference to two principles—

1st. To ascertain by a careful scrutiny, how far the work itself is capable of being simplified and curtailed, by omitting duplicate and unnecessary processes, consolidating official forms, and, generally, by expediting and abbreviating the transaction of business, and

2nd. To ascertain what is the smallest number of persons by whom the work can be properly done after it has been so revised, what rates of pay are necessary to secure the services of competent persons, and what arrangements should be made in order that the public may have the benefit of a selection of the best candidates for employment.

Steps have been taken to give effect to the recommendations contained in the valuable Report of the Commission of Inquiry into the Commissariat, and a Committee has been appointed to investigate and report upon the entire Subordinate Establishment, European and Native, of the Commissariat, and to propose such measures for its reorganization as may appear to them best adapted to promote the efficient and economical administration of the Department.

The East Indian Railway, in the economical management of which the financial interests of the Government are as much concerned as in that of any Public Establishment, has been carefully investigated, in all that relates to its system of Account and Audit, by Mr. G. N. Taylor, who was afterwards deputed to conduct a similar inquiry into the Great Indian Peninsula and Bombay and Baroda Railways. Mr. Taylor's recommendations have been cordially accepted by the Directors and Officers of the East Indian Railway, and great practical improvements have been made.

The most important work of all is the revision of the general system of Account and Audit. The existing system was established by the East India Company on the good old, mercantile, double entry principle, but it has since been overlaid and confused by a variety of obsolete entries, irrecoverable Balances, and, above all, by a vast number of complicated and unnecessary interpresidential and interdepartmental advances and repayments. In the course of the past year the main principles, whereby regularity and exactness have been established in the accounts of Her Majesty's Government, have been introduced into the Indian Accounts; such as the rule that the Estimates shall be taken for expenditure coming in course of payment within the year, and that everything shall be debited or credited to the accounts of the year in which the amount is received or paid; that the gross receipts shall be credited to Revenue and the gross expenditure shall be debited to Charge; that expenditure shall be provided for, as a final charge, in the Estimates of the Department responsible for the general head of Service, and so forth. The good effect of this has already appeared in the increased uniformity and correctness with which the Estimates now submitted have been prepared. The two Financial Officers who were deputed to India by Her Majesty's Government are now making a searching investigation into all the details of the system of Account and Audit, and it may be hoped that, on the receipt of their Report, the last finish will be put to the reform of our financial machinery, which has now been for several years in progress.

I have alluded to the commercial crisis through which the country has passed only so far as the finances have been affected by it. The Government Note Currency has stood the trial in a very satisfactory manner. So completely is its identity in value with silver established in people's minds, that, even at the time of the greatest scarcity of coin at Bombay, Rupees continued to be sent to the Currency Department to be exchanged for Notes. The general stock of specie has been economised by the investment, in Government Securities, of £3,000,000 of deposits on a Note circulation of £5,350,000. Arrangements are in progress for the formation of three new Currency Circles,—one for the North-West Provinces and Oudh, another for the Punjab, and the third for the Central Provinces. The introduction of a gold currency has been recommended by the Chambers of Commerce of Calcutta and Bombay, and the subject will occupy the serious attention of this Government in communication with the Secretary of State. The difficulties are great, but there can be no doubt of the advantages of the measure if it can be satisfactorily effected. It would bind together England, Australia, and India in a triangular trade of a highly beneficial kind. The manufactured goods exported from England to Australia, would be paid for by sovereigns sent to India to be drawn against from England; and the convulsive efforts by which gold is periodically abstracted from the Bank of England, to sweep the Continent of silver for transmission to India, would be sensibly mitigated. The depreciation of gold would be arrested by bringing to bear upon it the power which India has of absorbing the precious metals; and besides the advantage of a convenient currency suited to the increasing wealth of this country, the chronic embarrassment of the Indian trade arising from the great excess of the exports over the imports, would, as far as possible, be diminished by the firm establishment of an article of import of which there is an unlimited supply, and for which there would be an unlimited demand.

PRICES OF GRAIN IN THE BOMBAY PRESIDENCY.

Mr. Hart, the Revenue Commissioner, reports the prices of grain in the markets of the Cotton District of Dharwar on the 1st of December last to have been as underneath, and he remarks of them that they "must render it impossible for Sepoys and other persons who have to subsist on low money salaries, even with the addition of the established compensation given in consideration of the high price of grain, to provide sufficient food, to say nothing of clothing, for themselves and their families."

Extract from a letter from L. R. ASHURNER, Esq., Collector of Khandeish, to B. H. ELLIS, Esq., Revenue Commissioner, N. D.,—dated 18th September 1863.

The wages of unskilled labour twenty years ago were two annas per diem, or Rs. 3-12-0 per mensem. Agricultural labour, in districts at a distance from large towns and stations, was usually paid in grain, and perhaps a turban or a pair of shoes at the Dewali. The services of an unskilled field labourer could then have been obtained for about Rs. 24 per annum. These prices continued till about twelve years ago, when the operations of the Railway Companies began to affect the labour market. From that time the wages of labour have steadily increased, and unskilled labourers now receive from 4 to 7 annas per diem, or from Rs. 7-8-0 to Rs. 13-2-0 per month. There are many causes in operation to have produced this change. The construction of Railways and other Public Works created a demand for labour, and withdrew a large body of labourers from the production of the necessaries of life. It, at the same time, threw a large amount of wealth into the hands of the lower orders, who had not yet acquired a taste for the luxuries or secondary wants of life; they spent all their money in food, and what are usually considered the necessaries of life, the prices of these articles began to rise, and then came the American war, which raised the price of cotton and linseed. The cultivation of grain was abandoned for the more profitable crops, and the prices of food rose still higher.

Extract from a Report from the Commissioner of Police at Bombay, quoted in a letter from the Government of Bombay to the Government of India dated the 30th of January 1864.

"The common labourer of Bombay, and a callasie of ordinary ability in the harbour, in whom intelligence is not generally deemed to be a desideratum, is able, I beg to state, to earn daily, the former from 6 to 7 annas a day, or more than Rs. 11 per mensem, and the latter 8 annas a day, or Rs. 15 per mensem."

THE NEW STAFF CORPS REGULATIONS.

With reference to the Despatch of the Secretary of State, the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is pleased to notify that for the present, and pending a further communication with Her Majesty's Government, no Officers will be admitted to the Staff Corps on probation, and admissions will solely be made consequent upon Officers having obtained appointments and given satisfactory proof of their fitness for the same, according to the rules hereinafter laid down.

2. All Officers now in permanent Staff employment of a description that qualifies for the Staff Corps, will be admitted thereto from the date of their having obtained such permanent appointment subsequent to the 18th February 1861, provided they have passed, or do pass, within six months from this date, the tests hitherto in force or that are now to be laid down. In the case of such Officers as may be now in Europe, the period of six months will reckon from the date of their return to India.

Under this rule, Officers appointed to Staff situations between the 19th February 1860 and the 18th February 1861, will be admitted to the Staff Corps from the 19th of the latter month, but Officers who having been one year in Staff employ on the 18th February 1861, and therefore eligible for appointment on the formation of the Corps, and who then did not apply for admission, can only enter from the date on which they may hereafter be appointed to the Corps.

3. With reference to paragraphs 45 to 50 of the Despatch of the Secretary of State, it is announced that all Officers who held a permanent Staff appointment for one year, at any time between the 18th February 1858 and 18th February 1861, are eligible for admission to the Staff Corps from date of its formation, and this is not to be effected by the circumstance of an Officer having held two or more different appointments during such period.

4. Applications for admission to the Staff Corps of the respective Presidencies under the two foregoing paragraphs are to be submitted to the Governments of India, of Madras or of Bombay, through the channels laid down in paras. 7 and 8 of this order.

5. In future, no officer will be nominated to any appointment qualifying for the Staff Corps, who does not produce the certificates referred to in paragraphs 19 and 20 of Sir C. Wood's despatch, and where officers obtain appointments under the Commander-in-Chief, these certificates are to be attached to the final application for admission to be submitted to Government after the prescribed period of probation. The Governments in the Military Department will require to see these certificates prior to the appointment on probation of an officer to any situation under Government that qualifies for the Staff Corps.

6. The tests and periods of probation necessary to qualify officers for admission to the Staff Corps, in consequence of their nomination to appointments other than those belonging to the Military Department, will be those already laid down, or that may, from time to time, be fixed in the other departments of Government, but when new rules or changes in existing rules on the subject are made, they will always be republished to the Army in the General Orders of the Military Department.

7. When officers employed in situations not under the Military Department, who have qualified in all respects, including retention of a probationary appointment for the prescribed period, desire to enter the Staff Corps, they will apply through their immediate superiors to the department of the Government under which they are employed, when the application, if approved, will be transferred to the Military Department, in view to the admission of the applicant being announced in General Orders.

8. The tests for admission to the Staff Corps in appointments under the Military Department or Commander-in-Chief, are laid down at the end of this order, and applications will be submitted through Commanding Officers or heads of departments to the Adjutant General in the first instance, accompanied by the prescribed certificates, for eventual submission to Government.

9. In all cases, whether of Civil or Military employ, a fixed period of probation will be laid down, at the termination of which, if an Officer cannot pass the tests, he must revert to regimental duty, unless under special circumstances a short extension of the period of probation is allowed by the Government of the Presidency on the recommendation of the department concerned, or of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

It will be open to an Officer at any period of his probation to apply to be allowed to revert to regimental duty should he find the nature of the employment unsuited to him, or with the approval of the Commander-in-Chief or of Government, he may, during the same period, be remanded to regimental duty for manifest inaptitude.

10. The circumstance of an Officer being in the Staff Corps will not exempt him from passing departmental tests, should he be transferred from one appointment or department to another.

11. There are certain small departments of separate officers under the Military Department for which tests are not laid down. It will rest with the Government of the Presidency in cases where Officers not belonging to the Staff Corps may be nominated to such appointments on probation, to decide in each case on the report of the immediate superior whether an Officer has established his fitness for the Staff Corps, and to admit him thereto or to remand him to regimental duty, but in every case an officer must have fulfilled all the general preliminary conditions required in candidates for the Staff Corps.

12. It has been laid down that hereafter the date of transfer of an Officer to the Staff Corps will be that of his appointment on probation.

13. Officers of Her Majesty's British Regiments are eligible for appointment to the Staff Corps of any Presidency, without reference to the Presidency in which their Regiments may be serving.

TESTS FOR ADMISSION TO THE STAFF CORPS FROM MILITARY APPOINTMENTS.

1. NATIVE INFANTRY.

I. Knowledge of the Native Articles of War and the Military Regulations of the Presidency, particularly all such as effect the conduct of Native Troops, their pay, pension, clothing &c., which is to be tested by an examination of a somewhat searching character, consisting of not less than fifty questions and answers, all of which are to be recorded in the report of the examination.

II. Knowledge of the system pursued in the Native Infantry, and especially in the Regiment to which the Officer has been attached, as to the mode of investigating and dealing with offences, complaints, and petitions from the men. The manner in which the rosters for furlough and guard are kept. The deductions usually made from the men's pay on account of half-mounting, or for other purposes, and the system of accounts followed in the Corps, together with an acquaintance with all the forms in use.

III. Knowledge of every article of equipment used by the men of the Regiment, their usual or fixed cost, mode of carrying them, &c.

IV. Ability to act as Adjutant on parade, to be tested on parade with a Battalion, with a knowledge of reconnoitring and outpost duty, and ability to write a report of a "reconnoissance." This report must be written in a legible hand.

V. The probation will extend over one year, at the end of which period the Commanding Officer of the Regiment to which the candidate has been attached will apply for a Committee of examination. This Committee will be assembled only at the Head Quarters of Divisions or Brigades, and will be presided over by the General Officer or Brigadier General Commanding, with two Commandants of Native Regiments, or one Commandant and one Second in Command as Members.

VI. The Committee will give their opinion in succession on all the points noticed above and conclude by saying that they consider the Officer qualified (or not as the case may be) for permanent employment with Native Troops. They are to embody in the report a statement as to whether the candidate has had the opportunity afforded him of acting as Adjutant on parade, or has been detached under a senior Officer on escort duty, and whether he has been in the habit of frequently attending orderly room with the Commanding Officer, and thereby obtained a full insight into the system of the Regiment. This report is to be sent through the Divisional General to the Adjutant General, who will transmit it, accompanied by the opinion of the Commander-in-Chief, to the Government of the Presidency, when, if approved, the Officer will be gazetted to the Staff Corps with effect from the date on which he commenced his period of probation.

VII. It is to enable an Officer to show his aptitude for, and zeal in, the performance of his regimental duties, that the period of a year has been fixed for his probation.

VIII. During this time in which the Officer should be employed as indicated above, including, if possible, detachment duty, his Commanding Officer should satisfy himself that his temper and general habits are such as to render him an efficient Officer of Native Troops. At any time during the period of probation, it will be open to the Commanding Officer to represent to the Commander-in-Chief that he does not think the probationer, either from temper or other cause, suited for employment with Native Troops; in which case it will be competent for the Commander-in-Chief, if satisfied with the reasons assigned, to direct the Officer to re-join his Regiment, or, if in the local service, to duty elsewhere.

IX. As a rule, an Officer who fails at the expiration of one year's probation to pass a satisfactory examination, will revert to his proper Corps or to general duty; but under very special cases, an Officer so failing may be allowed to continue with the Regiment to which he is attached, and to undergo another and a final examination at the end of eighteen months.

2. NATIVE CAVALRY.

I. An Officer, nominated to the Native Cavalry, will be required to pass the same tests and the same period of probation as laid down for Native Infantry. He will, however, be required, before being attached to a Native Cavalry Regiment, to furnish satisfactory evidence of his aptitude for riding.

II. The examination and final appointment will be conducted as in the Infantry; but the Committee will have upon it two Cavalry Officers, of whom one at least should be Commandant of a Native Cavalry Regiment.

III. In addition to all the points laid down for the Infantry, the Committee will report on the Officer's qualifications, as respect a knowledge of Cavalry drill, and of the system peculiar to the Native Cavalry in regard to purchase of horses, &c. He should also prove himself to be well acquainted with the system of stable management in the Corps, the district whence horses are usually obtained for it, their prevailing defects and good qualities, their usual price, &c. He should also show himself possessed of some general knowledge of Farriery and of the diseases and injuries to which horses are liable, as well as their treatment.

3. APPOINTMENTS IN THE DEPARTMENT OF THE JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL.

I. It is probable that a large majority of Officers who enter this department will be taken from other appointments, and will already belong to the Staff Corps.

II. Some, however, may enter it direct from Regiments, and these, as well as Officers already on the Staff Corps, will have to pass a test examination before permanent appointment to the department.

This will consist of—

1. A viva voce examination before a Committee as to their knowledge of Military Law.

2. Replies in writing to a series of questions which will be propounded to them by the Judge Advocate General of the Army.

III. The Committee of examination will assemble at Divisional Head Quarters, and will be composed of the Deputy Judge Advocate General of the Division, and two selected Field Officers, whose report will be forwarded to the Judge Advocate General.

IV. The examination must be conducted so as to show the candidate's amount of knowledge of the different Mutiny Acts and Articles of War; Her Majesty's and the Bengal Military Regulations, and the Indian Penal Code. The candidate's capacity to review the proceedings of minor Courts Martial will be tested by questions put to him by the Committee; his fitness to conduct the proceedings of a General Court Martial being ascertained in the same manner, and by requiring him to frame a skeleton charge under any special article, and to write out in their presence the proper form to be observed in recording the proceedings of such Court Martial, entering the punishment awardable on conviction of the charge indicated.

V. The series of questions referred to under No. 2 (paragraph II.) will be prepared at Army Head Quarters under the orders of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, and sent to the Committee, in whose presence they must be replied to, and by whom they will be forwarded with their proceedings.

VI. This examination will precede the period of probation, the latter being terminable after one year's performance of duty, on a satisfactory report as to the probationer's practical qualifications, being made by the Commanding Officer of the Division to whose staff he was attached, and by the Judge Advocate General.

4. APPOINTMENTS IN THE ACCOUNTS BRANCH, MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

I. Under this heading are included all situations of whatever kind, (save that of Regimental Paymaster), held in the departments connected with the pay accounts or audit of accounts of the Army, or of its establishments.

II. For this branch of the Staff no appointment on probation will be made without proof that the candidate is a fair accountant.

III. On an Officer being selected as a probationer, he will, in the first place, appear before the nearest Divisional Pay-master, who will examine him as to his general knowledge of accounts and book-keeping, and also question him as to the extent to which he has mastered the Pay Regulations of his Presidency.

IV. His certificate, in form B, will be forwarded to Government, through the Controller of Military Accounts, and if it is found to be satisfactory, he will be appointed on probation.

V. This probation will extend over a year, and will be passed at the Presidency. During this period he will be employed under the orders of the Controller of Military Accounts, and be attached in succession to the different branches of the Controller's Department.

VI. At the end of this time, on the Controller reporting that the candidate has been regular in attendance, and gives promise of being useful in the department, he will appear before a Committee composed of the Controller, the Military Accountant, and a Pay Examiner.

VII. The examination will embrace the practical branches of Arithmetic and Book-keeping, as well as questions involving a ready acquaintance with Pay and Audit Rules and the general principles on which these Rules are based.

VIII. The examination will be conducted by means of a series of written questions, and by testing the ability of the candidate to check selected abstracts and bills.

IX. If the report of the Committee be favourable, the candidate will be confirmed in the accounts branch, and attached to an office at the Presidency, or to one of the large Divisional Pay Offices.

5. APPOINTMENTS IN THE COMMISSARIAT DEPARTMENT.

I. The period of probation in this department will be one year; but before a candidate can be appointed as probationer, he must pass a preliminary examination, and before he can be permanently appointed to the department he must pass a final examination on the expiry of the year of his probation.

II. The subjects of the preliminary examination will be—

1. The rules of arithmetic, including vulgar and decimal fractions, involution and evolution; mensuration and the computation of areas and solid contents, and the system of Book-keeping by single and double entry.

2. He will also be required to read aloud correctly and with tolerable ease three Ordu or Hindustani papers. These papers are to be taken from official record at random, and written (in the Persian character) by different persons in fairly legible running hands. After having read them aloud the candidate must explain their contents in English correctly.

III. He must translate, without assistance, from English to Urdu and Hindi an instruction to a subordinate Commissariat Officer, or other official paper to be furnished by the Examining Committee. The translation must be precise and correct in meaning, and perfectly intelligible to a Native, tolerably correct in grammar and spelling, and free from any very bad errors of idiom.

IV. He must dictate with some fluency the translation into Hindustani of an English letter, or other official paper, also to be furnished by the examining Committee, whereof the translation will be written down exactly as dictated. The dictated paper must be intelligible and correct in meaning.

V. He must undergo a thorough and careful test in conversation with two or three Natives in such manner and to such extent as shall suffice completely to satisfy the Committee as to the degree of his power of understanding Natives of different classes, and of making himself understood by them both in common conversation and the usual course of departmental business.

VI. The above lingual test will not be held to supersede the necessity of the candidates having passed the Hindustani or Staff examination, which is one of the essential conditions attached to admission into the Staff Corps.

VII. The probationer will have to undergo his final examination at the expiry of his term of probation. The heads of the examination will be—

1. His acquaintance with his responsibility and duties in the care and custody of the cattle and stores under the charge of a Commissariat Office.

2. His knowledge of the system of procuring supplies by departmental agency or contract as circumstance may require, and the rules affecting the preparation of contract deeds and the liability of contractors.

3. His acquaintance with the mode of rationing European Troops, and the different articles comprising their rations.

4. His acquaintance with the mode of rationing Native Troops, and circumstances under which rations are issued to them.

5. His knowledge of departmental rules, and of the forms of returns furnished periodically to the heads of his department.

6. His ability to draw up with accuracy estimates and average statements of the cost of victualling troops and feeding cattle.

7. His knowledge of the equipments of cattle and stores required for the Cavalry, Artillery and Infantry, with reference to their numbers and the distance to be marched.

8. His knowledge of the animals in use for food, as to their breeding and where the best are produced; where the best transport animals are found, and the weight they respectively carry.

9. His facility in reading Gomashitah's accounts as presented in Persian or Hindi, and in writing Purwannahs in the above languages.

10. His ability to prepare monthly disbursements from the checked accounts of native agents, with an Account Current, and his knowledge of the vouchers required to support charges under the different heads of expenditure.

11. His acquaintance with the general system of accounts in the Commissariat Departments.

VIII. The preliminary examination will be held at Head Quarters of Divisions, and conducted by the Senior Commissariat Officer and Executive Engineer or Officer acting as such. The Committee will test the candidate's acquaintance with arithmetic, by requiring him to show not only the answers to the arithmetical questions but the details by which they are worked out. He will prove his knowledge of the fundamental rules of Book-keeping, by furnishing written replies to a series of questions which will be given him by the Examiners.

IX. The examination in the Native languages will be conducted by the Government Board of Examiners or other qualified Committee.

X. The examination in the final test will be held at the Presidency, and will be conducted by a Committee composed of a selected Civil Officer, the Deputy Commissary General of the Circle, and the Examiner of Commissariat Accounts. A selected Field Officer of a British Regiment will be associated with the Committee in that part of their examination which relates to the rationing of British Troops.

XI. On nomination to the department on probation an Officer will, under the orders of the Commissary General, proceed at the public expense to join one of the first class executive charges for six months, for the purpose of learning the executive duties of the department. At the expiration of this time he will proceed to the Office of Examiner of Commissariat Accounts, and remain there three months to learn the system of audit. For the remaining three months he will join the Presidency Office, and will there appear before the Committee for his final examination, as set forth above.

6. APPOINTMENTS IN THE STUD DEPARTMENT.

I. The period of probation in this department will be one year. There will be no preliminary examination. At the expiry of the term of probation, the probationer will be examined by a Committee who will forward their report to the Government for approval.

II. This Committee will be composed of the Superintendent, or in his unavoidable absence, a Deputy Superintendent as President, with the next senior available Stud Officer, and a selected Field Officer or Captain of Cavalry as Members. A selected Veterinary Surgeon will be associated with the Committee during the examination of the candidate, under heads 5, 6 and 7, as hereafter laid down.

III. An Officer selected on probation will join a Stud Depot, and the Deputy Superintendent of the Stud will be required to see that he is punctual in attendance during office hours, that he attends stables regularly; that he accompanies the Depot Officer in his tours of inspection of the Stud stock of the breeding districts; and that he attends all purchases of the Stud.

IV. The Deputy Superintendent will furnish the examination committee with a certificate that the probationer has fulfilled the foregoing conditions. He will also state whether, from his personal observation, he considers him likely to make a good stud officer. The qualities to be considered in forming this estimate are, intelligence, industry, activity, health to enable him to bear considerable exposure, willingness to learn, a fondness for and knowledge of horses, and temper and disposition likely to render him popular with natives.

V. The subjects of examination will be—

1. Arithmetic, including vulgar and decimal fractions, and the system of book-keeping by single and double entry.

2. His acquaintance with his responsibility and duties in the care of stud cattle and stores under the charge of a Depot Officer.

3. His knowledge of the system of procuring grain and fodder for the stud cattle, both by contract and departmental agency.

4. His knowledge of departmental rules, and of the form of returns furnished periodically to the heads of the department.

5. His knowledge of the management of and feeding young cattle on admission into stud stables.

6. His knowledge of what constitutes unsoundness in horses, his ability to age them from inspection of their teeth, and his ability readily to discover external injuries in any way received by stud cattle, together with some general knowledge of the veterinary art and shoeing.

7. His knowledge of the qualifications of horses, their power, shape, action, &c., and for which branch of the mounted service they are best fitted.

8. His ability to make out estimates, and the average cost of the feed of cattle.

9. His ability to prepare monthly disbursements from checked accounts of Native agents, with an Account Current, and his knowledge of the vouchers required to support charges under the different heads of expenditure.

VI. The knowledge required under the 6th and 7th heads of examination will be tested practically; the probationer being required to class a stable of colts to the different branches of the service, rejecting such as he thinks unfit, and making any remarks regarding any unsoundness or peculiarities in any animal. The accuracy and judgment of this classification will be reported on by the Committee.

VII. The remaining subjects for examination will be tested by requiring written answers from the candidate to a paper of questions which the Committee will previously prepare.

7. APPOINTMENTS IN THE SURVEY DEPARTMENT.

I. For this department the period of probation will be one year. This, under special sanction, may be extended to two.

II. For the Survey Department in general, there will be two distinct classes of examination, viz. :—

1st.—For the Topographical and Revenue Surveys, and

2ndly.—For the Great Trigonometrical Survey.

III. In regard to the first, the preliminary examination will embrace the following subjects :—

1. A thorough knowledge of arithmetic, but more especially of involution, square and cube roots, arithmetical and geometrical progression, or proportion, or rule of three, vulgar and decimal fractions, logarithmic calculations, and mensuration of surfaces.

2. Elementary geometry—first four books of Euclid.

3. Algebra, as far as quadratic equations, inclusive.

4. Elements of plane trigonometry.

5. Execution, in the presence of Examiners, of topographical, mechanical, or civil drawing of a certain standard of excellence.

IV. The final examination, to be held at the close of the period of probation, will comprise—

1. The satisfactory execution, unassisted, of a small area of country, including the computation and entire mapping involved in the same.

2. Perfect use and knowledge of all the instruments employed in the department, and adjustment of the same.

3. The elements of nautical astronomy, sufficient for ascertaining time, azimuth and latitude.

V. These examinations will be conducted by the Surveyor General, aided by such professional Officers selected by himself to the number of two, as may be available.

VI. On passing the preliminary examination, the probationer will be attached to field parties to learn their practical duties in the field and during the recess.

VII. For the Great Trigonometrical Survey, the examination for the topographical branch will be as for the Revenue Survey.

VIII. For the Geodesical or higher branch, the preliminary examination will be theoretical only, comprising the usual course of mathematics up to conic sections, and the principles of construction of instruments in common use. The final examination will be theoretical and practical, embracing analytical geometry of three dimensions—statics, dynamics, and astronomy; the construction of the instruments of the Great Trigonometrical Survey, and a practical familiarity with their management.

IX. The Examiners will be the Superintendent, Great Trigonometrical Survey, with any two available Officers of the department at his Head Quarters.

X. The degree of proficiency attained by candidates will be ascertained in both branches of the Survey Department by written examinations, the questions being framed at departmental Head Quarters.

XI. Officers holding Staff College or Civil Engineering College certificates of qualification or Officers of Engineers will be exempt from undergoing any preliminary examination, and will, on being nominated, at once enter as probationers.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct the publication, for general information, of the accompanying copy of a Despatch from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, laying down the Rules under which Officers are to be admitted to the Staff Corps of the three Presidencies:—

MILITARY.—No. 44.

India Office, London, the 9th February 1864.

To H. E. the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council.

Sir,—Para. 1. I have received and considered in Council the letters, No. 104 A, dated the 26th September 1863, and No. 333, dated the 8th December 1863, forwarding certain papers connected with the test to which it is proposed that candidates for admission to the Staff Corps shall be subjected.

2. The conclusion to which the late Governor General had arrived upon the subject, after a consideration of the opinions of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, of the Governments of Madras and Bombay, and of various Officers who had experience of the various departments, are embodied in a Memorandum by Colonel Norman, which has been forwarded with the Governor General's Despatch.

3. In considering this most important subject, it seems necessary, at the same time, to lay down more distinctly than has yet been done, the principle upon which appointments to the Staff Corps shall be regulated hereafter.

4. The instructions contained in paragraph 20 of my Despatch of the 18th January 1861, were as follows:—"The selection of Officers for the Staff Corps will rest with the Governments in India. No Officer, however, should be admitted on probation, without the consent of the Commander-in-Chief, and without a certificate from the Commanding Officer of his Regiment that he has efficiently performed his regimental duty for the prescribed period. I desire that, after communication with the Governments of Madras and Bombay, your Government will prepare a scheme of the tests and periods of probation suitable for the several departments of Military and Civil Staff employment."

5. The principle was more fully expressed in your General Order of the 10th April 1861, in which it was stated—"They will not be permanently appointed to the Staff Corps, unless, after due probation, they shall pass the prescribed tests for the branch of the Indian Service for which they may be selected." And again (para. 81)—"A subsequent Notification will prescribe the period of probation, and the tests of qualification in the several departments."

6. It was clearly understood, therefore, that appointments should be made to the Staff Corps, as vacancies occurred in the several departments of the Staff, by the appointment of Officers to the vacancies, and, in virtue of such employment, to the Staff Corps; and the intention is further expressed in the first paragraph of Colonel Norman's Memorandum, where, in the third condition of appointment, it is stated that "he must have passed certain tests, to be laid down for the department of the service he is about to join."

7. The system of recruiting the Staff Corps by the appointment of Officers to vacancies in the Staff as they occur, is fully explained in the 29th paragraph of the Memorandum, in which it is stated that, "as probationer, the doing duty Officer, with Cavalry or Infantry, should be within the complement of six Officers allowed to the Corps," and, again, "in all other appointments the probationary Officer might likewise be included in the complement of the departments, if necessary, a slight increase of the junior department being made for the purpose."

8. Upon further consideration of the subject I am of opinion, that the system, as originally proposed, requires modification.

9. It appears to me absolutely necessary that the several Staff Corps should be complete in themselves, i.e., that they should bear on their rolls, not only Officers enough to occupy all the situations, and perform all the duties for which the Corps have been formed, with a margin for absentees, as already explained, but also a sufficient number in excess of these requirements to form a reserve to meet casualties by death or retirement. This reserve may properly consist of a sufficient number of Officers to meet the average casualties of one year.

10. It seems to be admitted that the one year will be a sufficient probation for admission to the Staff Corps, irrespective of the further period of probation which may be deemed necessary for special departments; and the number of probationers to be admitted each year should be sufficient to form a reserve calculated on the principle above stated.

11. Any Officer under the rank of Field Officer is eligible to the Staff Corps, and there will be cases, probably, in which Officers of several years' standing may qualify themselves for Staff service in India, and may desire to enter the Staff Corps; but there can be little doubt that, as a general rule, most of the new appointments to the Staff Corps will be among young Officers, and the proper place for such, while on probation, will be Native Corps, in which they should be employed in excess of the regular establishment.

12. It appears to me, therefore,—

1st.—That the strength of the several Staff Corps should be such as to meet, not only the demands of the service in India for Officers required for Staff Corps employment, due allowance being made for furlough and sick leave, as stated in my Despatch of the 3rd December 1861, but also to maintain a reserve equal about to 4 per cent. on the above to meet casualties by death or retirement.

2nd.—That, as a general rule, the Staff Corps should be maintained at the above strength by appointing a number of probationers to the Corps, with a view to forming the reserve, the whole of whom, with the exception of those who may be posted at once to especial departments, should be posted and paid as additional doing-duty Officers to Regiments of Cavalry and Infantry.

3rd.—That the test for appointment to the Staff Corps should be the same in degree, without reference to the situation or department in which an Officer's probation is to be passed.

4th.—That the further test and periods of probation for the different departments may, and must, vary according to the nature of the duties and the extent of the qualification required.

13. Thus, if, as I conceive would be commonly the case, an Officer, on being appointed on probation, is posted to a Native Regiment, one year's probation would be sufficient to determine both his eligibility for the Staff Corps and his fitness for employment in that department.

14. In his subsequent employment in any other department of the Staff, not only should his peculiar qualification as probably fitting him for that special duty be considered, and reported upon before admitting him a probationer in such department; but a period of probation should be required before he is confirmed therein.

15. On the other hand, if it is proposed to appoint an Officer to the Staff Corps on probation, by giving him direct employment in a department, say, the Commissariat, one year's probation there should suffice to establish his eligibility for the Staff Corps; but, should further probation be considered necessary before his confirmation in that particular department, an Officer might still be appointed to the Staff Corps provided he had made satisfactory progress towards qualifying for the departmental test.

16. I shall now proceed to consider the proposed tests.

17. In the third and the following paragraphs of Colonel Norman's Memorandum the general qualification required for all candidates for the Staff Corps before being admitted on probation, are considered.

18. He must have been three years with a Regiment, of which two shall have been passed in India.

19. He must produce a certificate from his Commanding Officer, showing that he had efficiently performed his regimental duty for the prescribed period, and that he had passed the prescribed examination in the Native languages. A form of certificate is given in the Appendix to Colonel Norman's Memorandum.

20. It is very properly proposed, also, that a medical certificate—form of which is given in the Appendix—should be required, showing that the candidate "is of good bodily health, and believed to be able to stand both out-door and in-door work in the climate of India."

21. I entirely concur in this view of the qualifications and certificates to be required of an Officer before he is appointed a probationer for the Staff Corps.

22. The different branches of the Military and Civil Army Staff for which different tests are proposed, are as follow:—

- I. Appointments to Native Infantry.
- II. Appointments to Native Cavalry.
- III. Appointments in the Department of the Adjutant General, including Brigade Majors and Fort Adjutants.
- IV. Appointments in the Quarter Master General's Department.
- V. Appointments in the Judge Advocate General's Department.
- VI. Appointments in the Department of Military Finance.
- VII. Appointments in the Commissariat Department.
- VIII. Appointments in the Stud Department.
- IX. Appointments in the Survey Department.

23. I do not consider it advisable that Officers should be admitted on probation for the Staff Corps to any of the departments of the general staff of the Army in which the appointments are tenable for five years only, and which are open to Officers of the line, as well as to those of the Staff Corps. With this exception, I approve generally of the tests recommended for the several departments, and of the general principles upon which you propose that Officers should be selected and appointed to them. I request your attention, however, to the following observations:—

24. In the 16th paragraph of the Memorandum, it is observed, with reference to some very judicious remarks by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief,—“It appears most inexpedient to require that the tests should necessitate the possession of knowledge not required to enable the duties of the department to be properly conducted. Scholastic examinations come very much amiss to Officers who have left school for some years, and their adoption will certainly increase the difficulty of procuring candidates for the Staff Corps, a difficulty which may very possibly arise.”

25. In this opinion I entirely concur; and it is for that reason that I consider the test for admission to the Staff Corps should be, generally, distinct from that exacted for admission to a special department of the Staff.

26. I observe that your President in Council has raised an objection to the following clause, relative to the proposed examination of an Officer who had completed his probation with a Native Regiment:—

“1. Ability to converse freely with men of the Regiment, to be tested by the officer speaking, in presence of the Committee, successively with four or five men taken from the ranks, and belonging to different races, or, if the corps is of one race from different parts of the country whence the men come,” observing that this clause “if the strictly interpreted,” might “prove an unduly difficult test if an officer had to speak to Persians, Afreedies, Seikhs, and Gookhas, in their own language.”

27. Your purpose bearing in mind this objection, which is, I think, well founded, when final orders are issued on the subject.

28. I consider that a qualification for Staff employment in the Hindoostanee should be sufficient as a language test for admission to the Staff Corps.

29. Other languages might be required by departmental regulation, according to the locality and the nature of the duties to be performed.

30. The examination proposed, after a year's probation with a Native Regiment, being sufficient to test an officer's fitness for the Staff Corps, it is obvious, as I have before pointed out, that, in the case of an officer serving on probation with any other department, the examination for admission to the Staff Corps must be distinct from, and would usually be preliminary to, that required to test his fitness for that particular department.

31. The next branch of the service to be considered is the Native Cavalry. I cannot concur in the propriety of requiring that, before an officer is appointed on approbation to do duty with a Cavalry Regiment, he should be in possession of a certificate from the commanding officer of a Dragoon Regiment that he had successfully passed through a course of equitation, as laid down for Cavalry Officers. But it would be very proper to require young officers, who may desire to pass the period of their probation for the Staff Corps with a Cavalry Regiment, to furnish satisfactory evidence of their aptitude for riding.

DEPARTMENTS OF THE ADJUTANT GENERAL AND QUARTER MASTER GENERAL.

32. Under the rule laid down above, paragraph 23, no officer would be appointed to these as probationers for the Staff Corps.

33. Considering also the nature of the duties, and the fact that the tenure of appointment in these departments is limited to five years, it does not appear either necessary or desirable that there should be any period of probation in them. An Officer, of whatever branch of the service, selected for appointment in either one or the other of these departments, might reasonably be expected to pass, before admission, the examination proposed in these papers.

34. Subject to such modification as may be necessary in the application of the above principles, the tests and mode of appointment proposed for the remaining department connected with the military branch of the administration, have my approval.

35. With respect to the Judge Advocate General's Department, it is observed, in Colonel Norman's Memorandum, paragraph 24,—

“For this department the appointment of young Officers seems inappropriate, and in practice, it will probably be found that a large majority of Officers who enter it will be taken from other departments and will already belong to the Staff Corps.”

“Some, however, may enter it direct from Regiments, and for those a test seems necessary, which would also be applied to Officers already in the Staff Corps, before permanent nomination to the department." It is added, that probably no Officer will be selected by the Commander-in-Chief for the department who has not, in some manner, shown an aptitude for the particular duties.

36. I concur in these views, but I consider that they are equally applicable to the remaining departments, viz., the Department of Military Finance, the Commissariat Department, the Stud, and the Survey Departments.

37. They are in accordance, also, with the principle which has already been insisted upon, viz., that the test for admission to the Staff Corps should be distinct from those laid down for special departments of the Staff. The tests for admission to the Political Department will be considered with reference to the late Governor General's Despatch in this Department, No. 9, dated 28th August 1863. It is understood that the tests for admission to the Public Works Department have been already laid down in the Regulations of that branch of the public service.

38. An Officer's own taste and wishes, when he is once appointed to the Staff Corps will generally indicate the department for which he has most aptitude; and, at all events, his character, and the nature of his qualifications, will very soon become known to his superiors.

39. With reference to the 30th paragraph of Colonel Norman's Memorandum, I have to observe, that the date of an Officer's appointment to the Staff Corps should be that of his appointment on probation. In the case of a Line Officer, the promotion in his Regiment consequent on his transfer should have effect from the date of his permanent appointment to the Staff Corps.

40. I shall not object to granting to Officers now on Staff employ, who await the publication of the tests, the privilege proposed in paragraph 31, viz., that of dating their admission to the Staff Corps from the date on which they obtained permanent appointment to the Staff, subsequent to the 18th February 1861.

41. The necessity of maintaining a reserve of Officers on the Staff Corps has been already pointed out, and I need scarcely remark that such reserve will be found in the Officers of the local service, so long as any of that service remain.

42. There can be no objection, however, to admitting Officers of the local service as probationers for the Staff Corps under the above rule, to such an extent as shall not exceed the establishment proposed for the Staff Corps, including the estimated reserve.

43. I learn, from a recent Despatch from the Government of Bombay, that the number of Officers available for employment in that Presidency, whether of the local service or in Staff Corps, is rapidly approaching the limit of their requirements. As there is still some excess in the other two Presidencies, I shall not object to the appointment of Officers of the Bengal and Madras Armies to the Bombay Staff Corps, should your Government consider it advisable to permit of such an arrangement.

44. In the meantime, it seems desirable to notify by General Order to the officers of the Army at large the qualifications which will be required for candidates desiring admission to the Staff Corps, and the form in which application for such admission should be prepared and submitted, and it should be distinctly understood that officers of Line Regiments, within the prescribed limits as to rank, are eligible for appointment to the Staff Corps of either Presidency, without reference to the Presidency in which their regiments may be serving.

45. From a despatch received from the Government of Madras, No. 164, 25th June 1863, I have reason to fear that there has been some ground for misunderstanding as to the class of officers who were to be admitted to the Staff Corps provisionally, and subject to probation and examination.

46. Your General Order dated 10th April 1861, announced that the "officers who may have held their appointment for less than one year, will not be transferred permanently to the Staff Corps, unless they possess the requisite qualifications, to be hereafter laid down, and shall have completed the period of probation to be prescribed."

47. This condition was found upon the 18th paragraph of my despatch, dated 18th January 1861, which stated that officers then holding staff appointments, who had held them for short periods only, would not be transferred permanently to the Staff Corps, unless they should possess the requisite qualifications, and until they should have completed the period of probation that might be prescribed for the department in which they might be serving.

48. By your General Order No. 332 of the 10th April 1861, paragraph 73, you admitted to the Staff Corps all officers who had been in permanent Staff employ during the three previous years.

49. The introduction of the rule which was approved in my Despatch No. 319, dated 10th August 1861, paragraph 12, obviously required a modification of that above quoted, which should have been so altered as to require that an Officer should have held a substantive appointment on the Staff for a certain period, i. e., a year within the three years preceding the formation of the Staff Corps, failing which he was to pass certain tests, before his appointment to the Staff Corps could be confirmed.

50. For the reply given by your Government to Question 87, which was approved by me, it was stated that an Officer should have held, for not less than one year, the particular appointment which he held at the time of the formation of the Staff Corps. That answer, the full effect of which was overlooked at the time that it received my approval, must not interfere with the revision of your proceedings on the principle now laid down. Should any Officer have been erroneously denied permanent appointment to the Staff Corps under this mistaken interpretation of the rule in question as now shown, his case must be considered.—I have, &c.

CHARLES WOOD.

With reference to the Despatch of the Secretary of State, published in the foregoing order, the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council is pleased to notify that for the present, and pending a further communication with Her Majesty's Government, no Officer will be admitted to the Staff Corps on probation, and admissions will solely be made consequent upon Officers having obtained appointments and given satisfactory proof of their fitness for the same, according to the rules hereinafter laid down.

2. All Officers now in permanent Staff employment of a description that qualifies for the Staff Corps, will be admitted thereto from the date of their having obtained such permanent appointment subsequent to the 18th February 1861, provided they have passed, or do pass, within six months from this date, the tests hitherto in force or that are now to be laid down. In the case of such Officers as may be now in Europe, the period of six months will reckon from date of their return to India.

Under this rule, Officers appointed to Staff situations between the 19th February 1860 and the 18th February 1861, will be admitted to the Staff Corps from the 19th of the latter month, but Officers who having been one year in Staff employ on the 18th February 1861, and therefore eligible for appointment on the formation of the Corps, and who then did not apply for admission, can only enter from the date on which they may hereafter be appointed to the Corps.

3. With reference to paragraphs 45 to 50 of the Despatch of the Secretary of State, it is announced that all Officers who held a permanent Staff appointment for one year at any time between the 18th February 1858 and 18th February 1861, are eligible for admission to the Staff Corps from date of its formation, and this is not to be effected by the circumstance of an Officer having held two or more different appointments during such period.

4. Applications for admission to the Staff Corps of the respective Presidencies under the two foregoing paragraphs, are to be submitted to the Governments of India, of Madras, or of Bombay, through the channels laid down in paragraphs 7 and 8 of this order.

5. In future, no Officer will be nominated to any appointment qualifying for the Staff Corps, who does not produce the certificates referred to in paragraphs 19 and 20 of Sir C. Wood's Despatch,* and where Officers obtain appointments under the Commander-in-Chief, these certificates are to be attached to the final application for admission to be submitted to Government after the prescribed period of probation. The Governments in the Military Departments will require to see these certificates prior to the appointment on probation of an Officer to any situation under Government that qualifies for the Staff Corps.

6. The tests and periods of probation necessary to qualify Officers for admission to the Staff Corps, in consequence of their nomination to appointments other than those belonging to the Military Department, will be those already laid down, or that may, from time to time, be fixed in the other departments of Government, but when new rules or changes in existing rules on the subject are made, they will always be republished to the Army in the General Orders of the Military Department.

7. When Officers employed in situations not under the Military Department, who have qualified in all respects, including retention of a probationary appointment for the prescribed period, desire to enter the Staff Corps, they will apply through their immediate superiors to the department of the Government under which they are employed, when the application, if approved, will be transferred to the Military Department, in view to the admission of the applicant being announced in General Orders.

8. The tests for admission to the Staff Corps in appointments under the Military Department or Commander-in-Chief are laid down at the end of this order, and applications will be submitted through Commanding Officers or heads of departments to the Adjutant General in the first instance accompanied by the prescribed certificates, for eventual submission to Government.

9. In all cases, whether of Civil or Military employ, a fixed period of probation will be laid down, at the termination of which, if an Officer cannot pass the tests, he must revert to regimental duty, unless under special circumstances a short extension of the period of probation is allowed by the Government of the Presidency on the recommendation of the department concerned, or of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

It will be open to an Officer at any period of his probation to apply to be allowed to revert to regimental duty should he find the nature of the employment unsuited to him, or with the approval of the Commander-in-Chief or of Government, he may, during the same period, be remanded to regimental duty for manifest inaptitude.

10. The circumstance of an Officer being in the Staff Corps will not exempt him from passing departmental tests, should he be transferred from one appointment or department to another.

11. There are certain small departments or separate offices under the Military Department for which tests are not laid down. It will rest with the Government of the Presidency in cases where Officers not belonging to the Staff Corps may be nominated to such appointments on probation, to decide in each case on the report of his immediate superior whether an Officer has established his fitness for the Staff Corps, and to admit him thereto or to remand him to regimental duty, but in every case an Officer must have fulfilled all the general preliminary conditions required in candidates for the Staff Corps.

12. It has been laid down that hereafter the date of transfer of an Officer to the Staff Corps will be that of his appointment on probation.

13. Officers of Her Majesty's British Regiments are eligible for appointment to the Staff Corps of any Presidency, without reference to the Presidency in which their Regiments may be serving.

TESTS FOR ADMISSION TO THE STAFF CORPS FROM MILITARY APPOINTMENTS.

1.—NATIVE INFANTRY.

I. Knowledge of the Native Articles of War and the Military Regulations of the Presidency, particularly all such as affect the conduct of Native Troops, their pay, pension, clothing, &c., which is to be tested by an examination of a somewhat searching character, consisting of not less than fifty questions and answers, all of which are to be recorded in the report of the examination.

II. Knowledge of the system pursued in the Native Infantry, and especially in the Regiment to which the Officer has been attached, as to the mode of investigating and dealing with offences, complaints, and petitions from the men. The manner in which the rosters for furlough and guard are kept. The deductions usually made from the men's pay on account of half-mounting, or for other purposes, and the system of accounts followed in the Corps, together with an acquaintance with all the forms in use.

III. Knowledge of every article of equipment used by the men of the Regiment, their usual or fixed cost, mode of carrying them, &c.

IV. Ability to act as Adjutant on parade, to be tested on parade, with a Battalion, with a knowledge of reconnoitring and outpost duty, and ability to write a report of a "reconnaissance." This report must be written in a legible hand.

V. The probation will extend over one year, at the end of which period the Commanding Officer of the Regiment to which the candidate has been attached, will apply for a committee of examination. This Committee will be assembled only at the Head Quarters of Divisions or Brigades, and will be presided over by the General Officer or Brigadier General Commanding, with two Commandants of Native Regiments, or one Commandant and one Second in Command as Members.

VI. The Committee will give their opinion in succession on all the points noticed above, and conclude by saying that they consider the Officer qualified (or not as the case may be) for permanent employment with Native Troops. They are to embody in the report a statement as to whether the candidate has had the opportunity afforded him of acting as Adjutant on parade, or has been detached under a senior Officer on escort duty, and whether he has been in the habit of frequently attending orderly room with the Commanding Officer, and thereby obtained a full insight into the system of the Regiment. This report is to be sent through the Divisional General to the Adjutant General, who will transmit it, accompanied by the opinion of the Commander-in-Chief, to the Government of the Presidency, when, if approved, the Officer will be gazetted to the Staff Corps with effect from the date on which he commenced his period of probation.

VII. It is to enable an Officer to show his aptitude for, and zeal in, the performance of his regimental duties, that the period of a year has been fixed for his probation.

VIII. During this time, in which the Officer should be employed as indicated above, including if possible, detachment duty, his Commanding Officer should satisfy himself that his temper and general habits are such as to render him an efficient Officer of Native Troops. At any time during the period of probation, it will be open to the Commanding Officer to represent to the Commander-in-Chief that he does not think the probationer, either from temper or other cause, suited for employment with Native Troops; in which case it will be competent for the Commander-in-Chief, if satisfied with the reasons assigned, to direct the Officer to rejoin his Regiment, or, if in the local service, to duty elsewhere.

IX. As a rule, an Officer who fails at the expiration of one year's probation to pass a satisfactory examination, will revert to his proper Corps or to general duty; but under very special cases, an Officer so failing may be allowed to continue with the Regiment to which he is attached, and to undergo another and a final examination at the end of eighteen months.

2.—NATIVE CAVALRY.

I. An Officer, nominated to the Native Cavalry, will be required to pass the same tests and the same period of probation as laid down for Native Infantry. He will, however, be required, before being attached to a Native Cavalry Regiment, to furnish satisfactory evidence of his aptitude for riding.

II. The examination and final appointment will be conducted as in the Infantry; but the Committee will have upon it two Cavalry Officers, of whom one at least should be Commandant of a Native Cavalry Regiment.

III. In addition to all the points laid down for the Infantry, the Committee will report on the Officer's qualifications, as respects a knowledge of Cavalry drill, and of the system peculiar to the Native Cavalry in regard to purchase of horses, &c. He should also prove himself to be well acquainted with the system of stable management in the Corps, the district whence horses are usually obtained for it, their prevailing defects and good qualities, their usual price, &c. He should also show himself possessed of some general knowledge of Farriery, and of the diseases and injuries to which horses are liable, as well as their treatment.

3.—APPOINTMENTS IN THE DEPARTMENT OF THE JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL.

I. It is probable that a large majority of Officers who enter this department will be taken from other appointments, and will already belong to the Staff Corps.

II. Some, however, may enter it direct from Regiments, and these, as well as Officers already on the Staff Corps, will have to pass a test examination before permanent appointment to the department.

This will consist of—

1. A vivâ voce examination before a Committee as to their knowledge of Military Law.

2. Replies in writing to a series of questions which will be propounded to them by the Judge Advocate General of the Army.

III. The Committee of examination will assemble at Divisional Head Quarters, and will be composed of the Deputy Judge Advocate General of the Division, and two selected Field Officers, whose report will be forwarded to the Judge Advocate General.

IV. The Examination must be conducted so as to show the candidate's amount of knowledge of the different Mutiny Acts and Articles of War; Her Majesty's and the Bengal Military Regulations, and the Indian Penal Code. The candidate's capacity to review the proceedings of minor Courts Martial will be tested by questions put to him by the Committee; his fitness to conduct the proceedings of a General Court Martial being ascertained in the same manner, and by requiring him to frame a skeleton charge under any specified article, and to write out in their presence the proper form to be observed in recording the proceedings of such Court Martial, entering the punishment awardable on conviction of the charge indicated.

V. The series of questions referred to under No. 2 (paragraph II.) will be prepared at Army Head Quarters under the orders of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, and sent to the Committee, in whose presence they must be replied to, and by whom they will be forwarded with their proceedings.

VI. This examination will precede the period of probation, the latter being terminable after one year's performance of duty, on a satisfactory report as to the probationer's practical qualification, being made by the Commanding Officer of the Division to whose Staff he was attached, and by the Judge Advocate General.

4.—APPOINTMENTS IN THE ACCOUNTS BRANCH, MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

I. Under this heading are included all situations of whatever kind (save that of Regimental Paymaster), held in the departments connected with the pay accounts, or audit of accounts of the Army, or of its establishments.

II. For this branch of the Staff no appointment on probation will be made without proof that the candidate is a fair accountant.

III. On an Officer being selected as a probationer, he will, in the first place, appear before the nearest Divisional Paymaster, who will examine him as to his general knowledge of accounts and Book-keeping, and also question him as to the extent to which he has mastered the Pay Regulations of his Presidency.

IV. His certificate, in form B. will be forwarded to Government, through the Controller of Military Accounts, and if it is found to be satisfactory, he will be appointed on probation.

V. This probation will extend over a year, and will be passed at the Presidency. During this period he will be employed under the orders of the Controller of Military Accounts, and be attached in succession to the different branches of the Controller's Department.

VI. At the end of this time, on the Controller reporting that the candidate has been regular in attendance, and gives promise of being useful in the department, he will appear before a Committee composed of the Controller, the Military Accountant, and a Pay Examiner.

VII. The examination will embrace the practical branches of Arithmetic and Book-keeping, as well as questions involving a ready acquaintance with Pay and Audit Rules, and the general principles on which these Rules are based.

VIII. The examination will be conducted by means of a series of written questions, and by testing the ability of the candidate to check selected abstracts and bills.

IX. If the report of the Committee be favourable, the candidate will be confirmed in the accounts branch, and attached to an office at the Presidency, or to one of the large Divisional Pay Offices.

5.—APPOINTMENTS IN THE COMMISSARIAT DEPARTMENT.

I. The period of probation in this department will be one year; but before a candidate can be appointed as a probationer, he must pass a preliminary examination, and before he can be permanently appointed to the department he must pass a final examination on the expiry of the year of his probation.

II. The subjects of the preliminary examination will be—

1. The rules of arithmetic, including vulgar and decimal fractions, involution and evolution, mensuration and the computation of areas and solid contents, and the system of Book-keeping by single and double entry.
2. He will also be required to read aloud correctly, and with tolerable ease, three Urdu or Hindustani papers. These papers are to be taken from official records at random, and written (in the Persian character) by different persons in fairly legible running hands. After having read them aloud the candidate must explain their contents in English correctly.

III. He must translate, without assistance, from English into Urdu and Hindi, an instruction to a Subordinate Commissariat Officer, or other official paper to be furnished by the Examining Committee. The translation must be precise and correct in meaning, and perfectly intelligible to a Native, tolerably correct in grammar and spelling, and free from any very bad errors of idiom.

IV. He must dictate with some fluency the translation into Hindustani of an English letter, or other official paper, also to be furnished by the examining Committee, whereof the translation will be written down exactly as dictated. The dictated paper must be intelligible and correct in meaning.

V. He must undergo a thorough and careful test in conversation with two or three Natives in such manner and to such extent as shall suffice completely to satisfy the Committee as to the degree of his power of understanding Natives of different classes, and of making himself understood by them both in common conversation and in the usual course of departmental business.

VI. The above lingual test will not be held to supersede the necessity of the candidates having passed the Hindustani or Staff examination, which is one of the essential conditions attached to admission into the Staff Corps.

VII. The probationer will have to undergo his final examination at the expiry of his term of probation. The heads of the examination will be—

1. His acquaintance with his responsibility and duties in the care and custody of the cattle and stores under the charge of a Commissariat Officer.
2. His knowledge of the system of procuring supplies by departmental agency or contract as circumstance may require, and the rules affecting the preparation of contract deeds and the liability of contractors.

3. His acquaintance with the mode of rationing European Troops, and the different articles comprising their rations.
4. His acquaintance with the mode of rationing Native Troops, and the circumstances under which rations are issued to them.
5. His knowledge of departmental rules, and of the forms of returns furnished periodically to the heads of his department.
6. His ability to draw up with accuracy estimates and average statements of the cost of victualling troops and feeding cattle.
7. His knowledge of the equipments of cattle and stores required for the Cavalry, Artillery, and Infantry, with reference to their numbers and distance to be marched.
8. His knowledge of the animals in use for food, as to their breeding and where the best are produced ; where the best transport animals are found, and the weight they respectively carry.
9. His facility in reading Gomashtah's accounts as presented in Persian or Hindi, and in writing Purwannahs in the above languages.
10. His ability to prepare monthly disbursements from the checked accounts of Native agents, with an Account Current, and his knowledge of the vouchers required to support charges under the different heads of expenditure.
11. His acquaintance with the general system of accounts in the Commissariat Department.

VIII. The preliminary examination will be held at Head Quarters of Divisions, and conducted by the Senior Commissariat Officer and Executive Engineer or Officer acting as such. The Committee will test the candidate's acquaintance with arithmetic, by requiring him to show not only the answers to the arithmetical questions but the details by which they are worked out. He will prove his knowledge of the fundamental rules of Book-keeping, by furnishing written replies to a series of questions which will be given him by the Examiners.

IX. The examination in the Native languages will be conducted by the Government Board of Examiners or other qualified Committee.

X. The examination in the final test will be held at the Presidency, and will be conducted by a Committee composed of a selected Civil Officer, the Deputy Commissary General of the Circle, and the Examiner of Commissariat Accounts. A selected Field Officer of a British Regiment will be associated with the Committee in that part of their examination which relates to the rationing of British Troops.

XI. On nomination to the department on probation an Officer will, under the orders of the Commissary General, proceed at the public expense to join one of the first class executive charges for six months, for the purpose of learning the executive duties of the department. At the expiration of this time he will proceed to the Office of Examiner of Commissariat Accounts, and remain there three months to learn the system of audit. For the remaining three months he will join the Presidency Office, and will there appear before the Committee for his final examination, as set forth above.

6.—APPOINTMENTS IN THE STUD DEPARTMENT.

I. The period of probation in this department will be one year. There will be no preliminary examination. At the expiry of the term of probation, the probationer will be examined by a Committee who will forward their report to the Government for approval.

II. This Committee will be composed of the Superintendent, or in his unavoidable absence, a Deputy Superintendent as President, with the next senior available Stud Officer, and a selected Field Officer or Captain of Cavalry as Members. A selected Veterinary Surgeon will be associated with the Committee during the examination of the candidate, under heads 5, 6, and 7, as hereafter laid down.

III. An Officer selected on probation will join a Stud Depot, and the Deputy Superintendent of the Stud will be required to see that he is punctual in attendance during office hours ; that he attends stables regularly ; that he accompanies the Depot Officer in his tours of inspection of the Stud stock of the breeding districts ; and that he attends all purchases of the same by the Deputy Superintendent of the Stud.

IV. The Deputy Superintendent will furnish the Examination Committee with a certificate that the probationer has fulfilled the foregoing conditions. He will also state whether, from his personal observation, he considers him likely to make a good Stud Officer. The qualities to be considered in forming this estimate are, intelligence, industry, activity, health to enable him to bear considerable exposure, willingness to learn, a fondness for and knowledge of horses, and temper and disposition likely to render him popular with Natives.

V. The subjects of examination will be—

1. Arithmetic, including vulgar and decimal fractions, and the system of Book-keeping by single and double entry.

2. His acquaintance with his responsibility and duties in the care of Stud cattle and stores under the charge of a Depot officer.
 3. His knowledge of the system of procuring gram and fodder for the Stud cattle, both by contract and departmental agency.

 5. His knowledge of the management of and feeding young cattle on admission into Stud stables.
 6. His knowledge of what constitutes unsoundness in horses, his ability to age them from inspection of their teeth, and his ability readily to discover external injuries in any way received by Stud cattle, together with some general knowledge of the Veterinary art and shoeing.
 7. His knowledge of the qualifications of horses, their power, shape, action, &c., and for which branch of the mounted service they are best fitted.
 8. His ability to make out estimates, and the average cost of the feed of cattle.
 9. His ability to prepare monthly disbursements from checked accounts of Native agents, with an Account Current, and his knowledge of the vouchers required to support charges under the different heads of expenditure.
- VI. The knowledge required under the 6th and 7th heads of examination will be tested practically; the probationer being required to class a stable of colts to the different branches of the service, rejecting such as he thinks unfit, and making any remarks regarding any unsoundness or peculiarities in any animal. The accuracy and judgment of this classification will be reported on by the Committee.
- VII. The remaining subjects for examination will be tested by requiring written answers from the candidate to a paper of questions which the Committee will previously prepare.

7.—APPOINTMENTS IN THE SURVEY DEPARTMENT.

I. For this department the period of probation will be one year. This, under special sanction, may be extended to two.

II. For the Survey Department in general, there will be two distinct classes of examination, viz. :—

1st.—For the Topographical and Revenue Surveys, and,

2ndly.—For the Great Trigonometrical Survey.

III. In regard to the first, the preliminary examination will embrace the following subjects :—

1. A thorough knowledge of arithmetic, but more especially of involution, square and cube roots, arithmetical and geometrical progression, proportion, or rule of three, vulgar and decimal fractions, logarithmic calculations, and mensuration of surfaces.
2. Elementary geometry—first four books of Euclid.
3. Algebra, as far as quadratic equations, inclusive.
4. Elements of plane trigonometry.
5. Execution, in the presence of Examiners, of topographical, mechanical, or civil drawing of a certain standard of excellence.

IV. The final examination, to be held at the close of the period of probation, will comprise :—

1. The satisfactory execution, unassisted, of a small area of country, including the computation and entire mapping involved in the same.
2. Perfect use and knowledge of all the instruments employed in the department, and adjustment of the same.
3. The elements of nautical astronomy, sufficient for ascertaining time, azimuth and latitude.

V. These examinations will be conducted by the Surveyor General, aided by such professional Officers selected by himself, to the number of two, as may be available.

VI. On passing the preliminary examination, the probationer will be attached to field parties to learn their practical duties in the field and during the recess.

VII. For the Great Trigonometrical Survey the examination for the topographical branch will be as for the Revenue Survey.

VIII. For the Geodesical or higher branch, the preliminary examination will be theoretical only, comprising the usual course of mathematics up to conic sections, and the principles of construction of instruments in common use. The final examination will be theoretical and practical, embracing analytical geometry of three dimensions,—statics, dynamics, and astronomy; the construction of the instruments of the Great Trigonometrical Survey, and a practical familiarity with their management.

IX. The Examiners will be the Superintendent, Great Trigonometrical Survey, with any two available Officers of the department at his Head Quarters.

X. The degree of proficiency attained by candidates will be ascertained in both branches of the Survey Department by written examinations, the questions being framed at departmental Head Quarters.

XI. Officers holding Staff College or Civil Engineering College certificates of qualification, or Officers of Engineers, will be exempt from undergoing any preliminary examination, and will, on being nominated, at once enter as probationers.

The Governor General in Council having had under consideration the rules for the examination of Military Officers seeking admission to the Staff Corps in the Civil and Political Departments, which were published in the Notification of Government, No. 242, dated 25th May last, has determined, subject to the sanction of Her Majesty's Secretary of State, on the substitution of the following rules:—

In continuation of the general Regulations for the admission of Officers to the Staff Corps, notified by the Military Department in G. O. No. 531 of 1864, dated the 27th June, the following Rules relating to the future employment of Military Officers in the Civil and Political Departments of the Government, are published for general information:—

I. A candidate for appointment to the Civil or Political Department, with the view of qualifying for the Staff Corps, must furnish the certificates mentioned in paragraph 5 of G. O. No. 531, of which the forms were given in Appendix A of the same General Order, and are now re-published at the end of the present Notification.

II. He must have been previously attached, for a period of not less than one year, to a Native Regiment;* but such period may form part of the three years' duty with a regiment required by the general Regulations for admission to the Staff Corps. He will be required to produce a certificate from his superior Officer, testifying to his efficiency and good conduct, and especially to his conciliatory demeanour towards the Native soldiery, and other people of the country with whom he has been brought in contact.

III. The period of one year,—reckoned, as explained in the following rule, from the date of the first half-yearly examination held subsequent to appointment,—is fixed as the limit within which an Officer, admitted on probation to employment in the Civil or Political Department, will be required to qualify himself to undergo the examinations hereinafter mentioned, in passing which he will have a claim to have his services retained, and he will then, under the orders of the Military Department, be appointed to the Staff Corps.

IV. Examinations will be held half-yearly in October and April of each year. A candidate may appear at the first examination held after the expiry of the first six months of his probation, and if he fail to pass must again appear at the next examination, six months later. A candidate failing to pass at the first examination, held after the expiration of his year of probation, will be removed from employment in the Civil or Political Department, and consequently will not be appointed to the Staff Corps.

V. Subject to such general directions as shall from time to time be given by the Government of India, the examinations will be conducted by a Committee acting under the orders of the Lieutenant Governor, or Chief Commissioner, or Political Agent or Resident, as the case may be.

VI. The examination will embrace, in the case of Officers employed in general civil duties, the subjects of Indian History, Political Economy, and Jurisprudence. The works on the two last-named subjects, in which candidates will be examined, are Mill's Political Economy, Austin's Principles of Jurisprudence, Volume I., and Maine's Ancient Law. Notice of any change in the books for examination will be given at least one year before it takes effect.

VII. Every Officer in civil employment will, in addition to the above examination, and notwithstanding his appointment to the Staff Corps, be required to undergo the local and departmental examinations prescribed for Covenanted Civil Servants in the Province in which he is serving.

VIII. The examination in the case of Officers employed in the Political Department will embrace the subjects above-mentioned and the candidate will, in addition, be examined in Wheaton's work on the Principles of International Law. He will also be examined in the collection of Indian Treaties and Engagements, now published under the direction of the Foreign Office.

* Any Officer who has been employed for a year in one of the Departments named on the margin, will be exempted from the condition prescribed by Rule I. of one year's service with a Native Regiment. Provided, however, that he shall produce, from the Officer under whom he may have served in any such Department, a certificate (to be countersigned by the hand of the Department) to the same effect as that required from a superior Officer in case of service with a Native Regiment.

IX. No Officer will be admitted on probation to Civil or Political employment who has not passed the examination in Hindustani, required by the general Regulations for the admission of Officers to the Staff Corps.

X. Cantonment Magistrates will be classed with Officers in civil employment. Separate rules will be promulgated hereafter as regards Police Officers; but Police Officers, if transferred to civil employment, will be required to pass the examination prescribed for Officers in civil employment.

XI. As a general rule, Military Officers will be appointed to the Political Department from among those who are already in civil employment, and every Officer so transferred will be required to pass, within one year from the date of his transfer, the additional examination in International Law and Indian Treatise prescribed for the Political Department, failing which he will forfeit his appointment.

XII. These rules are intended to be prospective in their effect. They will not apply to any Officers now holding permanent appointments in Civil Political employment. Such Officers will be entitled to join the Staff Corps in virtue of their appointments. Officers, however, who do not hold permanent appointments will be subject to these rules. But the case of any Officer who has been formerly in Civil or Political employment, and who having quitted such employment may hereafter be reappointed to it, will be specially dealt with as the circumstances of the case may require.

CIVIL SERVICE ABSENTEE RULES.

FORT WILLIAM, FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT, THE 8TH JUNE 1855.

THE following Rules for the grant of Leave of Absence, for regulating Deductions from Salaries and Deputation Allowances, and for limiting the period of service of Civil Servants, are published for general information, and will take effect in all the Presidencies and Settlements under the Government of India from the date of the publication of this Notification in supersession of the Rules of the 17th May 1843 and the 25th August 1854 :—

CHAPTER I.

RULES FOR APPLICATION FOR LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Section I.—No leave of absence from any Office or Station can be granted but by the Government under which the employment is held, and on the application of the party requiring such leave, saving in such cases as may hereafter be specially excepted. The application must be made publicly, through the regular channel, in the Department to which the applicant may belong.

Section II.—The Official Allowances of the holder of a Civil office quitting his Station without leave will entirely cease from the date of his quitting until his return, or in the event of his subsequently obtaining leave to the date of such leave being granted to him.

Section III.—No leave of absence shall have any retrospective effect except in cases of severe illness, to be attested by medical certificate, conforming in every respect to the directions contained in Section V.

1. Privilege leave with retrospective effect not claimable by an officer compelled to absence from office without waiting for leave. (Notification of 23rd May 1860.)

2. The Commissioners of Revenue and Police, the Commissioner in Sind, and the Resident in the Persian Gulf are vested with power of granting privilege leave for one month only to the officers subordinate to them, and in cases where leave for more than one month is applied for the sanction of Government is necessary. The Commissioners are also vested with power to grant leave to their subordinates to proceed to Bombay for the purpose of undergoing examination.

3. The reckoning of leave of absence is made from the date of relinquishing charge of office without reference to the specification of commencement of leave in the Government orders.

4. Officers are to return to their station on the termination of leave whether that day falls on Sunday or otherwise.

5. Leave of absence whether on medical certificate or on private affairs granted without specification of the date of its commencement may be taken from any date within one month after the date of the Government order, otherwise a fresh application will be necessary.

6. The Secretary of State for India will not accept a resignation from any Civil Servant whilst on leave in Europe without ascertaining that there are no demands against him.

7. Every Civil Servant immediately on his arrival in England to forward to the office of the Secretary of State for India a copy of the Government letter granting him leave to Europe.

8. He should also forward a certificate from the Civil Pay Master, showing the date of sailing of the vessel in which he embarked, the period for which leave has been granted, the amount of salary, the proportions thereof, to which an absentee is entitled under the regulation during absence, and whether it is to be drawn in India or otherwise.

9. In a case of urgent necessity the local Government may grant leave to an officer of the Account Department, but as a rule no Department or Government should give leave except the one under which the officer is serving, as none other can possibly know how his absence will affect the service.

CHAPTER II.

RULES FOR SICK LEAVE.

Section IV.—Upon application duly made, the Government may grant leave of absence on medical certificate to any Civil Servant, to any place in India, in Europe, or elsewhere, as he may consider most conducive to the restoration of his health, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort.

Section V.—When an application for leave of absence is made on the ground of ill-health, it must be accompanied by a certificate and a statement of the case from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant has been attended, distinctly stating, from personal observation, the nature of the disease, the symptoms by which it is manifested, the period during which it has existed as far as the knowledge of the Medical Officer extends, and the necessity for temporary removal to some other place in India, or in Europe, or elsewhere, as laid down in Section IV. ; and in case of the applicant visiting the Presidency preparatory to obtain leave, the certificate must be countersigned by the Members of the Medical Board, on their being satisfied on a perusal of the Medical Attendant's statement of the case, that the leave applied for is absolutely necessary towards his recovery. Should the applicant's Medical Attendant be of opinion that he ought to proceed to a Sanitarium or other place without visiting the Presidency, the certificate must, in the first instance, be countersigned by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the applicant may be located, and afterwards submitted, with the statement of the case, for the consideration and countersignature of the Members of the Medical Board.

The certificate shall be given in the following form :—

"I, A. B., Surgeon at or of—, do hereby certify that E. F., of the Civil Service, is in a bad state of health, and I solemnly and sincerely declare that according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery ; and do therefore recommend that he may be permitted to sea (or to proceed to such place as the surgeon may think proper, expressing it in the certificate)."

The following form shall be observed by the Members of the Medical Board or the Superintending Surgeon, in countersigning the surgeon's certificate :—

"We (or I) do hereby certify, that according to the best of our (or my) professional judgment, after careful personal examination of his case, we (or I) consider the state of health of E. F. to be such as to render leave of absence for a period of ——— absolutely necessary (or highly desirable) for his recovery."

An application for extension of leave must, if the applicant be in India, be accompanied by a certificate to a like effect from the medical officer by whom the applicant is attended, together with a statement, showing sufficient reason for the extension solicited ; and such certificate must be countersigned by the members of the Medical Board, or by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the applicant may be located, as the case may be, on perusal of the statement. In like manner, if the applicant shall have proceeded beyond the territories under the Government of the East India Company, he must furnish a certificate and statement to the required effect from a surgeon or physician at the place of his temporary residence by whom he has been attended, such attendance, and the period of it, to be stated, and the certificate to be countersigned by the examining physician of the East India Company, if the applicant is in England, or, if not in England by the principal medical authority of the colony or country to which the absentee may have proceeded, or some sufficient reason stated for the want of such countersignature, if the certificate be not so countersigned. The Medical Board or Superintending Surgeon, before countersigning a certificate as above mentioned, must either personally examine the applicant, or state some sufficient reason why they or he have or hath been unable to do so. When any of the required particulars are neglected, leave will be refused.

Section VI.—The following condition will in future attach to leaves of absence granted to Civil Servants who may be declared by a sufficient medical certificate to require such leave for the recovery of their health :—

1st.—The total period of absence, with the privileges hereinafter provided, shall not (save as specially excepted in Clause 5 of this Section, and in Section VII. of these Rules) exceed eighteen months in the whole, nor shall it exceed fifteen months on any one occasion. An officer however after 3 months' leave on sick certificate cannot obtain further leave for 15 months to proceed to Europe which must be restricted to 12 months. (G. I. 7th Sept. 1859. Calcutta Gazette of 10th idem.)

2ndly.—The office of the absentee will be considered to be vacated if he shall be absent beyond eighteen months altogether, or beyond fifteen months at any one time, unless he shall obtain leave under Clause 5 of this Section, such absence to be computed, if he shall proceed to a Sanitarium within the presidency, from the date of his arrival thereat to the date of his quitting the sanitarium; if to any place beyond the presidency, but within the continent of India, from the date of his leaving the frontier of his own presidency to the date of his return thereto; and if he shall proceed to sea, from the date of the sailing of the vessel on which he may have embarked from any port in India which is not more distant from his station than the port of his own presidency, to the date of the arrival at any port within the presidency to which he belongs, or at any other port which is not more distant from his Station than the port of his own presidency.

3rdly.—The absentee will be entitled to draw a moiety of his salary, and the same will be paid to him during such period of absence, provided that he shall in no case draw a larger sum than Rupees 10,000 (£1,000), per annum during that period; in cases in which the emolument of the absentee's office does not exceed Rupees 5,000 per annum, no deduction therefrom shall be made for the period of eighteen months, nor shall such a deduction be made in other cases as shall reduce the allowance below Rupees 5,000 (£500) per annum. In cases in which the salary of the absentee may not be of that amount, the full salary will be granted.

4thly.—For the interval elapsing between departure from station to the commencement of reckoning absence or between the end of reckoning absence and re-arrival at station the absentee will be allowed a special leave for an additional period of one month, two months, or three months, according to the distance to be travelled, as prescribed in Section XX. of these Rules; and during this additional period the absentee will be entitled to draw the same salary as is allowed by Clause 3 of this Section.

9thly.—(As amended by the Government of India on the 22nd December 1858.)

If the absentee shall apply, under medical certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months, or fifteen months at any one time, and it shall appear to the Honorable the Court of Directors to be absolutely necessary, after examination by their medical officers in England, that he should do so, the leave which may have been granted in India, will, under the orders of the Honorable Court, be extended to the limit of two years, with permission to retain office and half salary within the limits enjoined during such extension. If the absentee be in India, the leave may be extended to the limit aforesaid, under the orders of the Government of India, or the subordinate Governments, upon the certificate of a board of medical officers, to be summoned to report on the state of the absentee's health.

10thly.—If the absentee be compelled by the state of his health, under due medical certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months, or fifteen months at any one time, or beyond two years in the case of an extension under Clause 4, he will, as before stated, vacate his appointment; but he will be permitted to receive an allowance at the rate of £500 per annum if above ten years' standing at the time when the leave was granted, or of £250 if not above ten years' standing at the time when the leave was granted, for such further period of absence as shall not exceed the entire term of three years in the whole. At the expiration of that term, all allowance must cease until he reports his return to his presidency.

Section VII.—If a Civil Servant of more than fifteen years' service, after having been absent on sick leave for eighteen months in the whole, or for fifteen months of one time, at whatever period of his service such sick leave shall have been taken, shall be again compelled by the same cause to apply for leave of absence, the Government of India and the subordinate Governments may, on special grounds, grant leave of absence for one further period not exceeding six months, during which the absentee may retain his office and half his salary under the limits above enjoined.

Section VIII.—If a Civil Servant after fifteen years' service shall be compelled by ill health to apply for farther leave of absence, he may be permitted on special grounds to obtain it, but his absence will involve the loss of office and salary; the Government of India and the subordinate Governments will, however, respectively exercise a discretionary power to grant in such last mentioned cases a sick absentee allowance not exceeding Rupees 5,000 or £500 per annum, for a further period not exceeding twelve months.

Section IX.—A Civil Servant who has taken sick leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843 will not be debarred by that circumstance from taking such leave again under the above rules, with the privilege of retaining office provided the leave be not granted till three years have expired after his return from his leave under the rules of 17th May 1843.

Section X.—None of the abovementioned rules will be applicable to Members of Council. Each member may, however, with the special sanction of the Government, be permitted to be absent, under medical certificate, for a period not exceeding six months, retaining his office and receiving half his salary, which shall be paid to him during such absence; but if his absence shall exceed six months, his office will be vacated.

Clause 1st.—This leave is granted to a Member of Council only once during the tenure of office, and shall on his return and resumption of his office receive half salary for the period of such absence. (G. I. No. 5582 of 25th November 1862.)

Section XI.—Civil Servants who may desire to draw their allowances while absent on account of sickness under the above rules, will be required to give security, in such amount and form as may be fixed by the Government, for the refund of any excess that may be drawn either by the agents at the presidency or by themselves in case of their coming under retrenchment.

Absentees in Europe on medical certificate are not under the necessity of drawing their salaries through their Agents in India on bills audited by the Civil Pay Master, but are at liberty to draw them at the office of the Secretary of State for India at the rate of 2s. the rupee, on the production of the last pay certificate. An officer visiting England can draw his salary during his absence through his agents on guarantee on application to the Civil Paymaster instead of as is now the rule going up to Government for sanction in each individual case.

CHAPTER III.

RULES FOR SHORT LEAVE ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XII. (As amended by the Government of India on the 8th May 1853.)—The Government may grant to Civil Servants leave of absence to any place in India, Europe, or elsewhere, without any restriction whatever as to the place to which they may resort, for one month in each calendar year, without deduction from the salaries and emoluments drawn by such servants. Such leave, however, will only be granted when the Government is satisfied that no inconvenience will arise from the departure of the officer seeking it. No second leave can be granted under this rule until the completion of the eleven months from the expiration of the last leave, if taken at one time, or from the date of return from any sick leave, or until the completion of six months from the expiration of the last instalment of a leave, if it has been divided. Servants not availing themselves of the indulgence in any one year may obtain, under the like conditions, leave of absence for two successive months, to commence at or after the expiration of twenty-two months from the termination of their former leave; and if two years elapse without enjoyment of the privilege, leave for three months may, in like manner, be granted at the expiration of thirty-three months from the termination of the last preceding leave; but no leave shall be granted under this Rule for any period exceeding three months. If an officer shall not return at the expiration of the period of leave granted him under this rule, he shall forfeit all pay and allowance during the time of his remaining so absent without leave; and if he shall so continue absent for more than one month beyond the term granted, his office shall become vacant.

1. When the leave is divided, it is not necessary that six months should elapse before granting the second instalment provided it is taken in the same calendar year. (Decision of the Government of India, page 1869 of the Calcutta Government Gazette of 1856.)

2. Leave under Section XII. cannot be granted preparatory to furlough or retirement from the service, and to have the benefit of its advantages the party must continue to serve, unless disabled by sickness, for three months from the date of his return from privilege leave. (Notification of the Government of India, 19th September 1856.) Preparatory leave may, however, be granted on half salary under the same notification.

3. Civil Servants taking privilege leave are to enjoy their full salaries in every instance, and the cost of substitutes in such cases to be debited to Absentee Fund. But in no case an officer is entitled to draw tentage or other local allowance while absent from duty on privilege leave.

4. The condition of privilege leave is to return to duty on its expiration, and the allowance of an officer will therefore not be payable till he shall have rejoined his station.

5. An officer obtaining privilege leave on the ground of ill health can obtain the same as the sole restriction on the grant is that no inconvenience whatever must arise from the departure of the officer seeking it.

6. No privilege leave not even for a day can be granted until an officer has earned it by being at his post eleven months when the Government may, if inconvenient, give him one month's leave either at one time or by two instalments, but the provisions of the rules do not permit of any leave being granted until 11 months' service has been completed.

Civil Officers are not allowed to visit places beyond the Bombay Presidency on privilege leave without the sanction of Government.

7. Civil Servants absent from their stations under medical certificate cannot be admitted to leave under this rule in continuation of their sick leave; and if while absent under this rule they be granted extended leave under medical certificate, they shall be considered liable to the rules applicable to leave of absence on medical certificate, for the whole period of their absence.

8. The eleven months required by this rule is computed from the date of an officer's return to India from sick leave and not from the date of joining his duties. (Notification of the Government of India, 15th March 1861.)

9. Students or Junior Civil Servants attached to the College or studying in the Provinces are not entitled to indulgence leave, and after joining their first appointment must perform 11 months' duty to entitle them to leave under Sec. XII.

10. Sick leave is not converted into privilege leave.

11. Leave taken under Section XIV. must be held to be an interruption in calculating for the grant of leave under Section XII., and the computation must be subject to renewal from the date of the Civil Servant's return from the former. (Para. 1st of the Honorable Court's Despatch No. 6, of 14th January 1857.)

12. An officer is entitled to one month's privilege leave in the year which may be allowed in two instalments, if one only is obtained and the other not taken within the calendar year, the balance whatever it may be will be forfeited, and a fresh leave can be granted only after the expiration of 11 months from the expiration of the leave that was taken.

13. Cancellation of leave need not be reported to Government, but to the Audit Department.

14. Civil Servants ordered out from England before the expiration of their furlough consequent on the Mutiny in India of 1857 are to be allowed to add whatever privilege leave they may be entitled to up to three months in taking the balance of their furlough. They will be allowed to draw full salary for the period of privilege leave and that amount will be paid in India. (G. I. 25th March 1859. Calcutta Gazette page 638.)

Section. XIII. (As amended by the Government of India on the 8th May 1856.)—As a general rule, when leave is granted under Section XII., such leave will be in one period only whether for a whole month or less, and not in detached portions to complete one month; but as an exception to this rule, it shall be discretionary with the several local Governments, where good cause is shown for the indulgence, and it is attended with no public inconvenience, to sanction leave of absence under this rule, to such parties as may not have occasion to apply for the whole at once, in two instalments only, which are not to exceed in the aggregate one month within the calendar year.

Section XIV. (As amended by the Government of India on 22nd December 1855.)—The Government may, on sufficient cause being shown, grant to a Civil Servant special leave of absence on private affairs for six months to any place in India, Europe, or elsewhere, without any restrictions whatever as to the place to which he may resort: provided however, that the absentee shall draw no more than one-half of his salary and allowances. After an absence of six months any office held by the absentee shall become vacant.

Clause 1. The special leave of absence from India on private affairs granted after 2nd January 1863 will not be counted as residence. (G. I. 2nd January 1863 published in the Bombay Government Gazette page 60.)

Clause 2. (As Amended by the Government of India on 22nd December 1855.)—The leave granted under this Section if taken in India, will be computed from the date of the absentee's quitting his station to the date of his return thereto, and if taken to Europe, or beyond Indian limits, from the date of the sailing of the vessel on which he may have embarked from the port nearest to his station, to the date of his arrival at the same on his return to duty. A second leave of the same description cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave. No portion of the half salary allowed to be drawn will be claimable till the absentee shall have returned to his duty.

For the interval elapsing in the case of leave taken to Europe or beyond Indian limits, between departure from station to arrival at the port of embarkation, or between return to port and re-arrival at station, the Government may grant, on the same terms and conditions as the special leave, such an additional period of leave as may be considered to be absolutely required to enable the absentee to reach the port of embarkation or to return from the port of debarkation to his station.

Clause 3.—It will be understood that leave under this section is not to be granted as a matter of course to every applicant, but that it will be the duty of the Government to consider and determine whether the grounds of the application are sufficiently urgent to justify the concession of the leave.

Clause 4.—(Notification of the Government of India, republished, and dated Bombay Castle, 17th June 1857.)—In the event of a Civil Servant, while absent on special private affairs leave, under Section XIV. of the rules, falling sick, and being granted extended leave under medical certificate, he shall be considered liable, for the whole period of his absence, to the rules applicable to leave of absence on medical certificate.

Leave under Section XIV. cannot be allowed in continuation of leave granted under Section XII., and cannot be granted by instalments, but there is nothing to prevent such leave being allowed for a shorter period than six months, provided the condition of leave not being claimable under the same rule for six years is maintained.

An absent officer is entitled to draw his authorised allowances during absence on bona fide return to service, and when ready to take up an appointment. (Notification of 4th May 1860.)

A second leave under this Section cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave.

No officer confirmed in an appointment in which he may have been acting, or who may have been appointed to an office of higher emoluments than the one he had previously held, shall be allowed to retain the appointment if proceeding to England on private affairs leave under Section XIV. within the period of one year from the date of his confirmation or promotion. Any case in which the Government may consider that there are just grounds for relaxation of the above rules will be treated exceptionally.

An officer absent on leave under Section XIV. should he not return on the expiration of such leave, but resign the service, cannot be allowed to draw any portion of his absentee allowance.

The Secretary of State for India will not accept a resignation from any Civil Servant whilst on leave on private affairs without ascertaining that there are no demands against him.

CHAPTER IV.

FURLOUGHS ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XV.—In the place of the period of three years (in one term) for which furlough has hitherto been granted, Civil Servants will be allowed the option of taking a furlough of three years as at present, or of dividing the furlough into three periods of one year each, to be taken after successive periods of seven years' service, or into two periods, which may either be of one and two years respectively, or of eighteen months each, provided that in every case the Civil Servant shall declare, on taking his furlough, whether he intends it to be for twelve, eighteen, twenty-four, or thirty-six months, in order that the Government may make its arrangements accordingly. In case of a division into two periods, the first furlough must be taken after a residence of not less than ten years, and the second furlough after a further residence in India of ten years from the date of return from the first Furlough; but Civil Servants returning on furlough to Europe will continue, as at present, to vacate their offices.

1. The above terms "seven years' service" and "residence in India" mean service. (Notifications of 23rd May and 16th October 1860.)

2. Civil Servants who have had sick leave beyond sea cannot take Furlough to Europe on private affairs until six years from the date of return to their duty from such sick leave. This rule, however, does not apply to short leave to sea on medical certificate, (page 1844 of the Bombay Government Gazette of 1856), nor does it interfere with Civil Servants having special leave under Section XIV. of the Absentee Rules (page 1987 of the Bombay Government Gazette of 1856), but applies only to furlough on private affairs, (Notification of 23rd May 1860). Vide also Government of India's Notification, 19th June 1861, Calcutta Gazette, page 1643.

3. An officer of the Department of Account taking Furlough to England, retains a lien on the appointment he holds at the time, and will be entitled to return to it on coming back to India. During such absence he will be entitled only to the usual Furlough allowance, leaving the whole salary of his appointment available for his locum tenens.

4. The two years passed at Haileybury are not allowed to count as actual residence in calculating the period after which an officer is entitled to Furlough.

Officers intending to take Furlough or to retire from the service will in future be required to continue to serve unless disabled by sickness for a period of three months. After return to duty from privilege leave under the Civil Absentee rules, failing which its advantages will be forfeited.

5. The period of preparatory leave prior to Furlough on private affairs during which the Absentee shall be allowed a moiety of his allowance without limitation shall be governed by the rules applicable to similar leave in case of medical certificate (Clause 4 Sec. VI.) extending to 4, 6 or 8 weeks according to circumstances, and a separate application for this leave must be submitted.

6. Officers stationed at the Presidency Town will be allowed preparatory leave for a period not exceeding one month.

7. The rule laid down in the two preceding articles is applicable also to officers retiring from the service, provided it can be granted without detriment to the Government service.

Section XVI.—The Furlough Allowance granted during the periods mentioned in the last Section will be at the rate of £500 per annum, and the receipt of it will not, on any grounds whatever, be permitted for any longer period than three years.

Section XVII.—Civil Servants who may have been compelled by sickness to quit their duty under medical certificate, before completing seven years' residence in India, will be entitled to receive, during their Furlough on private affairs taken subsequently to their completion of that period of residence, the ordinary Furlough Allowance of £500 per annum for three years.

Section XVIII. Clause 1.—In applying the foregoing Rules in substitution of those before existing, periods of absence to the limit of three years will count as service in India in the twenty-five years entitling to the Annuity, the present qualification of twenty-two years' residence being retained.

Clause 2.—Absence on medical certificate to the extent of one year will reckon as service and residence in India, and be so computed, in addition to the three years of absence which, under the Clause next preceding, are allowed to be reckoned as Indian service. All periods of short leave of absence on private affairs, taken under Section XII. of these Rules, will also count as service and residence.

Clause 3.—Civil Servants ordered out from England before the expiration of their Furlough consequent on the Mutiny in India of 1857, the time occupied in the journey to and from London (in the event of their wishing to avail themselves of the remainder of their Furlough) will count as service.—(Government of India 25th March 1859. Calcutta Gazette page 638.)

MILITARY OFFICERS.

- Section XIX.—Military Officers employed in the Civil Department will be subject to the Rules laid down in General Order No. 1150, dated 17th November 1854, for the grant of leave of absence and furlough to Officers holding Military Staff Appointments.

1. Preparatory leave to Military Officers in Civil employ is regulated by the Military rules with the exception that such leave shall in no case be extended beyond a period of four, six, or eight weeks, according to the distance travelled, which shall not exceed 300 or 600 miles or be in excess of the last mentioned distance. (Government of India's Notification, 14th January 1859.)

2. Military Officers when absent from Head Quarters for the purpose of appearing before the Examination Committee in Bombay are allowed leave under the Military Rules and the period regulated as follows.

The regulated Travelling days one month for preparatory study at Bombay and the actual period of detention on the Committee. Vide new Furlough Rules G. O. C. 16th October 1855.

RULES FOR STAFF CORPS OFFICERS.

Officers of the Staff Corps while on Furlough will draw the pay of their rank laid down in the clause of the Royal Warrant for Officers out of India, and in case of sickness will have the privilege of drawing for six months the allowance of officers in India. They will be allowed to retain their appointment during short periods of leave not exceeding 20 months, during which time they will only receive the unemployed pay of their rank. With the above exception the officers of the Staff Corps will be under the new furlough regulations of the Indian Army.

SCALE OF PAY.

The boon of 20 months' leave on sick certificate with retention of appointment granted to Officers of Staff Corps is extended to all Officers of other branches of the service.—(General Order of 1861 page 54.)

The rule regulating 20 months' leave to Europe or beyond sea do not in any way affect the previous regulations regarding the grant of leave in India.—(G. I. No. 2540 of 11th June 1863.)

REVISED RULES REGARDING THE ABSENTEE AND ACTING ALLOWANCE OF MILITARY OFFICERS IN CIVIL EMPLOY.

As sanctioned by the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India No. 311 dated 31st August 1863, published by the Government of India in Calcutta Gazette No. 157-1, dated 31st October 1863, page 2958.

1st. A Military Officer in Civil employ on leave either in India or in England shall draw precisely the pay which he would be entitled to draw under the Military leave rules except when on privilege leave as hereafter specially provided.

2nd. Such pay shall be provided in the Civil Department excepting only in cases where the allowances so drawn would exceed the entire Civil Pay of the appointment when the excess will be paid by the Military Department. The Staff salary of any Officer shall be held to be the difference between the Indian pay and allowances of his rank and the full salary of his permanent appointment.

3rd. A Military Officer acting for another in Civil employ shall draw Deputation allowance under the rule by which the allowance is granted to Covenanted Civil Servants.

5th. If the Officer hold no Substantive appointment, Civil or Military, it will be given in addition to his Military pay and allowances.

6th. A Military Officer in Civil employ performing the duties of his substantive appointment and at the same time officiating in another is entitled to his substantive salary and in addition to a Deputation allowance of 20 and 10 per cent. on the Staff salary of the appointment in which he is officiating, provided the pay of the substantive appointment with the addition of the Deputation allowance does not exceed the pay of the higher appointment.

7th. A subordinate acting for his principal or for any other Officer at the same station is not entitled to Deputation allowance for the first month while so acting, unless he is required to act on two occasions within a brief period (say 12 months) in which case he draws Deputation allowance for the whole period during which he may have held the appointment in excess of one month as if he had acted continuously.

8th. A Military Officer proceeding from one Civil appointment to another shall be allowed to draw during the authorized period of transit out of the salary of the office he is about to join a sum equal to that of his previous situation. This rule to be preceded by an order making the Civil rules for joining time applicable to Military Officers in Civil employ.

9th. A Military Officer in Civil employ can take three months' cumulative privilege leave under the Civil rules only, but he must earn it by thirty-three months' continuous service in the Civil Department alone.

RULES REGARDING DEPUTATION ALLOWANCE TO OFFICERS OF POLICE.

2nd. An Officer of Police officiating for another Officer of Police in a higher class than his own will draw the full salary of his own office and an allowance at the rate of 20 per cent. on the mean between the maximum and the minimum salary of the class in which he officiates, provided his total allowance do not exceed the minimum salary of such higher class.

3rd. An Officer of Police officiating at the same station for an officer of a higher class than his own will not be entitled to any Deputation allowance during the first month he may thus officiate according to the Covenanted Civil Service rules.

5th. Any person not holding a substantive appointment in the public service and officiating for an officer of Police will receive at the rate of 50 per cent. on the mean between the maximum and the minimum salary of the class to which he is appointed.

CHAPTER V.

RULES FOR JOINING STATIONS.

Section XX.—There shall be allowed to Officers appointed to any new office the periods of one month, two months, or three months, for joining, according as the distance may not exceed 300 or 600 miles, or be in excess of the last mentioned distance. Officers not joining their Station within the said periods, respectively, shall forfeit their salary and Dewanee or subsistence allowance for the time delayed in excess of the above periods; and if such excess shall exceed one month, the office shall be vacated unless otherwise especially ordered by Government.

NOTE.—The time allowed for joining is computed from the date of the Order reaching the Officer appointed.

1. An Officer transferred from one station to another whilst absent on leave is entitled unless he receives instructions to the contrary to joining time in addition to the period of his leave, and such time as well as his travelling allowance (if he is entitled to any under the rules) will be regulated by the distance from the old to his new station or from the place where he receives the order appointing him to his new station which ever in the case of joining time is the nearest of his new station and in the case of travelling allowance is least expensive to Government.

2. The time allowed for joining an appointment is computed from the date of order reaching the Officer appointed.

3. For the portion of the journey traversable by railway one hundred miles a day are allowed, for the portion traversable by steamer one hundred miles a day or the time actually occupied in the voyage. (Notification 16th April 1861, Bombay Government Gazette page 678.)

4. A fortnight is allowed for preparation to a Civil Servant when proceeding to join his appointment either by railway or by sea. (Notification of the Government of India 7th September 1861.)

Section XXI.—Upon the first appointment of any Civil Servant who shall be reported qualified for the Public Service by the examiners appointed by the Government, to any Civil Station there shall be allowed for travelling expenses to the Station an allowance at the rate of 8 annas per mile by the direct post road, according to the Polymetrical Tables of the Post Office, the bill for which allowance will be passed by the Civil Auditor after the Officer shall have joined the Station; if required in advance, an order of the Government shall be necessary.

1. An Officer attending an examination in the Vernacular languages has in no case a claim to travelling allowances unless he can produce a certificate of extraordinary proficiency.

2. Travelling allowance at the usual rate of eight annas per mile to be drawn by all covenanted Civil Servants when transferred from one substantive appointment to another on the public service, but not by those who are removed from one place to another on promotion or at their own request.

3. Officers proceeding by Railway on the public service are entitled for such distance to travelling allowance at 8 annas per mile.

Section XXII.—The salary of the office will be payable from the date only of the Officer joining, but in case of Junior Civil Servants, the salary of Assistants will be payable from the date of their being reported qualified for the public service, unless forfeited under the preceding Rule through delay in joining the Station to which they may be appointed.

The Rule of June 1841 is not superseded by this Section; i. e. a Civilian on the Out-of-employ List is entitled to salary from date of appointment if not coming under forfeiture for late joining.

Section XXIII.—In case of a change of office, when an officer is appointed to a higher situation, he shall not draw the higher salary until he joins. For the period occupied in travelling, the Rule No. XX., regulating the time and distance for joining Station, shall be applicable; and the Officer will, for the periods allowed in that Rule, respectively draw out of the salary of the office he is about to join a sum equal to that of the previous situation.

CHAPTER VI.

RULES FOR DEPUTATION ALLOWANCES.

Section XXIV.—The sum of Company's Rupees 52,200 per annum having been fixed, under the orders of the Court of Directors as the maximum salary of Civil office for the offices of Government, under the situation of Member of Council, Civil Servants who may draw larger allowances than this annual sum, as a consolidated personal and sumptuary allowance, in consideration of the necessary expenses of their position, will, in all cases of absence, be treated in respect to deductions as drawing only the allowance thus

NOTE.—This rule will equally apply in case of a Political Resident taking a leave of one, two, or three months, for which in other cases he would suffer no deduction. The excess above the maximum monthly salary will in that case be enjoyed by the person in charge.

limited; and the excess above the monthly salary yielded by that annual sum shall remain as a local addition to the usual Deputation Allowance to be drawn by the Officer performing the duties, to meet the necessary expenses of his position, provided, however, that in the cases of Civil Servants appointed to offices of the description referred to subsequent to the 2nd June 1854, the sum of Rupees 50,000 shall be held to be the maximum salary.

Section XXV.—Deputation Allowances shall be granted to Civil Servants temporarily performing the duties of an office according to the following rates, and subject to the limitations and conditions hereinafter laid down:—

1. To Civil Servants not holding any substantive appointment, at the rate of 50 per cent. on the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, such Deputation Allowance being in addition to the Subsistence Allowance of their respective ranks.

2. To Civil Servants holding an office of inferior emolument, when officiating in an office of superior emolument, at the rate of 20 per cent. upon the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, in all cases in which the salary of such appointment shall not exceed Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem; and in respect to all appointments of which the salary shall be more than Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, at the rate of 20 per cent. upon Company's Rupees 2,000 and of 10 per cent. on the amount in which the monthly salary may exceed Company's Rupees 2,000, provided, however, that no lower rate of Deputation Allowance shall be given than Rupees 200 per mensem.

3. The Deputation Allowance shall in all cases be in addition to the salary of the substantive appointment held by the Officer on Deputation.

4. The above rates are granted provisionally, subject to future revision.

5. In the Punjab, Nagpore, and other places where appointments are by classes, the amount of Deputation Allowances payable at the above rates will be calculated not upon the salary of the individual Officer holding the substantive appointment in which the Officer deputed may be temporarily officiating, but on the average rate of salary attached to the particular class to which the appointments may belong.

6. A Civil Servant acting for another shall have no claim to commission or fees, where any such sources of emolument exist. These shall be regarded as forming part of the income of the Officer to be relieved, subject to the prescribed deductions.

7. A Civil Servant acting in an appointment the salary of which is to be reduced on the retirement of present incumbent, will draw Deputation Allowance on the reduced salary.

8. An Officer officiating in more than one appointment will be entitled to Deputation Allowance, regulated by the aggregate amount of the salary of the offices.

9. An Officer appointed permanently to a higher situation, but prevented from joining his appointment by an order of Government, and detained to officiate in a situation of still higher emolument than the one to which he has been permanently appointed, will be entitled to a Deputation Allowance in addition to the higher salary to which he has been promoted.

10. Deputation allowance is restricted to actual charge, and is not payable when an Officer is absent on privilege leave.

11. An Officer officiating in the Department of Account in an appointment of which the permanent incumbent has applied for Furlough will be entitled to the full salary from the date of the embarkation of the Absentee.

RULE REGARDING DEPUTATION ALLOWANCE TO OFFICERS OF GENERAL DEPARTMENT OF ACCOUNT.

No. 3930 dated 25th July 1863—C. G. G. page 2253.

Under the Financial resolution of the 13th May 1862 Covenanted Officers who entered the General Department of account before that date are allowed to retain their privileges, and therefore when such Covenanted Officers are appointed to act for other Covenanted Officers in the Department they are entitled to draw Deputation Allowances on the same term as those allowed to Covenanted Officers in other Branches of the Service. But this rule cannot be held to apply to Covenanted Officers entering the Financial Department after that date, nor does it seem proper to preserve a separate rule for calculating the acting allowances of Uncovenanted Officers in the Department, as by the resolution above mentioned all distinction between the Covenanted and Uncovenanted Service was abolished.

1. No Officer will receive any Deputation Allowance for officiating for another Officer in the same class as himself.

2. An Officer appointed to officiate for another Officer in a higher class than his own will draw from the date of his taking charge irrespective of any saving from the salary of the appointment in which he officiates the full salary of his own appointment, with an additional allowance at the rate of 20 per cent on the mean between the minimum and maximum salary of the class in which he officiates, provided the total allowance to be so drawn shall not exceed the minimum salary of the higher class.

3. When the Officer thus appointed to act is in the receipt of the maximum salary of his own class he will receive no additional allowance on his first appointment to act, inasmuch as the maximum salary of any class is always the same as minimum of that immediately above it, but he will be eligible whilst officiating to the yearly increase of salary allowed to those permanently appointed to the higher class.

4. Officers officiating at the same station for an Officer of a higher class than his own will not be entitled to any Deputation Allowance during the first month he may thus officiate according to the Covenanted Civil Service Rules.

5. Any person holding a substantive appointment in another Department of the Government Service and officiating for an Officer of the Financial Department will draw salary and acting allowances at the rates prescribed in rule 11.

6. Any person not holding a substantive appointment in the Public Service and officiating in the Financial Department will receive at the rate of 50 per cent. on the mean between the maximum and the minimum salary of the Class to which he is appointed.

An Officer officiating in the Financial Department of Account in an appointment of which the permanent incumbent has applied for Furlough will be entitled to the full salary from the date of embarkation of the absentee.

Section XXVI.—No Civil Servant temporarily officiating for another shall draw an amount larger than the entire emoluments of the office in which he is officiating; and if the amount of the Deputation Allowance, according to the prescribed scale, added to the permanent emoluments of the officiating servant, would exceed the emoluments of the office in which he is temporarily acting, the excess shall not be drawn. But this provision shall not apply to the case of any Officer deputed for special reasons to act in an office of inferior emolument to his own. In cases where an Officer, holding two appointments, on being deputed to officiate for another, shall be relieved only from one, he shall receive no Deputation Allowance unless the emoluments of the office in which he is deputed to act exceed the united emoluments of his permanent appointments, and in that case the Deputation Allowance shall be limited to the difference.

The deputation allowance of an Officer acting at one and the same time in more than one appointment is calculated at the rate of 20 and 10 per cent. on the aggregate amount of the salaries of the two appointments, provided the Deputation Allowance when added to the substantive salary of the acting Officer does not exceed the emoluments of the higher office in which he officiates.

Section XXVII.—No subordinate Officer acting for his principal or for any other person holding a superior appointment, in the same office or establishment, at the same Station, shall be entitled to any Deputation Allowance until after the expiration of one month, and then the allowance is not to be drawn in arrears. But a Servant previously out of employment, or who may be deputed to act from a different Station, shall be entitled to Deputation Allowance from the date at which he may enter upon the discharge of the duties to which he has been temporarily appointed.

1. A subordinate Officer who has acted in any appointment on two occasions within a brief period, say twelve months, is permitted to draw acting allowance from the beginning.

2. A subordinate Officer acting in a superior appointment taking privilege leave after first month, the next Officer who is also a subordinate required to act for another month again without officiating allowance, as the provision of Section XXVII. of the Rules refer not to a superior Officer, but to a superior office in the same station, and therefore no subordinate is entitled to draw any acting allowance until he himself has acted for one month.

3. When a Covenanted Officer officiates for an Uncovenanted Officer or Military and Medical Officers in Civil employ absent on sick leave, the Deputation Allowance shall be regulated on the same principle as if the absentee were a Civil Servant.

Section XXVIII.—Civil Servants, if deputed to act at a distance from the Stations where they are employed, or if ordered by Government on special duty, shall be permitted to draw Travelling Allowances at the rate sanctioned in the case of a first appointment.

An Officer deputed to act in an appointment while on leave of absence is entitled to travelling allowance, distance to be computed from the Substantive Station of the person deputed or from the place where he receives the order whichever may be the least expensive to Government.

CHAPTER VII.

RULES FOR LIMITING THE PERIOD OF SERVICE.

Section XXIX.—After thirty-five years' service no Civil Servant shall be appointed to any new office, nor be permitted to retain an office which he has held for a period of five years and upwards, except in special cases, which are to be referred to the decision of the Home Government. This Rule will be applicable to every Civil Servant appointed to office after its promulgation, and to the case of every other Civil Servant to whom it relates at the close of five years from the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER VIII.

RULES FOR THE GRANT OF LEAVE OF ABSENCE TO LAW OFFICERS.

Section XXX.—Law Officers may obtain sick leave, and short leaves on private affairs, under the condition prescribed in the case of Civil Servants, both as respects the periods of absence and the limitation of Allowances during such absence. Leave will, however, only be granted at the convenience of the Government, and no additional expense will on any consideration be incurred by the Government on account thereof.

If any Law Officer shall quit his duty, save on leave under medical certificate, or on short leave on private affairs, he will be considered to have vacated his appointment.

The foregoing rules are made applicable to Administrator General.

CHAPTER IX.

RULES FOR CHAPLAINS AND ASSISTANT CHAPLAINS.

Section XXXI.—Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains may take furlough on private affairs and on medical certificate; also privilege leave and leave for short periods on private affairs and on medical certificate in or out of India, on the same terms and conditions, as Military Officers, with the following modifications:—

1st.—Chaplains being allowed to retire after twenty years' service, the period of Furlough on private affairs is in their case limited to the present term of three years. The Furlough may, however, either be taken in one period or be divided into two periods whether of eighteen months each, or of two years, and one year respectively, and if divided, the first Furlough may be taken, as at present, after seven years' residence, and the second Furlough after a further residence of ten years in India. As respects Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains appointed before the 11th January 1864, when the period of service was only eighteen years, their second Furlough, if they should exercise the option of taking Furlough in two periods, will be available after a second residence in India for a term of eight years.

2ndly.—No Furlough or leave of absence, whether on private affairs or on sick certificate, taken in Europe or elsewhere out of India in excess of three years, will be allowed to count as service in India in the twenty years which qualifies Chaplains for their Retiring Pensions.

3rdly.—Chaplains can only take Furlough for 3 years after 10 years' residence. Government of India, 28th July 1864, No. 1478.

The new Rules not to have retrospective effect so as to deprive Chaplains of the privilege of counting as service leave already taken under the Old Rules. (Para. 3 of the Honorable Court's Despatch No. 21, of 5th March 1856.)

Section XXXII.—The Furlough Pay of Chaplains will remain as at present. With regard to their Allowance during sick leave to any place out of India, they shall receive salary (but at a rate not exceeding £600 per annum) for the first six months of* absence, and, for the remaining twelve months, an Allowance equal to the Furlough Pay of their standing. If the leave be extended an Allowance equal to Furlough Pay may be drawn for a further period of eighteen months.

Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains may be granted leave of absence in India on medical certificate to the extent of one year on their full salaries, subject to a deduction of one-third, but not to reduce the salary below Rs. 500. (Para. 4 of the Honorable Court's Despatch No. 21, of 5th March 1856.)

Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains may have privilege leave once in every five months, and be allowed accumulated privilege leave to the extent of three months after fifteen months' continuous duty. (Notification of the Government of India, 18th September 1857.)

Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains granted sick leave to Europe or beyond sea, to receive salary at the rate of Rs. 500 for the first six months, and their Furlough Pay for the remainder of their leave. (Para. 4 of the Honorable Court's Despatch No. 78, of 5th September 1855.)

Leave under Section XII. cannot be granted preparatory to Furlough or retirement from the Service; and to have the benefit of its advantages the party must continue to serve, unless disabled by sickness, for three months from the date of his return from privilege leave. (Notification of the Government of India, 19th September 1856.) Preparatory leave may, however, be granted on half salary under the same Notification. (Declared applicable to Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains by Government Letters No. 1, of 3rd January, and No. 87, of 5th March 1857.)

Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains during leave preparatory to proceeding on medical leave out of India are entitled to Rs. 416-10-8 per month.

Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains on returning from Furlough to Europe are entitled to the pay of their respective ranks from the date of their return.

Chaplains of the Church of Scotland are under the same rules as Ecclesiastical Officers on the Establishment of the Church of England in respect to Absenteeism and Absentee Allowance whether in or out of India.

RULES FOR THE GRANT OF LEAVE OF ABSENCE TO THE CHIEF JUSTICE AND JUDGES OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE FOR THE PRESIDENCY OF BOMBAY.

1. A Furlough for the period of one year, with an allowance of £1,000, payable by quarterly payments, shall be allowed to the Chief Justice and to each Puisne Judge of the High Court after seven years' actual Service as Chief Justice or Chief Justice and Judge, or Judge of the said court.

2. The furlough granted under these rules to a Judge selected from the Covenanted Civil Service shall be exclusive of the Furlough to which such Judge is entitled under the rules applicable to Furloughs allowed to members of such Service.

8. If a Judge of the High Court, selected from the Covenanted Civil Service, who has not taken his furlough under the rules applicable to his branch of the Service before his appointment to the High Court, shall take such furlough within one year after the expiration of his furlough under these rules, the furlough taken by him as Judge of the High Court shall be reckoned as so much time of his furlough under the rules applicable to the Covenanted Service, and the amount drawn by him shall be adjusted with reference to such rules, by deductions from the allowances payable to him as a Civil Servant on furlough.

4. A Chief Justice, or Puisne Judge, during his absence on furlough, shall retain his office, but such Furlough shall not be reckoned as actual service in calculating the period of service entitling the Chief Justice, or Puisne Judge, to a pension.

5. Leave may be granted by the Governor General in Council to the Chief Justice, or any Puisne Judge of the High Court who may not be a member of the Covenanted Civil Service, under medical certificate, once during the term of his Service, either for a period of six months on Half Salary, payable on return and resumption of his duties, or for a period of fifteen months, on an allowance of £1,000 per annum, such Chief Justice or Puisne Judge during his absence shall retain his office, but if his absence shall, under any circumstances, exceed fifteen months, his office shall be vacated.

6. If any Judge of the High Court, who has taken leave of absence under the foregoing rule for a period of six months, shall desire to extend his absence beyond such period, he shall be permitted to do so under due medical certificate, his allowance for the entire period of absence being calculated at the rate of £1,000 per annum.

7. Leave of absence, under medical certificate, to Judges of the High Court who are members of the Covenanted Civil Service will be regulated by the rules "for sick leave" applicable to the Civil Service generally.

8. No more than six months of the leave granted under medical certificate shall be reckoned as actual service in calculating the period of service entitling the Chief Justice or Puisne Judge to a pension.

9. Short leave on private affairs may be granted to the Judges of the High Court under the rules applicable to Government Civil Servants.

RULES FOR LEAVE OF ABSENCE AND PENSIONS TO UNCOVENANTED SERVANTS.

Fort William, 13th April 1864.

In accordance with instructions received from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following revised edition of the Rules for the grant of leave of absence and retiring pensions to Uncovenanted Servants in India, which were promulgated in Financial Notifications, Nos. 2426 and 2427 of the 8th June 1863 :—

LEAVE OF ABSENCE TO UNCOVENANTED SERVANTS.

These Rules are applicable to all officers of the Uncovenanted Civil Service receiving salaries of not less than Rs. 100 a month, whether they receive their appointments direct from Government or from Heads of Offices and Departments.

These rules should be applied in their spirit to servants drawing salaries more than 10 Rs. and less than 100 Rs. a month. It being understood that in regulating the grant of absentee allowance to an amount not exceeding that authorized by the rules a sufficient sum will be reserved for an efficient substitute for the Absentee.

The following are the kinds of leave allowed :—

- I. Leave on Medical Certificate.
- II. Leave on Private Affairs and Furlough.
- III. Privilege Leave.
- IV. Preparatory or Additional Leave.

GENERAL RULES.

All applications for leave must be made publicly, through the regular channel, in the Department to which the applicant belongs.

Officers appointed by Government can obtain privilege leave from the Heads of their respective Departments, when the latter are duly authorized to exercise this power. But in other cases leave must be granted by Government.

Officers appointed by Heads of Offices and Departments can obtain any leave under these Rules without such reference to Government; but the Authorities granting such leave must furnish to the Civil or Military Audit Office which passes the Pay Bill of their establishment a Monthly Return of the leave granted by them according to Form given in Appendix A.

Absence without leave will involve loss of salary, and render the absentee liable to loss of appointment.

No leave of absence shall have retrospective effect, except in case of severe illness, to be attested by a Medical Certificate in the prescribed Form.

Applications for leave on Medical Certificate must be accompanied by a statement from the applicant's medical attendant, distinctly stating, from personal observation, the nature of the disease, its symptoms, causes, and duration, and by a Certificate* from the Chief Medical Officer of the Station or District, or, if at a Presidency Town, from a Presidency or other Official Surgeon, certifying, after careful personal investigation, the necessity for temporary absence, and the period for which absence is, to the best of his judgment, absolutely requisite for restoration to health. If the requisite leave be for a longer period than six months, the Certificate must be countersigned by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the applicant may be employed. In cases of leave beyond sea the Certificate must be also submitted, with the statement of the case, for the countersignature of the Principal Inspector General of the Medical Department.

An application for extension of leave must, if the applicant be in India, be accompanied by a Certificate to a like effect from his Medical Officer attendant, together with a statement showing sufficient reason for the extension solicited, and such Certificate must be countersigned by the Principal Inspector General of the Medical Department, or by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the applicant may be residing. If the applicant shall have proceeded beyond the Territories under the Government of India, he must furnish a Certificate and Statement to the required effect from a Surgeon or Physician at the place of his temporary residence by whom he has been attended; such attendance, and the period of it to be stated, and the Certificate to be countersigned after personal examination, by the examining Physician of the India Office, if the absentee is in England, or by the Principal Medical Authority of the Colony or Country to which the absentee may have proceeded.

If any of the above particulars be neglected, or the omission of any one of them unsatisfactorily explained, the leave will be refused.

Leave on Private Affairs and Furlough will be granted by Government, or by authorized Officers, on sufficient cause being shown, and when the concession of the indulgence may in no way interfere with the interest of the Public Service.

When an Officer on leave in England is permitted by the Home Government to return to duty by a particular vessel, this permission, if necessary, will be held equivalent to an extension of leave until the arrival in India of the vessel on which the Officer is permitted to return.

Leave on Medical Certificate, with allowances, must in no case exceed three years in all, and not more than two years may be taken at one time. Subject to these restrictions, leave within Indian limits may be granted, with allowances, on Medical Certificate, as often as sufficient cause is shown; but beyond Indian limits, such leave cannot be granted more than twice during the whole period of service. Should any further leave be applied for on Medical Certificate, it may be granted, but without any allowance. Preparatory Leave counting as service towards pension, can only be admitted in regard to two periods of leave.

Leave on Private Affairs and Furlough, with retention of office, may be granted as follows:—

1st. Leave on Private Affairs:—For six months in one period,—which leave may be repeated after intervals of six years.

2nd. Or a Furlough—for one year after ten years' service, and a second Furlough also for one year, after eighteen years' service in India,—such absence being limited to two years during the whole period of service.

On taking leave under the preceding Rule, for the first time, an Officer must decide whether he will apply for leave on Private Affairs, or for Furlough, and having once exercised his option and obtained leave accordingly, he will not, during the remainder of his service, be eligible to the other description of leave.

Furlough, and Leave on private Affairs taken in India, will reckon from the date of leaving Office to the date of return thereto. Furlough, and Leave on Private Affairs, taken beyond India, will reckon from the sailing of the vessel on which the officer embarks to the date of his return to India.

* In the Form given in Appendix B.

Furlough or Leave on Private Affairs cannot be taken in continuation of Privilege Leave.

Privilege leave, when it can be granted without injury to the Public Service and without additional expense to the State, may be allowed for not more than one month in each calendar year, to be taken either in one period or in not more than two instalments. This leave is not allowed to accumulate, and will therefore lapse if not taken within the year.

Privilege leave for one month in each calendar year may be allowed to Officers who have not been absent on leave for eleven months immediately preceding; unless they took their last privilege leave in two instalments, in which case the indulgence will not be available until eleven months after the expiration of the first instalment, and six months after the expiration of the second instalment of the previous year's Privilege leave.

Officers however who were entitled to accumulated privilege leave under the old rules when the new rules were issued will be allowed two or three months' leave in the same manner as if the old rules remain in force. Notification of the Government of India No. 3478, dated 31st July 1863.

Preparatory or additional leave is allowed to Officers proceeding to or from a sanatorium on Medical Certificate, or to or from the port of embarkation from India to Europe on Private Affairs, Furlough, or Medical Certificate, and is limited to such period as the authority granting leave may think sufficient. Officers proceeding from Presidency Towns on Sick Leave beyond Sea will be allowed fourteen days for preparation.

Officers retiring from the Service on pension will be allowed fourteen days' leave on half pay, provided the indulgence can be given without detriment or extra expense to the Public Service.

Absentee Pay.

Absentee pay, if at half salary, shall in no case exceed Rupees 6,000 or £600 per annum,—or if at one-fourth salary, shall not exceed £300 per annum. Within these limitations Absentee Pay will be given as follow:—

I. To an Officer absent on sick leave in or out of India, half salary for the first fifteen months of each period of absence, (or—if the leave be taken in short periods in India,—for the first thirty months taken from time to time, provided that half salary be not drawn for more than fifteen months at any one time), and one-fourth salary during the remainder of his absence on allowances.

II. To an Officer on leave on private affairs—one-half of his salary for a period not exceeding six months of continuous absence, and for any further period of Preparatory Leave which may be granted to him. But if an Officer absent on private affairs obtain an extension of leave on Medical Certificate he will be subject for the whole period of his absence to the Rules for Sick Leave.

III. To an Officer proceeding on furlough, whose salary does not exceed Rupees 200 per month—one-half of his salary, provided, however, that it shall not exceed Rupees 800 or £80 per annum. If the absentee's salary shall be—

Above Rs. 200, and not exceeding 400 per month, he may be granted		an annual allowance of		Rs. 1,300 or £130
"	" 400	"	700	"	" 2,000 or £200
"	" 700	"	1,200	"	" 3,000 or £300
"	" 1,200	"		"	" 4,000 or £400

IV. To an Officer on Preparatory Leave—one-half salary before commencement of other leave, and on return from leave one-half salary, one-fourth salary or Furlough pay according to the rate of allowance he may be then drawing.

V. To an Officer on Privilege Leave—full pay.

An Officer who overstays Privilege Leave by not more than one month will forfeit pay for the period in excess, but if he exceed his leave by more than one month, his office will become vacant. An Officer on privilege leave who may resign the service, or who may obtain Sick Leave without first rejoining, will, in the former case, forfeit his salary for the period of privilege leave, and in the latter case be subject to the rules for sick leave for the whole period of his absence.

RULES FOR JOINING OFFICE.

Time allowed for joining an appointment will be fixed by the Authority conferring the appointment.

An Officer entering the service of the Government is not entitled to any salary before joining his appointment, but when transferred from one appointment to another of equal or higher value, he will draw so much of the salary of his new office as may be equal to that of his former appointment.

PAYMENTS OF ABSENTEE ALLOWANCES.

Officers absent on privilege leave cannot draw pay until their return to duty.

Officers proceeding to England on Furlough, or on Private Affairs, or on Medical Certificate, must obtain Certificates from the Civil Pay-Master, for submission to the India Office on their arrival in London.

But if they desire to draw their allowances through their Agents in India, the latter must execute a guarantee to refund over-payments. When Officers remain in India and draw their allowances themselves, and attach to their Bills Life Certificates attested by a Deputy Magistrate or a Covenanted District Officer, they will not be required to furnish any security.

The Certificate from an Official Surgeon to an applicant for sick leave shall be given in the following form :—

I, A. B., Surgeon at (or of) _____ do hereby certify that E. F. (here enter designation of office) is in a bad state of health ; and I solemnly and sincerely declare that, according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery, and that the circumstances of his case are such as to render leave of absence for the period of _____ absolutely necessary (or highly desirable).

The following form shall be observed by the Superintending Surgeon and the Principal Inspector-General of the Medical Department in countersigning the Certificate :—

I do hereby certify that, according to the best of my professional judgment, after careful consideration of his case, I believe the state of health of E. F. to be such as to render leave of absence for a period of _____ absolutely necessary (or highly desirable) for his recovery.

SUPERANNUATION ALLOWANCES AND PENSIONS TO UNCOVENANTED SERVANTS.

These Rules are applicable to all Officers of the Uncovenanted Civil Service in the receipt of more than ten Rupees a month on a permanent Establishment with the following exceptions :—

I. Jemadars, Sowars, Peons, Lascars, Boatmen, Smiths, Artificers, and all those engaged in any handicraft, Laborers, and other inferior servants.

II. Officers whose whole time is not devoted to the duties of their Offices.

III. Officers not paid from the General Revenues of the State, whose eligibility to pension may not be provided for by an order issued expressly for the particular case by the Government of India, and approved by the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State.

IV. Officers for whom other Pension Rules or separate Superannuation Funds are provided.

APPLICATIONS FOR PENSIONS.

Applications for pension must be submitted in a letter to Government by the Head of the Office or Department in which the applicant may be employed, who shall certify whether the character, conduct, and past service of the applicant are such as to entitle him to the favourable consideration of Government.

Every application shall be accompanied by a Register prepared according to Form A in the Appendix. In cases of other than a Good Service Pension, every application shall be accompanied by a medical certificate, stating the applicant's incapacity for further service, with the cause thereof, and whether it has been induced by irregular or intemperate habits.

Applicants for Superannuation Allowance must be examined by the Principal Inspector-General of the Medical Department, if serving at the Presidency, or by a Military Invaliding Committee, if serving elsewhere within a moderate distance of a Station at which a Military Invaliding Committee is periodically assembled. It is optional, however, with the Local Government to accept the certificate of a single Medical Officer, or to convene a Special Invaliding Committee at a convenient Civil Station, if the applicant be serving at an inconvenient distance from a Station where a Military Invaliding Committee can be assembled.

Good Service and Superannuation Allowances on retirement, sanctioned under these Rules by the Local Governments, will be reported to the Governments of India in Quarterly Returns in the Form given in Appendix B.

ALLOWANCES ON RETIREMENT.

On production by an applicant of such medical certificates as shall satisfy the Government under which he be serving of his incapacity to serve longer in India, he may be allowed—

1. Under fifteen years' service, a gratuity not exceeding twelve months' salary.

This rule is applicable only to servants in grades eligible to pension at the rate of one month's pay for each entire or complete year of service up to the maximum of 12 months' pay without any allowance for fractions of a year. To persons belonging to the grades which do not qualify for pension the old rules dated 6th June 1862 for awarding gratuities are still applicable.

II. After fifteen years' service, one-third of his average salary, (and of his personal allowance if any,) during the previous five years, provided that in no case shall a pension be granted exceeding the sum of Rs. 3,000 per annum, if the salary shall not exceed Rs. 12,000 per annum.

III. After twenty-five years' service, one-half of his average salary, (and of his personal allowance if any,) during the previous five years, provided, however, that in no case shall a pension be granted exceeding Rs. 5,000 per annum, whatever the amount of salary, and not exceeding Rs. 4,000 per annum, if the salary shall not exceed Rs. 12,000 per annum.

After thirty years' service, or upwards, a pension may be granted, without production of medical certificate, of the same amount and subject to the same limitation as that sanctioned for twenty-five years' service on medical certificate. This pension, as the reward of faithful, efficient discharge of duty for thirty years, is termed a Good Service Pension.

Pensions of the full amount authorized in paragraphs 5 and 6 are to be granted only as the reward of approved service. In any case in which an Uncovenanted Servant, without having incurred the penalty of removal from Government employ, shall nevertheless, in the opinion of the Government under which he has been serving, not be entitled to the full amount of pension, the Local Government will make such reduction in the amount of pension as it shall consider just.

The foregoing rates of pension and gratuity are applicable also without the production of a medical certificate of unfitness for service, to Officers discharged on reduction of Establishment.

SERVICE TOWARDS PENSION.

Dismissal for misconduct entails forfeiture of the benefit of past service.

Service as a substitute does not count towards pension.

Periods of service before the age of 22, or of absence on other than Privilege Leave and Preparatory Leave, shall not count towards pension. Nor shall Preparatory Leave be allowed to count as service if it is granted in addition to leave on Medical certificate to an Officer who has enjoyed leave of the latter description on two previous occasions.

The whole of the service in virtue of which pension is claimed must have been passed in an eligible grade and on a permanent Establishment; but claims barred by this Rule will be especially considered if the promotion from an ineligible grade was bestowed as a reward for meritorious service or for good conduct.

The period of service must be continuous, but in case of the abolition of the office held by an Officer, and his being subsequently employed by Government, his first period of service is to be taken into account.

GRATUITIES.

When an Officer is discharged with a gratuity under these Rules on reduction of Establishment, the gratuity will not be given to him in one sum, but in monthly instalments of a month's pay until the full amount is paid. Should he be re-employed before or after the period for which gratuity is allowed, he will have the option of refunding the gratuity and recovering his former service, or of forfeiting that service by retaining the gratuity. In the latter case, any balance of gratuity remaining undrawn at the date of his re-employment may be paid to him.

PAYMENT OF PENSIONS.

Payment of Pension will commence from the date on which the applicant ceases to be borne on the Establishment or from that of his application, whichever may be the latest date.

No pension shall be payable in arrears, for a period exceeding six months, without the express sanction of Government obtained through the Civil Pay Master,—unless the cause of the suspension of payment shall have been the neglect, order or act of some public officer, and beyond the control of the Pensioner, when the Civil Pay Master on a reference being made to him, shall exercise his discretion in passing arrears for payment, or submit a representation of the case for the information and orders of the Government, as he shall consider proper.

An Officer shall, on retirement, have the option of drawing his pension either in India or from the Home Treasury. After exercising his option on retirement, he may, at a subsequent period, change the place of payment from England to India, or vice versa. This change can, however, be allowed but once. The payments in England will be made at the rate of exchange which is annually fixed in communication with the Lords of the Treasury for the adjustment of transactions between the British and Indian Exchequers.

STAFF SALARIES.

UNDER the authority and direction of the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, dated the 31st August 1863, a revised table of staff salaries for the three Presidencies is published, and the extracts of Sir Charles Wood's Despatch on the subject, as given below, are promulgated for general information :—

2. Officers whose appointments are not specified in the table of revised salaries will draw pay as at present, and further orders will hereafter be issued with respect to the office establishment of those staff officers who have hitherto drawn an office allowance, such as Assistants Adjutant General of Division and Majors of Brigade.

"Para. 1.—Your several letters relating to the salaries to be attached to offices held by military officers in India, have been under my consideration in council, and I have now to communicate to your Lordship the decision which, after an attentive perusal of the several papers which accompanied your letter, Her Majesty's Government have arrived at upon this subject.

"2. The Committee of Secretaries appointed by your Government to consider the subject have gone very carefully into the whole question, and have submitted a very valuable Report, which has greatly tended to facilitate and simplify the considerations on this important matter.

"3. They observe of the Royal Warrant for the formation of the Staff Corps in India that, after fixing the scale of pay to be received by officers attached to them while in India, and when out of India, it further provides that every officer when in active employment will also receive, in addition to the above pay, such a sum as will make his total pay and allowances up to the sum assigned by the Government of India, with the approval of the Secretary of State for India in Council, as the consolidated pay of the office which he may hold.

"4. Having consulted the several Governments, as well as the chief political and military officers of the Government, the Committee propose for adoption the following principles :—

"1st.—That the salaries of military officers holding appointments, connected with the civil administration of the country should be consolidated and fixed without reference to the rank of the incumbent.

"2nd.—That in the case of military officers in staff employ a certain salary should be fixed for every appointment, and that the incumbent should receive such fixed salary in addition to the Staff Corps pay of his rank.

"3rd.—That this latter principle should apply to the department of Public Works.

"5. I concur generally in the principles here laid down, with some exceptions to be hereafter pointed out, as regards the officers in military staff employ.

"10. I have considered it necessary to deviate in some respects from the rates of salary proposed by the Committee, and I now forward, for the information of your Government, a table of salaries which Her Majesty's Government have resolved upon for the several offices enumerated in their Report.

"11. You will observe from the table that, while adhering generally to the principle of allotting a Staff salary in addition to Staff Corps pay, it has been determined to fix the salaries of some few of the higher offices at a consolidated sum.

"12. In the case of the other appointments it is to be understood that the staff salary now fixed, plus the Staff Corps pay due to the officer's rank, will constitute the maximum amount to be drawn by an officer of that rank holding the office in question, whether such belong to the Staff Corps or not. In the case of appointments held by officers belonging to Her Majesty's British Forces, such maximum amount will include any pay or half-pay that may be paid to them in England.

"13. I approve of the rule proposed by the Committee that, in all cases where any allowance for 'office' is made as in case of Assistants Adjutant General, Brigade Majors, and others, it should be distinctly understood that the allowance is to be drawn only by officers actually discharging the duties of the appointment, and that no further charge can be allowed for providing an office.

"14. It is desirable that, whenever possible, the public officers should be located in public buildings, and it should be a standing rule that all bills for office allowance should be supported by a certificate from the proper authority, that no public building was available for such office.

"15. I am of opinion, however, that office establishment should, as a general rule, be maintained according to a regulated scale, and should be paid on abstract supported by the usual monthly Muster Roll.

"18. The principle laid down in the 4th Clause of the same paragraph has, you will perceive, been observed in the rate of salary allotted to the heads and subordinate members of departments at the several Presidencies, but I have extended to the deputies of the Army department at head quarters in Bengal the benefit of the rule which gives to the chief of those departments a higher rate of salary than at Madras or Bombay.

" 19. In the 2nd Clause of the 10th paragraph the Committee observe that 'referring generally to the expensive rates of living in Presidency town, we think that the principle of allowing house rent may be generally adopted at the rates marginally shown, and we would recommend that it should be made applicable to the Presidency town of Madras, as well as to Calcutta and Bombay.'

" 20. I approve of the proposed scale, which will apply to officers at each Presidency not drawing consolidated salaries.

" 29. The scale of salaries now sanctioned will be brought into operation and made to apply in all cases where there is no reduction in the present aggregate salary, on the payment due on the first of the month succeeding the receipt of this order.

" 30. Reduction of salaries effected by this order are not to be made to effect permanent incumbents, or those who are officiating for such permanent incumbents, being temporarily absent from their duties."

ABSENTEE AND ACTING ALLOWANCES.

Extracts of a Despatch from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, dated 31st August 1863, regarding the absentee and acting allowances of military officers in civil employ, the provisions of which are applicable to all the Presidencies.

31. With your Despatch, No. 23, in the Financial Department, you forward a further Report from the Committee of Secretaries regarding the absentee and acting allowances of military officers in civil employ, with a note thereon by your Financial Secretary.

32. You concur generally in the recommendations of the Secretaries, with the amendments noted by the Financial Secretary, and proposed the adoption of the following principles :—

1st.—That every military officer in civil employ when on leave should draw pay under the Military Rules; and 2nd.—That every military officer when acting in any civil appointment should draw his civil pay under the Civil Rules.

33. Upon these two principles you propose the following Rules for the officer on leave:—

A military officer in civil employ on leave, either in India or in England, shall draw precisely the pay which he would be entitled to draw under the Military Leave Rules except when on privilege leave as hereafter specially provided.

Such pay shall be provided from the Civil Department excepting only in cases where the allowances so drawn would exceed the entire Civil pay of the appointment, when the excess will be paid by the Military Department. The staff salary of any officer shall be held to be the difference between the Indian pay and allowances of his rank and the full salary of his permanent appointment.

34. For the acting officer Government propose the following rules :—

A military officer acting for another in Civil employ shall draw deputation allowance under the rule by which the allowance is granted the Covenanted Civil servants.

If the officer be in military staff employ such deputation allowance will be given in addition to his military pay and allowances plus half the Staff pay of his substantive appointment.

If the officer hold no substantive Staff appointment, civil or military, it will be given in addition to his military pay and allowances.

A military officer in Civil employ performing the duties of his substantive appointment, and at the same time officiating in another, is entitled to his substantive salary, and in addition to a deputation allowance of 20 and 10 per cent. on the staff salary of the appointment in which he is officiating, provided the pay of the substantive appointment with the addition of the deputation allowance does not exceed the pay of the higher appointment.

A subordinate acting for his principal or for any other officer at the same station is not entitled to deputation allowance for the first month while so acting, unless he is required to act on two occasions within a brief period (say twelve months) in which case he draws deputation allowance for the whole period during which he may have held the appointment in excess of one month as if he had acted continuously.

A military officer proceeding from one Civil appointment to another shall be allowed to draw, during the authorized period of transit, out of the salary of the office he is about to join, a sum equal to that of his previous situation. This rule to be preceded by an order making the Civil Rules for joining time applicable to military officers in Civil employ.

A military officer in Civil employ can take three months' cumulative privilege leave (under the Civil Rules only), but he must earn it by thirty-three months' continuous service in the Civil Department alone.

35. These several Rules are approved of.

Resolution by the Government of India, dated 11th February 1864.

His Excellency the Governor General in Council observes that the orders of the Secretary of State, republished in Financial Notification No. 5914, of the 28th November 1863, proceed on the principle that, without observing any distinction between Officers of the Staff Corps and those on Regimental Cadres, the Civil Department should bear the entire charge on account of the emoluments of a Military Officer in Civil employ alike when he is on leave as when present, and also the entire charge for his substitute for the period that the Civil Department has the services of the latter.

2. This principle is modified only to the extent that when the emoluments of a Military Officer in Civil employ on leave cannot be provided entirely from the salary of his Civil appointment the excess is to be paid by the Military Department.

3. But this excess cannot be ascertained without keeping an account of the payments to the absentee and his locum tenens during the entire period of absence. A further difficulty would also arise in the case of a Military Officer in Civil employ who does not belong to the Staff Corps, inasmuch as, under the present rule, his net pay is issuable in the Military Department, whereas it will, as part of the consolidated Civil salary, be henceforth chargeable to the Civil Department.

4. Accordingly, His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct that, as regards Civil appointments to which a consolidated Civil salary is attached, the Civil Paymaster shall pass to the debit of the Civil Department the entire salary or emoluments of a Military Officer in permanent Civil employ alike during leave as when he is present, and whether he belonged to the Staff Corps or not, as also the emoluments of his substitute.

5. In giving effect to this Resolution, the Military Finance Department will be careful not to discontinue the issue of any Military pay now being disbursed in that Department which may be henceforth payable in the Civil Department without so arranging, in communication, with the proper Civil Paymaster as to avoid embarrassment or inconvenience to the Officer concerned.

1. I have received and considered in Council your letter No. 93, dated 5th March 1864, forwarding for my consideration and orders correspondence relative to the pay and allowances to be passed to General Officers commanding Divisions and Brigades and to Inspectors of Artillery, whilst on leave of absence on sick certificate.

2. In my Despatch No. 185, dated 16th June 1864, I communicated to you the decision of Her Majesty's Government, that the salaries of Inspectors of Artillery, and of the Officers of the Artillery Staff, shall be a staff allowance, drawn, in addition to their regimental pay, as heretore.

6. In my Despatch No. 311 of the 31st August 1863, I communicated to you the decision of Her Majesty's Government respecting the staff salaries to be attached to offices held by Military Officers in India.

7. In the table of salaries which accompanied that Despatch, it is shown that consolidated salaries are attached to certain offices, whether held by Officers of the Staff Corps or of the Indian Army, and it was observed in paragraph 12, that, 'in the case of the other appointments, it is to be understood that the staff salary now fixed plus the Staff Corps pay due to the Officer's rank, will constitute the maximum amount to be drawn by an Officer of that rank holding the office in question, whether such Officer belong to the Staff Corps or not.'

8. I consider that the same principle should apply to Officers holding staff appointments, and drawing under the regulations any portion of this staff salary while absent on leave.

9. The portion of staff salary to be drawn under the circumstances, plus the Staff Corps pay due to the Officer's rank, should constitute the maximum amount to be drawn by an Officer of that rank holding the office in question, whether such Officer belongs to the Staff Corps or not. Provided, in the case of an Officer of the Indian Army entitled to full regimental allowances during the period in question, the aggregate amount so drawn, while on leave, is not less than the pay and full allowances of his rank, if entitled thereto, under the old Regulations.

10. I approve of your recommendation that Brigadier Generals Commanding Brigades shall be placed on the same footing as other Officers holding staff situations in regard to Staff allowances during leave of absence, the extent to which leave of absence is available for such offices being limited, in accordance with my Despatch dated 6th September 1861.

OFFICERS SERVING WITH NATIVE REGIMENTS.

Scale of Staff Salaries allowed to Officers serving with Native Regiments under the new organization, with an extract from Sir C. Wood's Despatch, of the 31st Aug. 1863.

Detailed instructions will be issued by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief for the guidance of Officers serving with Native Corps under the new organization, and the present system of payment of Troops and Companies and for repair of Arms, &c., will continue until a further order is issued by Government on the subject, the same officers as at present drawing any allowances now authorized for the payment Companies and repair of Arms.

The new system of placing European Officers in charge of Squadron and Wings will, in all other respects, be brought into operation as soon as His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief can issue the necessary subsidiary orders.

The Despatch of the Secretary of State having been received by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General on the 30th ultimo, increased pay is claimable from 1st September by Commandants, Adjutants, and Doing Duty Officers, as well as Seconds in Command of Cavalry; but when higher pay may accrue from Seconds in Command or others obtaining new appointments, as Wing or Squadron Officers or Quarter Masters, such increased pay will only become due from the date of Officers assuming charge of the duties of such new appointments under the orders of the Commander-in-Chief.

With reference to paragraph 26 of Sir Charles Wood's Despatch instructions will hereafter be issued as the scale of Office Establishment to be maintained by Adjutants. Meanwhile the allowance of Rupees 50 per mensem will be passed.

The pay now authorized is to be drawn in addition to Staff Corps pay only.

The rules now laid down are applicable to such Corps under their Excellencies the Commander-in-Chief of the Bengal and Bombay Armies as now are or may hereafter be placed on the new organization, and to the Punjab Irregular Force.

In other Irregular Corps no alteration is made in the Establishment, position, or duties of Officers, but Commandants, Adjutants, Seconds in Command, and Doing Duty Officers are entitled to the increased pay.

The Corps of Regular Infantry on the Bengal Establishment will, under the orders of the Commander-in-Chief, be placed on the new organization from the 1st January next.

Future Establishment of Officers for Corps of Native Cavalry and Infantry on the new organization.

N. B.—The Commandant of the Guide Corps will receive Rupees 800 per mensem; of the Body Guard Rupees 700 per mensem, and of the Deolee and Erinpoorah Forces Rupees 600 each per mensem.

Extract, Secretary of State's letter, dated 31st August 1863.

I have given much and careful consideration to these proposals.

I am of opinion that the salaries attached to these Regimental appointments should be such as to place them at least on a footing of equality, with the average of the Staff appointments commonly held by Officers of similar rank and standing in the Service, and while they should not be so far superior to the latter as to induce those to seek them whose natural tastes and qualifications might not otherwise incline them to this important branch of the Service, it is important, on the other hand, that young Officers, who, on first joining the Staff Corps, will frequently be employed with Native Troops, should not if naturally fitted for Military Service, be tempted to relinquish it by the attraction of superior emoluments of other Staff employment.

With these principles in view, and making due allowance for the advantages enjoyed

* The Second in Command and Squadron Officer will also each draw Rupees 30 per mensem for payment of their respective Squadrons as soon as such payment is made over to them.

The Adjutant will also draw Rupees 50 Office allowance.

The Doing Duty Officer, who will perform any duties that may be assigned to him such as would devolve upon a Quarter Master, &c., will draw also Rupees 30 per mensem for Writer and Stationery.

All Cavalry Officers are to maintain three Chargers.

by Staff Corps Officers in regard to promotion, and the comparatively early period at which they will attain the pay of the higher ranks, I am willing to sanction the scale of Staff allowances proposed by your Government for the Officers serving in different capacities, with Native Regiments, which, though liberal, will probably not be found excessive.

In the case of the Regimental Adjutant, however, it appears desirable that an Office Establishment should be prescribed, which should be maintained and paid upon Abstracts supported by the usual Muster Rolls.

I learn from your Despatch No. 10, dated 3rd January 1863, that you have completed the Native Regiments in Bengal to six regularly attached and paid European Officers, exclusive of the Medical Officers, as announced in your General Order of the 12th December 1862, it being distinctly understood that the appointments made under that decision are held subject to such modifications as may be found necessary on receipt of my further instructions on the general question, and that you have authorized the Government of Bombay to extend the rule to such Regiments in that Presidency as are formed and officered according to the new organization.

I approve of these proceedings, and shall await the result of your reference to the Government of Madras upon the introduction of the new system into the Army of that Presidency.

The scale of salaries now sanctioned will be brought into operation, and made to apply in all cases where there is no reduction in the present aggregate salary on the payment due on the 1st of the month succeeding the receipt of this Order.

Reductions of salaries effected by this Order are not to be made to affect present permanent incumbents, or those who are officiating for such permanent incumbents being temporarily absent from their duties.

No. 176 of 1864.—The following G. O. by the Government of India, dated the 15th March 1864, No. 223, is republished :—

Military letter from the Secretary of State for India, dated 30th January 1864 :—

SIR,—Application has been recently made to me by a paid doing-duty Officer of a Native Regiment for the grant of half Staff salary during the first six months of his absence on sick certificate.

2. The application was necessarily refused, the regulations of the service at present not admitting of any of the Officers belonging to Native Regiments on the new organization being allowed the privilege of Staff Officers in this respect.

3. It appears to me, however, that, under the altered circumstances of the Native Army, the regulations in this respect should be amended.

4. The whole of the appointments held by Commissioned Officers in the Native Regiments under the new organization, held at present alike by Officers of the Staff Corps and those of the Indian Army, are destined ultimately to be held entirely by Officers of the Staff Corps.

5. They must be considered, therefore, in future, as Staff appointments and the whole of the Officers in question must be allowed all the privileges attaching to Officers holding Military Staff employment, including that of drawing six months' half Staff salary during absence on sick certificate under the Regulations.

6. This rule is to apply to all such Officers taking leave subsequently to the publication of the General Order by your Government, but it is in no case to have retrospective effect.

ABSENTEE AND ACTING ALLOWANCES.

The following rules are to be observed from the 1st September 1864, in the admission of allowances to officers attached to Native Regiments when performing the duties of other officers temporarily absent :—

1. The allowance for charge, repair of arms, and squadrons, the office allowance of Adjutants, and of doing-duty officers in the Cavalry, and the allowance for repairs of tents of Quarter-Masters, are to be paid to the Officers present and actually performing the duties of the appointments and not to absentees unless the absentee be on privilege leave, when, to retain his right to the wing, squadron, contract, or office allowance, he must provide for the performance for his duties to the satisfaction of his Commanding Officer.

2. An officer, directed to officiate in an inferior appointment in his regiment, is not entitled to any portion of the staff salary of such lower situation, but he will draw the charge, contract, or office allowance of the appointment. In such cases, the arrangement for carrying on the duties of the appointment is a matter of regimental detail, which should be directed in regimental orders, and does not require the confirmation of Government or of the Commander-in-Chief. Thus a Second in Command and Squadron Officer being directed to take charge of another squadron in addition to his own, or an Adjutant being ordered to assume charge of a squadron, or a Squadron

Officer or Adjutant acting for a doing-duty Officer, would be entitled to the allowance for the payment of the squadron, or to the office allowance of the doing-duty Officer, in addition to his own staff salary and office or other allowance. In like manner, in the Infantry, a Wing Officer, being ordered to assume charge of the other wing, in addition to his own, or of the Adjutant's or Quarter-Master's Office or an Adjutant being directed to assume charge of the Quarter-Master's Office, would simply draw the office, contract or charge allowance of the appointment.

8. When an officer is directed to officiate in a higher appointment, as in the case of a doing-duty Officer directed to officiate as Quarter-Master or Adjutant, an Adjutant or Quarter-Master as Wing Officer, a Wing or Squadron Officer as Second in Command, or a Second in Command as Commandant, the regimental order nominating him must be submitted for confirmation to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, or (in the case of corps under Government) for confirmation by the Government of India. In such cases, the officiating Officer is entitled to half the staff salary of his substantive appointment, together with half the staff salary of the officiating appointment, and the charge, contract, or office allowance of the officiating appointment for a period of six months, and after that period, in the event of the continued absence of the permanent incumbent, to the full staff pay and charge, contract, or office allowance of the officiating appointment, and to no portion of the salary of his substantive appointment, except that allowed under Clause 2 of this order.

INDIAN MEDICAL SERVICE.

Military letter from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, dated 16th May 1864.

1. In connection with the subject of the re-organization of the Medical Service in India, Her Majesty's Government have, for some time past, had under consideration the present state and future prospects of the Indian Medical Service in regard to promotion, and the system of payment to the Medical Officers of the Indian Army and those of the British Army serving in that country.

2. A final decision upon the arrangements connected with the future provision of Medical Officers for service in India has been delayed from unforeseen and unavoidable causes, but will be communicated to you very shortly.

3. In the mean time, Her Majesty's Government have determined upon the adoption of certain measures affecting the interest of the present service, in regard both to pay and promotion.

4. It has been found by experience, that the promotion to the rank of Surgeon in the Indian service has been much slower than the same in the British service, and although this is in a great measure attributable to augmentations that have been made of late years in the latter, the difference, therefore, being in a measure temporary, it may in some degree be attributed to the difference which has hitherto existed in the relative numbers of the two grades in the two cases. In the British Medical Department I find the proportion which the Assistant Surgeons bear to the senior grades is as 641 to 355, while in the Indian service it has been hitherto,—

In Bengal, as 285 to 140; Madras, as 167 to 76; Bombay, as 137 to 56.

5. To carry out the assimilation in this respect would require, therefore, the promotion of Assistant Surgeons in India to the following extent:—

In Bengal 12; Madras 10; Bombay 13.

6. You are authorized to make these promotions from the date of the receipt of this Despatch. The establishment of Medical Officers above the rank of Assistant Surgeon in the three Presidencies will, so long as there are Officers enough remaining on the old lists to complete these numbers, be fixed,—

In Bengal 152; Madras 86; Bombay 69

7. With a view of removing all cause of complaint and misunderstanding, on the part of the Officers of the Indian Medical Service, on the subject of their promotion to the rank of Surgeon-Major, under the Royal Warrant of 13th January 1860, Her Majesty's Government have determined to give retrospective effect to that Warrant, and to cause all promotions made under its authority to be dated from the 1st October 1858, being the date of the Royal Warrant for the British Medical Department, and it has been further determined to modify the instructions conveyed to you in my Despatches, No. 397, dated 31st October 1860, and No. 386, dated 30th September 1861, and to permit the period of service, qualifying Surgeons for the rank of Surgeon-Major under that Warrant, to be calculated from date of first commission, including all leave of absence of whatever kind.

8. It has been further resolved, that the following change in the mode of payment of Officers serving in India, whether of the British or Indian Medical Department, shall be introduced from the date of the receipt of this Despatch.

9. From that date, the allowance of head money, as well as that for medical charge of British Regiments and Brigades, will be discontinued, excepting in the case of Assistant Surgeons, who will receive, while in actual charge of British regiments or Brigades of Artillery, a special allowance of Rupees 150 per mensem in addition to their pay.

10. The following will be the rate of pay for Officers of the several grades in the Medical Department, below that of Inspector and Deputy Inspector General, who receive special salaries, whether belonging to the British or the Local service :—

11. Surgeons of Her Majesty's Service, not being Surgeon-Majors, who may be in medical charge of Regiments or Brigades at the date of publication of the order, will not be affected by this rule, but will continue to receive their pay and allowances while attached to such Regiments as heretofore.

12. Officers of the British Medical Department attached to Brigades of Horse Artillery and Regiments of British Cavalry, will draw, in addition to the rate of pay above laid down, horse allowance at the following rates :—

Rank.	Years' Service.	Relative Rank.	Additional Horse allowance when attached to a British Cavalry Regiment.

* Or on promotion should these periods of service not be already completed.

14. The rule regarding pension, at present applicable to the Officers of the Indian Medical Service, will remain in force with the following modification.

15. Officers compelled to leave the service on account of ill health, and entitled to half pay pension under present Regulations, will be allowed the half pay of their relative rank, as laid down in the Royal Warrant, dated the 13th January 1860. This rule will apply to all Officers retiring upon half pay pension from a date subsequent to the receipt of this Despatch.

16. Pending a further communication upon the subject of the Medical Service in India, Officers of the British or Indian Medical Service holding staff appointments, the salaries of which are consolidated, will continue to draw their salaries as at present; and all Officers of the Indian Medical Department in the receipt of staff salaries, including such as are in medical charge of Native Regiments, will continue to draw the aggregate amount of pay and staff allowances they now receive, provided it be not less than the rate of pay laid down in the above Table for Officers of their rank and standing in the Service.

17. In communicating to the Secretary of State for War the proposal to adopt the above modification, in the mode of payment of British Medical Officers in India, I expressed an opinion that, considering the extent to which the strength of regiments of British Infantry had been lately reduced, the number of Assistant Surgeons with their corps might, with propriety, be reduced from three to two, the reserve of Medical Officers of the British Army, which it is proposed to maintain to meet the demands of the British Army in India generally, being so calculated as to ensure at least that number of Officers being at all times available with each regiment.

18. The Secretary of State for War has consented to this reduction, upon the understanding that it shall be considered an experimental arrangement, and that the Staff Assistant Surgeons constituting the reserve shall be considered as forming part of the Medical Staff at the disposal of the Military authorities.

19. The establishment of Staff Surgeons and Assistant Surgeons of Her Majesty's Service at present allowed is as follows:—

1 Inspector General of Hospitals.	10 Staff Surgeons.
4 Deputy do. do.	30 Staff Assistant Surgeons.

20. You will consider and report at an early date whether this number of Assistant Surgeons will suffice, under the present arrangement, to ensure the constant supply of two Assistant Surgeons to the whole of Her Majesty's Regiments, or what increase may be required for that purpose.

1. The Despatch published in the foregoing order having been received at Simla on the 15th instant, the change in the mode of payment of Medical Officers serving in India, directed in paragraph 8, will come into effect from that date.

2. The Governments of Madras and Bombay will be pleased to make the promotions, authorized in paragraphs 5 and 6 of the Despatch of the Secretary of State, with effect from the 15th June 1864, and those Governments will be further pleased to make the alterations of rank in the grade of Surgeon Major, rendered necessary by paragraph 7 of the Despatch.

3. Rolls of promotions and alterations of rank, rendered necessary in Bengal, will be submitted by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India to Government, as soon as may be practicable.

With reference to paragraph 10 of the Despatch His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct, pending further orders from the Secretary of State, that Inspectors General or Deputy Inspectors General of Hospitals in India, when not in receipt of the allowances of those appointments, shall draw pay at the rates laid down for a Surgeon Major, of twenty or twenty-five years' service, respectively, according to their length of service.

2. With reference to paragraph 12 of the same Despatch, His Excellency in Council is pleased to direct that, until further orders, Rupees 60 per mensem shall be passed as horse allowance to Medical Officers serving with Regiments of Native Cavalry, in addition to the pay laid down in paragraph 10 of the Despatch.

RULES REGARDING BREVET PROMOTION.

G. G. O. No. 552 of 1859.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to re-publish the following General Order by the Government of India, dated Fort William, the 20th May 1859, No. 740 :—

"His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct the publication in General Orders of the following Royal Warrant, received with a letter from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, No. 119, of the 7th April 1859, prescribing Rules under which Combatant Officers are to be recommended for promotion in Her Majesty's Indian Military Forces :—

"Whereas We have judged it expedient to revise those parts of Our Royal Warrants of the 6th day of October 1854 and 3rd day of November 1854, which regulate the promotion and retirement of Combatant Officers in Our Army and Ordnance Corps, Our will and pleasure is, that from the date of this Our Royal Warrant, Our Governor General in Council shall govern himself by these Our Rules in recommending Combatant Officers for promotion in Our Indian Military Forces :—

PROMOTION.

1. That the rank of Field Marshal be given without reference to seniority.
2. That there shall be a fixed Establishment of General Officers, viz. :—

Generals	25
Lieutenant Generals	50
Major Generals	145

3. That Colonels may be appointed, without regard to seniority, to Commands as Major Generals, with temporary rank; and if they shall have conducted themselves to Our satisfaction, such temporary rank, after having been held for five years in peace, or for any shorter period in War, may, upon the recommendation of Our Governor General in Council, be made permanent. That the temporary rank of General and Lieutenant General may also be given whenever the convenience of the Service requires it, and may be made permanent in a similar manner.

4. That every vacancy on the fixed Establishment of General Officers shall be filled by the promotion of the senior Colonel qualified to succeed to the rank of Major General, and to be placed on the fixed Establishment, under the Regulations now in force, or by a supernumerary Major General, as provided in Clause 6.

5. That in addition to the Colonels promoted by seniority to be Major Generals and those promoted after having held temporary rank under the Regulation in Clause 3, Colonels shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of Major General, and Major Generals to the rank of Lieutenant General, and Lieutenant Generals to the rank of General, for distinguished services in the Field.

In the case of Officers promoted to the rank of General Officers as a reward for distinguished service in War, the recommendation, in which the service of the Officer shall be detailed, shall be published in the General Orders of Our Indian Military Forces and in the London Gazette.

6. That all Colonels promoted to be Major Generals after five years' employment in responsible Commands, with the temporary rank of Major General under the provisions in Clause 3, and all Colonels promoted to be Major Generals for distinguished service in the Field, shall be placed on a Supernumerary List of Major Generals, and shall not be reckoned as part of the fixed Establishment until the time when they would have attained the rank of Major General by seniority, that is to say, until the Colonel who originally stood next senior on the Colonel's List to the Officer promoted out of his turn has become a Major General, after which the next vacancy will be filled by the transfer of the supernumerary Major General to the fixed Establishment. The Major Generals who have already been promoted out of their turn, and would not yet have succeeded to that rank by seniority, shall be considered as coming under this rule.

The supernumerary Major Generals, when absorbed into the fixed Establishment, shall preserve the seniority which they acquired when, after a period of qualifying service with temporary rank, they were first confirmed as permanent Major Generals on the Supernumerary List, and shall rise by that seniority to be Lieutenant Generals in succession, General Officers promoted for distinguished service in the field will take their seniority from the date of their promotion as stated in the London Gazette.

7. That three separate Lists of General Officers be inserted in the Army List of Our Indian Military Forces: the first containing the names of those on the fixed Establishment; the second, those who, having been promoted out of their regular turn, are supernumerary to the fixed Establishment; and the third, those who have retired from the Service with the honorary rank of General Officers.

8. That the rank of Colonel be given to Officers after serving for five years with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, in the actual Command of Regiments, or for the same period as Second Lieutenant Colonels of Regiments, or on the Staff, in the following situations, viz. :—Adjutant General, Quartermaster General, Deputy Adjutant General, Deputy Quartermaster

General, Secretaries to the Government of India in the Military and Public Works Departments, Secretaries in the Military Department to the Governments of Madras and Bombay, to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, the Commissioner in Mysore, and the Resident at Hyderabad; Judge Advocate General, Commissary General, Deputy Commissary General, Inspector General of Ordnance, Superintendent of the Ordnance Manufacturing Department, Chief Engineer, Superintending Engineer, Surveyor General of India,—subject always to the approval of the Governor in Council and Commander in Chief of the Presidency to which the Officer belongs.

9. That Regimental Majors, who are Brevet Lieutenant Colonels, falling into the Command of Regiments in the absence of the Lieutenant Colonel, shall, on attaining the rank of Regimental Lieutenant Colonel, reckon the period commencing from the completion of the first month of such temporary Command, as part of the five years required to qualify for the rank of Colonel.

10. That the rank of Colonel be given to Officers who obtain the rank of Brevet Lieutenant Colonel for services in the Field, after eight years' of actual service with that rank.

11. That in cases where a Regiment may be so divided as to constitute two distinct Commands, and one portion may be under the Command of the Regimental Major, who is also a Brevet Lieutenant Colonel, and in cases where a Brevet Lieutenant Colonel may be in Command of a mixed force of different Corps, a discretionary power shall be vested in Our Commander in Chief in India, subject to the approval of Our Governor General of India in Council, to allow such service, or portions of such service, to count as part of the qualifying period for promotion to the rank of Colonel.

12. That Lieutenant Colonels appointed to Civil situations under Government on or after the date of this Our Royal Warrant, shall be promoted to the rank of Colonel after eight years' service in the former rank, provided the nature of the Civil appointment be considered by Our Governor General of India in Council and Commander in Chief in India calculated to give the Officer such practical experience as may afterwards prove advantageous to the Corps or Service to which he belongs.

13. That Field Officers, Commissioned as such before the 20th June 1854, be allowed to rise by Brevet as heretofore; but no Officer promoted to the rank of Field Officer on or after that date is hereafter to rise from the rank of Lieutenant Colonel to that of Colonel, otherwise than by five or eight years' service in the former rank, as provided in Clause 8, or as a reward for distinguished service, or by appointment to be Queen's Aide-de-Camp, except under the special provisions in Clauses 9, 10, 11, and 12.

14. Lieutenant Colonels who held that rank prior to the 20th of June 1854, shall be promoted by a special Brevet to the rank of Colonel,—Commissions to bear date the 28th November 1854; and such of the said Lieutenant Colonels as have been passed over by Officers who have attained the rank of Colonel, in conformity with the provisions of Our Royal Warrants of the 6th October and 3rd November 1854, shall be restored to the respective places which they would have occupied as Colonels, had they been promoted in ordinary succession under the system of periodical Brevets.

15. That promotions shall be made from Captain to Major, and from Major to Lieutenant Colonel, in succession, as vacancies occur in the Major General's fixed Establishment.

16. That any Captain, Major, or Lieutenant Colonel may be rewarded by Brevet promotion for distinguished services in the Field.

17. That the Commands of General Officers and other situations on the Staff, both at home and abroad, shall not be held for more than five years, unless by reappointment under special circumstances.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this Thirty-first day of January 1859, in the Twenty-second Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

STANLEY."

1st. The Office of Deputy Secretary to Government, Military Department, in Bengal, Madras and Bombay, may be added to those enumerated in the 8th Clause of the Royal Warrant of 31st January 1859 as entitling the incumbent, if otherwise qualified, to promotion after five years to the rank of Colonel.

Military, No. 436.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Horse Guards, S. W., 24th August 1860.

"It has been directed by the Secretary of State for War, with the concurrence of His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief, that Captains having Brevet rank as Field Officers, at present holding certain Staff situations as pointed out by the 8th Clause of the Royal Warrant of the 14th October 1859, are permitted to count their services in those situations towards the rank of Colonel, but no Captain holding Brevet rank of Field Officer, who may in future be appointed to such situations, will be allowed to count his services in them towards the rank of Colonel."

My LORD,—The provisions of the Circular Memorandum from the Horse Guards, dated 24th August 1860, No. 61, quoted in the margin, are to be in future adopted for Officers in the Indian Armies. Your Government will accordingly issue a Notification to this effect in General Order.

I have, &c., (Signed) C. WOOD.

(Signed) H. W. NORMAN, Lieut. Colonel,
Secretary to the Government of India."

No. 93 of 1864.—The following General Order by the Government of India, dated 10th February 1864, No. 117, is republished :—

"No. 117 of 1864.—The following Military letter from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India is published for general information :—

From Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council, No. 445, dated 31st December 1863.

SIR,—I have received and considered in Council your Excellency's Military letter.* No. 56A, dated 29th July 1863, forwarding applications from the Officers commanding the Guide Corps, 1st and 2nd Punjab Cavalry, and 2nd Punjab Infantry, soliciting that the period passed in command of regiments of the Punjab Irregular Force may be considered as qualifying an Officer for promotion to the rank of Colonel, in like manner as such command counts in Native Regiments of any description under the orders of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

2. My attention has been already drawn to this subject by your proceedings in the Military Department, Nos. 214 and 215, of the 5th March last, wherein it appears that the claim of a Lieutenant Colonel of the Bombay Army to promotion under the Warrant was considered subject to the inquiry as to whether the regiment he commanded was or was not under the orders of the Commander-in-Chief; and I was, prior to the receipt of the Governor General's letter now under acknowledgment, in communication with His Royal Highness the Commander-in-Chief on the subject.

3. I observe that the wording of my reply to the inquiry contained in the 7th paragraph of your letter, No. 83 of 17th June 1859, may have led to a misapprehension of the intention of Her Majesty's Government and of His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief upon this point.

4. In the paragraph referred to, your Government desired "to be informed whether the Command of Irregular and Local Regiments is to be still considered as qualifying for promotion to the rank of Colonel," and a reference having been made to the General Commanding-in-Chief on this subject, it was stated in reply, "That His Royal Highness considers that the Command of Irregular or Local or Irregular Regiments, if held by an Officer with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, may qualify for the rank of Colonel under the provisions of the Warrant."

5. There were, however, two descriptions of Native Forces, with a regimental organization, viz., the 1st, Military, consisting of regiments employed on duties of a strictly Military character; and 2nd, the Police, consisting of Irregular bodies, which, though having a Military organization, were ordinarily employed upon Civil and Police duties.

6. It was not intended that the command of a Corps of the latter description should qualify for promotion under the 8th Clause of the Royal Warrant, and it was with a view of drawing a distinction between the two descriptions of Force to which I have referred, that the words "under the orders of the Commander-in-Chief," which did not occur either in your letter or in that of the Military Secretary to His Royal Highness, but which were adopted as expressing in a few words the distinction which it was intended to make, were inserted in my reply to your reference.

7. While the object of the distinction was to exclude Officers of Police Battalions from the operation of the 8th Clause of the Warrant, it was not intended to exclude from the privilege conferred by it, Officers Commanding regiments of a strictly Military character, whether serving directly under the Commander-in-Chief, or placed, for reasons of State policy, under the Civil Government.

8. I request, therefore, that the terms of your Order, No. 39 of 1859, which would seem to exclude from the benefit of Clause 8 of the Royal Warrant, Officers Commanding Regiments or Forces of the latter description, may be modified, and that the rule, as now explained, may be applied, with retrospective effect, to such Officers as may be already entitled to promotion to the rank of Colonel under its provisions.

9. Under the operation of this order, the Punjab Force, the Hyderabad Contingent, and all such bodies of Troops will be considered as forming a portion of the Standing Army, and Officers serving with those Forces will be entitled to all the privileges regarding promotion granted to the Officers of the Army at large, by the usage of the service, or under the provisions of the Royal Warrant.

(Signed) H. W. NORMAN, Colonel,
Secretary to the Government of India."

No. 94 of 1864.—The following General Order by the Government of India, dated 10th February 1864, No. 118, is republished —

"No. 118 of 1864.—The following Military letter, from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, is published for general information. —

From Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council, No. 446, dated 31st December 1863.

SIR,—With reference to my Despatch, No. 436 of 25th November 1862, I have to inform you that the rule laid down in a Circular from the Horse Guards, No. 61 of the 24th August 1860, extends to all Officers holding the rank of Captain and Bt. Lieutenant Colonel, and to all Officers holding the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, who may be serving in positions qualifying for promotion to the rank of Colonel, under the 8th Clause of the Royal Warrant of 31st January 1859.

2. It is therefore to be considered as applying to Officers of that rank holding the command of Regiments in Indian Army.

3. A Captain and Brevet Lieutenant Colonel appointed to the command of a Regiment before the publication in General Order of the Horse Guards' Circular of the 24th August 1860, would count his period of command as qualifying service for the rank of Colonel, but a Captain and Brevet Lieutenant Colonel appointed to a similar command subsequent to the publication, would not so count it.

(Signed) H. W. NORMAN, Colonel,

Bombay Castle, 30th March 1864.

No. 160 of 1864.—The following General Order by the Government of India, dated 15th March 1864, No. 225, is republished :—

No. 940, dated 18th September 1860.
No. 118, dated 18th February 1864.

No. 225 of 1864.—With reference to the Government General Orders noted in the margin, the following Military letter, from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, is published for general information and guidance :—

From Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India to the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council, No. 27, dated 30th January 1864.

SIR,—Referring to my Despatch, dated 31st December 1863, No. 446, on the subject of promotion to the rank of Colonel under the 8th Clause of the Royal Warrant of the 31st January 1859, I have to inform you that a communication now received from the Horse Guards states that the Secretary of State for War has brought to the notice of the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief that the qualifying period in the rank of Lieutenant Colonel previously to obtaining the rank of Colonel was extended from 3 to 5 years, with the express view that no deductions from that period were to be made on account of leave of absence. His Royal Highness in consequence sees the necessity of rectifying the position of all Colonels promoted since October 1858, who may have had their promotion retarded by the practice of limiting the leave of absence to 15 months in the 5 years.

2. A similar course is to be adopted by your Government with respect to all Colonels of Her Majesty's Indian Forces promoted under the Royal Warrant of 31st January 1859, whose promotion may have been retarded, under the restriction with regard to leave of absence published in General Order, dated 18th September 1860, No. 940.

AMALGAMATION OF THE GENERAL AND FIELD OFFICERS OF THE INDIAN AND BRITISH ARMIES.

G. G. O. No. 231 of 1862.—The following General Order by the Government of India, dated 18th March 1862, No. 325, is republished :—

"The following paragraph of a Military letter from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, No. 47, dated 8th ultimo, and the Royal Warrant therein referred to, are published in General Orders :—

"I forward herewith, for the information of your Government, and for publication in General Orders, copies of a Royal Warrant, dated 1st January 1862, prescribing the mode in which the amalgamation of the General and Field Officers of the Indian Armies with the War Office Circular, No. 735.

General and Field Officers of the British Army, and the promotion of the Officers to higher rank, shall be carried into effect :—

Circular, No. 735.

Whereas We have judged it expedient to approve of the amalgamation of the General and Field Officers of Our Indian Armies with the General and Field Officers of Our Regular Army ; Our Will and Pleasure is that such amalgamation, and the promotion of the Officers to higher rank, shall be carried into effect in the manner prescribed in the Regulations hereto annexed.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this First day of January 1862, in the Twenty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

G. C. LEWIS.

REGULATIONS.

1. The existing General Officers of either Army shall continue, as at present, on separate lists.

2. All Colonels of either Army who attained that rank prior to the 17th February 1861 shall be continued on separate lists as at present, and shall succeed on separate lists to the rank of Major General, Lieutenant General, and General, under the Regulations now in force for each Army respectively, but if all the Colonels on one of the separate lists shall have become Major Generals, while some of the Colonels on the other separate list are still unpromoted, those Colonels shall have the benefit of vacancies occurring in the lists of Generals of either Army, and Colonels so promoted, shall be placed on an amalgamated list of Major Generals, from which promotion shall be made by seniority in succession to all vacancies in the higher grades, whether of the British or Indian Service.

3. All Officers in either Army who shall have attained the rank of Colonel on or after the 17th day of February 1861, shall at once be placed according to the dates of their commissions, as Colonels on one general list, from which, so soon as the separate lists of Colonels are exhausted, promotion shall be made according to seniority in succession to all vacancies in the establishments of General Officers, whether of the British or the Indian Service, and Colonels so promoted shall enter upon the amalgamated list above provided, from which promotion shall be made by seniority in succession to all vacancies in the higher grades, whether of the British or Indian Service.

4. All promotions in the lower grades, in consequence of vacancies amongst General Officers shall, until the general fusion hereinafter provided, fall in each case to that service to which the Officer creating the vacancy belong ; and such promotions shall be made under the Regulations now in force in either service.

5. When all the Colonels on the separate list of the Cavalry, Guards and Line, of the British Army, and on that of the Indian Army, shall have become Major Generals, the whole of the Field Officers, including those of the Artillery and Engineers of both Armies, as well as Field Officers of the Royal Marines, shall be placed on one general list, from which all promotions shall be made up to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel inclusive, in succession to vacancies on the General Officer list ; and from that time the senior Captain of the United Army and Royal Marines shall succeed to a Brevet Majority, under the 15th Clause of the Warrant of the 14th October 1858.

6. Promotion to the rank of General Officer in the Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers will continue to be carried on under the Regulations now in force, until all the Colonels of Artillery and Engineers, as the case may be, on the separate list of the Indian Armies, shall have become Major Generals; then the General Officers of the Artillery of the Indian Army shall be amalgamated with those of the Royal Artillery; and in like manner, the General Officers of the Engineers of the Indian Army, with those of the Royal Engineers; promotions to the rank of General Officer in the Ordnance Corps being made subsequently to their respective amalgamations from one list of Colonels of the Royal and Indian Artillery, and from one list of Colonels of the Royal and Indian Engineers.

7. The present Establishment of General Officers of Her Majesty's Indian Artillery and Engineers was fixed at the rate of one Officer for each Battalion,* but as these Corps are now being incorporated with the Royal Artillery and Engineers respectively, it is necessary that the proportion of Generals to combatant Officers, adopted for Her Majesty's Forces, should be extended to the Brigades and Battalions now being added to the Artillery and Engineers respectively. Eventually, therefore, the Establishment of General Officers of the Brigades and Battalions now being transferred from the Indian Service, will be fixed at twenty-six for the Artillery and twelve for the Engineers respectively.†

8. If at the time of the amalgamation of the General Officers of Artillery and Engineers provided in the 5th paragraph of this Warrant there shall be more General Officers of the Indian Artillery or Engineers than the proportion fixed as their Establishment, viz., twenty-six for the Artillery and twelve for the Engineers (a circumstance which might arise, from all promotions to the rank of General Officers in the Indian Service being now made on one general list, which includes Officers of all branches of the Service), the excess shall be absorbed before a Colonel of the branch concerned can be promoted, or, if there be less than the established number, promotions shall be made to supply the deficiency from the general lists above-mentioned of Colonels of Royal and Indian Artillery and Engineers respectively.

9. Upon the transfer of the present twelve Regiments of European Cavalry and Infantry of the Indian Army to the British Army, a like number of General Officers will be taken off the Indian Establishment, and will, as Colonels of such Regiments, be transferred, according to the dates of their commissions, to the fixed Establishment of General Officers of the British Army.

But as the number (12) of General Officers thus brought from the Indian Establishment is less than the proportion (15) of General Officers due to the number of combatant Officers belonging to the transferred Regiments, an addition of three General Officers shall on this account be made to the unattached list of the British Army at the time referred to in paragraph 8 of this Warrant.

And in making these additions to the list of General Officers, the proportions of the different grades of General Officers now on the Establishment of the British Army shall be maintained.

10. The Field Officers coming to the British Army with these Regiments shall take their position on the General list of Field Officers according to the date of their Army rank, by which their future promotion shall be governed.

11. The amalgamation of the Lists of General Officers, in accordance with these provisions, will in no wise affect the system which regulates the succession to the Colonels of Regiments of the British Army, or to the Colonels' allowances of Her Majesty's Indian Forces.

12. The present Establishment of General Officers of the Indian Army, inclusive of Artillery and Engineers, consists of twenty-five Generals, fifty Lieutenant Generals, 145 Major Generals, which numbers are however liable to reduction.

But the proportion of Generals maintained on account of the Indian Establishment shall at all times be governed by the principle adopted in respect to the British Forces, both as to numbers and gradation.

And reductions shall be made by gradual absorption, and by the promotion of not less than one Colonel for three vacancies amongst General Officers, until Supernumeraries are exhausted.

H. W. NORMAN, Lieutenant Colonel,

COLONELS' ALLOWANCES IN THE STAFF CORPS.

G. G. O. No. 64 of 1862.—The following General Order by the Government of India, dated 10th January 1862, No. 36, is republished:—

"The following paragraphs of a Military Letter from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, No. 467, dated 3rd December 1861, are published for general information:—

"8. As regards the succession to Colonels' Allowance, I entirely agree with you that it is most desirable to make some definite announcement to the Officers of the Army.

9. In my Despatch, No. 27 of 18th January 1861, paragraph 30, I stated that the number of Staff Corps Officers in receipt of Colonels' Allowance "can only be filled up as the establishment of Colonels on the old footing diminishes, so that the aggregate number of Officers receiving Colonels' Allowance at one time, shall never exceed the regulated number of Colonels Allowance for each Presidency."

10. It has been since provided in connexion with the retiring scheme detailed in my Despatch No. 320 of 10th August last, that the names of Lieutenant-Colonels accepting that scheme shall remain in Italics on the general lists of "Field Officers regimentally," to regulate the succession to Colonels' Allowance of those who do not accept the increased pension, so that one Colonels' Allowance will eventually be struck off for each retired Lieutenant-Colonel who would have attained it had he remained on the Effective List; the number of Colonels in the receipt of that allowance being, however, never brought below the proportion they now bear to the number of Officers remaining on the entire list, general and regimental.

11 It may safely be calculated that, under the operation of this measure, there will be a reserve of Colonels' Allowances in the Cavalry and Infantry Arms of each Presidency available for the Senior Officers of the Staff Corps, and probably to a much greater extent than will be required for that purpose.

12. Her Majesty's Government have therefore decided that Colonels' Allowances shall at once be assigned to the several Staff Corps in the proportion of one Colonels' Allowance to every thirty Officers who have actually joined the Staff Corps.

13. To these allowances, Officers who have attained the rank of Colonel in the Army, and have served not less than twelve years in the substantive rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, will succeed according to seniority as Lieutenant-Colonel, until the proposed establishment is completed to the relative strength of one in thirty Officers of all ranks.

14 The necessity for a qualifying term of service will then cease, and Officers will succeed by seniority as vacancies occur.

15 Her Majesty's Government have further resolved that, upon succession to Colonels' Allowance, Officers of the Staff Corps shall vacate the appointment they then hold, being however eligible for reappointment or employment in any other position at the discretion of their respective Governments, and with the sanction of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India in Council.

16. Officers holding appointments, the tenure of which is limited to five years, will not be required to vacate, on attaining to the Colonels' Allowance, before the expiration of that period.

18 The fourth subject is the position and pay of a Captain in the Staff Corps, being a Major General in the Army.

19. The expressions in the Staff Corps Warrant may not be sufficiently definite, and I have therefore to explain to you that, in order to entitle an Officer of the rank of Major General to the unemployed pay specified in the Warrant for that rank, he must have actually served not less than six years in the substantive rank of Field Officer, the above six years being inclusive of any time he shall have been obliged to pass upon half pay in consequence of ill-health contracted in the service (as established by a Board of Medical Officers), or in consequence of wounds received in action.

20. Other Officers (of the Staff Corps holding substantive rank in that Corps as Lieutenant Colonel (whether he have the Brevet rank of Colonel or not, Major, Captain, or Lieutenant, will draw only the pay of their respective ranks.

21. The last subject mentioned in your Despatch has reference to the request of certain Officers to be allowed the £70 extra pension, in anticipation of retirement in completing the required term of service.

22. Among the questions and replies lately published by you (No. 70), inquiry was made with reference to Officers who might still have a few months to serve, but without reference to such service being required in India or allowable in Europe. You decided in the negative, and your reply has had my approval. You now recommend that it be allowed in the case of Officers who are so situated as to be in a position to complete their time in England.

23. I cannot observe that this one class of Officers have more claim to a relaxation of the rule in their favour than the other. Under the regulation of the service, Officers are required to serve a given number of years for a given pension, such period of service being inclusive of a stated amount of leave. It has suited the convenience of one Officer to take that leave, and he may have two years more to serve in India.

24. Another has chosen not yet to take his leave, he may have two years more to serve in England, if he pleases. As far as the interests of Government are concerned, it may be more expedient to relax the rule in question in favour of the latter, but in point of equity, I do not consider that he has more claim to the indulgence than the former.

25. I must therefore reluctantly decline to accede to your recommendation that the rule should be relaxed in the manner and to the extent proposed.

(Signed) R. J. H. BIRCH, Major General,

Military, No. 170

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

MY LORD.—With reference to your Military Letter, No. 40, dated 22nd January 1863, I have to inform you, that when the authorised number of Colonels' allowances fixed for the Staff Corps, viz., one to thirty Officers of all ranks, has been completed by the succession of Officers who have served twelve years in the substantive rank of Lieutenant Colonel, it is the intention of Her Majesty's Government that vacancies shall be filled up as they occur, according to seniority, without requiring a qualifying term of service.

No. 270. 2. You are correct in assuming that it was not intended by my Despatch
No. 467. of the 31st of July 1862 to set aside the provisions of my previous Despatch of the 31st December 1861.

5. The meaning of the passage quoted in your letter from my Despatch of 31st July 1862 would have been more fully expressed by the introduction of the words "at present"—"as at present in the Staff Corps."

COLONELS' ALLOWANCES IN THE INDIAN ARMY.

G. G. O. No. 539 of 1862.—The following General Order by the Government of India, dated 12th September 1862, No. 869, is republished:—

"The following Military Letter from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, No. 270 of the 31st July 1862, is published for general information:—

Military No. 270.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

MY LORD.—Paragraph 1—I have received and considered in Council your letters, Nos. 60 and 140, dated severally 3rd March and 17th April 1862, the former forwarding copies of a letter from the Government of Bombay, No. 169, of 17th January 1862, enclosing a memorial from Lieutenant-Colonel Stewart, of the 25th Bombay Native Infantry, and the latter submitting a Memorial from Lieutenant-Colonel Macpherson, of the 10th Bengal Native Infantry, relative to the effect produced on the promotion of the Senior Officers of the Indian Army by the Rules laid down in my Despatch, No. 320 of 10th August 1861, under which the names of the Lieutenant-Colonels who have accepted the annuities authorised in that Despatch are retained on the General List to regulate the succession to the Colonels' allowance.

2. Upon this point you observe that there can be no doubt that, as none of the Lieutenant-Colonels who have retired with their annuities can possibly give their Juniors a step unless by their death, the Rule must operate injuriously on the prospects of promotion of those more immediately below them.

3. The Government of Bombay, whose suggestions appear to be contained among the papers forwarded by you in a draft of an intended letter, recommends that, instead of the system of succession recently prescribed by Her Majesty's Government, each Regimental Lieutenant-Colonel should receive promotion to the position of Colonel with Colonels' allowance after the expiration of ten years from the date of attaining his Regimental Lieutenant-Colonelcy.

4. Your Government, in general terms, recommended the case of the Lieutenant-Colonels to my favourable consideration.

5. The proposal to reduce the number of Colonels with Colonels' allowances, in the manner described in my Despatch No. 120, of 10th August, was made upon consideration that a certain number must be withdrawn from the list of Colonels in a given ratio to the number of Officers appointed to the Staff Corps, and that some further reduction would have to be made in consequence of the reduction of the number of Regiments.

6. In consequence of the Mutiny nearly the whole of the Native Regular Regiments of the Army of Bengal have disappeared, and a smaller number of Irregular Regiments have been raised in their place, several Regiments also have been reduced in the other Presidencies.

7. These reductions were rendered necessary by considerations both of a financial and of a political character.

8. It is almost impossible, when a reduction of force becomes necessary, but that Officers, as well as men, should, in some degree, suffer from the consequences of a diminution of the strength of the Army.

9. In carrying out the measures which were necessary for this purpose in India men have been discharged in large numbers with gratuities or pensions.

10. Great consideration has also been shown to the European Officers. They have been retained in their respective cadres on full pay, and with no alteration in the system of promotion to the higher ranks by seniority.

11. A considerable impulse has been lately given to promotion among the Officers, generally, by the settlements under the annuity scheme, but the Lieutenant-Colonels of date prior to 1st January 1862, who did not accept annuities, derived no such benefit, on the contrary, their prospects of promotion under the operation of that scheme would, as shown by Lieutenant-Colonel Macpherson, be affected injuriously to some extent.

12. In order to remove any reasonable ground of complaint Her Majesty's Government have determined that all Regimental Lieutenant-Colonels remaining on the General List of the local Armies in the three Presidencies, whose Commissions as such date prior to the 1st January 1862, shall be considered entitled to promotion to the rank and allowances of Colonel when they shall have been twelve years in the rank of Regimental Lieutenant-Colonel, provided, however, that no promotion under this Rule shall take place until those not in any way affected by the retention of the names of the retired Officers on the list shall have received the step in ordinary course. *Vide Note.

* Lieutenant-Colonel Brown stands at present fifth on the list of Regimental Lieutenant-Colonels of the Madras Infantry. Two of those above him are effective Officers, and two are borne on the list in italics. When the Lieutenant-Colonel second on the list, viz. Lieutenant-Colonel Fitzgerald, succeeds to the Colonels' allowance, Lieutenant-Colonel Browne will become entitled to benefit by the Rule as to succession to the allowance after twelve years, but not before.

13. All Officers who may have held the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel on the 1st January 1862, will also be entitled to promotion to the superior grade of Colonel with Colonels' allowances if the step come to them in ordinary course before the completion of twelve years' service as Lieutenant-Colonel, but when these Lieutenant-Colonels have been removed from the list, the promotion of those whose Commissions bear date on the 1st January 1862, or subsequently, will only be made, as in the Staff Corps, after twelve years' service in that grade.

14. The names of the Officers of the Staff Corps, and those of the new Line Regiments, will be treated in a similar manner with those of the effective Officers on the list, with the exception that in the case of the two former, their names, upon coming into the position of Colonel with Colonels' allowances under the operation of the above Rule, will be removed altogether from the General Regimental List of the Indian Army and promotion made in their places.

15. The principle upon which the succession to Colonels' allowances of Officers of the Indian Army who have not joined the Staff Corps or the new Line Regiments is to be hereafter regulated is to be considered as determined by this arrangement.

India Office, London, 31st July 1862.

Military, No 396.

India Office, London, 23rd October 1862

HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

MY LORD,—I forward herewith copy of a Royal Warrant, dated 21st June last, in the Regulations attached to which it is provided that promotions shall be made in Regiments of the Line in all cases of a Regimental Major being appointed to the Staff.

2 Having communicated with His Royal Highness the General Commanding in Chief, and the Secretary of State for War on the subject of the application of the Warrant to Line Regiments serving in India, with reference to the arrangement which was made known to you in my Despatch No 439, of the 14th November 1861, paragraph 2, I have been informed that His Royal Highness the General Commanding in Chief has caused a communication to be addressed to the Commanding in Chief in India to the effect that no Field Officer of a Regiment serving in India need be seconded on appointment to a Staff situation from a Regiment which has more than three Field Officers on its Establishment.

3 I have the satisfaction of informing you that the 2nd paragraph of the warrant now forwarded, which provides for the promotion to the Brevet rank of Lieutenant Colonel of substantive Majors after the completion of their service on the Staff, will apply to Officers of Her Majesty's Indian Forces other than those of the Staff Corps.

I have, &c.

the date of this Our Royal Warrant, Officers of the Regimental Rank of Major serving on Full Pay, who may be appointed to the Staff of Our Army as Assistant Adjutant Generals or Assistant Quartermaster Generals, and Captains and Subalterns of the Cavalry and Infantry serving on Full Pay, who may obtain employment as Professors and Masters, or as Captains of Companies of Gentlemen Cadets, or on the Staff at the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, shall, under the Regulations herewith annexed, be continued on the strength of their Regiments as Supernumerary Officers, and retain their position and claim to promotion therein, the Majors on the Staff receiving as Regimental pay an amount equal to the half-pay of their rank, in addition to Staff pay, and the Officers employed at the Royal Military College a fixed rate of College pay in lieu of Regimental pay.

It is also Our Will and Pleasure that Officers of the substantive rank of Major, who have completed their term of service in the Staff Appointments of Assistant Adjutant General, Assistant Quarter Master General, Military Secretary, and Assistant Military Secretary, and have performed the duties thereof to the satisfaction of the General Commanding in Chief of Our Army and of Our Secretary of State for War, shall, on removal from the Staff, be promoted by Brevet to the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

It having also been represented to Us that it is expedient to revise the system under which Artillery and Engineer Officers are at present employed in appointments on the Staff corresponding with those heretofore mentioned as well as in those of Deputy Adjutant General, Deputy Quartermaster General and Colonel on the Staff, It is Our further Will and Pleasure that Regimental Colonels and Lieutenant Colonels of Artillery and Engineers, who may hereafter be nominated to such appointments, shall be placed on the same footing in respect to pay as Officers of Cavalry and Infantry, and that such Officers, as well as Colonels of Artillery commanding certain Districts or Divisions with the rank of Colonel on the Staff, and Captains and Subalterns of the Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers employed at the Royal Military College and Royal Military Academy, shall be governed by the Regulations herewith annexed.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this Twenty-first day of June 1862, in the Twenty-ninth Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
(Signed) G. C. LEWIS.

REGULATIONS REFERRED TO IN THE PRECEDING WARRANT.

1. On the appointment of a Regimental Major to the Staff, under the provisions of the annexed Royal Warrant, the step will go in the Regiment without purchase; the Cornetcy or Ensigncy vacated by this promotion being filled by purchase for the Reserve Fund.

2. On removal of the Major from the Staff on completion of the regulated period of Staff service, viz., five years or on the resignation of his appointment on grounds satisfactory to the General Commanding in Chief and Secretary of State for War, he will continue as a Supernumerary Officer, to receive as Regimental pay an amount equal to the half-pay of his rank (even though he may then be the senior Major of the Regiment) till a vacancy shall occur into which he can fall.

3. If, however, a vacancy shall happen by the sale of the Lieutenant Colonelcy, and the Supernumerary Major shall purchase, the existence of the Supernumerary majority will be put an end to by payment from the Reserve Fund of the difference between the amount to be paid by the Major so promoted and the value of the Lieutenant Colonelcy.

4. If the Major on the Staff shall die while so employed no promotion will take place, as the Regiment will already have had the benefit of promotion in the vacancy occasioned by his appointment to the Staff, but any other death vacancy occurring among the Field Officers will be filled as usual by promotion without purchase unless there be a Supernumerary Major whose period of service on the Staff has expired.

5. If the Major, while employed on the Staff, shall succeed to the Lieutenant Colonelcy of the Regiment, whether by purchase or otherwise, he will be required to relinquish his Staff appointment and join his Regiment.

6. If the Major while employed on the Staff shall hold the rank of Brevet Lieutenant Colonel, he shall, on attaining the rank of Regimental Lieutenant Colonel, reckon his Staff service as qualifying service for the rank of Colonel under the five years' rule as provided in Clause 9 of the Warrant of the 14th October 1858 for Majors and Brevet Lieutenant Colonels falling into the temporary command of Regiments.

7. If the Major shall resign his Staff appointment on grounds not satisfactory to the General Commanding in Chief and Secretary of State for War, or be displaced for misconduct or incapacity, he will cease to be entitled to the benefit of this Regulation, and be placed upon the Half-pay List.

8. Vacancies occasioned by the appointment of Captains and Lieutenants to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst (comprising the Staff College, and Cadets' College), under the provisions of the Warrant, will be filled up in the Regiment, without purchase; the Cornetcy or Ensigncy vacated by promotion, or by appointment to the Royal Military College, being filled by purchase for the benefit of the Reserve Fund.

9. If a Captain should be promoted to the rank of Major or a Lieutenant to the rank of Captain, or a Cornet or Ensign to the rank of Lieutenant, by purchase, while at the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, the difference between the sum paid by him, and the full value of the superior Commission will be made up from the Reserve Fund, thereby putting an end to the Supernumerary Commission vacated by him, but a Captain, on attaining the rank of Major, whether by purchase or otherwise, will be required to join his Regiment.

10. On promotion to higher Regimental rank of a Supernumerary Cornet, Ensign, or Lieutenant, whether by purchase or otherwise, he will become a Supernumerary in his new grade, and will carry up with him the Officer next for promotion.

11. The principle in Clauses 2, 4, and 7 of these Regulations, applicable to Majors on the Staff, shall govern the appointments at the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, whatever may be the Regimental rank of the Officer.

12. Regimental Colonels and Lieutenant Colonels of Artillery and Engineers, employed as Colonels on the Staff, and in other situations on the General Staff referred to in the Warrant, will remain on the Establishment of their Brigades or Corps, but will, in accordance with the practice in other branches of the Service, only be allowed a sum equal the half-pay of their Regimental rank in addition to Staff pay.

13. Regimental Colonels of Artillery commanding certain Districts or Divisions, with the rank of Colonel on the Staff, will remain on the Establishment of their Brigades receiving such a reduced rate of Staff pay, as with Regimental full pay, will be equal in the aggregate to the established rate of Regimental half-pay and the full rate of Staff pay.

14. Lieutenant Colonels of Artillery and Engineers holding the appointment of Deputy Adjutant General or Deputy Quartermaster General, may retain their Staff appointments when promoted to the Regimental rank of Colonel, should such promotion happen during the period prescribed for holding their Staff appointments.

15. Lieutenant Colonels of Artillery and Engineers filling the appointments of Assistant Adjutant General or Assistant Quartermaster General, will be required to relinquish their Staff appointment on promotion to the rank of Regimental Colonel, should such promotion take place during their term of Staff service.

16. Captains and Subalterns of the Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers employed as Professors and Masters at the Royal Military College, Sandhurst (comprising the Staff College and Cadets' College), and Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, and as Assistant Inspector of Studies at the latter Institution, will be continued as at present on the strength of their Regiment or Corps, as Supernumeraries to the Establishment, and receive their pay and allowances under the Regulations specially applicable to Supernumerary Captains and Subalterns.

17. Captains of the Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers, if promoted to the rank of Regimental Field Officer during the term of their employment as Professors and Masters, will be required to relinquish their appointments and join their Brigades or Corps.

18. Although the Clauses from 12 to 17 have been framed with special reference to Officers of Artillery and Engineers, it is to be understood that the general provisions of these Regulations are also to be adopted in every way in which they can be made applicable to those two services.

(Signed) H. W. NORMAN, Lieut. Colonel,
Secretary to the Government of India."

The following are the entrance Fees and Rates of Subscription for each class :—

Whereas it is expedient to amend the law relating to the Customs' Duties it is enacted as follows :

I. From and after the passing of this Act, Act XXVI. of 1863 (to amend Act XI. of 1862, to amend Act X. of 1860, to amend Act VII. of 1859 to alter the Duties of Customs on Goods imported or exported by sea) shall cease to have effect, except as to any act done or liability incurred.

II. ACT No. XXIV. OF 1864.

ACT No. XXV. OF 1864.

ACT No. XXVI. OF 1864.

An Act to extend the jurisdiction of the Courts of Small Causes at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, and to provide for the appointment of an increased number of Judges of those Courts.

Whereas it is expedient to increase the limit of the jurisdiction of the Courts of Small Causes held under Act IX. of 1850 (for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in Calcutta, Madras and Bombay,) and to increase the number of Judges of the said Courts ; it is enacted as follows :—

I. The words " Local Government " and " High Court " as used in this Act, shall bear respectively the same meaning as the words " Governor in Council " and " Supreme Court " as used in the said Act IX. of 1850.

II. The jurisdiction of the Courts held or to be held under the said Act IX. of 1850 shall extend to the recovery of any debt, damage, or demand exceeding the sum of five hundred Rupees but not exceeding the sum of one thousand Rupees, and to all actions in respect thereof (except the several actions specified in the proviso in Section XXV. of the same Act), provided that the cause of action shall have arisen or the defendant at the time of bringing the action shall dwell or carry on business or personally work for gain within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the court.

III. If both parties shall agree by a Memorandum signed by them or by their Attorneys and filed with the Clerk of the Court of Small Causes, that the said Court shall have power to try any action (not included in the proviso in Section XXV. of Act

IX. of 1850), in which the debt or damage claimed or value of the property in dispute whether on balance of account or otherwise shall exceed the sum of one thousand Rupees, then and in such case the said Court shall have jurisdiction to try such action.

IV. The powers and provisions of Act VII. of 1847 (to regulate distresses for small rents in Calcutta) shall be extended to the recovery of all arrears of rent not exceeding one thousand Rupees, and the Judges of the Calcutta Court of Small Causes under Act IX. of 1850 shall be empowered to exercise within their jurisdiction the extended powers of the said Act VII. of 1847; and the said Act shall be construed as if, instead of Calcutta and the Settlement of Fort William in Bengal, the limits of the jurisdiction of the Court had been therein mentioned, and the Judges of the Calcutta Court of Small Causes under Act IX. of 1850 instead of the Commissioners of the Court therein mentioned, and the amount of one thousand Rupees instead of one hundred Rupees and the forms contained in the Schedule annexed to the said Act VII. of 1847 shall be altered accordingly, and shall refer to Act IX. of 1850 and to this Act instead of to Act VII. of 1847.

V. The powers and provisions of Section XCI. of Act IX. of 1850 are hereby extended so as to apply to the case of any person who shall hold or occupy any house, land, or tenement of which the value or the rent payable in respect thereof does not exceed the rate of one thousand Rupees by the year, and the said Section XCI. of Act IX. of 1850 shall be read as if the words "five hundred" were omitted, and the words "one thousand" substituted for them.

VI. The several powers and provisions of the said Act and all rules, orders, and regulations which have been or may be made in pursuance of the said Act, shall extend to all debts, damages, and demands which may be sued for in the said Courts exceeding the sum of five hundred Rupees, and to all proceedings and judgments for the recovery of the same, or otherwise in relation thereto respectively, as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as the same respectively are now or may be applicable to debts, damages, and demands within the present jurisdiction of the said Courts.

VII. In any cause of an amount exceeding five hundred Rupees, the Judges of the said Courts of Small Causes shall reserve any question of law or equity or any question as to the admission or rejection of any evidence as to which they shall entertain any doubts, or which they shall be requested by either party to the suit to reserve, or the opinion of the High Court, and shall give judgment contingent upon the opinion of the said High Court, on a case which they shall thereupon be entitled to state to the said Court. If only two Judges sit together and shall differ in opinion, the question on which they differ shall be so reserved.

VIII. When judgment is given contingent upon the opinion of the High Court, the party against whom such judgment is given shall, unless he be willing to submit to such judgment, forthwith give security to be approved by the Clerk of the Court, for the costs of the reference to the High Court, and for the amount of the judgment; provided nevertheless, that such security, so far as regards the amount of the judgment, shall not be required in any case where the Judge of the Court of Small Causes who tried the suit shall have ordered the defendant to pay the amount of such judgment into the hands of the Clerk of the said Court and the same shall have been paid accordingly; and the said High Court may either order a new trial on such terms as it thinks fit, or may order judgment to be entered for either party as the case may be, and may make such order with respect to the costs of reserving the question and stating the same for their opinion, and otherwise arising thereout or connected therewith, as such High Court may think proper. And all orders made by the High Court under this Section shall be final.

IX. If any action shall after the passing of this Act be commenced in the High Court, for any cause other than those specified in Section C. of Act IX. of 1850, for which a summons might have been taken out from a Court held under the said Act IX. of 1850 or under this Act, and in which such Court would have had jurisdiction, and if a verdict shall be found for the plaintiff for a sum less than one thousand Rupees if the said action is founded on contract, or less than three hundred Rupees if it is founded on wrong, the plaintiff shall have judgment to recover such sum only and no costs, and if a verdict shall not be found for the plaintiff, the defendant shall be entitled to his costs as between attorney and client, unless in either case the Judge who shall try the case shall certify that by reason of the difficulty, novelty, or general importance of the case, or of some erroneous course of decisions in like cases in the Court of Small Causes, the action was fit to be brought in the High Court.

X. If any person shall bring any suit in the High Court in respect of any grievance committed by the Clerk, Bailiff, or Officer of any Court held under Act IX. of 1850 or under this Act, or under color or pretence of the process of the said Court, and upon the trial of the action no greater damages shall be found for the plaintiff than the sum of one thousand Rupees, no cost shall be awarded to the plaintiff in such action unless the Judge shall certify in the Court that the action was fit to be brought in the High Court.

XI. There shall be payable in the Court of Small Causes at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay respectively, in every cause of an amount to which jurisdiction is given to the said Court by this Act, the fees set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed, besides the sum of two annas in each Rupee of the amount sued for, so as such amount does not exceed five hundred Rupees, and one anna in the Rupee, so far as such amount exceeds five hundred Rupees, which fee shall be paid over to the same account as that to which the fees payable under Section XIX. of Act IX. of 1850 are paid over.

XII. Whereas by Section VIII. of the said Act IX. of 1850, provision is made for the appointment of so many persons as may be necessary not exceeding three, to be Judges of the said Courts of Small Causes respectively, it is hereby enacted that it shall be lawful for the local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General of India in Council, to appoint as many persons as may be necessary to be Judges of the said Courts respectively.

XIII. The fees to be taken by Barristers at Law and Attorneys practising in the said Courts in cases brought within the jurisdiction given by this Act, shall be as follows:—an Attorney shall be entitled to have or recover a sum not exceeding fifty-one Rupees for his fees and costs, and in no case shall any fee exceeding eighty-five Rupees be allowed for employing a Barrister as Counsel in the cause. The expense of employing a Barrister or an Attorney, or both a Barrister and an Attorney, either by plaintiff or defendant, shall not be allowed as costs, unless by order of the Judge, and the Judges of the said Court shall determine in what cases such expenses shall be so allowed.

XIV. Of the Judges appointed under Section VIII. of the said Act IX. of 1850, the one who is a Barrister at Law or Advocate of one of the High Courts of India or of the Court of Session of Scotland shall be styled the First Judge. The First Judge shall make such arrangements as he shall think fit, with regard to the distribution of the suits and of the general business of the Court among the various Judges thereof: and he may vary such arrangements from time to time.

XV. The Local Government may, with the sanction of the Governor-General of India in Council, declare that the whole or any part or parts of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be applicable to any Court held under Act IX. of 1850 or under this Act: and the procedure prescribed in the said Code or the part or parts thereof so declared to be applicable shall thereupon be the procedure followed in such Court: Provided that no right of appeal or review shall in any case be given by any declaration made under this Session.

XVI. This Act and the said Act IX. of 1850 shall be read and construed as one Act, as if the several provisions in the said Act contained, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, were repealed and re-enacted in this Act.

ACT No. II. OF 1864.

An Act to provide for the Periodical Survey of Steam Vessels in the Ports, Harbours, Rivers, or Waters of the Presidency of Bombay.

Whereas it is desirable to provide for the Survey, by competent Surveyors, of Steam Vessels in the Ports, Harbours, Rivers, or Waters of the Presidency of Bombay, with a view to the due security of life and property shipped on board such Steam Vessels; It is enacted as follows :—

I. Every Steam Vessel plying in the Harbour of Bombay, or in any of the Ports or Harbours, or on any of the Rivers or Waters of the Presidency of Bombay, and every British Steam Vessel plying between any Port of the Presidency of Bombay and any other Port, shall be liable to be surveyed twice in every year, in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

II. It shall be lawful for the Governor of Bombay in Council to appoint a fit and proper person or persons to be a Surveyor or Surveyors for the purposes of this Act.

III. It shall be lawful for the said Surveyors, in the execution of their duties, to go on board any Steam Vessel liable to be surveyed under this Act as soon as reasonably may be after the arrival of such Steam Vessel in any of the Ports, Harbours, Rivers, or Waters of the Presidency of Bombay, but not so as unnecessarily to hinder the loading or unloading of such Steam Vessel, or to detain or delay her from proceeding on any voyage or service, and to inspect such Steam Vessel, or any part thereof, and any of the machinery, boats or equipments on board thereof: and the Owner, Master, and Officers serving on board of such Vessel, shall be bound to afford to the Surveyors all reasonable facility for such inspection or survey, and to afford them all such information respecting such Vessel and her machinery, boats, and equipments, or any part thereof respectively, as may be reasonably required by the Surveyors; and any person who shall refuse access to the Surveyors, or shall otherwise hinder them in the performance of their duty, or shall refuse or neglect to give any information which may reasonably be required of them, and which they have it in their power to give, shall be deemed guilty of contempt of lawful authority, and punishable under Section 176 or 186 of the Indian Penal Code, whichever may be applicable to the case.

IV. When any Survey is made under this Act, the Surveyors making such Survey shall forthwith, if satisfied that they can with propriety do so, and on payment by the Owner or Master of the fees hereinafter mentioned, give to the Owner or Master of the Steam Vessel surveyed a Certificate and Declaration signed by them.

V. No Officer of Customs shall grant a clearance, nor shall any Pilot be assigned to any Steam Vessel, liable to be surveyed under this Act, which shall not have been duly furnished with a Certificate and Declaration under the provisions of this Act, applicable to the voyage on which she is about to proceed, on the service on which she is about to be employed; and if any Steam Vessel liable to be surveyed under this act shall leave or attempt to leave any of the Ports, Harbours, Rivers, or Waters of the Presidency of Bombay, without such Certificate and Declaration applicable to the voyage on which she is about to proceed, or the service on which she is about to be employed, the Owner or Master of such Steam Vessel shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees for each offence, and if there be any Officer of Customs or any Pilot on board of such Steam Vessel, he may detain her until she is duly furnished with such Certificate and Declaration.

VI. If the Commander or any other Officer of a Steam Vessel liable to be surveyed under this Act is a licensed Pilot, and shall leave or attempt to leave any of the Ports, Harbours, Rivers, or Waters of the Presidency of Bombay in such Steam Vessel without such Steam Vessel being duly furnished with a Certificate and Declaration under the provisions of this Act, applicable to the voyage on which she is about to proceed, or the service on which she is about to be employed, such Commander or other Officer shall be liable, at the discretion of the Governor of Bombay in Council, to be deprived temporarily or permanently of his licence as a Pilot.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Governor of Bombay in Council to give special directions to the Surveyors under this Act to survey any British Steamers lying in any of the Ports, Harbours, Rivers, or Waters, of the Presidency of Bombay, and the provisions of this Act shall apply (so far as the same are in any way applicable) to every Vessel so specially directed to be surveyed, and to the Owner, Master, Officers, and Crew thereof.

VIII. The Governor of Bombay in Council is hereby empowered to frame Rules as to the manner in which the Surveys shall be made, and the times and places of such Surveys, and the duties of the Surveyors, provided that such Rules shall not be inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act.

IX. Any Surveyor demanding or receiving directly or indirectly from the Owner, Master, or Officer of any vessel surveyed by him under the provisions of this Act, any fee or remuneration otherwise than as provided by this Act, shall be liable to dismissal, in addition to any other penalty to which he may by law be liable.

X. For every Survey made under this Act, the Owner or Master of the Steam Vessel surveyed shall pay to the Surveyors making the same, a fee calculated on the Tonnage of the Vessel according to the rates in Schedule B hereto annexed.

XI. The Certificate and Declaration granted by Surveyors under this Act shall be hung up, and remain at all times suspended, where the same may be easily read, in some conspicuous part of the Vessel for which the same is granted; and, in default of compliance with this provision, every Owner or Master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees for each offence.

XII. No Certificate or Declaration shall be held to be in force for the purposes of this Act after the expiration of six Calendar months from the date thereof. Provided that if any Steam Vessel is absent when her Certificate and Declaration expire, no penalty shall be incurred for the want of a Certificate and Declaration, until she first begins to ply or is about to ply after her next subsequent return to any of the Ports, Harbours, Rivers, or Waters of the Bombay Presidency. And the Governor of Bombay in Council, or any Officer appointed by him for that purpose, may require any Certificate and Declaration which has expired or has been revoked or cancelled, to be delivered up as may be directed; and any Owner or Master or other person who, without reasonable cause, neglects or refuses to comply with such requirement, shall be deemed guilty of contempt of lawful authority, and be punishable under Section 175 of the Indian Penal Code.

XIII. The Governor of Bombay in Council may revoke and cancel any Certificate and Declaration given or made under this Act in any case in which he has reason to believe—

(1) That the Certificate or Declaration of the sufficiency and good condition of the hull, boats, equipments, and machinery of any Steam Vessel, has been fraudulently given or erroneously made; or

(2) That such Certificate or Declaration has otherwise been issued upon false or erroneous information; or

(3) That since the giving and making of such Certificate and Declaration, the hull, boats, equipments, or machinery of such Ship have sustained any injury or are otherwise insufficient.

And, in every such case, the Governor of Bombay in Council may, if he thinks fit, require the Owner or Master to have such Steam Vessel, boats, equipments, and machinery again surveyed as herein provided.

XIV. If any Steam Vessel shall be surveyed under the provisions of this Act, and if the Surveyors shall decline to give any Certificate or Declaration, or shall give a Certificate or Declaration with which the Owner or Master of the Steam Vessel shall be dissatisfied, the Governor of Bombay in Council may, on the application of such Owner or Master, appoint two other Surveyors to survey the said Steam Vessel. The Surveyors so appointed shall forthwith survey the said Steam Vessel, and shall either decline to give any Certificate and Declaration, or shall give such Certificate and Declaration as under the circumstances may seem to them proper. Every Survey made under this Section shall be made subject to all the provisions and rules both as to the payment of fees and otherwise which are applicable to Surveys made in ordinary cases under this Act. If the Surveyors appointed under this Section unanimously refuse to give any Certificate and Declaration, or agree as to the terms of their Certificate and Declaration, such refusal or such Certificate and Declaration shall be final and conclusive, but if they do not agree, the refusal originally made or the Certificate and Declaration originally granted by the Surveyors, who surveyed the said Steam Vessel in the first instance, shall remain and be of full force and effect.

XV. It is hereby declared that Sections 292, 293, and 294 of the Merchant Shipping Act (17 and 18 Vic. chap. 104), and Schedule S of that Act are and shall be applicable to all Steam Vessels proceeding to sea from any port or place in the presidency of Bombay or its Dependencies, and that, in calculating the penalties mentioned in the said Section 293, ten Rupees be taken as the equivalent for one Pound sterling.

XVI. Any case arising out of this Act may be tried by any Officer having the full powers of a Magistrate, within whose jurisdiction the offence may have been committed, or by any Police Magistrate of the Town of Bombay. The provisions of Section LV. of Act XXII. of 1855 (for the regulation of Ports and Port-dues) are hereby extended to all penalties imposed under this Act, and all fees due under Section X. of this Act shall be recoverable in like manner as penalties are recoverable.

XVII. The word "Surveyors," as used in this Act, shall be taken to include any Surveyor acting alone, when authorised so to do by the Governor of Bombay in Council under the provisions of this Act.

CENSUS OF THE ISLAND OF BOMBAY ON 2ND FEBRUARY 1864.

WHEN the Island of Bombay came into the possession of Great Britain in the year 1664, in fulfilment of the treaty with Portugal, the population was estimated at ten thousand persons, and a large portion of these dwelt in the Northern part of the island at Mahim, which was then of much greater comparative importance than it is now.

In the course of ten or fifteen years the inhabitants had increased greatly in number, and they amounted, according to Fryer, to sixty thousand, being "a mixture of most of the neighbouring countries—most of them fugitives and vagabonds, no account being taken of them (i. e. such not being called to account); others perhaps invited hither—and of them a great number—by the liberty granted them in several religions." At that time the town was a "full mile in length, the houses low, and thatched with oleas of the cocoa trees, all but a few the Portuguese left, and some few the Company have built; the Custom House and Warehouses are tiled or plastered, and, instead of glass, use panes of oyster shells for their windows."

A Census is mentioned as having been taken in the year 1716, giving only sixteen thousand persons, but it probably embraced only the Fort and a portion of the Island.

A Census, taken in the year 1814-15, of which the record is imperfect, gave 11,000 as the population of the Fort, and 221,550 as that of the whole Island, and 20,786 as the number of houses. The British, Military, Marine, and Civil were stated to be 4,800 persons, the resident Native Christians and Jews 12,300, the Moosulmans 28,000, Hindoos 103,800, and the Parsees 13,150. The floating portion of the population was given as 60,000. This Census is quoted in Hamilton's Gazetteer.

In the year 1838-39 another numbering of the people was undertaken; but after it had continued nearly twelve months, the only result reported was, that during that time 117,016 adults had been counted. The Senior Magistrate of Police, under whose direction the Census was taken, added to the number of adults an equal number for the children, and reported 234,032 as the probable total population.

Between the years 1844 and 1848 Government had several times under consideration how to obtain an accurate return of the population, and in 1849 accepted the offer of the Superintendent of Police to furnish it. The money and establishment at the disposal of that officer were altogether inadequate, and his attempt ended in failure; the tables were however published in the Government Gazette of 10th January 1850. Two more attempts were made in the year 1851, but with no better success; the results of these were not printed.

With a view to ensure the success of the more matured arrangements that were being made for taking the number of the people, an Act was brought before the Legislative Council of India, to render it obligatory on householders to furnish the sought for information; but it was withdrawn, owing to instructions from England, which ordered that the enumeration should be postponed until 1861, when it was to be carried out in this country and in Great Britain and Ireland simultaneously. That year, however, brought disappointment again, as the enumeration was confined to British born subjects.

The want of Population Returns became more and more felt as the schemes for water-supply, drainage, and gas lighting were brought forward, and especially as the Death Returns showed a rapid and large increase in the mortality, but left it doubtful how much of this was due to increase of population, how much to removeable causes of insalubrity.

On Sir Bartle Frere's entering on the Government of this Presidency, His Excellency caused a Census Act to be brought before the Local Legislative Council. This Act rendering it obligatory on householders to give correctly the required information, was approved of and sanctioned by the Government of India. The educated part of the Native community warmly supported the measure, and advocated it in their various spheres of influence among their countrymen; and to increase the intelligent co-operation of the heads of the community, the Governor assembled the Native Justices of the Peace and explained how the knowledge of the people, that is sought for in a Census, conduces to good government and to sanitary and social improvement. The leading members of the different sections of the community had meetings, and after having conferred together, they issued explanatory circulars in their different languages, and called on all to give their active aid to the Enumerators. Mr. Dossabhoj Framjee Kuraka circulated, at his own expense, two thousand copies of a pamphlet, in which he explained the objects and uses of a Census and the methods of taking it that have been followed in different countries.

Instructions having been given by the Government to the Commissioner of Police, he was left to carry out the appointed measures. He was to be allowed the aid of such clerks as could be spared from the Government Offices for the day of the Census, and the rest of the Enumerators were to be hired for the work.

A few men were at first engaged to ascertain the probable number of Schedules that would be required in the various languages in use, and also to estimate how many lists would probably be filled in by the Householders, and how many would be left to the Enumerators to fill in. When this inquiry had proceeded for some days, it was found that the work was of greater magnitude than had been anticipated. The numbers engaged in this preliminary inquiry had repeatedly to be added to, and serious inconvenience was experienced in methodizing the work, from many of the streets and lanes being unnamed, and nearly all the houses being unnumbered, as the Assessment numbers are few and irregular, and they are useless for registration purposes.

An estimate of the number of families being obtained, Householders' Schedules were printed in English, Murathee, Goozurathee, and Hindostanee, and were ready for distribution, in accordance with the Act, four days before the date fixed for the enumeration. In the Householders' Returns the name of the head of the family had to be shown, but in deference to the customs and prejudices of some sections of the people, it was not required that the females should be named, but merely that the relationship should be entered. On the eve of the intended distribution, a communication was received to the purport that the Act had been disallowed by Her Majesty's Government in England. The Governor of Bombay having met with cordial support from the Native community, and having every assurance that the people were not only willing, but that the leading and educated part of them was very desirous to have a Census taken, the work was allowed to proceed without the sanction of penalties.

The number of Enumerators that had been in pay one, two, or three weeks, for the preliminary inquiries and for distributing the Schedules, was 627, and for the enumeration on the night of the 1st and morning of the 2nd February 117 Clerks were lent from the Government offices. The number being found still too little, 107 additional Writers were taken into pay for that night, and on the evening of the 1st there being yet a deficiency, 70 more were obtained on urgent requisition from the Education Society's Press.

There were altogether 921 persons engaged in the enumeration on land; of these, 148 were employed as Superintendents of Districts, and 773 as Visitors and Enumerators. Of the whole number, 331 wrote in English, 147 in Goozrathee, 423 in Murathee, and 20 in Hindustanee. Besides these, there were other 70 Enumerators employed in the Harbour. Thus for a registered population of 816,562, there were 845 Enumerators, or one for every 968 individuals, concerning each of whom there were seven points of information to note, after questioning and perhaps cross-questioning the unwilling and stupid, to elicit the truth. At the last Census of England and Wales, there was an Enumerator to every 642 of the population, and the Enumerator distributed, and collected, and verified all the Schedules of his own district, and was employed for a week after the Census in transcribing his work.

The European and Native Police helped in distributing and collecting the Schedules, and many educated Native gentlemen, both Hindoos and Parsees, went from house to house in their neighbourhoods, helping the ignorant to fill in the Returns, but there were discreditable contrasts to this among both Natives and Europeans, some of whom, taking advantage of the withdrawal of the Penal Act, obstructed the Enumerators or falsified the Returns, and thus caused inconvenience, as the information had to be obtained in such cases by indirect means. Unfortunately there was a panic among some of the poor and uneducated of the people, who, notwithstanding the attempted re-assurances of the better-informed of their countrymen, feared taxation, and some of them were found hiding their families; how many did so without being detected is unknown.

Owing to so many of the Enumerators being lent or engaged for one day only, instead of all having to perform, each in his own district, the distribution, the collecting, and the scrutiny of the householders' lists, great trouble and delay was experienced in gathering in the Schedules and correcting them. Had it not been for the note on the back of each Return showing the number of the families in the house to whom Census papers were given, many lists would have been lost, as some houses here are inhabited by many families, as in Edinburgh and in Paris. In one instance fifty Schedules had been left in one tenement, and only twenty-six were spontaneously returned; but on making the scrutiny, the deficiency was detected through the note on the back of those received, and the remainder were recovered.

From the Enumerators being inexperienced, and from many of them having had no preliminary instruction, the information collected was in some points wanting in precision, especially as regards Cast and Occupation, and Birthplace, and several instances of this will have to be mentioned. The correcting of the Householders' Returns, so far as was practicable, extended over six weeks.

The Policemen and Enumerators engaged in taking the Census were returned as belonging to the district or beat in which they were at work. The houseless who slept in verandahs and sheds were returned according to the street or marce in which they were found; these were numbered during the night, and in the morning before the time of their going to work. It is thought that many of these last escaped registration, and in their case there could of course be no such subsequent correction of the Enumerator's erroneous entries, as was practicable in the case of householders. On the Census day it was found that a family here and there had been omitted in the distribution of blank forms, and these omissions when discovered were rectified. There is much ground for believing that many persons escaped being enumerated, and that the recorded number is much below the actual amount of the population. There is no reason to suspect that double entries were made.

The enumeration of the Water Division or Harbour was taken by dividing it among the seventy Enumerators, who were aided by the whole of the Water Police establishment.

The tabulation was performed in the Office of the Commissioner of Police.

POPULATION.

The persons enumerated as present on the night of 1st February amounted to 816,562, of whom 530,450 were males and 286,112 were females, being in the ratio of 185·4 males to 100 females. This disparity in the sexes is much greater than that which has hitherto always been found in the Mortuary Returns of the island. In these the ratio in the last five published yearly reports is 125 to 100, and this disparity in them has been attributed to the larger proportion of males, that are always to be looked for, among those who leave their houses as adventurers, or in the pursuit of trade. If from the Mortuary tables of those five years the deaths in January and February only be taken, these months being in the season at which Bombay may be considered to have its largest number of temporary sojourners, and the time at which this Census was taken, there was the larger ratio of 136·76 males to 100 females. If the Harbour population amounting to 82,582 males with but 55 females, be omitted, and the enumerated land population only be taken, the ratio to 100 is 174 males.

The difference of numbers in the sexes was least among the Jews, who had but 112, and next to them among the Parsees, who had 133 to 100 females, and with the exception of the few Chinese, it was greatest among the Europeans, as might be expected, from a large number of them being sailors or soldiers. The ages at which the males are most in excess in the Returns, are those above fourteen years, and, taking all races, it is found from the age of 14 to that of 44 years to be about 221, while under one month there are but 95, and from one month to two years but 101·4 males to 100 females, and between two and fourteen years there are 131·7.

Such excess of males over females was seen at others of the British dependencies or colonies: for instance at Queensland, in Australia, the ratio was 151, in Victoria 155. At Mauritius the ratio was 189, and at Hongkong 280. Russia is, perhaps, the only European country where in the towns, the males greatly exceed the females, and in that empire, taking the aggregate of all the towns, the males were in the ratio of 117, and taking St. Petersburg alone, there were reported 202 males to 100 females in the year 1851.

The Ages of the people have not been arranged according to quinquennial or even in decennial periods, as there was no reasonable hope that any near approach to accuracy had been attained on this point. In the Mortuary registration there is some hope of obtaining an approximation to the true age, as the question is inquired into leisurely in each instance; but knowing the hurried manner in which the information had been taken by the Enumerators in many instances, it was not considered of any use to make so minute a classification at present as there is in the Deaths Returns.

The tables have been framed according to the ages at which there is least likelihood of such error as would arise from ignorance. The age of an infant a month old leaves little room for doubt, and the age of a child of two years is within the easy recollection of the parents. The next period is that of puberty, which is, in this country, the age of marriage. Owing to the early betrothals the husband and wife in the large majority of instances are nearly of the same age, and the physiological change that takes place in the female about the age of forty-five is a guide to the age of both.

Of those enumerated, there were 17,644 persons under the age of two years, and 155,328 between two and fourteen years, or altogether 172,972 under the age of puberty. Between this period and the age of forty-five there were 526,523, and above this last age 117,067. Thus the constitution of the population in Bombay resembles that of a rapidly increasing new colony, where males in the prime of life are greatly in excess: it differs widely from that of European countries. The contrast between this place and England is here shown:—

Ages.		England at Census 1861. Per cent.	Bombay at Census 1864. Per cent.
Months	0 to 23.	5·6	2·16
"	45 and over.	19·2	14·34
		100.	100.

If the sexes be taken separately, the excess of males between fourteen and forty-five years is still more marked, while the proportion of females at that period of life differs less from what it is in European communities, and this probably arises from the females being less migratory.

It has been thought that the death rate of some community of known elements might be usefully applied as a test of the general accuracy of the present Census, and that of Glasgow has been selected, as there is in that city a population large enough for the purpose, and one which has been rapidly increased by immigration, and also because it has a high death rate. The result of this test is in the subjoined table, wherein is seen a very near approximation of the enumerated to the estimated population:—

In comparing the proportion that the enumerated children of both sexes under two years of age bears to the females of the procreative period of life in Bombay, with the proportion in England, a very wide difference is discovered. Among the temporary sojourners who yearly visit Bombay for trade or to obtain work there are many females, and it is to be looked for that those who have, or expect soon to have, infants to take care of, would not leave their country homes, and that the proportion of children to women present in Bombay would thus be kept low. And this supposition is supported by finding that among the Hindoos, who are most migratory, the ratio of children under two years of age to every hundred women from the nubile age to forty-five, is but 9·8, while among the more fixed races—the Parsees, Jews, and Indo-Europeans—the ratio is from fifteen and a half to sixteen. Even the latter ratio is greatly less than that in the last Returns in England, where it is stated to be as high as forty to a hundred women. On looking back to the British population Returns of 1841, the ratio is there found to have been but twenty-two and a half, so wide have been the results of enumeration even in England. In Bombay it was found, by the present enumeration, to be 10·7 to 100 females.

The Castes and Races have been grouped in the way followed in the Mortuary Registration. Had each sub-division of Hindoo caste been shown in the tables, the office labour and expense would have been greatly increased, and without any assurance that all had in the first place been correctly noted. The apparently insignificant Lingaet and Bhatia castes are shown distinct from the others, and by the side of the Brahmins, because these castes, along with the Jain, form the portion of the community that religiously refrains from eating flesh; and as this classification was introduced into the Mortuary Registration on scientific grounds it is desirable that it should be maintained in the Population Returns.

The Hindoos out of caste are called Untej, and are separated from the Hindoos of caste who do not object to eat flesh, such as the Shenvie, Koonbee, Panchkulse, Sonar, and many more. The Untej, or Hindoo out-caste, are the Mhar, Purwaree or Dher, and the Chambar, Moochee, Mhang, and Bhungee.

Most of the Negro Africans are Moosulman in religion, but in all other respects being very different from the other races of Mahomedans they have been separately tabulated. The designation Negro has been prefixed to the term African to distinguish them from those who are mere Colonists of Africa. The Christians have been subdivided into those of pure Asiatic origin, those of pure European origin, and those of mixed parentage.

The motley concourse on the island, although it is thrown into so close a juxtaposition, is widely separated in religious and social matters; nor will its various sections even eat together. The Christians alone are free from restraint in this respect. The Moosulmans of India have retained or acquired Hindoo caste ways, and except it be the few Arabs or Persians that are to be found here, they refuse to eat with any of another religion, even with those that have in reverence the "Kitab" or Bible. The Parsees also are assimilated in many of their ways to the Hindoos. Among the Hindoos, each sub-division of caste is separated from every other in eating and in marrying, and has its own traditions and rules. The population comprises those of the Boodhist religion or Jain, who have no personal god, those of the Brahminical who have many gods, of the Zoroastrian who have a Duality, of the Moosulman who have one god, and those of the Jewish and the Christian faiths.

The relative numbers in which the various elements of the population were enumerated, were the Bhoodhist or Jain 8,021, or about one in every hundred; the aggregate of those of the Brahminical creed 577,947, or nearly seventy-one in every hundred, or taking these separately, the Brahmuns 30,604 in number, were three and three quarters in the hundred; the Lingaet 1,598 and Bhatia 21,771, or together nearly, three in the hundred; the Out-Caste Hindoos were 32,434, or about four per cent.; the Moosulmans were 145,880, or nearly a sixth of the reported population; the Parsees 49,201 or six per cent.; the Christians three and three quarters per cent.; while in still smaller numbers follow the Jews, 2,872, or a third per cent.: the Negro-African 2,074, or a quarter per cent., and the Chinese who were counted 358.

The registered deaths give a different ratio from what is shown of the population in this table, and although the proportions may possibly be affected by a recent very greatly increased influx of Hindoos to meet the demand for labourers in the many extensive works that are being carried on, yet there is reason to conclude that the difference is in part due to reticence or concealment on the part of the householders. The deficiency is most marked in the Moosulmans, who from the Mortuary tables appeared to form nearly a quarter of the population, but who here bear the proportion of only 17·9 per cent.

LOCALITIES AND DENSITY OF THE POPULATION

There is not any very exact survey of Bombay in existence, but the surface of the united Islands is reckoned to be about 18·62 square miles, or a square mile to every 42,104 of the land population: were this to be equally distributed over the whole area, there is an acre to every 65·8 persons. The population is, however, very unequally distributed, and much of the land is unoccupied by buildings, being under cultivation, or laid out in salt-pans, or being hilly waste land.

The registration of the people was made according to the Divisions and Sections that are in use for Police purposes, and which have formed the Mortuary Registration districts during the last fifteen years. The sub-sections used by the Police, and now adopted, may be found convenient in the Death Registration. These sections and sub-sections may be considered as urban, suburban, and rural. Among the first is the Fort Section of the A Division, which has hitherto been isolated from the other urban portion, by its recently levelled ramparts and its esplanade, eight hundred yards wide; its inhabitants numbered 41,713 persons. The urban sections that form what is called the Native Town, are all those of B Division and those of C Division, excepting the sub-sections Phunuswaree, Gungaon, and Khetwaree, and they returned a population of 449,891 persons. The suburban sections are Colaba, with its 19,161 inhabitants, the Esplanade with 7,869, Phunuswaree 22,529, Girgaon 21,505, Khetwaree with 29,177, Chaoputee 6,184, Kamatheepoor 81,675, and Tarwaree with 9,462, inhabitants. Mazagon section with a population of 21,784, has in it a town of 10,078 inhabitants, or if the closely adjoining villages Naeghur of 3,724, and Mathurpakaree of 2,504 persons be counted with it, there will be a town population of 16,806. The rest of the island may be considered as rural, but there are many villages scattered over it, for instance the fishing villages of Seoree of 883 persons, and Wurlee of 4,375 persons, and the villages of Bhoewaree of 1,074, Matoonga with its pakaree of 1,625, Wudala of 1,789, Naegaon of 1,556, and Dharavee of 992 in the Seo Section; while Mahum, at the North-west end of the Island, is another little town.

The density of the population in some parts of the town is very great, and in the less populous sections of the Island, the inhabitants do not benefit as they might by the greater available space, but generally cluster together in closely packed villages. Were the enumerated population, exclusive of the 32,582 in the harbour, to be equally distributed over the whole surface of the Island, each of the 788,980 persons would have seventy-three and a half square yards on which to stand. In London each person has one hundred and fourteen and a half square yards.

The Fort, with its high houses and narrow lanes, has the look of a greatly overcrowded town, and in parts it is in reality so, but owing to the greater part of the buildings in its Southern sub-section being occupied as offices, shops, and warehouses, in which only the watchmen remain at night, and owing to the unbuilt ground in the Dock-yard, the Arsenal, and the Green being taken into account in the measurement of the area, those present on the night of the Census in the Southern portion had two hundred and eleven and three quarter square yards, while those in the Northern sub-section had but eleven and a half each.

The sections which are counted as strictly urban and as forming the Native Town, may be looked at apart from the others; they cover a surface of 606·60 acres, and afford an average of only six and a half square yards to each of then 449,891 inhabitants. The maximum area in these Sections is nine and a quarter, and the minimum is the very small average area of five and four-tenths square yards; this minimum is the mean extent of surface for each of the 135,661 persons on the 152 acres of Market Section and Dongree Sub-section of the B Division. The very great density of the population of part of Mandwee Subsection is not readily apparent, owing to the quays, which are unoccupied by dwellings, being included in the measurement of its area.

On searching the English Registration Returns, it is found that the most densely peopled of the localities in London have an area in square yards for each person as follows:—In Sub-district Berwick Street 11·4, in Sub-district Whitecross Street 10·8, East London 18·2, Sub-district Cripplegate 16·7, St Mary's in St. George in the East 16·5. The mean area in Liverpool is 39·9 square yards, or taking only the portions that are built on, each person in the year 1860 had seventeen square yards; twenty years ago there was a part of that town that gave to each only six square yards.

The population on shore formed 101,890 families, as reckoned by the Household-ers' schedules that were collected. The average number of persons in a family was 7·7, but as in many households the servants were accommodated in the outhouses of the premises, and in such cases their wives and children present were always included with themselves in the masters' lists, the number of families is understated. From the same circumstances, and from hospitals, boarding-schools, prisons, and regiments being dealt with as families, the mean number composing a family is somewhat exaggerated in the tables. The principal Public Institutions now alluded to were:—In Colaba, part of an European Regiment 480 strong with followers; the Lunatic Asylum, in which there were 155 male and 89 female patients and establishment. In the Fort the European General Hospital with 103 sick and establishment. On the Esplanade two Native Infantry Regiments, one 537, the other 948 strong, with their followers. In Oomburkharee Section the County Jail with 142 Criminal and 51 Civil prisoners and its establishment. In Dhobeetulao the Indo-British School and Orphanage with 94 boys and girls. In Khetwaree the Daood Sassoon Reformatory, containing 67 boys. In Chaoputtee the Free Church Native Female Orphanage and School with 52 children. In Tarwaree the Jeejeebhoy Hospital with 247 male and 52 female patients and its establishment, and the Roman Catholic Orphanage with 105 boys. In Kametheepoor Section the Benevolent Society's Dhurmsala with 166 male and 146 female paupers. The Education Society's School and Orphanage with 180 male and 184 female children and establishment; the House of Correction with 85 European and 115 Native prisoners and the establishment. At Mahim there was the Scottish Orphanage with 27 boys and 20 girls. The inhabited outhouses, huts, or sheds, of which the occupants were included in the Returns from the main buildings, amounted to 1,458.

The inhabited houses, exclusive of the above subsidiary buildings, were 24,206 in number; of these, 6,676 were thatched huts that were situated in the rural and suburban sections. Of the 17,530 tiled houses, sixty-two per cent. had upper stories and twenty-two per cent. had more than one upper floor. It is, of course, in the urban sections where the proportion of high houses is greatest, and there are many in these sections that have four or five floors, and a few that have still more. In the strictly urban sections there are no gardens, with the exception of those of six houses in Koombarwara, and the streets are narrow, both in an absolute sense, and relatively to the height of the houses.

In estimating the height of the front walls of the houses from the ground, if the legal minimum of two feet be allowed for the plinth and eight and a-half feet as the mean height of each floor, the mean height of the walls of the houses is about twenty-three feet. In some houses of the very poor, the rooms may be lower than what has been here assumed, while in the houses of the more substantial each floor is nine and a-half or ten feet high. The mean width of the streets is twenty-six and a-half feet, or but little greater in measurement than the height of the walls of the houses. The streets and lanes differ much in width, the range being from six to forty-nine feet; the differences in the various sub-sections are here given:—

	Mean Width of Streets.	Mean Estimated Height of side walls of Houses.
	Feet.	Feet.

There were reported to be 3·97, or nearly four families to each house, and if the inhabited outhouses be taken into account, there were 30·6 perrons to each house, and 18·3 to each floor.

OCCUPATIONS.

In most of the occupations it is practically impossible to separate the persons engaged solely in them from those of their families who give occasional aid, and it is considered better to continue the arrangement that is observed in the Mortuary Registration, and which shows, not the hands actually employed in the various occupations, but the numbers fed by the profits derived from them.

The occupations bringing a livelihood to the people are tabulated under seventy-seven heads. In a few the information is not so precise as was desired, owing to misapprehension on the part of the Enumerators; for instance, along with Military men all Government pensioners were included, instead of Military pensioners only; and with Plumbers, the Water and Gas-pipe layers have been mixed.

The occupations may be grouped and shown in the millesimal proportions they bear to the population as follows :—

It is supposed that at one time caste determined the occupation that a Hindoo was to follow. Now it has but a limited influence, and there are few castes of which the members will not engage in any occupation, and but few occupations in which persons of any caste will not seek a livelihood.

The Brahmun Caste is the one above all others in which strictness of rule is most likely to be observed, and it may very well be taken as an index of how much the Institutes of Menu and tradition are followed. Of the seventy-six occupations in the table, there are but eighteen in which Brahmuns were not found engaged, and of these there are five at least in which it is only a fortuitous occurrence that they were not so; such are those of Civil Engineer, Photographer, Grauparcher, Dyer, Umbrella dealer. The occupations in which they will not engage, are the supply of animal food, working in leather, basket-making, scavenging, and washing clothes. Of the 30,604 Brahmuns enumerated in Bombay, there were returned as Beggars and Paupers 10,370, or one-third of the whole, as Writers and Accountants 5,973, Priests 2,606, Schoolmasters and Teachers only 720, Merchants and Bankers 1,728, Domestic servants 1,795.

The 8,021 Jann gave 2,064 or a fourth as labourers, and 1,839 as Merchants. The 1,598 Lingaet returned 266 as labourers, the rest were found in smaller numbers following most of the other occupations. The 21,771 Bhatia had as Merchants and Bankers 5,552, or one-fourth of the whole, as Dealers or Workers in iron 2,389, Writers and Accountants 1,805; Domestic servants 1,799; Clothiers and Drapers 1,614; Cotton-workers or retailers 1,232. They and the Lingaet refuse some of the same occupations that are objected to by the Brahmuns.

Hindoos of Other Castes belonged to every occupation in the table, excepting that of Leechman, Priest, and Civil Engineer; and of those three, the application and breeding of leeches is alone objected to, that occupation being followed by Hindoos out-of-caste and Moosulmans. In the tabulation the designation priest has been taken in a too restricted sense, and those not Brahmuns who acted as priests in the lower castes, have been included with teachers. Of the 491,540 of these Hindoos of Caste, there were 153,386, or nearly a third who obtained a livelihood by labour; employed as domestic servants there were 27,232, as merchants 13,241, masons and quarry men 12,430, connected with cattle 12,289, cultivators and gardeners 11,371, gold and silver-smiths 10,670, occupied with horses 10,675, workers or dealers in iron 10,162, beggars and vagrants 6,917, or little more than one per cent., and 6,387 were independent.

Of the 32,434 Hindoo Out-castes, there were 12,410 Labourers, 4,938 workers in leather, 2,686 domestic servants, and 1,260 or nearly four per cent. beggars. Of the 145,880 Moosulmans there were occupied as labourers 18,129, or one-eighth; as maritime men 13,987, or nearly a tenth; domestic servants 9,968, beggars 8,055 or five and a half per cent., and independent 4,322. There is not an occupation in the table in which the Moosulman was not found engaged. Of the 2,074 Negro-Africans a large proportion was maritime. The 49,201 Parsees had 7,180 or about a seventh, employed as writers and accountants, 6,149 as merchants and bankers, 5,906 workers or dealers in wood, 5,332 as domestic servants, 3,580 as Priests, 3,117 were independent, and, to their great praise, not one beggar. The 2,872 Jews also had no beggars in their community, their chief occupations were working in wood and domestic service. The 19,903 Native Christians had of their number 3,026 cooks and 2,504 domestic servants. The 1,891 Indo-Europeans had engaged as domestic servants 221, as merchants 212, clothiers and drapers 210. Of the 8,415 Europeans, 2,906 were maritime men, and 1,258 were Military men, or pensioners. Of the 358 Chinese 62 were maritime men.

HARBOUR.

There were 32,582 persons enumerated on board the ships and boats in the Harbour, but that number does not include the whole maritime population as many sailors and boatmen slept on shore. The total number of maritime men with their wives and children returned at the Census was 40,584, and to this has to be added part of the 11,252 classed under "fisherman and fishmonger." The bulk of the harbour population was composed of Hindoos and Moosulmans, there being 53·6 per cent. of the former, and 34·5 of the latter; the Europeans were the only other race present that followed a seafaring life in any considerable number, and they were 8 per cent. of the whole.

From the Master Attendant's Office it is learnt that the vessels registered as belonging to Bombay on 31st December 1863 were—

	Number of Vessels.	Aggregate Tonnage.	Aggregate of Crews.
Square-rigged vessels, under Merchant Shipping Act of 1854-55	103	57,396	3,686
Square-rigged vessels and country craft under Act X. of 1841	140	19,934	4,055
Boats of above ten tons	3,153
Canoes or Samboos	1,812

Birthplaces have been noted according to the Collectories or the Native States comprehended in the Bombay Presidency, and in the case of those from beyond the Presidency limits, the locality has been less minutely indicated.

The population of Bombay is mostly made up of immigrants, there being but 174,039, that is two hundred and thirteen in every thousand, or little more than a fifth part, that was born in the island. There were 728,357 of the people, or 891·2 in every thousand born within the circuit of the Bombay Presidency; and of these there were 591,962 or 749·4 in the thousand born in British territory, and 136,395 in territory not British.

The Muratha-speaking Coast Collectories of Tanna or the Konkun and Rutnaherry were the birthplaces of 180,601, or 221·2 in a thousand. The Cannrese-speaking Canara, Dharwar, and Belgaum Collectories gave 13,425 persons, or 16·5 per mil., to the population. The Muratha-speaking Collectories of Sholapoor, Satara, Poona, Ahmednuggur, and Nasik gave 141,795, or 173·7 per mil., and Kandeish 8,975, or nearly eleven in a thousand. The Goozurathse-speaking Collectories of Surat, Broach, Kaira, and Ahmedabad were the birthplaces of 66,601; and 6,526 were born in Sind.

The territories not British, which were noted as birthplaces of the Bombay community, were the Murathse-speaking Malwan, which gave 29,061 persons, and the Portuguese dependencies, Goa, Demau, and Diu, from whence came 14,199. In the Dukhun the Muratha-speaking Kollhapoor gave 7,311, and there were 6,868 numbered as having been born in Malwa and Rajpootana. From the Baroda territory and the smaller States in Goozerat there were 14,809; from Katiewar 21,393; and from Kutch there came 42,754 of the enumerated population of Bombay.

From Bengal, Oudh, Hindostan, and the Punjab there were 24,165 immigrants, or 29·4 in every thousand, and from territories comprised within the Madras Presidency limits there were 13,467, or 16·5 in a thousand. There were 30,467 from the Dukhunse Hydrabad province.

The total number of those born in Indian territory amounted to 796,366, or 975·3 in every thousand. Of the rest of the people 2,022, were from Burmah, Singapore, Manila, and China; 30,379 were from Cashmere, Afghanistan, and Belochistan; from Persia there were 1,639, and from Arabia 6,041 persons. Africa was stated to have been the birth-place of 1,441, America of 86; and Europe of 51·24, or 6·3 in every thousand.

INSANE.

From the information in the Returns, there were present in Bombay 117 insane persons, exclusive of the 194 patients in the Lunatic Asylum. The total number was thus 811, but some of the patients in the Asylum having been brought from places beyond the island, on account of their malady, the proportion of insanes furnished by the population of Bombay cannot be estimated from the present data.

DUMB.

There were 96 persons reported as dumb, and of them there were forty-two Hindoos of caste, and six Out-caste, twenty-eight Moosulmans, and twenty Parsees. The proportion was one to every 8,505 of the total enumerated population. In Norway there was one in 1,200, in Prussia one in 1,334, in England one in 1,640, in France one in 1,671, in Bavaria one in 1,774, and in Holland one in 2,714 persons.

BLIND.

The blind were stated to be 543 in number, and to be distributed, among the various races, nearly in the ratio observed in the total population. There was one blind to every 1,503 persons, while in the United Kingdom at last Census there was one to every 994 of the inhabitants. From the Returns of other European countries, it is found that in Norway there was one blind to every 540 persons; in France one to every 988; in Holland one to 1,663; in Prussia one to 1,738; in Bavaria one to 1,986. In the United States of America there was one blind person to every 2,470 of the people. The Bombay number of blind probably gives a low ratio, because from street-begging being discouraged, it is not likely that the blind would leave their homes in their actual proportion, to come with other immigrants to Bombay.

LAME.

The lame in the various races were 475.

It was reported that there were two hundred and sixty mutilated males, of whom two hundred and five were Moosulmans, and fifty-five were Hindoos. It may be that many of these Moosulmans were thus dealt with before being brought to Bombay, but there is no room to doubt that this inhuman mutilation has, in the instance of the Hindoos, taken place where British rule or influence might be exercised, so as to deter from this crime and the iniquities connected with it.

SIXTEENTH MORTUARY REPORT

FOR THE YEAR BEGINNING 1ST FEBRUARY 1863.

THE mortality during the past year is the largest that has been recorded in Bombay, and nearly one-third in excess of the average of the previous ten years. The reported deaths after birth have been 19,747, to which being added 458 still-births, a total of 20,205 registered deaths is obtained. The excess of the first number, 19,747, over the mean of the last ten years, 15,280, is 29 per cent.

The total number of deaths from Cholera, 2,742, is about 50 per cent. in excess of the average.

Small-pox has been particularly fatal this year, having carried off 1,113 persons, nearly twice the average number, but much less than in 1858 and 1861, the majority, as usual, being children under four years of age. The disease lingered rather longer than usual, quite into the rainy season, and began to make head again immediately after the rains were over. Thus the deaths commenced with 51 in February, reached a maximum of 252 in April, were still in June 209, and after falling to a minimum of 9 in October, mounted again to 65 in January 1864.

The mortality from Measles was 492, or nearly twice the average; by the end of the year, however, the disease had almost disappeared. The total deaths from epidemic diseases were 4,847, against a ten years' average of 2,790.

Under Fever are returned 9,499 deaths, being the largest number ever before registered; this is 2,566 more than last year, and 2,370 in excess of the average.

Diseases of the Nervous System account for 674 deaths, or 63 above the average. Diseases of the Respiratory System caused 946 deaths, which is 244 less than the mean. Diseases of the Alimentary System 2,129 deaths, or 236 more than the mean; Cachexies and Debility 1,427. The total deaths, exclusive of those from epidemic diseases, were 15,400, being 1,454 more than the largest previously recorded, and 2,915 beyond the average.

The first month of the year, February, was not characterized by any unusual mortality, but in the following month the deaths at once rose much above the average, and remained so, with a tendency to further increase, to the end of the year. The ratios per cent. of the deaths in the several quarters of the year were as follows:

	Epidemic Disease.		Non-epidemic Diseases.		All Causes.
2nd "	34·6		23·9		26·3
3rd "	16·0	} 44·4	26·0	} 53·5	28·8	} 51·5
4th "	28·4		27·5		27·7

Here, although the number of deaths from epidemic diseases, Cholera, Small-pox and Measles, was so much greater in the first two quarters than in the last two, those from the non-epidemic diseases are so much in excess in the last quarters as to impress that excess upon the total mortality. The increase in the non-epidemic class is steady throughout the four quarters, this is exclusively due to Fever. The ratios per cent. of the deaths from this cause in the four quarters are 22·4, 23·2, 24·8 and 29·8. In the last month of the year the deaths from fever were the largest of all, viz. 1,140, or 12 per cent. of the mortality of the year from that cause.

If to the excess of the epidemic mortality above the mean, which is 1,557, we add that of fever 2,370, the sum 3,927 deducted from the total mortality of the year leaves 15,820, which is only 540 above the mean of ten years, to be distributed among all the other classes, which is hardly more than may fairly be attributed to the increase of population.

The mortality from epidemic diseases is subject to great fluctuations from year to year and from month to month, so that the increase in the deaths from these causes in the past year is nothing surprising. But the deaths registered under the head of Fever hitherto have been remarkably constant in number, not only in the several years, but from month to month. During all the previous ten years the highest number was 8,458, and the lowest 6,231, the first 1,329 or 18·7 per cent. above, the last only 894 or 14·4 per cent. below the average, and on inspecting the tables of former years no monthly fluctuation or progressive increase comparable to that of the last year will be observed. The inference is, that Fever (or the malady as classed under that head,) has during the past year assumed a form of greatly increased virulence. The increase too is yet progressing. So remarkable a deviation from the phenomena of previous years points to the existence of adverse hygienic influences hitherto unknown in the like degree, acting upon large masses of the population.

Now the great increase in the total mortality, and the notably augmented commercial and constructive activity consequent on the American war, render it almost a matter of certainty that the population has of late advanced with a rapidity outstripping that of former years. But on the other hand it must be acknowledged that the house accommodation, no less than the conservancy, scavenging and drainage, has not kept pace with the increase. The rise in the price of provisions and fuel has been absolutely alarming. The old relations of demand and supply in labour, food, and residence, have been overthrown, and time has not yet been given for the operation of those natural laws which may eventually bring them into more equitable adjustment. While a favoured few have profited enormously by the change, others, and it may be presumed, the bulk of the labouring classes, have been put to the severest straits. The extent to which they are now crowded together in the closely-built houses of the Native town, is fearful; nothing like it has probably been known in India before, nor anywhere out of China.

In all likelihood it is mainly to this latter evil, though assisted by the deficiency of good food, that the vast increase in the deaths from fever observed in the last year is due. Fever is peculiarly the disease generated by the foul air of crowded, uncleanly habitations, for the crowding necessarily augments in a compound ratio uncleanly habits and the evils that result therefrom. The prevalence of Fever has always been the peculiar feature of Bombay in its sanitary aspect, for in the more extended and expansible cities of Calcutta and Madras the proportion of deaths from this cause is singularly small as compared with those in Bombay, and the circumstances above-mentioned cannot but seriously augment its present fatality. I am told by those who have constant experience of the diseases which prevail among the Native population, that fever more nearly approaching to the type of the typhus of Europe than has ever before been seen in Bombay, is now very common.

The increase in the deaths from fever compared with the average of the previous ten years is most marked in the following districts:—Colaba, Market, Mandwee, Oomburkharee, Dhoobee-tulao, Bhooleshwur, Khara-tulao, Girgaon, Chaoputee, Mahaluxmee, Mazagaon, Kamateepoora. In the following districts they have diminished:—Fort, Esplanade, Tarwarree, Seoree, Seo, and Mahim. In Kamatheepoora the fever deaths are twice the average, and 74 per cent. above the highest previous number. In Oomburkharee, Kharatulao and Girgaon the increase is only a little less.

Besides Fever, the only non-epidemic class of diseases in which a remarkable increase has occurred is in "Cachexies and Debility." A progressive increase has taken place under that head, the deaths having been this year twice as numerous as in the beginning of the decade, and 40 per cent. above the average. The deaths recorded are chiefly those of infants a few days' or weeks' old, and the increase indicates either a larger number of births, or a higher death rate at the younger ages—it is difficult to say which.

It is sufficiently obvious from the figures in these tables that the state of the public health in this town is in the highest degree unsatisfactory. Causes fatally contributing to this result,—squalid filth within doors and without, deficient arrangements for scavenging and conservancy, and imperfect drainage,—have been amply exposed in the late Sanitary Report of Dr. Leith. But without at all disparaging the estimate formed of the evil effects on the public health of an atmosphere charged with the noxious effluvia arising from all these sources, it is unquestionable that these effects must be seriously enhanced by the low state of vitality of the mass of the population, caused by the difficulty of procuring sufficient and wholesome food, and especially by their breathing for ten or twelve hours out of the twenty-four the stifling atmosphere of their narrow and crowded chambers, loaded with animal exhalations.

The want of lodging for the labouring classes in London long ago engaged the attention of philanthropists, and the late lamented Prince Consort led the way in founding healthy, comfortable and cheap, but at the same time self-supporting, lodging-houses for labourers and artisans. The munificent donation of an American citizen, Mr. Peabody, to the City of London, has been mainly devoted to the same admirable purpose, the London Jews have combined to erect a fine range of buildings for their poor working brethren; and the noble efforts of Miss Burdett Coutts have also been turned in the same direction. Her magnificent, yet economically-built lodging-houses in the midst of the wretched and neglected district of Bethnal Green have already changed the face of the most dismal suburb, if suburb it can be called, of London, and will secure to her name for many an age to come the blessings of the much-enduring London labourer. To the philanthropic members of this community, whose stores have so lately been filled to overflowing by the misfortunes of our brethren beyond the Atlantic, no fitter thank-offering could be suggested than a work of the same kind. Hundreds, nay thousands of lives might be saved; and by tending to wean the lower classes from the dirty habits engendered by poverty and the mere struggle for existence, would establish among them a higher moral feeling and greater industrial energy.

There is, however, another and most serious cause of disease external to the town, to which allusion may be permitted.

Cholera is classed, and truly so, with the epidemic diseases, yet in one respect it differs remarkably from the other diseases so classed in the returns. Small-pox and measles are often almost, and at rare intervals quite extinct in Bombay; they recur however, though with very varying intensity, yet in order of time, with the utmost regularity at a particular period of the year, appearing in December, and disappearing or nearly so in June. The virus which causes them is evidently dormant in the rainy season, but awakens to renewed activity when the weather becomes more favourable. It is very different with cholera. Although, if a number of years are taken together, a certain periodicity in its prevalence can be made out, the mortality attaining a maximum about April, and a minimum about September, yet from year to year the utmost irregularity prevails. The disease, from finding here such favourable conditions for its existence, has become endemic; it is never altogether absent. While in this endemic condition not only does it attack fewer persons, but the attacks are comparatively manageable; but from time to time it bursts forth with extraordinary violence, as if it were quite a new disease, and the attacks are then both vastly more numerous and more fatal. It is of some importance to ascertain if this intensification of the morbid poison has its origin in Bombay, or is due to some influence imported from without.

Now in several former Mortuary Reports the commencement of an outbreak of cholera has been made an object of special inquiry, and its origin has been to some extent traced. In the report for 1849, it is shown that up to the month of August in that year cholera was all but extinct in Bombay, only 6 deaths having occurred in the first six months of that year. It suddenly appeared in the middle of August; in September 690 persons died, and by the end of the year it had destroyed 2,363. It was found that the disease had prevailed to some extent in the neighbourhood of Sholapoor in May of that year, but not enough to excite uneasiness. In the latter end of July or the beginning of August it began to spread with the utmost rapidity, and appeared simultaneously in the Conkan in villages far apart from each other, but all in the line of roads leading directly from the Deccan. In another week it had reached Bombay. It raged throughout the four following years, carrying off a maximum of 3,353 in 1854, after which the mortality gradually declined until in 1858 only 105 persons died.

In 1859 the deaths were again 2,265. The disease appeared about the second week in May in the Waee district of the Sattara Collectorate and about Bhor, and then slowly spread, travelling through the Concan to Bombay, where it appeared at the latter end of the month, and was so fully established in June that in that month 843 deaths occurred.

Cholera again slowly subsided. In 1861, during the first ten months there were only 160 deaths, but in the month of December it suddenly appeared and carried off 466 persons, and in the next month 625. In this case the spot where it originated in the town was pretty clearly ascertained. It commenced among the families of one of the native Regiments on the Esplanade and among a party which had just arrived from one of the large towns of the Deccan, where the disease was rife. After January 1862 it somewhat subsided, fluctuating about an average of 200 a month, and reached a minimum of 50 in February 1863. From that time the number of deaths slowly rose, until in June they were 161, then suddenly mounted in the next month, July, to 412, and afterwards again fell. In December the number of deaths had crept up to 319, and in January sprang up to a maximum of 622.

It may be noticed that these exacerbations of the disease in July and December nearly synchronize with the former outbursts—that of August in 1849, and that of December in 1861. Those were pretty clearly traced to the Deccan as their source. I have not at present the means of connecting the temporary increase of cholera in Bombay in the month of July 1863 with the Deccan, though from the facts stated below, it is in the highest degree probable that some such connection existed, but, that the great outbreak in December last was due to contagion imported thence, there can be no reasonable doubt. For days before the disease broke out here, it was notorious that the pilgrims returning from the fairs of Punderpoor and Alundee were dying by hundreds, and the introduction by them of the disease into the city of Poona was greatly dreaded. And not without reason. It soon appeared there, carrying off scores daily, and very shortly afterwards the rapid increase in the Cholera mortality in this town showed how quickly the contagion spread along the ordinary line of traffic.

The great religious fairs or jattras of Punderpoor and Alundee take place twice a year, in July and November. In the beginning of December there is also the much-frequented fair of Jejooree, and the more distant one of Savadatee in the Southern Maratha Country. They are supplemented by those of Trimbuk and Bheemashunker in the beginning of March. What concern these and similar jattras elsewhere have with the spread of cholera, may to some extent be seen from the following extracts.

To begin with a distant but notorious one, that of Juggenath, at Poorree in Orissa:—
 “The Cholera morbus has been unusually destructive this year (1844) in the City of Calcutta, nor has it yet subsided entirely. The pilgrims from that neighbourhood set out of the Rath festival and carried the seeds of the disease with them, spreading the infection all along the way. It made its appearance on the tract of the pilgrims in the town of Cuttack, early in June. Several were seen dead and sick under adjacent trees, or by the way side; affording an omen of what might be expected, when the whole mass of pilgrims should be condensed into one confined and dirty place, worn and weak with travelling, ill-clothed, ill-fed, suffering exposure, and breathing tainted air,—predisposed to receive and propagate the contagion of death. * * * * Near Cuttack, and along the road, we passed a good many dead pilgrims, and many more sick ones. The darkness of night cast a veil over the dying and the dead, but occasionally the light of our torches fell upon the victims, and for a moment exposed them to our view as we hastened along. As we advanced near to Puri, and the light of the morning uncovered the scene on either hand, we had a true and appalling picture of the progress the disease was making among the infatuated pilgrims. Still there were many more sick than dead intimating the commencement of the pestilence. Many of the sick had engaged dulis, and in these were making a push to reach the limits of the sacred Kshetra, few would be able to accomplish this, which accounts for the large accumulation of dead bodies within the first three miles from Puri. Many of the dulis were put down, and the bearers were watching, at a distance, till they could roll out the sufferers and decamp with their booty. Many also had evidently been so served. * * *

"June 14th.—We found many dead and dying pilgrims outside the Tax Office gate; they lay by four and five together on particular spots. In the town, also, we passed many cases—in one place four, in another six, and in another seven; besides single bodies in every direction. * * *

"15th.—The dead and expiring pilgrims were lying thick about the streets, by the sides and at the corners of the roads. Under one tree we counted seven, who have found their place there since the morning. * * *

"17th.—This morning we were out among the people. * * * Numbers of dead bodies, in different stages of decay, were scattered all over the deadly place. The sand was black with the ashes of innumerable funeral piles of the living and the dead. * * *

"The bones of pilgrims, bleached by the rains and the sun, were scattered widely in all directions, forming a strong contrast with the blackened sand of the horrid spot. The smoke of several funeral pyres was blowing over the scene, and conveyed the smell of roasted human flesh through the valley. The contents of a hundred thousand bodies, with the pestiferous stench from scores of decaying corpses, thickened the atmosphere with deadly vapours. The howling of the wild dogs and the screaming of the vultures, too full to move away from the spot;—all these causes combined, gave to the scene the appearance of horror, and made us feel that we were passing the pur-lueus of death. * * *

"—The whole mass appeared as if stricken with fear; and many cholera patients are carried out on dulis. They will be left generally in the first three miles of the town. Their bones, as well as those of many pale pilgrims, will be left by the road side, and mark the way to Jagannath's temple in Orissa for many a mile on the road.—Through mercy we reached home [Cuttack] in health and safety on the 20th. The mortality on the road from Puri to Cuttack almost defies description. The bodies lay thick for several miles on this side Puri; frequently several in the same place. The sick also and dying were numerous. * * * A lakh and a-half [150,000] of pilgrims is about the number which was present at this festival." (The Rev. C. Lacey, in Calcutta Christian Observer, 1844.)

The following from the Bombay Presidency:—

"We are well satisfied that, for the last eight or ten years, the prevalence of Cholera in this district [Ahmednuggur] can be traced almost universally to the pilgrimages made to Punderpoor. Whenever a pilgrimage occurs there, cholera almost invariably breaks out among the assembled crowds. People become frightened, and return with all speed to their respective villages; and in a few days, you will hear of the cholera in this village and in that, all over the district. Many pilgrims die on the road as they return to their homes; and when they stop for the night, the cholera is sure to commence immediately." (Dnyanodaya, August 1844.)

This from a truthful eye-witness:—

"I paid my annual visit to Punderpoor in November [1863]. Great multitudes from all parts of the country come at that season, sometimes from incredible distances, to the shrine of Vithoba. * * * In a flowing stream, in thousands, they pass on to the shrine from every direction; weary and worn they then encamp near the town, mostly in the bed of the river. Some have tents, some light cloth sheds, many nothing at all, to protect them. First comes a day of fasting, distinguished by eating either nothing or else unwholesome trash, and by shouting forth by day and by night, with clang of cymbals, and violent gesticulations up to the last ebb of strength, the names of Vithoba and his wife and their 'saants.' Add to this, that the whole atmosphere becomes frightfully tainted from the first, so that one cannot walk anywhere, far or near, without being sensible of the most sickening odours. Can it be wondered at that cholera is very often generated at the place? But the peculiar seed-plot where that pestilence first germinates remains to be described. It is believed that it is the very temple of Vithoba itself, a small stone room, with no aperture but a small door, into which perhaps 50,000 persons in the course of a few days force their way, and in the immediate neighbourhood of which, in the temple court, may be seen thousands of men and women sitting closely packed, waiting for their turn to enter. So polluted does the air of the temple become, that the vapour from the breath and bodies of the worshippers condenses on the image, thus giving rise to the idea that the god miraculously perspires. The Sub-Assistant Surgeon, now appointed by Government to Punderpoor, stated to me his belief that the disease, in its first origin, could usually be traced to that spot. * * *

"The day after I left Punderpoor, cholera in a bad form manifested itself among the pilgrims, but yet many did not die. The disease might have died out if it had not been cultivated. But the same pilgrims immediately resorted, as is their wont, to Alandi near Poona, and there it met with a favourable field in which to grow. The seed sown at Punderpoor reopened quickly and fearfully at Alandi; and the grain was then scattered broadcast over the length and breadth of the land by pilgrims on the way home. Poona was one of the first places to suffer, and a vast number died in it. The moment the returning pilgrims reached my field of labour [Sassoor], the disease appeared, and the people began to die. * * Every village almost had its sad tales to tell."—Notes by the Rev. Adam White, dated 28th January 1864.

Within a very few months from that date this good man fell a victim to the disease contracted in ministering to the necessities of the cholera-stricken inhabitants of Sassoor.

It can hardly be questioned then that of all the influences at work in this country in promoting the spread of cholera, none can bear the least comparison with these jattras. But for them in all probability cholera might die out here, as other prevalent epidemics not of an eruptive character have died out elsewhere, under improved sanitary conditions. But the jattras effectually prevent this desired consummation. While one epidemic visitation is slowly subsiding, and assuming a light sporadic form, the lingering seeds of the poison are nursed and intensified at the jattras, and, thus multiplied a thousand fold, they are dispersed over the whole country in all the lines of the pilgrims' travel. In a crowded populous city like Bombay the contagion finds but too congenial a home, and thus thousands of lives are sacrificed here to the superstitions of ignorant devotees hundreds of miles distant.

That the pilgrims should sacrifice their own lives may cause a certain amount of regret even from a purely economic point of view, but still the chief concern is so far their own; but that they should in their own fall carry to destruction a hundred times their number of victims, innocent of their own folly, and more valuable members of the community, is very grievous. The evil is not diminishing,—it is on the increase. The cheap postage and more rapid means of communication enable the interested proprietors of these temples to exert their efforts ad propagandam with greater success than ever. Circulars are issued by post to the patels of villages far and near (for communication to the people), specifying the times of the festivals, and extolling the fruits of the pilgrimage; and, from the increased facilities of travel, the distances from which the pilgrims come, and the fame of the temple which follows them to their homes, increase in an ever-widening circle.

It is sufficient to call attention to these facts, and to the connection they have with the generation and spread of cholera: it is not within the province of the reporter to suggest the remedy.

The deaths in Bombay in 1863 included 11,087 males and 8,660 females, being in the ratio of 128 males to 100 females. The excess of males is less than in the last two years but greater than the average. Of the still-born 288 were males and 170 females, or in the proportion of 170 males to 100 females. Of the whole 20,205, 13,697 bodies were buried, 5,549 burnt, and 959 had been devoured by carrion birds. 9,509 had been born in Bombay, 10,532 elsewhere, and the birth place of 169 was unknown. The families of 3,608 belonged to Bombay, of 16,428 to other places, and the country of 169 was unknown.

The written reports were 2,280, or 11·6 per cent. of the whole. Of these, 1,632 were given officially by medical and other officers of Government, including six from a French ship of war, 166 by graduates of the University and of the Grant College, and 11 by European medical men. Only one private European practitioner contributed written reports—five in number. It is proposed to introduce a more convenient mode of issuing the certificates of the cause of death, which may be expected to lead to greater regularity in their use.

The deaths by violence were 208 in number—145 males and 63 females. Of these 81 were drowned, 12 burnt or scalded to death, 28 were killed by falls from various heights, and 16 from injuries received from falling bodies; 9 only from horse and carriage accidents, including one from a street roller, 12 from railway accidents, 3 from drunkenness, and 16 from poisoning by arsenic, mercury, or opium; 4 from snake bite, 1 from the bite of an ass, and 2 from incised and 1 from gunshot wounds. The total number of violent deaths is large, but not greater than in 1861. Of the 81 deaths by drowning, the particulars of 47, or of more than half could not be ascertained. The total acknowledged suicides were only 13, viz. 7 by drowning and 2 by hanging, and 4 by poison. There were no deaths from machinery, which speaks well for the management of the extensive manufactories now at work in Bombay.

The year 1863 was rather wetter than the year before, but near the average. The rain-fall at Colaba was 77 inches, and at Byculla 80 inches, close to the average. The mean annual temperature was 79·5 or half a degree below the average; the dew-point 70·4, which is also a trifle below the mean.

THE NEW MEDICAL WARRANT.

THE following is the text of the New Medical Warrant, signed by Sir Charles Wood, and dated India Office, 7th November 1864 :—

Para. 2. In a Despatch, No. 82, dated 12th March 1862, the late Governor General in Council recommended the formation of an Amalgamated Medical Service for the united Army of Great Britain and India, and expressed his concurrence generally in a scheme for carrying out such a measure, embodied in a memorandum by Colonel Norman which accompanied that Despatch.

3. A very important feature in the working of that scheme was the unavoidable removal of Medical Officers from employment in India after a limited number of years' service in that country, whatever their employment might be.

4. I was apprehensive that this might be attended with serious inconvenience, but, after much and careful consideration of the subject, I resolved to submit the proposal with some slight modifications, for the concurrence of the Secretary of State for War.

5. I forward the correspondence which has taken place upon the subject, by which it will be perceived that Earl de Grey objects to the scheme mainly on the following grounds :—

I. That the employment of British Medical Officers for limited periods in civil situations in India would put a stop to the continuous military training secured under the present system of the Army Medical Department, and considered by him to be essential to the efficiency of the service; that officers so employed might acquire habits of independence inconsistent with a due performance of regimental duties, and would have to return to a regiment at an age when men in general do not easily bend themselves to the practice of subordination required from a regimental officer of inferior rank.

II. His time, it is stated, would have been spent in treating diseases different to a great extent from those of soldiers, and he would have acquired no experience, and have had no occasion to practise that most important part of his duty as an Army Medical Officer, the prevention of disease. He would, in short, not be the officer whom the existing organization of the Medical Department of the British Army contemplated, and whom it is the object of the costly and elaborate system recently established to provide for the Army.

III. Earl de Grey further objects, that "regimental duties with native troops are at present of a very different nature from those required in British regiments, and would not afford Medical Officers the training and experience which the new organization has rendered essential," and lastly, His Lordship observes, that if the amalgamation were once carried out on these principles, it would be extremely difficult, if not impossible to abandon them hereafter, whatever might be the result.

6. In my reply, I explained to Earl de Grey and Ripon my reasons for not being able to concur in the objections offered by His Lordship, but I felt satisfied that those objections had not been lightly entertained, and I felt that it would be useless to press a reconsideration of the subject.

7. It was further obvious from the correspondence that any plan involving the withdrawal for a time from their regular duty of the Officers of the Army Medical Department, would be liable to objection on similar grounds, and Her Majesty's Government directed their attention therefore to the possibility of providing for the future demands of the Government of India by the formation of Medical Staff Corps for each Presidency.

8. In order to obtain for the Medical Service in India the advantage of having its officers drawn from the same source, and having passed the same examination as those of the British Army, and with a view of placing them on a footing of perfect equality, by obliterating as much as possible all distinction between the bodies of officers so employed and those of the British Army, it was proposed to form the several Staff Corps by means of Medical Officers of Her Majesty's service volunteering to join them.

9. With this view, however, it became necessary to obtain the sanction of Parliament to the repeal of that part of the Act of the 16 & 17 Victoria Cap. 95 Section 37, which prescribes the manner in which Medical Officers shall be provided for employment under the Government of India.

10. Her Majesty's Government having failed to obtain the consent of Parliament to a measure proposed with this view, it became necessary to give up the scheme of a Medical Staff Corps, as proposed, and to revert again to the system of an entirely separate service, as heretofore.

11. The changes which have been recently made in the amount and composition of the Military force in India, the transfer of the whole of the European troops to the British Army, and the reduction of the Native force, render necessary a corresponding reduction in the establishment of Medical Officers serving under the local Governments as well as some change in the nature of their employment.

12. One of the objects aimed at in the contemplated union of the British and Indian Medical Service was the abolition of the double administrative Staff in India. This advantage would have been unattainable on the formation of Medical Staff Corps, and is equally so in the continuance of a separate service, as now proposed.

13. It is obvious that a single Medical Staff for all India is only compatible with one amalgamated Medical Service, and that the objections advanced by the Secretary of State for War, and which have proved fatal to the scheme of amalgamation, must apply with even greater force to any plan that would involve the indiscriminate employment of Officers from either service in the supervision of both.

14. The evils that have resulted up to the present time from the employment of a double Staff will, it is believed, disappear when the duties of the Officers of the two services shall have been entirely separated. The sole objection to such double Staff will then consist in its expense. This, I apprehend, will, on a re-adjustment of the local department of inspection, with a view of meeting the altered condition of the service, be found susceptible of considerable reduction.

15. Her Majesty's Government have therefore determined that the duties of the Medical Officers of the British Army serving in India shall, in future, be kept wholly distinct from those of the Medical Officers of the Indian establishment, and that there shall be a separate administrative establishment for each.

16. Under these circumstances, it will be necessary that the administrative establishments in the several Presidencies should be revised and the duties of the several Medical Officers of the higher grades re-distributed; and I request that you will take the subject into early consideration, with a view of determining the numbers of Inspectors General and Deputy Inspectors-General of each service that will be required to conduct the administrative duties of the respective services in each Presidency.

17. In my Despatch, No 152, I authorized your augmenting the number of officers above the rank of Assistant Surgeon.

In Bengal to	152
„ Madras to	86
„ Bombay to	69

leaving the aggregate establishment of Medical Officers in each Presidency the same as before.

18. That establishment is at present as follows:—

Bengal	425
Bombay	193

19. You were informed, in my Despatch No. 291, dated 8th August 1863, that the War Office would take measures for relieving, as soon as possible, the Assistant Surgeons of the Indian Army from the brigades of Artillery and new Line regiments, and the same course will hereafter be adopted as a necessary consequence of the transfer of those regiments to the British Army, in regard to the Surgeons. A reduction in the establishment of Medical Officers required for service in India will necessarily follow, and I request that the subject of the number likely to be required henceforward in the several Presidencies may receive your early consideration.

20. In making this calculation you will, of course, take into account the several situations which may be properly filled up by uncovenanted members of the Medical Profession.

21. It is believed that in consequence of all appointments to the local service having ceased during the last three years, the aggregate number of Medical Officers at present borne on the strength of several Presidencies will be, if anything, below the prospective wants of the service, but I shall make arrangements without delay for filling up vacancies as they may occur on your revised establishment.

22. The promotion of Assistant Surgeons who may hereafter enter the Indian Army will be regulated by length of service, and not, as heretofore, by succession to vacancies in a fixed establishment of officers of the higher grades.

23. Assistant Surgeons of 12 years' service from the date of first commission, (of which two years shall have been passed in charge of a Native regiment,) who shall have passed the prescribed examination in professional subjects will be promoted to the rank of Surgeon.

24. The benefit of this rule is to be extended to all Assistant Surgeons, now in the Indian Service, but officers now in the service who may be so promoted will be considered supernumeraries to the establishment of Surgeons as recently laid down, so that no promotion by seniority will take place until such supernumeraries are absorbed.

25. You will make the promotions consequent upon this concession from the date of receipt of this Despatch.

26. In the Despatch above referred to, I informed you that you were authorized to introduce certain changes in the mode of payment of Officers of the Medical Department serving in India, and you were informed that, pending a further communication upon the subject, Officers of the British or Indian Medical Service, holding Staff appointments, the salaries of which are consolidated, will continue to draw their salaries as at present; and all Officers of the Indian Medical Department in the receipt of Staff salaries, including such as are in medical charge of Native regiments, will continue to draw the aggregate amount of pay and Staff allowances they now receive, provided it be not less than the rate of pay laid down in the above table for Officers of their rank and standing in the service.

27. I have now to inform you that it has been determined that in future all employment on the part of Medical Officers of the Indian Service involving the receipt of special Staff salary shall be considered as Staff employment, the salaries being in all cases consolidated, and that all appointments whether Civil or Military, held in future by Officers of the present Indian Medical Service below the rank of Deputy Inspector-General, will be alike tenable by Surgeon-Majors, Surgeons, and Assistant Surgeons.

28. The salaries of the principal administrative and Military appointments are fixed at the following consolidated sums:—

Inspector General.....	Rs. 2,500	} Whether of the British or Indian Medical Service.
Deputy Inspector General.....	" 1,800
Surgeon-Major in charge of Native regiments.....	Rs. 1,000
Surgeon in charge of ditto.....	" 800	With Rs. 90 ditto.
Assistant Surgeon above 5 years' full pay service in charge of Native regiment.....	" 600	With Rs. 60 ditto.
Assist. Surgeon under 5 years' do.....	" 450	With Rs. 60 ditto.

But Officers now in the Indian service will receive the pay due to their rank as laid down in para. 10 of my Despatch, No. 152, of 16th May 1864, when such pay is in excess of the consolidated salaries above mentioned.

29. Officers who may hereafter be appointed to the Indian Medical Service will receive pay when unemployed in India according to the following scale:—

Rank.	Years' Service.	Unemployed Pay
		Rs.	As.	P.
Surgeon Major	25	888	12	0
Ditto	20	852	3	7
Ditto	12	640	14	6
Assistant Surgeon	10	410	9	5
Ditto	6	392	5	2
Ditto	Under 5	286	10	0

30. The salaries of other Medical appointments in the Civil and Military Departments will be revised with reference to the above, and fixed at a consolidated sum, and I request that a report may be made to me upon the subject with as little delay as possible. In the mean time, the aggregate sums at present received in each case will continue to be drawn.

31. With a view of promoting the efficiency of the service, it has been further determined that the tenure of office by a Deputy Inspector General of the Indian Service shall, as in the case of Inspectors-General, be limited to five years; officers being however, if not disqualified by age, eligible either for employment for a second tour of duty in the same grade, or for employment in the higher grade of Inspector-General by promotion thereto.

32. You will follow, in the cases of officers now holding the office of Deputy Inspector-General, the same course which your Government adopted in 1861, in regard to combatant Officers holding certain Staff appointments, and permit all such to hold their offices for two years longer, irrespective of the periods they may severally have served in them. Should any officer have served up to the present time less than five years, he will be allowed to complete a full period of seven years.

33. The rank of Inspector-General and Deputy Inspector-General conferred upon Officers of the Indian Medical Service under the Royal Warrant of the 13th January 1860, is to be considered as substantive rank.

These Officers, on vacating office at the expiration of the five years' tour of duty, will be permitted in future to draw respectively an unemployed salary of Rs. 1,200 per mensem in the former, and Rs. 900 in the latter case for a period of six months from the date of their vacating office, after which they will be placed while unemployed on the rate of pay laid down in my Despatch of the 16th May, 1864, for officers of corresponding rank in Europe. These sums, deducted from the consolidated salary, will regulate the moiety of Staff salary to be drawn by Officers of those grades during absence on sick certificate. The decision reported in the 3rd paragraph of your Letter No. 242 of 1864 will cease to operate from the date of publication of the present Despatch.

34. With a view to improving the position and prospects of Officers of the Indian Medical Service, it has been resolved to introduce prospectively the following revised pension rules.

35. Officers of the Indian Medical Service will be allowed to retire on the following scale of pension, on completion of the required periods of service:—

" 27 " " " "	456
" 24 " " " "	365
" 21 " " " "	292
" 17 " " " "	220

36. An Inspector-General, after five years' active employment in India in that grade, will be entitled to retire upon a pension of 350% per annum, in addition to that to which he may be entitled under the above scale.

37. A Deputy Inspector-General will, after five years' active employment in India in that grade, be entitled to retire upon pension of 250% per annum, in addition to the pension to which he may be entitled under the above scale.

38. In each of the above cases, six months' absence on medical certificate will be allowed to count towards actual service in those grades.

39. Officers now in the Indian Medical Service will, on retirement, have the option of pension according to the above rules, or according to those now in force.

40. My attention has been directed on this occasion to the rule regarding the qualification of an Assistant Surgeon for promotion to the rank of Surgeon required under Clause III. of the Royal Warrant, dated 13th January 1860. There can be no doubt this rule, which has been again brought to notice by a recent Despatch from your Government, requiring a service of two years in or with a regiment, bears very hardly on many Officers, the nature of whose employment precludes their showing the required qualification, and who, on entering the service, had no reason to suppose that such a regulation would be adopted.

41. These considerations have induced me to consent to exempt from the operation of the clause of the Royal Warrant all the Assistant Surgeons who entered the service prior to its date. It is to be understood, however, that the rule is to be strictly enforced in the case of all Medical Officers who entered the service after January 1860.

42. In my Despatch No. 152, of 16th May 1864, para. 7, I informed you that Her Majesty's Government had determined to modify the instructions given in my Despatches of 31st October 1860 and 30th September 1861, and to permit the period of service qualifying Surgeons for the rank of Surgeon Major, under that Warrant, to be calculated from date of first commission including all leave of absence of whatever kind.

43. I have now to inform you that the same principle is to be observed with respect to the grant of honorary rank on retirement, under the Clause 14 of the Royal Warrant, and that the 25 years' service qualifying for a step of honorary rank, the requirements of the clause in other respects being fulfilled, shall be inclusive of all leave of absence.

44. I have further to inform you, that it has been determined, as in the case of combatant Officers of the Indian Army to confer upon the Medical Officers of that service Royal Commissions in substitution for those which they now hold conferring rank in Her Majesty's Service in any part of the world. The Medical Officers of Her Majesty's Indian Service will not, however, be required to serve out of India, except with their own consent.

45. I have, lastly, to inform your Excellency that Assistant Surgeons appointed to Her Majesty's Indian Service in future will not be called upon to become subscribers to any Military or Medical Funds, and that Her Majesty's Government have determined to guarantee to present incumbents on, and subscribers to, the several Medical Funds the annuities and pensions to which they are, or to which they, their widows and children may become entitled from those Funds, according to the regulations now in force and at the present rates of subscription. But this guarantee must be regarded as conditional on the absolute transfer of the assets of the Fund to the Government, and must not be construed as conveying to any Fund, or to any member of it, benefits which are not actually provided for in the regulations as at present in force.

46. The widows and children of Medical Officers hereafter appointed to Her Majesty's Indian Service will be granted pensions not less than those to which they would be entitled under the provisions of the Royal Warrant of June 15th, 1855.

47. The above measures, which obviously tend greatly to improve the condition and prospects of the Medical Service in India, cannot be carried out, as your Government will at once perceive, without a heavy expense to the State. It is hoped, however, that the result will be at once to diffuse a spirit of satisfaction and contentment among the Officers now in the service, and to secure for the future a certain supply of Medical Officers of good social position, liberal education, and professional ability for Her Majesty's Service in India.

IMPORTANCE OF THE TEETH!

A perfect set of Teeth is indispensable to Nourishment, Health, Beauty and Voice.

As to Nourishment,

Because the Food must be thoroughly masticated to be perfectly distributed throughout the system.

As to Health,

Because of the mastication is imperfect, the food oppresses the organs of digestion; and if the Teeth are unsound they vitiate the normal secretions of the mouth.

As to Beauty,

Because imperfect Teeth disfigure the mouth, and also distort the regular outline of the face.

As to the Voice,

Because the tone and articulation are both damaged by the want of a complete set, and by misplaced or imperfect Teeth.

THE FUNCTIONS OF DENTAL SURGERY ARE:

Firstly.—To direct the proper growth of the Teeth in youth.

Secondly.—To arrest the progress of decay.

Thirdly.—To reinstate Teeth which have become wanting or imperfect.

EFFICIENCY OF ARTIFICIAL TEETH.

The inventions of Mr. A. GABRIEL have brought the practice of his profession to so high a degree of perfection, that partial or entire sets of Teeth can be promptly and perfectly adjusted, and in such manner as to be removed and replaced at pleasure; to be worn without the least inconvenience; to present the appearance of natural Teeth of great beauty; and to be incapable of any noxious effect upon the mouth.

Regulations of the Eighth Bombay Laudable Society.

AT A GENERAL MEETING OF THE SUBSCRIBERS TO THE SEVENTH BOMBAY LAUDABLE SOCIETY, held on the 24th instant, at the Office of the Secretaries, it was determined to establish an Eighth Society, in succession to the Seventh, which closes on the 31st instant.

The Eighth Bombay Laudable Society will commence on 1st January 1864, and the following Regulations are published for general information :—

REGULATIONS OF THE EIGHTH BOMBAY LAUDABLE SOCIETY.

ARTICLE 1st.—The object of this Association is to provide a Fund for the Insurance of Lives. This Fund is to be portioned into Shares, and an individual may subscribe for a certain number of shares, either on his or her own life, or on the life of any other individual. In the former case, the general estate of the deceased, or such persons as he or she may, by will or assignment, have appointed, shall benefit in the event of a lapse : in the latter, the person who may have subscribed on the life of the deceased shall benefit to the extent of the share subscribed for, unless in either case such shares be especially declared, at the time of subscription, to be for the benefit of any other person or persons, or be subsequently made over, according to the form hereafter prescribed, for the benefit of any other person or persons, in which case such person or persons shall be entitled to benefit in the event of a lapse, and no other.

2nd—In the case of a person subscribing on the life of another, the party subscribing, and not the party on whose life the subscription is made, shall be considered a Member of the Society, and have a voice in the management of its concerns. Copartners or other bodies of individuals may hold one or more shares jointly on any given life, either for their own benefit or for that of others ; but in such case the parties uniting in the subscription shall not be entitled each to a separate voice in the concerns of the Society, but must vote collectively, or by the deputation of one of their number, on all matters thereto relating.

3rd—The great principle of this Society is the equal division of its accumulated fund among the parties entitled to benefit by lapse of lives subscribed on according to the number or shares which those parties may respectively hold.

5th—Not more than four shares can be subscribed for on any one life, whether those shares be held by one or more individuals.

6th—Persons shall be at liberty to subscribe for half, quarter, or eighth shares, either on their own lives or on the lives of others, and in case of lapse, the estate of the deceased, or the parties for whose advantage the subscription is declared to be, or who may have become entitled to such advantages by will or assignment, shall benefit by the fund in a like fractional proportion.

7th.—The following are the Rates of Subscription, to be paid half-yearly on each share, half, quarter, and eighth share, according to the ages of the parties whose lives are subscribed on, at the time of admission into the Society, viz :—

8th.—All persons entering the Society between the 1st January and the 30th of June in the year 1864 shall pay, on admission, their half-year's subscription in advance, or for the remaining part thereof, computing the same from the date of their becoming Members until the 1st July 1864, and paying for any number of days less than a month one whole month's subscription. The subsequent half-yearly subscription shall be payable on the 1st July and 1st January in each year, commencing with the 1st July 1864.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

9th.—All persons who may be admitted into the Society subsequent to the 30th June 1864, shall, in the first place, pay their proportion of the current half-yearly subscriptions, to be calculated, agreeably to the above rule, from the first day of the month of their admission, until the next following period of payment; and in the second place, shall pay a Premium of admission, to be regulated agreeably to the following scale, viz :—

10th.—Five persons residing in Bombay shall be nominated Directors of the Eighth Laudable Society, whose business it shall be to superintend and control the management of the Funds, to examine the accounts, to decide on all applications for admission, and generally to transact the current business of the Society. The concurrent opinion of three of the five Directors shall be decisive on all matters relating to the concerns of the Society, not at variance with these fundamental Regulations, which can be altered only by a majority of the members residing in Bombay. No question, however, shall be proposed to the members at large without the concurrence of the whole of the Directors. In case of the death or removal from Bombay of any of the Directors, another or others shall be chosen by a majority of the members of the Society then residing in Bombay or by a majority of such members residing in Bombay as may attend at a general meeting to be convened for that purpose. The sum of Fifteen Hundred Rupees annually shall be set apart from the Funds of the Society for distribution among the Directors.

11th.—A meeting of the Directors of the Society shall be convened annually between the 1st of January and 30th April in each year, when a Statement of the Accounts of the Society (duly audited by an Auditor, who shall receive a remuneration of Rs. 100.) shall be laid before them by the Secretaries; and no account which shall once have been submitted to and passed by the Directors at such meeting, not less than three then attending, shall afterwards be called in question, unless for some special and manifest error, to the amount of Five Hundred Rupees or upwards.

12th.—In the election of Directors, as well as on all other questions relative to the concerns of the Society which may be proposed for the decision of the members at large, a member holding four shares on any one life shall be entitled to three votes, one holding three shares to two votes, and one holding any number of shares less than three to one vote only. Members holding shares on different lives, shall be entitled to the number of votes proportioned to the number of shares which they hold on each life.

13th.—Messrs. W. Nicol and Co. shall officiate as Secretaries and Treasurers to the Society, and shall charge a commission of five per cent. on all receipts of subscriptions, to be paid out of the funds of the Society, and they shall charge a fee of One Rupee on each Certificate of admission, and One Rupee for the Register of each assignment of shares, or reduction of interest.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

14th.—The Secretaries and Treasurers shall act, in all cases, according to the orders of the Directors.

15th.—All applications for admission into the Society from persons residing at any of the Queen's Settlements shall be made by letter to the Secretaries, and shall be accompanied by a Certificate of Health (signed by a Medical Gentleman in the Queen's Service a Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, or by a Medical Gentleman to the satisfaction of Directors), and by a Declaration made and signed by the individual on whose Life the shares are applied for; such Letter, Certificate, and Declarations to be according to the following forms, printed copies of which may be had on application to the Secretaries, viz :—

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient Servant,

This is to certify that, to the best of my knowledge and belief——is, at this date, free from any dangerous malady whatever, and that from my acquaintance with his constitution and general state of health for——, and also from the result of the inquiries which I have this day made of him in person, I consider him to be a good life.

Form of Declaration of Health.

I——do solemnly and sincerely declare, that I have this day presented myself for Medical examination to——, Surgeon; that I have truly and faithfully answered all questions put to me by him; that I have not wilfully or designedly concealed any circumstance relative to my health, habits, or constitution, and that I am unacquainted with the contents of the Sealed Report which he has made regarding my health to the Secretaries of the Eighth Bombay Laudable Society.

I further declare that I have not, since my infancy, been subject to fits, and that I have had the Small (or Cow) Pox; that my age does not, at this time, exceed—— years and —— months; that I have been about—— years, and no more, resident in India; that my present rank, occupation, or profession is that of——, and that my usual place of abode is——; and I make this solemn Declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “An Act to repeal an Act of the present Session of Parliament, intituled an Act for the more effectual abolition of Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in various departments of the State, and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof, and for the more entire suppression of voluntary and extrajudicial Oaths and Affidavits, and to make other provisions for the abolition of unnecessary Oaths.”

The above Declaration must be declared to before a Magistrate, or Notary Public, who shall attest the same by his countersignature, or, if the party be residing at a Station where there is no Magistrate, it may then be attested by the principal Civil or Military Officer of the Station. In case of an application for shares on the life of a Minor under Fourteen years of age, a Declaration to the same effect as above must be produced from the Parent, Guardian, or next of kin of the party, or the person under whose protection he or she may be residing.

16th.—All applications for admission, accompanied by the above prescribed forms of Certificate and Declaration, which may be transmitted to the Secretaries, shall be submitted by them to the Directors for their decision. And the Directors shall in all instances bear full liberty to reject any such application, without assigning any reason to the applicant for so doing.

17th.—In all cases, it shall rest with the Committee to judge whether, with reference to the circumstances of situation and distance, the interval which may have elapsed between the date of any Certificate and Declaration of Health, and the time of their presentment, be reasonable or otherwise, and to admit or reject such Certificate and Declaration accordingly. In no case, however, is the party subscribing to have any claim on the funds of the late Society in the event of life lapsing between the date of the certificate and the date on which the applicant may be admitted a Member, unless where the Directors may, at the instance of such applicant, have originally permitted the subscription to take effect from the date of the Certificate and Declaration of Health, which it shall at all times be in their discretion to do, on the arrears of subscription being paid up.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

In the event, however, of a person dying between the dates of his Certificate and Declaration of Health and his admission, and the Insurance on his life was not effected from the date of Certificate and Declaration, the amount of premium paid for such Insurance shall be refunded.

18th.—No subscription on any life shall be considered as entitling the party or parties concerned to benefit by the Society, until the life subscribed on shall have been approved by the Directors, the amount of the first subscription and premium of admission paid, and a Certificate of admission granted under the signature of the Secretaries, agreeably to the form annexed to these Regulations. And if any applicant shall omit to pay the amount of such subscription and premium of admission within two months after the life subscribed on shall have been approved by the Directors, such applicant shall forfeit his claim to be admitted, except on a fresh application, accompanied by a new Certificate and Declaration of Health.

19th.—All subscriptions (except the first, which is to be paid on admission) shall be paid within one month of the time at which they become due. If not paid within that time, a penalty of two per cent. on the amount of the instalment shall be added, and any Member who shall not have paid his subscription (together with the said penalty) within two months of the day on which his subscription shall have become due, shall be considered to have absolutely and entirely forfeited his share or shares.

20th.—Any Member shall be at liberty at any time to pay up his subscription for the whole unexpired period between the time of such payment and the close of the Society, or for any part thereof; and in the event of a lapse of the life subscribed on, such member or his representatives shall be entitled to receive back any part of the subscription money so paid up which would not have been due at the time of the lapse taking place, forfeiting, however, to the society all interest which may have intermediately accrued thereon.

21st.—No subsequent increase of shares on any life shall be allowed, except on fresh application, to be again approved of by the Directors, and accompanied by a Certificate and Declaration as above. The subscription on the additional shares to be according to the age of the party at the time of making the new application.

22nd.—Any Member desiring to transfer his interest in any share or shares which he may hold in the Society shall be at liberty to do so by an endorsement to be written on the original Certificate; which endorsement shall not be valid until the Certificate bearing the same shall have been produced to the Secretaries, and the transfer duly registered by them in a general book of registry to be kept in the office of the Society.

23rd.—As often as a sum exceeding Rupees Four Thousand shall be collected, it shall be laid out in the purchase of Government paper, Bank shares, or in Loans secured by a deposit of Government paper, to be granted under the control and authority of the Directors. it being clearly understood that in all cases of Loan the saleable value of the Deposit shall be more than sufficient to cover the sum lent. All public securities purchased for the Society shall be especially endorsed to two or more of the Directors, and the interest only shall be made payable to the Secretaries and Treasurers.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

24th.—The person or persons entitled to benefit by the lapse of a life in the Society shall, in making application to the Secretaries in writing, accompanied by such proof of the casualty as may be satisfactory to a majority of the Directors, receive instalments as follows :—At or after the expiration of the first year from the commencement of the Society, at the rate of One Thousand Rupees on each share ; at or after the expiration of the second year from the commencement of the Society, at the rate of One Thousand Rupees on each share ; at or after the expiration of the third year from the commencement of the Society, at the rate of Two Thousand Rupees on such share—which he or they may have held, or be entitled to on the lapsed life ; provided that in the opinion of the Directors, the state of the Funds of the Society will admit of so large payment being made. Should the Directors think, however, that the Funds will not allow of immediate payments of these amounts, then such sum or sums only shall be advanced as they may deem proper, and the balance of the prescribed advance or advances shall be paid so soon as the Directors shall be of opinion that the Funds will safely admit of it.

25th.—Arrears of subscription, or any other sum due to the Society by the holders of any share or shares on a lapsed life shall be deducted from the amount of the advance.

26th.—At the expiration of the Society on the 31st December 1868, it is proposed that a new Society, on a similar plan, but subject to such alterations as experience may suggest, shall be immediately instituted, into which Society all members then holding shares on unexpired Lives in the Eighth Laudable Society shall be at liberty to transfer those shares without any renewed Certificate of Health, in consideration of a sum of money to be paid to such new Society out of the Funds of the Eighth Laudable Society, and without taking into account any proportion of the advances previously paid by the Society on account of the lapsed Lives. To entitle members of the Eighth Laudable Society to transfer the shares held by them into the ensuing or Ninth Laudable Society, no regular form of application shall be necessary, but a Certificate of admission into the new Society shall be immediately issued to them on the simple payment of the usual half-year's subscription in advance ; subject, however, to the established penalty of two per cent. in the event of the payment being delayed beyond the term of one month from the commencement of the new Society, and to the entire forfeiture of the privilege of transfer (excepting on a new application to the Directors, accompanied by the regular Certificate of Health, &c.) if not made good within the second month from that period. The rates of subscription for members transferring their shares from the Eighth to the Ninth Laudable Society shall be according to the respective ages of the parties on whose Lives the shares are held on the 1st January 1869.

27th.—It is proposed to render the institution of the Laudable Society permanent, by establishing a new Society in succession to each Society as it expires.

28th.—Upon the transfer to the Ninth Laudable Society of any share or shares in the Eighth Laudable Society, which may stand assigned, by endorsement or otherwise, for the benefit of any other person or persons than the person or persons originally interested therein, or upon any subsequent transfer of any share or shares so assigned from the Ninth or any succeeding Society to the Society next ensuing, such share or shares shall continue in all respects subject to the lien of the Assignee, and shall be declared to stand for the benefit of such Assignee in the Certificate of Admission to be issued from the new Society.

29th.—Within one month and fifteen days after its termination, the Accounts of the Eighth Laudable Society shall be made up, and the balance of Funds actually on hand, after deducting for the new Society 12 per cent. on the amount of subscription received during the term of the Society, be divided by the number of shares held on lives subscribed upon in this Society which may have lapsed between its commencement and its close, and the parties entitled to benefit by such lapses shall each receive his or their proportion of the said funds according to the number of shares respectively held by them on the several lapsed lives, the holders of half, quarter, of eighth shares divided according to those fractional proportions. The sum of Rupees 10,000 shall be considered as the maximum payable on any one lapsed share, and any surplus shall be carried to the credit of the new Society.

30th.—With respect to any lapses of lives in this Society, which may not be ascertained on or prior to the 15th of February 1869 such lapses shall be at the risk of the next ensuing or Ninth Laudable Society, and the advances of Dividends to which the parties claiming to benefit by such lapses may be entitled shall be paid out of the funds, and agreeably to the Regulations of the said ensuing Society, on the lapses being ascertained; but it is hereby expressly provided, that notice of such lapses, accompanied by satisfactory proof of the same, must be given to the Secretaries of the Ninth Laudable Society within one year from the expiration of the Eighth Society on the 31st December 1868, and that in the event of the party or parties interested neglecting to prefer his or their claim on account of any such lapse within the period here prescribed, he or they shall entirely forfeit all right and title to any benefit whatever, by reason of such lapse from the funds of the Ninth or any succeeding Society.

31st.—In the event of the party insured proceeding on Field or War Service, an additional half-yearly subscription of Two hundred and Fifty Rupees per share shall be charged from the date of his departure, to continue until his return, the non-payment of which, in advance, will subject the holder to the forfeiture of his share.

32nd.—The following Gentlemen have this day been nominated Directors of the Eighth Laudable Society, viz:—

F. F. LIDDERDALE, Esq.,

J. P. LEITH, Esq.

GAVIN STEEL, Esq.

C. M. KEIR, Esq.

FRAMJEE NASSERWANJEE, Esq.

Any mis-statement in the Declaration of Health makes the Policy void as does suicide in cases when a person effects an Insurance on his own life (unless the Certificate be specially endorsed over for the benefit of a Creditor or Creditors, and duly registered,) but not so in case of Creditors effecting an insurance on the lives of their debtors.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Success of the Company.

In proof of this it may be mentioned that the Indian Branch alone has in less than Twelve years, Issued Policies, assuring nearly Five Millions Sterling.

Other Branches of the Company have been equally prosperous.

The New Business is now progressing at the rate of about £40,000, per annum in Premiums.

AMOUNT PAID IN CLAIMS.

THIS Company has since its establishment discharged Claims and Bonuses to the extent of upwards of one million two hundred thousand pounds sterling.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The Directors beg to call attention to the Rates of Premium for the whole Term of Life with Profits which are lower than those of other Offices, in some cases little more than two-thirds of what is charged. Thus Assurers on that scale secure an immediate and permanent advantage independently of further benefits derived from triennial divisions of Profits.

The Life Rates on the without Profit scale are also very moderate, and the Premiums for short Terms have recently been considerably reduced, and are now as low as is consistent with safety.

THE GENERAL ADVANTAGES

Are fully stated in the Prospectus, which with Forms and Instructions may be obtained of the Secretary at Bombay or at any of the Branches or Agencies; it may however be mentioned here that the rates of Premium will bear a favourable comparison with those of any other first-class Office—and are particularly favourable to Military men, that Lives assured through the Indian Branch are permitted to reside in any part of the world, except the West Coast of Africa so long as the original rate of Premium applicable to India is paid, and that premiums may be paid in one sum or in yearly, half yearly, quarterly, or monthly payments, and are immediately reduced to English rates on the arrival of the Assured in Europe.

NATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The Directors are now prepared to receive applications for assurance from Parsis of respectability, and to decide upon same at once without any reference to England.

A separate Prospectus in the Guzeratee language is published for this Department.

Applications are also received from Hindus and Mussulmans, and forwarded to the Head Office for consideration.

THE PROFITS OF THE COMPANY

Are divisible every three years, a proportion equal to four-fifths or Eighty per cent. of the whole profits being at the option of the Assured, payable in Cash, added to the Policy or applied in reduction of future premiums. The last Bonus investigation resulted in a cash appropriation of the sum of Fifty Thousand Pounds. The next will apply to "Participating" Policies in force on the 31st December 1864, and the result will be declared during the year 1865.

MEDICAL REFEREES ARE REMUNERATED WITH A GOLD MOHUR in every instance whether the Risk be accepted or declined.

Annuities, &c., granted on very favourable terms, and every description of Life Assurance Business transacted. Full particulars together with Forms of Proposal, last Reports and instructions to parties wishing to effect Assurance or to purchase Annuities or Endowments will be forwarded free to any part of India on application being made to the Secretary.

The marked success which has for nearly thirty years attended the operations of this Society, justifies the Directors in calling the attention of the Public to the following advantages held out to all classes desirous of effecting Assurances on Lives.

1st. The Insured in the Society have a most satisfactory guarantee for the settlement of claims in the large Capital of the Institution, not merely subscribed, but actually invested, amounting to Seventy-Seven Lakhs of Rupees, of which more than one-half is held by the Indian Branch, and immediately available, being an amount greatly in excess of the Capital of any similar Society in India.

2nd. Avoiding hazardous competition, the Directors of the Universal have adopted Tables of Premium constructed with the utmost care. The rates for India were originally prepared from the most comprehensive data, exclusively obtained by this Society from the records of the India House, and these rates have recently been carefully investigated by two of the most eminent actuaries in London (viz., Messrs. Peter Hardy and Charles Jellicoe), and the result, after a laborious enquiry, has established the fact, that the present Indian rates are as moderate, with reference to the risk incurred, as is consistent with perfect security to the Assured, and to a Society which returns to them three-fourths of its profits.

3rd. Assurances may be effected for whole Life either on a scale entitling the Assured to participate in the profits of the Society, or at a lower rate of premium, without such participation. Also for short periods from one to seven years, on very moderate terms.

4th. The profits are ascertained each year, and declared on the second Wednesday in May, when all those insured on the profit scale who have paid six Annual Premiums on their Policies, are entitled to participate therein.

5th. One-fifth of the ascertained profits of the five preceding years is divided between the policy-holders and Shareholders—three-fourths or seventy-five per cent. to the former, and one-fourth to the latter. The remaining four-fifths are set apart to enter into the average of the succeeding years, and thus to provide against unforeseen contingencies.

6th. The Assured have the option of appropriating their profits to the immediate reduction of their Premiums, or as a bonus to be added to the sum assured.

7th. The practice of an annual division of profits without partnership liability, "distributes the profits with more regularity and justice than any other." This beneficial system is in many respects preferable to triennial, or other modes of division, and the Directors feel satisfied that it only requires to be better known to secure a very large share of public patronage.

8th. The first division of profits took place in 1840, the annual reduction of premium has averaged $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.; a reduction of $47\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. was declared at the last Annual General Meeting on all Policies entitled to participate dated prior to the 9th May 1856.

9th. It is most important that all intending Assurers should consider well not only the rate of Premium primarily charged, but also the percentage of profits actually granted (annually by this Office) in reduction of such Premium.

10th. On return of an Insurer to Europe, either for a temporary or permanent residence and without reference to the state of health, subject, however, to written notice being given at the London Office, the premium is reduced to the English rate, corresponding with the age when the Assurance was originally effected and in the case of participating Policies the profits are allowed on the English rate of Premium, whereby Indian Assurers can continue their Policies in England on most favorable terms. When parties assured at the Indian rates, return to England, they are required to give notice in writing of their arrival, at the Office in London; and in no case will their Premiums be reduced to the English rates until they next fall due after the receipt of such written notice.

11th. Military Officers holding Civil appointments are allowed to subscribe at the Civil rate of Premium, on notice being given to the Agents of the Society.

12th. Premiums are payable either annually, half-yearly or quarterly, and on certain conditions monthly. A grace of one Calendar month is allowed for such payments, and claims are paid should death occur during such days of grace. Policies can be renewed within three months after the Premium has become due on proof of health and payment of fine, and within six months at the discretion of the Board.

13th. Policies for the whole Term of Life, which have been in force for the full period of three years, will be purchased by the Society, or loans granted thereon to the extent of two thirds of their estimated value.

14th. Medical referees are remunerated by the Society by a fee of Sixteen Rupees on proposal for Assurances not under Rs. 2,500; but for any less sum the fee to be settled by the applicant.

15th. At the period of the last Annual Valuation, the Assets of the Society were ascertained to be upwards of £770,000 The amount of Policies in force about £2,200,000, and the Annual Income upwards of £120,000.

Tables of Rates, Forms and Instructions for effecting Assurances, can be obtained on application to the Agents and Secretaries in Calcutta, or to Mr. A. W. Spence, Allahabad; Messrs. J. Stowell and Co., Agra; Messrs. Peake, Allen & Co., Simla, Lahore and Umballa; Mr. G. Ludlan, Meerut; Mr. W. H. Marshall, Delhi.

After the operation of nearly 30 years, the Directors feel entitled, with great confidence, to invite the attention of the Public to the marked success which has attended this Society, and the strong claims it possesses to the confidence and support of all classes desirous of effecting Assurance on Lives.

Combining the advantages of a mutual and proprietary Company, and without attempting a rash competition with other Offices, it has pursued a steady progressive course, affording all the benefits which, consistently with the security to Assurers and Assured, can possibly be given.

The Tables of Rates for India have been accurately calculated from the Records of the late East India Company, and are as moderate as is consistent with perfect security.

The total number of Policies issued from the commencement of the Society to the end of the year 1862 were 7,842 for £6,848,181 5 0

And the amount of claims paid during the same period was £1,250,834 7 0

The assets of the Society in England and India on the 1st

December, 1862 were £792,153 8 11

Of which there was held by the Indian Branch £442,940 5 10

At the declaration of profits on the 13th May 1863, a reduction of 47½ per Cent. on the Premiums entitled to participation was declared,—

So that the Annual Premium of an Individual insuring on the Profit Scale at the age of 30, in the sum of Rs. 10,000, would be at the Civil rate Rs. 480 0 0

Deduct 47½ per Cent. for Profit Rs. 228 0 0

Rs. 252 0 0

At the reduced English rate Rs. 246 0 8

Deduct 47½ per Cent. for Profit „ 116 13 11

Rs. 129 2 9

The Rates for short Terms are as low as those of any other Assurance Companies.

Medical Referees are remunerated by the Society by a Honorarium of Rs. 16 on proposals for Assurances above Rs. 2,500, whether accepted or not; but on all sums under that figure, the Applicant has to pay the Fee for the Medical Report.

Tables of Rates, Forms &c., may be had on application to the Local Director at Allahabad; Messrs. J. Stowell & Co., Agra; Messrs. Peake, Allen & Co., Simla, Lahore and Umballa; Mr. G. Ludlam, Meerut; Mr. W. H. Marshall, Delhi, or to PERCY M. DOVE, Manager and Secretary.

"ROYAL" INSURANCE COMPANY.

It is indispensably necessary that every Company which undertakes to realise the expectations of the public, should be able to provide by a specific sum, or by an Assurance, the means of subsistence to the Widow and the Orphan, should be able to show its undoubted Ability to perform these engagements. As simple evidence of the Standing and Position of the "ROYAL" Insurance Company, it may be stated that its

SUBSCRIBED CAPITAL IS TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

THE CAPITAL ACTUALLY PAID UP AND ACCUMULATED AMOUNTS TO UPWARDS OF EIGHT HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS.

It cannot be too strongly urged on the attention of the Assurer that SECURITY is the First Desideratum in all Insurance Transactions, and that his object is not attained unless the event or contingency against which he wishes to guard is provided for,—from the moment he has paid his Premium,—under all possible circumstances.

It is therefore manifest that the Capital of an Insurance Company should be sufficiently large to meet all possible demands, and that the amount should be distinctly stated, in order that the entire sufficiency to meet all claims may plainly appear.

REPORT by the AUDITORS to the Annual Meeting in August. 1861.

"We have, in reply to the summons of your Manager, inspected every Document connected with the Company. We have again passed under examination EVERY VOUCHER, EVERY DEED, and EVERY SECURITY. It is a matter of no light moment to go through "all these in the case of a Property representing something like £850,000, and we found "everything in the most perfect order, and entirely correct."

EXTRACTS FROM REPORT FOR YEAR 1860.

THE GENERAL PROGRESS OF THE COMPANY will be found to equal, if not to surpass, any expectation which could have been formed of it.

FIRE PREMIUMS for 1860 equal Total Fire Premiums for the Seven Years—1846 to 1853.

LIFE PREMIUMS for 1860 EXCEED the Entire Life Premiums for the Eight Years ending 1852.

PURCHASE OF ANNUITIES in 1860 LARGELY EXCEEDS the similar receipts for the first TEN YEARS—1846 to 1854.

INCREASE of FIRE INSURANCE DUTY in the Year 1860 over 1859.

As shown by a Return made to Parliament, and ordered by the House of Commons to be printed, 7th June, 1861.

The following Table exhibits the Increase of Duty paid to Government by the different Insurance Offices, and proves, on the authority of Public Documents, that the Royal Insurance Company is increasing its Fire Business far more rapidly than any other Insurance Office in Great Britain.

The above statement exhibits more clearly and on more conclusive authority than any other that could be produced the high estimation in which the "Royal" is held by the Public.

The Increase of the "ROYAL" is more than double that of any other Company, and more than 30 per cent. of the Entire Increase of all the London Offices combined. The Increase of the "Royal" is also more than 30 per cent. of the Entire Increase of the other 28 Country Offices combined.

GREAT FIRE IN LONDON, 22nd June, 1861.

Within three days of the announcement of the fire to this Office, measures were taken that the London Branch should be in possession of ample funds to meet every loss. Before the expiration of a week from the date of the fire, immediate payment was ordered to such of the claimants as were enabled to give a statement of their respective claims.

No new Fire Insurance Company hereafter to be established will meet even with partial encouragement if it have not a full sufficiency, not of Subscribed, but of Paid-up Capital. No prudent Capitalist will embark in such a new enterprise, and yet ignore the possibility that, until an ample Reserve Fund is collected which requires several years to accomplish, his investment, and it may be a large portion of his subscription, might at any moment be required to meet some unexpected loss of an equal or even greater magnitude than the recent one. The amount to the Credit of the Reserve and Profit and Loss Accounts of this Company would be sufficient to pay its Loss sustained by this hitherto unexampled calamity, were it thrice the amount it proves to be.

The ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY published late in the last year an account of the investigation into the Assets and Liabilities of its Life Department, under a novel form, and in as plain and intelligible a manner as the abstruseness of the subject admitted, together with the entire statements and valuations necessary for that purpose.

From the extensive Notices of this Pamphlet and its accompanying Diagrams, which have appeared in the Periodicals of the day, it has largely attracted the attention of vast numbers of persons in all parts of the United Kingdom, as well as in other parts of the World. A most satisfactory and conclusive evidence that such is the case, is afforded by the fact that the Sum Assured on New Policies in the six months to 3rd June of the year 1861 is actually 50 per cent. in excess of the Sum Assured in the corresponding months of the year 1860, although the latter amount in itself exceeded the Sum Assured in any like previous period of time.

THE EXTRAORDINARY SUCCESS OF THE COMPANY AND THE

PERFECT SECURITY its GREAT RESOURCES afford to INSURERS,
Have been commented upon by most of the leading Newspapers both in Great Britain and abroad.
The following are Abstracts of a few of these Notices.

THE "TIMES" MONEY ARTICLE

At the Annual Meeting of the Royal Insurance Company to-day, the Report for 1880 stated that Premiums in the Fire Department amounted to £262,977, showing an Increase of £34,663 over the preceding year, and of £66,829 over the Premiums for 1878, being an Increase of 34 per Cent. in Two Years. The transactions of the year in the Fire Branch give a Profit of £41,087. In the Life Department the Premiums for the year on New Policies amounted to £15,079, being an Increase of £1,993 over the former year.—August 3, 1881.

DAILY NEWS.—These Tables prove the experience of the Royal Insurance Company has been HIGHLY SATISFACTORY.—DECEMBER 20, 1880.

LEEDS MERCURY.—It will be seen how very much less the mortality of the Royal has been than the mortality for which the Office was prepared.—SEPTEMBER 6, 1880.

Atlas.—Of the Reserved Fund the Manager has every reason to be proud, as it enables him to make the fair boat that in three days after the overwhelming catastrophe adverted to (the Great Fire in London), the Royal was in a position to pay, and did pay, its claims on presentation, thus vindicating its well-earned reputation for promptitude and liberality in loss settlement. The value to the general and commercial community of such honourable and timely promptitude as the Royal Insurance Company displays to us, cannot be too strongly insisted on.—AUGUST 10, 1881.

Bristol Mercury and W. Counties Advertiser.—The increase in the new duty of the Company last year was more than that of any other Fire Office in the Kingdom, and equalled one-third the increase of all the London Offices put together.—AUGUST 10, 1881.

Edinburgh Evening News.—The Royal Insurance Company has in some essential respects distanced all its competitors.—AUGUST 10, 1881.

Glasgow Examiner.—If further proof is needed of the extraordinary resources of this Company, we may state that its London branch was provided with sufficient funds to meet every claim caused by the late terrible fire in London, without calling on the Shareholders, or trenching on its paid-up capital.—AUGUST 10, 1881.

Malta Guardian.—The report for the year 1880 was of a most gratifying nature, and most satisfactory to the shareholders.—AUGUST 10, 1881.

Liverpool Mail.—The Directors are fully justified in anticipating the time when the Company will be placed, with respect to the amount of its new business, at the head of all the Life Assurance institutions in this country. Nor has the progress of the Fire Branch been at all less remarkable.—AUGUST 4, 1881.

London Commercial Record.—The judicious expansion of the Reserve Fund has been attended with the happiest results. It has ever been our opinion that no Fire Insurance Company can long maintain its ground without having a large positive Capital available any moment for extraordinary contingencies, and this opinion is confirmed by the many failures that have taken place of public companies constituted on the unsound basis of a nominal capital.—AUGUST 9, 1881.

Manchester Examiner and Times.—In three days after the announcement of the fire, measures were taken to supply the London branch with ample funds to meet all calls that might be made upon them.—AUGUST 17, 1881.

Waterford Mail.—An accumulated fund of £800,000, and an annual revenue of £400,000 are features which might command confidence in any Insurance Company that could boast them, but they are not the best features in the character of the Royal Insurance Office.—AUGUST 13, 1881.

Thacker's Overland News.—Here we have the secret of the power and resources by which, in the case of this Company, it was enabled to liquidate at once its heavy quota of £75,000. This secret is simply the comprehensive prudence that in years of prosperity was not tempted to encourage a speculative growth of business by bait dividends and speculative bonuses, but held to the common sense of providing steadily from year to year a reserve fund, and one of such magnitude that we are not astonished to hear that, had the loss been three as great as it was, the Company could have met it without trenching on a farthing of their capital. In a business where security is the first and grand desideratum, this single fact is worth a volume of commentary.—AUGUST 10, 1881.

Calcutta Phoenix.—The Royal Insurance Company is one of the soundest and most secure means of effecting Life Assurance in the world.—DECEMBER 4, 1880.

Calcutta Englishman.—The Royal Insurance Company has been noticed by the leading London Journals in very favourable terms.

Indian Field.—We are of opinion that the methods adopted by the Royal Insurance have been devised upon sound principles, and the success of the Company, as attested by the increase of business, the diminution of expenses, and the falling (unexpected, according to ordinary assumed calculations) of the net estimate of claims, may be accounted for by the close adherence to those principles manifest in the proceedings of the Society.—DECEMBER 8, 1880.

Falmouth Post, Jamaica.—The Company is in a thriving condition.—AUGUST 1881.

Montreal Gazette.—The Royal Insurance Company is an instance of almost unparalleled success, we believe, of most deserved success. Last year it lost heavily in South America, this year still more heavily (to the extent of £70,000 to £75,000 sterling) in London. By prudent management it had accumulated funds to meet these heavy losses, and has met them with the utmost promptitude. This is the true test of a Company's stability.—AUGUST 22, 1881.

Montreal Herald.—The prudent and cautious management of the Directors has enabled them, after paying a handsome dividend, to increase the Reserve Fund to upwards of £200,000.—AUGUST 22, 1881.

Hamilton Daily Herald.—The Royal Insurance Company has distanced, in the increase of its business for the past year, all other Companies in the United Kingdom. Advice received by Mr. B. Illione, Manager of the Hamilton Branch, dated July 4th, states that the "Royal" had already commenced to pay losses incurred by the Great Fire in London, and that the Metropolitan Board was prepared, within four days of the catastrophe, to settle every claim the moment the amount was ascertained. Such promptitude cannot fail to be a most convincing proof of the great advantages to be derived from dealing with a company, whose ample means and high position enable them, without even the slightest temporary inconvenience, to grapple with a calamity almost unprecedented, in the present case payment will be made, without a moment's delay, of claims, the magnitude of which would be sufficient to embarrass weaker institutions, and, in some instances, to extinguish them altogether.—JULY 24, 1881.

Hamilton Times.—The advantages offered by this great Company cannot fail to be appreciated by all who take the trouble to make themselves familiar with them.—JANUARY 23, 1881.

Toronto Globe.—We hope that the business will as largely increase as the enterprise displayed richly merits.—MAY 29, 1881.

Canadian Freeman (Toronto).—The steadily increasing importance of the Royal makes it as one of the most reliable and safe Companies in which to insure against loss by fire.—AUGUST 8, 1881.

Toronto Leader.—The increase in the business of the Company is one of the best standards by which to judge of its popularity and soundness.—AUGUST 14, 1881.
